Alvo News

Simon Rehmeier was looking after some business matters in Omaha on Tuesday of last week.

R. M. Coatsman was hauling corn to near Millard for the feeders of that vicinity, from around Alvo on Tuesday of last week.

Ivan Barkhurst was over to Lincoln the Fourth, where he went to set the display of fireworks and also to visit with friends.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church of Alvo were gathered at the church last Wednesday and were looking after some business of the society.

E. M. Godwin, of Plattsmouth was visiting with his many friends in Alvo last Wednesday afternoon, and they were also looking after some business matters as well.

John Banning and the good wife, as well as the latter's sister, Miss Mamie O'Donnell, were visiting at Nebraska City the Fourth, and on their way stopped for a short call at Union.

Grever C. Rhoden, of Manley, the hustling salesman who covers the western portion of the county with the Rawleigh products, was looking after some business matters in Alvo on last Wednesday.

George Braun and wife, of South Bend, were visiting in Alvo last Wednesday and were hustling to get the work about the hotel done, which cannot be done by Mr. Yeager on account of his illness.

Fred Rueter's children and those of Dan Rueter were over to Wabash, where they went to pick gooseberries in the woods of Dan Rueter and found an abundance of the fruit which they secured.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barkhurst, accompanied by their daughters, the Misses Velma and Evelyn, went to Omaha, where they spent the Fourth visiting with friends and relatives and enjoying the nation's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ingverson and their son, Frank, of Wayne, were spending Sunday and the Fourth at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Coatsman, where all enjoyed the visit very much. They left for home Tuesday morning.

Last Wednesday R. M. Coatsman and son, Sterling, were grading the streets of Alvo and A. B. Stromer was also doing some volunteer work in getting the streets fixed up which passed his property and contributing his labor for the good of the cause.

Frank Warner, of Lincoln, was over to Gretna where his son, Harry is engaged in the shoe repairing business, and Harry returned to Lincoln with them. They came via Alvo and were joined by W. H. Warner, they all going to the home of Frank Warner, where they enjoyed a very fine visit.

John B. Skinner and wife departed on Friday, July 1st, for Fullerton, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ober, reside, and where they spent Sunday and also the Fourth, returning home Tuesday evening of last week. They enjoyed a splendid visit and a good time and report that the crops of all kinds there and on the way between there and here are the very best, and with plenty of rain to assure good yields. Everyone seems to be well pleased with prospects.

Alvo Enjoys Glorious Fourth
There were no blands, no ball games or auto races, neither did they have a rodeo, but they had a good time just the same. They do say that in the burlesque which was put on, John Elliott made a very elegant provost marshal and a royal entertainer with his wit and comic speeches and actions, and kept the crowd in the evening who were enjoying the firing of crackers and torpedoes, in good humor, and all who were in town on that eventful evening say an excellent time was had.

Getting Roads in Condition
The Osenkop Brothers, of Louisville and Wabash, have been resurfacing the roads from Alvo to the township line six miles north, and also from Alvo to the county line west, as well as from a point two miles west of town to the O street road at Eagle. This will put these highways in excellent condition for the coming winter for they will be well packed by that time.

Will Start Threshing Soon
W. H. Warner looking after the separator, and R. M. Coatsman furnishing the power with his tractor, are to make an excellent outfit which expects to get at the threshing in real earnest this week. The other threshing outfit, which is owned by Grover Hill and son. This outfit is

Alvo Camp Fire Girls Meet
The Camp Fire met at the home of Bessie Clifton, with ten girls present. The meeting was called to order by the president. The secretary's report was read and approved. Mary West was then elected yell leader. As there was no other business, we adjourned after which we were served a delightful lunch. Here is a song that Ruth Ann Ganz, a member of the camp, wrote: (Tune: "Old Folks at Home.") also well equipped and well manned and will make things move along in the proper channel in the threshing business.

Enjoyed Number of Visits
Simon Rehmeier and the family were over to Avoca, where they went to enjoy the celebration which is always held there a few days before the Fourth in order that all who care to can attend the celebration there and then go in for a real Fourth at some place of their choosing. They had the usual good crowd this year and a good time.

On Sunday the Rehmeiers went to Omaha, where they enjoyed a visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Christianson, and where they also had a very fine visit. And then, to top matters off they went over to the Shriner's playground east of Lincoln on the Fourth, where they enjoyed the day, and there the twins, Fred and Frank, took their pet goat and pet dog, which they put on exhibition at the pet show, drawing first prize for both.

Down in Ole Missouri
Uncle Henry Ough and daughter, Mrs. Clo O. Schaeffer, departed for Republic, Mo., where they are spending some two weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Farmer, Mesdames Schaeffer and Parmenter, who are both daughters of Uncle Henry Ough, being sisters, and which makes the visit the more enjoyable.

Picnicked in Bethany Park
A number of people from Alvo were over to Bethany park on last Monday, July 4th, taking their dinner and enjoying a very fine time picnicking in the park and partaking of a fine dinner there as well. There were there for the occasion the following families: Elmer Bennett, Dan Rueter and W. E. Fairfield.

Notice to the Public
I am a saleslady for products of the California Perfume Company and would appreciate your orders.—Mrs. Ruth Taylor, Alvo, Nebr. Telephone No. 1393. J11-law

Happy Workers Active
We met at the home of our leader this time. We had a demonstration on Meat Loaf by Mary West. We also discussed our lesson which was on Meat-Fish dinner, the requirements for this time being one meat dish, one fish dish and one dinner.

We are glad to say that almost all of the girls have the work nearly finished. The next meeting will be held at the home of our leader and the subject will be "Parties."

We welcome all visitors. We had four visitors this time, Mrs. Lewis and Leona, Mrs. West and Bobby. —News Reporter.

