

Murray

Dr. G. L. Taylor was working in the neighborhood of Murray for two days this week, testing dairy cattle.

Frank Valley of Omaha was a visitor in Murray for the afternoon on last Monday and was looking after some business matters.

George E. Nickles of the Nickles Lumber company was having the Mrasek Transfer company unload a car of bridge plank on Monday of this week.

John Fisher, with the family, have moved to the Slocum place where they are getting settled and ready to begin farming as soon as there is any signs of spring.

Uncle L. H. Young who has been quite poorly for some time past and has been kept to his home bed for many months is reported as being slightly better at this time.

Mr. W. H. Rakes, living a number of miles east of Union, is reported as being quite ill at this time and while slightly better is just getting over the effects of a siege of the flu.

Uncle Ernest Ritcher, living in East Murray, is reported as being quite poorly at this time and it is hoped that he will soon be better as everything is being done for him.

James H. Browne of Omaha, accompanied by the good wife, were visiting in Murray for a time on last Monday and were as well looking after some business matters while here.

Don C. Rhoder has been quite ill for the past few weeks but is reported as being slightly improved at this time and with the very best of care it is hoped that he will soon be out again.

Charles Mutz of the Rock Creek service station was called to Weeping Water to look after some business matters on Monday of this week, he driving to the hub of the county in his car.

Sheriff Ed W. Thimman was in Murray on Monday afternoon and was looking after some legal business in the vicinity of Murray, and appointed a number of the citizens as appraisers of some lands near Murray.

Chester Shrader of Omaha accompanied by the wife, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles and with his grandmother, Mrs. Henry E. Long, as well.

Jarvis E. Lancaster was a visitor at all the towns in Cass county last week meeting the voters and passing out his cards announcing his candidacy for the position of sheriff on the democratic ticket. Jarvis met and made a host of friends.

Edward J. Boedecker and Otto Puls both shipped a car load of hogs to the Omaha market on last Sunday night, they being there for the Monday market. The porkers being hauled to the station by the Mrasek Truck and Transfer company.

Forest, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Greeley Bell has been very sick with pneumonia and still remains quite low altho he is slightly better. Everything is being done for the little man in the hopes that he will soon be in his former health again.

There is much work coming to the Murray blacksmith shop at this time, the time is getting shorter for the beginning of the spring work and all will now be wanting their work done at the same time and the good natured blacksmith is happy now at the tasks.

Earl M. Jardine, democratic candidate for the position of sheriff, and accompanied by his friend, Herman Gillon, both from near Greenwood, were visiting in Murray on last Monday and meeting the voters here and were passing out cards announcing the candidacy of Mr. Jardine.

Easter Sunday Services.
The Rev. Lloyd Shubert, pastor of the Christian church, will be here and will conduct the services at the church on Easter day. Remember there will be a prayer service at sunrise at the church. Be sure and be there and enjoy this service and all the services during the day, they being very significant.

Many Birthdays Come.
Clustering around this week end there will be a number of birthdays which will be appropriately celebrated. On Wednesday Charles E. Carroll passed his 73rd birthday anniversary and will be on hand with his but two less than six bits for the Bible school at the Christian church. Birthday anniversaries will be celebrated also by the following: Marjorie Long, Mrs. Eugenia DeLes Denier, and Miss Neva Lancaster.

That's One On Bill.
This is the title of a play which was placed on the boards by the members of the young peoples' Bible school class of the Christian church of Murray and which was given at the church on last Saturday and was attended by a large number of people and also received with much pleasure by all. The young folks made a very neat sum from the door receipts and all were pleased with the results of their efforts. They have been invited to give the play at the Auditorium at Nehawka, where they have a date made for this coming Saturday, March 26th.

Perch Assuming Shape.
Thomas Nelson who has been working on a perch at the residence just east of the cafe and confectionary, is getting the work well along and the new addition of this residence is greatly enhancing the edifice.

Improving Their Property.
The Ladies Aid of the Christian church are at this time making some very substantial improvements to their parsonage, by papering and painting the kitchen. They are some adepts in the art of papering and as fine in the line of painting and decorating and they are entirely refashioning the interior of the kitchen.

