Grease Eases Steering

Does your car steer like a truck— as though both front tires were flat? No need for it. Grease will make it steer like a baby buggy. Regular greasing will make it ride like a new car. Try it! We can do a quick job—thorough, too.

Abram's Generosity to Lot

Gen. 13:5-15. The Bible shows us man as he is. His true character is portrayed, be he saint or sinner. The context of our lesson shows us Abram when a famine visited this land of little rain, and few rivers and streams—how he, without consulting Jehovah, moved south into Egypt. This showed a lack of faith. But when in Egypt he realized and saw trouble for himself, yes, he even feared death on account of Sarah, who was a charming and beautiful woman—to save his life, we find in the record that he was the author of an abominable and cowardly lie. He induced Sarah, who was in reality his wife, to tell the people that she was his sister. God intervened and Abram came out of Egypt richer in earthly goods, but what a scar was left on his conscience.

As he returns from Egypt, locating at Bethel, more trouble looms up. The famine had left the country in bad shape for their herds. The herds had increased and there was not pasture for all. The herdsmen began to quarrel, each seeking the best for his herd. Abram and Lot talk matters over. History repeats itself, and in few respects more frequently than in the discord and wars caused by the pressure of increasing populations. A country becomes overcrowded and reaches out into the territory of its neighbors.

Comes the offer of peace. Abram might have told Lot to find himself another location, but in his generosity, he gives the younger man his choice. Members of the same family, neighbors, members of the same church—these certainly are brethren and disputes among them are peculiarly shameful. Lot goes on a tour of inspection; he looks to the east from the mountain east of Bethel. There unfolded to view is a wonderful panorama. He beholds the rich valley of the Jordan, and well watered, it is like "the Garden of Jehovah."

So he comes back to report to Abram that he had chosen all the plain of the Jordan. Abram had to be contented with the hill country. Did Lot make a good choice? Subsequent history proves that he made a sad mistake. In the first

There will be a benefit dance for the Lewistown band at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Gayer Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith of the Hanson Music store and Gerald Shrader of Omaha were visiting with friends in Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perry is spending some time with Mrs. Perry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Young. Mr. Young is not very well.

O. C. Leyda was a visitor in Plattsmouth for a short time on last Saturday and was looking after some business matters at the court house.

Wm. Sporer was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where he was called to look after some business matters for a short time at the court house.

W. L. Seybolt, who is patrol man for the roads leading out of Murray, was looking after some business and consulting with County Commissioner George L. Farley.

Uncle Simon G. Upton, of Union, was a business visitor in Murray on last Monday afternoon, meeting his many friends as well as looking after some business matters.

Uncle Charles H. Boedeker, who has been ill for some time, is showing much improvement but is still quite a ways from being in his former good health as yet.

Chas. Boedeker proved himself an excellent entertainer in the minstrel and in the rendition of the musical number "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" was a delight to his audience.

Fred Nutzman, of south of Nehawka, was a visitor in Murray for a short time on last Monday and was place he chose the "world first" and the kingdom of God second. First, he settled in the plain, then he crept a little nearer and pitched his tent "toward Sodom." Next time we hear of him, he is living in the city and is mixed up inextricably with the people of that wicked community.

The first false step leads on to connections unforeseen, from which the man would have shrunk in horror, if he had been told that he would make them. Once on the incline, time and gravity will settle how far down we go. This narrative affords a plain instance of the great truth that the sure way to lose the world as well as our own souls is to make it our first object. Who is not reminded of Psalm 1:1: "Blessed is the man that 'walketh' not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor 'standeth' in the way of sinners, nor 'sitteth' in the seat of the scornful."

Lot did not take into consideration the character of his neighbors. Verse 13 says: "But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the Lord exceedingly." Here he married a woman of Sodom and raised a family. Chapter 19 tells us of the end. He lost his possessions and his wife, and only saved his life.

We turn now to Abram. He had only the barren hill country left, but he had God. One day he has a visitor, Jehovah, who said: "Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward and southward and eastward and westward; for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed forever."

Abram chose the better part, God and his mercies. No one, in order to behold God's abounding mercies, need to remove from the place where he is. He may stand, as Abram stood, on a commanding elevation, or he may lie at the bottom of a pit, up to his shoulders in mud, like Joseph or Jeremiah, yet from that place, wherever it may be, he can get a glorious prospect of God's providence in all directions around him.

It is better to have a rocky farm, and God, than to have the valley of Sodom with God wanting. Have faith in God, he will take care of you!

visiting and conferring with W. G. Boedeker of the Murray State Bank. Harvey Gregg, the carpenter, and his co-partner, George Berger, were doing some altering and repairing at the Wilson elevator during the latter portion of last week and the fore part of this week.

Administrator O. A. Davis of the estate of the late Samuel Latta, and James Latta, his ward, were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where they were looking after some business in the county court.

The Mrasek Transfer company was hauling corn from the Hill elevator to the farm of C. R. Troop near Nehawka where the grain is being used in the Troop feed lots to put the finishing touches on a bunch of feeder cattle.

L. A. Webber is making some alterations at the store, which will permit him to use the back portion of the building as a residence and thus make him at home all the time and enable him to better look after the business.

