Krueger and Victor Plunkett were looking after some business in Nebraska City on last Saturday, they driving down in their car. Business called Wm. Obernaulte to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where he was looking after some matters at the court house for a time. Melvin Sturm and the good wife were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where they were looking after some business matters for a short time. C. R. Troop of Plattsmouth was a visitor in the region north of Nehawka on last Saturday and was looking after some business matters at his farms. Miss Gladys Wolfe was a visitor in Omaha on Monday of this week, driving to the big city to secure supplies for her work in her beauty culture work. Edward Murray and the good wife were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where they were looking after some business as well as visiting with friends. J. H. Steffens and family, and Albert Anderson and family were over to Lorton on last Sunday where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens of that place. Fred Drueker and wife and their daughter, Miss Dorothy, and Terney Troop were visiting for the day on last Sunday at Nebraska City, they driving over in the car of Mr. Drueker. Fred Trunkenboltz and son, of Eagle, were here during the early portion of the week and were constructing the building at the filling station for the George Trunkenboltz company. Mrs. Silas Munn who has been in quite poor health for some time was taken late last week to the Saint Mary's hospital at Nebraska City where she has been receiving treatment and is under observation. James J. Pollard was delivering and starting a new farmall for Miller C. Christensen, who lives north of Nehawka and who is to employ the new machine in his farming operations this summer. Robert and Gertrude Burton, and Miss Crystal Lancaster were over to Murray on last Sunday where they went to visit with J. H. Burton, the grandfather of Robert and Gertrude, who has been quite ill for some time. Jerry Moss who was a resident of Nehawka for the past two years departed for Fremont last week where he went to accept a position with a road construction crew who are building roads in that vicinity. John G. Wunderlich and the good wife were over to Plattsmouth on last Sunday where they were guests for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Resenerans, and where all enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. Uncle L. H. Young, who has been very poorly for some time past, was some better last week but is not so well again this week. His daughter, Mrs. John Perry, is assisting in the care of the father and also with the work at home. Charles M. Christweiser was a visitor in Plattsmouth for the day on last Monday where he was looking after some business and also was accompanying James Campbell to the county seat, who had been visiting at the Christweiser home. Gerald Shrader, who is employed at Omaha, was a visitor at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Dill, and enjoying a visit with his mother who is also staying there for a short time. Gerald was also practicing with the Nehawka band while here last Saturday night. Lawrence Lancaster and the good wife were visiting in Omaha on last Saturday where they went to visit with their son, Roy, who has been in the University hospital for some time having underwent an operation and was so far improved that he was able to return home on last Sunday. He was brought home by Earl Lancaster and family of Murray. Uncle Peter Opp at Hospital Uncle Peter Opp who is now nearly eighty four years of age was taken to an hospital at Lincoln last week where he underwent a minor operation. He withstood it very nicely and is rallying since the ordeal. Moves to the Farm Charles Bates and the family last Saturday moved the farm north of Nehawka where they will farm for the summer and straighten out the matters there, as there is some building to do and also some repairs to be made. Farm Sale Caused Two Movings The farm where Guy Wiles has been residing was disposed of by the father, S. A. Wiles. Mr. S. A. Wiles at the same time making the purchase of what has been the property of W. B. Livingston near Plattsmouth. Mr. Livingston moved to a farm near Cedar Creek and Guy Wiles moving to near Plattsmouth. Of course that caused the other to move also. The Wheels Ran Wrong Two students of the Nehawka school who were taking a joy ride in a truck last Sunday allowed the machine to become unmanageable and which took the ditch and the clay bank, with the results that the glass in the truck was shattered and the boys shaken quite a bit. A short time from the transpiring of this episode, a Nash car went wrong on the highway southwest of Nehawka, and the fire which sprang up licked all burnable parts of the car, leaving only the blackened remains of the steel and iron. George W. Leach Better. George W. Leach, who is making his home with his sons, Harry and Beens Bee at Ariba Colorado, is reported as being some better at this time. His son E. E. Leach, went down last week and visited with the father and found his condition far more favorable. He is getting the best of care and all are hoping that he will soon be feeling much better. Returns From Retorial Work Miss Virginia Pollard who is a student of journalism at the state university, and who is completing her studies with the closing of this term, was assigned to Albion, where she spent two weeks reporting for the Albion Argus. It is required before the students shall graduate that they work on a paper for two weeks and submit copies of their work for a portion of the checking up by the faculty. Miss Virginia got along splendidly, the only difficulty was getting names over the telephone as the names were all strange and ones not common, and was an enigma as to how they were spelled, but she got along very nicely and enjoyed the work. Peter Johnson Very Poorly Peter Johnson, who was at the Saint Mary's hospital at Nebraska City for some time and returned to his home near Nehawka last week, is very poorly and every care and the best medical service is being given that the aged man may recover.