Improving the Home.
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt are having the interior of a portion of their home refinished and put in the very best of condition. The work is being done by Clarence Forbes of Plattsmouth, who is an accomplished decorator, painter and paper hanger.

Hold Interesting Meeting.
The Program Leaders of the Extension clubs in the vicinity of Murray were holding a most interesting meeting at the parlors of the Christian church on Monday afternoon of this week, and were enjoying a very good time as they besides doing the work which called them together, also were enjoying a very delightful social hour.

Four Loads of Hogs.
The Mrasek Transfer company were busy during the night on last Monday when they were delivering four loads of hogs to the South Omaha stock market, three for Everett Spangler and one for Herman Kuhns, to be there for the Tuesday market.

Henry Keil Some Better.
Henry Keil, brother of Phillip Keil, who makes his home at Huron, South Dakota, and who has been quite ill for some time at the Mayo Brothers hospital at Rochester, Minn., and where he underwent an operation, is reported as showing good improvement at this time. Phillip was over at the time of the operation and remained for a week, returning home last Sunday. Mrs. A. F. Seybert, a sister making her home at Plattsmouth, is still with the patient and will expect to return this week. Henry is getting along nicely now altho he was very critically ill for some time following the operation.

Those Easter Eggs.
The eggs for the shipment to the Childrens Home at Omaha which is in the hands of the Christian church ladies, both matrons and maids, will be received at the church on Easter Sunday and the shipment made the following day. Of course they will not get them on Easter at the home but they can use them at any time.

Study Club Meets.
The Murray Study club met on March 17th at the home of Mrs. Delbert Todd.

A very interesting lesson was given with Mrs. W. G. Boedecker as the leader. The topic was trees. Many worth while thoughts were brought to our attention of trees near to our homes that we had not really appreciated before.

Our hostess, assisted by Mrs. Bakke and Mrs. Chas. Boedecker, served very delicious refreshments that were enjoyed by all.

Our April meeting has been postponed from April 21 to April 28, and will be held at the home of Mrs. Latta.—Contributed.

Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. (Young people's meeting). Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:30. You are cordially invited to worship with us. J. C. STEWART, Pastor.

Antidry Forces Demanding Vote to Repeal Law

Beaten at One Turn in the Senate and Ready to Try a New Tack—Signed by 13 Republicans

Washington, — Senate anti-prohibitionists Tuesday served notice they would seek a vote on repeal or modification of the eighteenth amendment, and dry leaders confidently challenged them to proceed with their plans. Earlier Senator Blaine, Wisconsin, moved to strike from the justice department appropriation measure the $1 million dollar dry enforcement fund, and was defeated without record vote. Then Senator Tydings, Maryland, presented a petition signed by twenty-four members asking the Judiciary committee to submit to the senate for a vote one of the varied resolutions proposing repeal or modification of the eighteenth amendment.

The submission of a petition is unnecessary to bring a measure from committee for a vote. A motion may be entered any time, and a majority vote of the senate is all that is required.

Senator Borah suggested the anti-prohibitionists get together on some form of resolution before asking the senate to vote. Chairman Norris of the Judiciary committee told Tydings he was ready to take up the issue in the senate immediately by unanimous consent. Tydings said he wished the petition to lie on the table until March 20, at which time he would move to bring about a vote. Senator Bingham, Connecticut, circulated the petition on the republican side. Borah, a leader of the prohibition forces, suggested with a smile that the vote be had on April 1.

Blaine, who is chairman of the Judiciary committee sub-committee considering the repeal resolutions, is the author of one proposing modification of the eighteenth amendment. He said off the floor he hoped to have early hearings.

The petition asked the committee to report was signed by thirteen republicans, including Watson of Indiana, the party leader, and eleven democrats. The twenty-four is less than a third of the senate and two-thirds is necessary for adoption of a resolution for repeal. Senator Tydings told the senate there were at least half a dozen more ready to sign the petition who were not present, and he mentioned Senator Lewis, Illinois.

Blaine and Long of Louisiana led the fight against the prohibition enforcement fund.—State Journal.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, March 27 By L. Neitzel

Jesus Rises from the Dead

John 20:11-12.

The saddest of all lessons is the one we studied last Sunday. The gladdest lesson we have today. The lamb is slain; the blood is spilled; the demands of the law are satisfied; God is reconciled to man; the veil into the holy of holies is rent in twain; the way to the mercy seat is open; who-soever will may come and enter into his inheritance.

