Pretty Home Wedding Held Here Sunday

Miss Roanna Meisinger Married to Mr. Gerald L. Cady at Home of Bride's Parents.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Meisinger, Jr., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when their youngest daughter, Miss Roanna was united in marriage to Mr. Gerald L. Cady of this city.

The wedding ceremony was performed in the parlors of the home which were arranged with decorations of the potted plants to add to the pleasant surroundings of the house.

The marriage lines were read by Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, the ring ceremony being used in the celebration of the marriage vows.

The bride and groom were attended by Miss Anna May Sandin as bridesmaid and Harvey Meisinger, brother of the bride as best man.

The bride was attractive in a gown of brown silk, trimmed with the shades of dull ivory, a picture hat of brown, flesh colored slippers and hosiery completing the costume. She wore a corsage of sweet peas, as did the bridesmaid, Miss Sandin. The gown of Miss Sandin was light blue silk.

The groom and best man wore dark business suits.

Following the ceremony a dainty wedding dinner was served by Mrs. C. H. Bailey, sister of the bride and Miss Ruth Shiffer, at which were present the members of the bridal party, the immediate family and Rev. and Mrs. McClusky.

The young people will continue

SOME MEN just won't learn that wood burns—especially when hot ashes are put into wooden boxes! Wouldn't they be very surprised to find a roaring fire in their cellar—outside of the one in the furnace—some day as a result of their carelessness? Are you taking a chance?

But in addition to precaution, you need sufficient sound Fire insurance thru—to make their home here for the present at the home of the bride's parents.

The many friends of the young people will join in their best wishes for the future years of happiness and success.
