

Nehawka

John Farris, Earl Lancaster and Marion Warthan from Murray were attending the sale of Oscar Shrader on last Monday.

W. H. Kruger was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Thursday where he was looking after some business matters at the court house.

Glen Rutledge of the Nehawka Enterprise was a visitor in Nebraska City on last Monday where he was called to look after some business.

Sheriff E. W. Thingan was a visitor in Nehawka on last Friday and was looking after some official business while here and made many friends who he met while here.

C. M. Chrisweiser was a business visitor in Avoca on Monday of this week, he driving over to the neighboring city in his car, and on the way stopping to see his friend, Jerome Saint John on his way.

Messrs. Raymond and Alfred Hart of east of Weeping Water were over to Nehawka on Monday of this week where they were attending the sale of Oscar Shrader and also were visiting with Albert Anderson.

Mrs. Everett Lancaster, who conducted the eating house has been kept to her bed on account of an attack of the flu. She, however, has been showing some improvement during the past few days.

Miss Mildred Burton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton, has been visiting for some time at the home of her uncle, Guy Burton and family of Palmyra, where she has been enjoying a very pleasant time.

The Mark Burton family were enjoying on last Sunday a very pleasant visit when Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Gilman of Nebraska City were at their home for the day. Messdames Gilman and Burton being sisters, which added to the pleasure of the visit.

George Copenhagen, one of the genial drivers of the oil trucks for the Farmers Oil Company of Nehawka has been kept from his work and been compelled to take to his bed on account of a severe attack of the flu. He is however, getting along better at this time.

Mrs. Z. W. Shrader has been kept to her bed by a severe attack of the flu and considers it a hardship to have to relinquish the work which she so loves to do and go to bed. She says it is prison to be compelled to stay in bed. However, she is getting along very fairly. Her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Chrisweiser, who is a very able nurse, is caring for the mother.

Robert H. Chapman, who is one of the rural carriers making his daily trips out of Nehawka while he is a very patient and painstaking servant in the postal department, feels that some administration of political party should do something either by work or legislation or resolution to cause the roads to be made better, or give it up and let some other person do it.

Hans H. Stoll was enjoying a visit from two of his granddaughters on last Saturday night. The family of his son, W. A. Stoll, had been in town and as the roads were very bad, they concluded to remain until the coolness of the evening froze the mud some and the two granddaughters spent the evening with Grandfather Stoll and wife while the parents attended the show at the auditorium.

Home From the Pacific. On last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessell who have been at San Diego where they have been visiting for the past nearly two months with their daughter and family and where they went to enjoy the mild climate of the winter which the climate of Southern California boasts, and of visit with the daughter and where they have been enjoying the visit very much, arrived at Omaha on last Friday night where they remained over for a visit and came home on the afternoon train on last Saturday, well pleased to see old Nehawka and the folks here again. Mr. Wessell tells of the weather being very wet there and that during the period which they were there, there was precipitation to the amount of some 15 inches. The average rainfall during this time is 8.7 inches which makes a large amount more. However, they had a good time and enjoyed their stay on the shores of the Pacific very much.

To Omaha for Clinic. Mrs. John Opp was over to Omaha on last Monday where she went to see a specialist and to take a critical examination and was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Kelburg, and her brother, Mr. John Curtis, they driving over in the latter's car. The clinic was to ascertain in just how Mrs. Opp was progressing and in order that the physicians could treat her case the better.

Had a Good Sale. Oscar Shrader, who is to move this year and finding it difficult to secure a desirable farm, held his sale on last Monday, February 15th, and while the weather was far from being good, there was a fair crowd and the bidding was good and the property as well and with one of the very best of auctioneers, Col. Rex Young, the sale was one of the very best which has been held this year.

Visited In Omaha. On last Sunday Glen Rutledge and the kiddies and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rutledge, were over to Omaha where they visited for the day with the brother of Glen, Mr. Everett Rutledge and wife, and also with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mills. All enjoyed the time very much.

Uncle D. D. Adams Better. The many friends of Uncle D. D. Adams, and he has many, are all pleased that he is reported as being better. He has quite a bit to gain and as he is gaining with every day, he is feeling some stronger. Mr. Adams has always been used to going when he desired to go and when he has been compelled by his physician to keep to his bed and rest, he found it rather arduous but has adapted himself to the condition and is now making good progress.

Have Excellent Time. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Berger of near Nehawka entertained at their home on last Sunday when they had as their guests for the occasion the mother of Mr. Berger, Mrs. M. A. Berger of Ashland, who was the guest of honor. There were there also Messrs. and Mesdames Henry Ost, Fred W. Smith, Raymond Berger, as well as their little daughter, Bettie Anne Berger. A most pleasant time was had.

Obituary. Michael G. Kime, son of Alfred and Caroline Kime, was born January 15, 1851, in Atchison county, Missouri, and died suddenly February 3, 1932, at his home in Nehawka, being 81 years and 19 days of age at the time of his death.

In 1861 with his parents, he came to Nebraska City where he finished his education at the Academy at that place. Ten years later the family moved to the Kime homestead, south of Nehawka.

Shortly after locating here, he went to California, returning in 1895 at the time of his father's death, to take charge of the farm affairs.

Sunday, October 17, 1897, he was united in marriage to Katie L. Kirkpatrick, and to this union three sons were born, two of which live on the old home place, one having died in infancy.

Mr. Kime was affiliated with I. O. O. F. lodge, No. 214, and Rebekah lodge, No. 190, of Nehawka. He was always active in community affairs. He was a real neighbor, and an able politician and a loyal democrat, having served as a Representative in the Nebraska state legislature in 1915.

He was well informed on national and state affairs, so much so, that in 1920, he went to San Francisco to attend the National Democratic convention.

He leaves to mourn his death, his wife, one sister, Frona, two sons, George A. and Gilbert, and three grandchildren of Nehawka.

One niece, Mrs. Gladys Bartholomew of Rockport, Mo., one nephew, Alfred Schooler, of Oakland, California, and hosts of neighbors and friends.

The funeral services were held from the M. E. church at Nehawka, Friday afternoon, February 5th, Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union being in charge, who was a friend of many years standing. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Morey. The interment was at Mt. Pleasant cemetery, the I. O. O. F. being in charge at the grave. The church was filled with his neighbors and friends and flowers in abundance decked the casket and altar.

fore the receiver, telling all around to hush that she might be ready to catch his voice. In a few moments her face lit up—it was the familiar voice. He was singing in a foreign language, but that did not decrease her joy. Clapping her hands, she exclaimed, "That's my daddy! That's my daddy's voice!" Sometimes God speaks to us in words that we cannot understand, and there is no visible presence; but if we have the faith of little Frances, we can say joyfully, "That's My Father's Voice." If we live close to God we can hear His voice speaking to us at all times under all circumstances. Trust Him. He never fails.