"It is finished," cried the Savior—and died.

Sadness fills the hearts of his followers. "We trusted that it had been he which should redeem Israel." (Luke 24:21). Fear filled their souls, they hid behind closed doors. (John 20:19). But the sequel to the tragedy on Calvary is at hand. Death cannot hold the Prince of Life. "The shepherd laid down his life for the sheep, that he might take it again." (John 10:17). The grave cannot hold him.

Easter morning dawned! An earthquake shakes the ground; the guards became as dead men, regaining consciousness later to flee from the scene and go and report what had happened. But they accept the bribe and tell a story that they themselves did not believe.

While there is no human being in the garden, Angels come and roll the stone away. Those ministering spirits have attended the Master before—after the temptation (Math. 4:11) and again in Gethsemane (Luke 22:43). "An angel appeared unto him and strengthened him." No mortal eye witnesses the resurrection of our Lord.

What a glorious Easter morning, "when the sun of righteousness arises with healing in his wings." (Mal. 4:2). The sun is just rising over Olivet when: "Up from the grave He arose, with a mighty triumph o'er His foes; He arose a victor from the dark domain, and He lives forever with His saints to reign. Hallelujah! Christ arose! Now we have a living Christ. How do we know? Let us call the witnesses:

1—Mary Magdalene, what have you to say? "I have seen the Lord." (John 20:18).

2—The Joanna group met with Jesus. "Rejoice ye," said Jesus, and they are commissioned to tell others. (Math. 28:10).

3—The two Emmaus disciples testify (Luke 24:34) "The Lord is risen indeed and hath appeared to Peter."

4—Two going from Jerusalem to Emmaus, about 7 1/2 miles, "encounter a stranger on the way. Arriving at home, they invite the stranger in, have supper prepared. Then they recognize Him in the way He blessed and broke bread. (Luke 24:35).

5—The eleven are gathered behind closed doors and discuss the strange happenings and reports of the day.

"Peace be unto you." What a surprise—Jesus stands in their midst, showing them His hands and side. "Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord." (John 20:20).

6—Thomas, you were doubting the testimony of the others, are you convinced? Hear him cry when he saw the Lord: "My Lord and my God."

7—Seven disciples go fishing. Bad luck pursues them. They spy a man on the shore, asking for something to eat. They had nothing to give. "Cast thy net to the right of the ship and ye shall find." John says to Peter, "It is the Lord." (John 21:7).

8—Eleven are ordered to go to Galilee to receive their commission: "Go ye—teach all nations, etc." from Math. 28:19.

9—Five hundred see Him at once. (1 Cor. 15:6).

10—Paul, what have you to say? "I know whom I have believed, because He has stood by me and cheered me up." "Be of good cheer, Paul, etc." from Acts 23:11.

All these are unimpeachable witnesses. See how the living Christ by His presence makes heroes of them. Peter converted three thousand in one day; Paul and Silas can sing at midnight in prison after receiving a scourging; no suffering or hardship can turn them from their work. "For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor Angel nor — shall be able to separate us from the love of God." (Rom. 8:28-29).

"I am he that liveth and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore." (Rev. 1:18).

The resurrection of Jesus is the foundation of our hope for eternal life. The resurrection chapter (1 Cor. 15) should be read by every student, especially verses 15 to 20. "Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, hath brought life and immortality to light." (II Tim. 1:10). This cardinal doctrine of Christian faith is second to none in value. Thousands have given their lives for it. Millions have rested and placed their future upon it. All the agencies for the betterment and relief of the human race are to be credited to a living Christ, who inspires men and women to go to the remotest parts of the earth, establishing schools, churches, hospitals and sanitariums, because "The love of Christ constrained them." (II Cor. 5:14). The world never thought of these things before, but men filled with the spirit of Christ, founded these agencies, and now they are emulated by worldly societies.

Now we are willing to rest our whole cause upon this one miracle. Christ appeals to it in proof of his claim, and so do we. For each of us, the resurrection of Christ is a proof—the only proof of our immortality. Our glorified Redeemer said: "I live, ye shall live also." (John 14:19).
