All present departed wishing Mrs. Leesley many more happy returns of the day.

Painted Cemetery Gate

As we passed the entrance to the beautiful Greenwood cemetery, we noticed the large gate and sign were neatly painted and looked very pretty and in keeping with the beautiful burying grounds to which the lane leads.

Burned Arm Very Badly

While Uncle Sam Aarons who keeps house for himself, was about his work at the home and was pouring some hot water from a kettle, it slipped and went over his arm with the shirt sleeve down and burned the arm very badly. With the proper treatment he has been applying, the arm is getting along very nicely, but is still plenty sore.

Surprised on Birthday

The friends of R. L. McDonald, on his 43rd birthday, which occurred on Monday of last week, May 2nd, came to his home in great numbers and with well filled baskets of good things to eat, made the evening most merry for this gentleman and his wife. They also provided entertainment in the way of games and after the evening had been spent in mirth and merry-making, they departed, extending the wish that it be his lot to receive many such happy surprises in the future.

Junior-Senior Banquet

The Junior class entertained the Senior class and faculty at a banquet given May 3rd at the M. E. church. The banquet room was decorated in purple and gold, the Senior class colors. The circus idea was carried out through the menu, toasts and decorations. The menu was: Clowns delight and chorus girls for the first course. Star dust, menagerie, sawdust, merry-go rounds, acrobatic salad and lemonade were served as the second course. The third course consisted of animal parade and fairy food.

U-nique Stunts—Virginia Newkirk
S-olong—Miss Holden
The mothers of the Junior class members prepared the food for the banquet and the Sophomore girls, Lucile Reece, Anna Nichols and Margaret Kelley, dressed as clowns, served.

WINS MUSIC CONTEST

The interfraternity music contest has been in progress at the University of Nebraska campus this week, the final result being that the Beta Theta Pi fraternity was the winner of the contest. This fraternity is that of which Edgar Wescott, Plattsmouth student, is president. Ed was also one of the members of his fraternity participating in the contest, which embraced a large number from the different fraternities of the state university. The honor is one that is keenly contested for each year and the Betas naturally feel well pleased over the outcome of the event.

The Beta Theta Pi fraternity has won this event in the past two years and with the winning this year's honors they are entitled to retain the silver loving cup which is the trophy of the contest. Mr. Wescott has served as the director of the fraternity in their group singing this season.

Don't overlook the SMASHING ECONOMY SALE going on at the Reliable 5c to $1.00 Store all this week.