Clause Moehn, of Omaha, was a visitor in Murray for a short time during the latter portion of last week, where he was looking after the repairing of some property which he has here and which J. A. Scotten and his crew of workmen are now doing.

Harry Nelson and the family were over to Nehawka last Sunday and were visiting while there at the home of the parents of Mrs. Nelson, Peter Johnson and wife, and were assisting in the care of the father of Mrs. Nelson, Peter Johnson, who is very ill at this time.

George Thompson, who is a member of the pig club and who is greatly interested in the work has some six sows, five of which have recently farrowed and which now have some twenty-five fine spotted Poland China pigs, all farrowing since March 5th, and all doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles and Mrs. Nickles' mother, Mrs. Henry C. Long, together with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shrader, grandson of Mrs. Long, who make their home in Omaha, were over to Shenandoah, where they visited for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kelsey, who are cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Nickles.

The Howard brothers as Amos and Andy in the minstrel sure kept the pep up, and Diab or Maranda, or what ever the name of the part played by Mrs. Brubacher, made it strong that the "foot that rocks the cradle rocks the world," and Grace Kennedy, playing the flapper-singer, the tall one, the small one, the fat one, etc., in real life admired the tall one.

Will Play Ball Again There was organized a baseball team one evening recently and they were able to get out on the diamond last Sunday afternoon, where they had a very fine practice game and which was greatly enjoyed. They will have a game for the coming Sunday at the Murray park and will provide a good game for all who come to see. Just who will be their opponents in the opening game is not known as yet, but you may rest assured that a good team will be booked.

Had a Fine Show Directed by Mrs. James Marsell, the young people of Murray organized, perfected and put over a very fine minstrel show, which was held in Murray on last Friday and Saturday nights. The play was mirth provoking and brought many a good hearty laugh, and also netted a neat sum for the merry crowd which put it on the boards.

Makes Purchase of Esoptry Lucean Carper, junior member of the Murray Hardware and Implement company, has just purchased what was formerly the residence property of T. J. Brendel, and which Mr. and Mrs. Carper will use for their home. The consideration was $2,000.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore to Return Dr. G. H. Gilmore, who has been at Long Beach, California, for the past six months, is to return and take charge of the practice from his office in Murray, and is expected to arrive late this week.

Enters Partnership at Falls City Dr. R. W. Tyson, who has been in Murray since the departure of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Gilmore, and their son, John Gilmore, for California, where the latter has been attending medical college, is to depart for Falls City, where he will enter into partnership with Dr. J. M. Greene. Dr. Tyson has enjoyed a very lucrative practice since coming to Murray six months ago and made many friends here who were pleased with his work and regret to see him depart. The connection offered him at Falls City was very enticing and, as he would have been hard to pass by, so he accepted, and his friends here are all wishing him the best of luck and continued success in his chosen profession in the southeast Nebraska town.

Still Remains Poorly Uncle Don C. Rhoden, who has been quite ill for some time past and who has made a gallant struggle with the disease and has held his own for many weeks, though not being able to get scarcely anything still remains in a very critical condition and every attention is being given both in the line of nursing and care as well as medical attention.

Home from the West Last year, M. G. Churchill and family, and John Frans and family departed for the Pacific coast and were residents of California for the winter, they making their home at Porterville, where it was expected that the weather would remain warm all winter. They arrived home last Sunday, after having been in the west for eight months. The cold weather that prevailed in that sunny southern climate, as frequently told of in daily press reports, they say was the coldest spell experienced there in more than thirty years and many oranges were frozen and the trees even killed by the cold weather. However, there was plenty of fruit there and the packers nightly hauled out on the prairie many truck loads of oranges and other fruit, which they dumped and threw away. Some of the oranges were small, others of irregular shape and many nice ones went into the discard that it seems could somehow have gotten into the hands of buyers at lower prices than are now being charged for this fruit, as they say, "due to the freeze and shortages in supply."

Presbyterian Church Notes. Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. (Young people's meeting). Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:30. You are cordially invited to worship with us. J. C. STEWART, Pastor.

Gets New Caterpillar County Commissioner George L. Farley, of the First Commissioner district, has made a trade whereby the county gets a new caterpillar for use on the division centering at Murray, and which is looked after by that price of roadmen, Will L. Seybolt. The old caterpillar has been traded in on the new one and the difference paid by the county, and thus the equipment for making better roads is kept up to a high state of efficiency, insuring against breakdowns and lost time.

Remember mother with an art postcard for Mother's day. It will be appreciated. Call at the Bate Book & Gift shop and look over their large line.

TEAR GAS TAMES CONVICTS

Camden, N. J.—Three convicts were subdued with tear gas when they tried to club their way to freedom from the county jail. The prisoners are Harry Schwartz and Michael Quinn, charged with carrying concealed weapons, and Pasty Costanzo, suspected burglar, all of Philadelphia. They crept up behind Walter Taylor, a turnkey, in the bullpen, felled him with sticks torn from a wooded bench and seized the keys. Taylor discharged a tear gas pistol, but received most of the effects himself. Running thru a corridor, they struck down Charles Bealer, a jailer, and Harry Bickmore, a trusty, but their cries attracted John Feitz, deputy warden. Feitz sounded the siren and then met the trio with a tear gas barrage as they reached the outer gate. At the same time policemen rushed in with drawn revolvers and overpowered the convicts.