Fourth of July Celebration
Although it rained on the Fourth of July, two families gathered at the home of Charlie Reuleisz to enjoy a picnic supper in the house. Each family brought a covered dish and other goodies. After the supper they shot their many fireworks. Later they were given all the ice cream they wanted.

As this is an annual event it is always looked forward to with great anticipation.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer West and children, Mary, Jim and Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor and little niece and nephew, Ruby and Howard Taylor and Dorothy Mae Rehmeier, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Roy Goerthy and the family were enjoying a band concert at Weeping Water on last Thursday evening.

Ray Gamlin was hauling two loads of corn to Chalco, where he was delivering some to feeders at that place.

Miss Mary Tool and friend, Mr. Bradford were enjoying the rodeo which was held at Lincoln on the Fourth.

Fred Reichmann was combining and delivering wheat to the Farmers elevator, the first this year for this vicinity and elevator.

Oscar E. McDonald is painting and otherwise repairing the pool and billiard hall and putting the building in excellent condition.

Miss Grace Backemeyer was a visitor at home for over the Fourth and the week end accompanying it. Miss Grace is a nurse at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool were called to Omaha for the evening last Thursday, where they were looking after some business matters.

Miss Ione Stroy, who is a graduate nurse in the Lincoln General hospital, is spending some three weeks on a vacation visit with her parents.

Bryan McDonald was looking after some business matters in Lincoln on last Thursday afternoon, where he was obtaining goods for the store.

Mrs. Ruth Miller and three children of Red Oak, Iowa, arrived here Friday to visit Superintendent and Mrs. Johnson until after the Fourth.

Sunday morning the Laurence Race family drove to Auburn to remain until Tuesday morning, bringing Miss Margaret Folk home with them for a visit.

Guest Stock began the cutting of his oats on Wednesday of last week, he being the first one we have heard of in this vicinity to undertake this work.

Kenneth Tool and wife of Wahoo were enjoying a visit over the Fourth at the home of their parents as was also Richard, who is located at Kingsley, Iowa.

Mrs. J. J. Arnold and her sister, Mrs. Louis Neitzel, departed early last week for Cedar Bluffs, where they are spending the week with another sister, Mrs. J. J. Martin.

Rev. H. R. Knosp and family and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heineman were over to the river on the 4th, where they went bathing and fishing and later visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rikhl.

Gayle McDonald and family were enjoying a visit here on last Monday, the Fourth, and on their return were accompanied by Dorothy Mae Goerthy, who will visit there for the coming two weeks.

Miss Amanda Stroy, who has been nursing at Phoenix, Ariz., is home for a visit. The hospital where she has been working is to be converted into a public school, which is doing away with her position.

Little Aileen Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ward, is spending some time visiting her Aunt Verna (Mrs. George Clark) while the boys, Wayland and Russell, are with the Keady's at Beatrice.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were over to Johnson, where they formerly resided and enjoyed the visit there.

and also the Fourth, with their former friends. Eddie reports a very good crop of everything down that way.

Mrs. C. E. Blattspeller and the kiddies, of Tobias, were enjoying a visit in Murdock last Sunday, they being guests while here of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, who had just arrived at home from the northwest, where they had been for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McDonald were over to Rock Bluffs for the day last Monday, the Fourth, where they enjoyed the second annual home-coming of the former and present residents of that place. A very fine time was enjoyed by the large number in attendance.

The family of Rev. H. R. Knosp were enjoying a visit the first of last week from their friends, Fred Killenbaugh and sister, Miss Ella Killenbaugh, also Miss Luella and Bernice Allending, all of Huntley, were enjoying a visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Knosp, where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Many Enjoy Band Concert
The band concerts which have been a good drawing card for Saturday nights in Murdock, proved more popular than ever last week, for there was almost a record breaking crowd in town to enjoy the music and with the firing of firecrackers a very lively evening was had.

Hauling at the Graveling
John Woods, of Wabash, with two trunks and a force of workmen, has been hauling right along with the job of graveling the highway and is putting in some good licks on closing up the six mile gap yet to be surfaced. It will be a great convenience to have the gravel all spread and the road in shape to travel over any kind of weather.

Wide Awake Garden Club
The Wide Awake Garden club met at the home of Lacey McDonald on July 1st, at one o'clock. We read and discussed Lesson 5. Eleven members answered roll call and there were four absent. We decided to go on our fishing trip July 6th. Our next meeting will be held the first Monday in August at the home of Lacey McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Malcolm of Republican City, Nebraska, are here to spend a short time visiting with the many old time friends in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grassman of Alliance, Nebraska, are here to enjoy a visit for a short time with the relatives and old time friends in this city and vicinity.

Mrs. J. S. Livingston departed this afternoon for Denver where she will spend some time there with her mother and enjoying the cool and pleasant climate of the Colorado city.

WINS RECOGNITION

The American Legion Auxiliary of the state of Nebraska has been conducting a recipe contest, the members of the Auxiliary who secure three members for 1932 being eligible.

The announcement has just been made that Mrs. Elsie McClintock of this city has been awarded the first prize, her winning recipe being that for Glorified Peas marmalade.

Mrs. Don Seiver, president of the local unit, was also given honorable mention in the contest by the committee of judges.

The selection was made from many hundred entries that had been made by the members from all parts of the state.

In prior contests Mrs. Otto Keck was a prize winner as well as Mrs. Robert Will, so that the Plattsmouth Auxiliary ladies are ranking high as cooks. This is also borne out by the well fed appearance of the Legion members who are being served by the ladies.

Don't send your money away if you want to see real prosperity in Cass county. Plattsmouth is the logical "big town" shopping point for every resident of the county.
