Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mathes and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Waldart and families spent Monday evening at the A. E. Leesley home.

Mrs. Harry Leesley was called to Manley Thursday evening on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Mike Sheehan.

O. E. S. Kensington will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the Masonic Hall with Mrs. Earl Stradley and Mrs. W. I. Miller as hostesses.

Mrs. Vern Shepler, Mrs. Ben Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dyer and Orville Stevenson were guests of Mrs. Ruth Dyer on the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Parks and family were supper guests and spent the evening visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kelley on last Monday.

The King's Daughters Sunday school class was entertained Friday afternoon at the Christian church by Mrs. Charles Card, as hostess.

Mrs. Katie Woodruff returned home Saturday evening from Omaha, where she had visited her daughter, Mrs. George Shellberg, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sandee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sandee and daughter, Irene, were visitors at the John Vant home on last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hillis and son, Leo, spent the Fourth visiting at Cedar Hill, Wahoo and returning home by way of Linoma Deach and Ashland.

Mrs. E. A. Landon, Ella Marshall and Miss Catherine Coleman were over to Lincoln last Friday, where they were visiting with friends and doing some shopping.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. McFadden left Sunday for their home at Maywood, Ill., after having spent some two weeks here and at Clay Center visiting their relatives and friends.

Mrs. Joe Kyles, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace and family of Lincoln drove to Jennings, Kansas, on last Friday to visit with relatives over the Fourth. They returned home Tuesday.

E. L. McDonald, wife and son, Bertrand, and P. E. Clymer and wife were over to Lincoln to the rodeo, as were Ben Howard and wife, and they were enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leeper, who have been spending some time visiting at the D. S. Rogers home, left on Tuesday for Elk Creek for a further visit with her mother, Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. Evan Armstrong and Mrs. John Vant visited at the Oscar Olson home on last Wednesday. Mr. Olson is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Vant and has been very poorly with rheumatism.

Mr. Guild, who is in charge of the electrical signal and switch system of the Burlington at Greenwood, has been enjoying a visit from his son, Guy Guild and wife, for over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal McNurria and family of Stromsburg visited over the Fourth at the Ray McNurria home. Mr. Gus McNurria, Watson Howard and sons and Mrs. Myra Howard were also guests.

Mrs. Ella Marshall, who has been visiting in Greenwood for some time, went out to Polk, where she visited for a number of days with her sister, Mrs. Charles Dahlgren and husband, and where all enjoyed the visit very much.

H. W. Dollarhide, who has been working at the Wilkens barber shop for the past three or four months, returned to his home in Lincoln on last Sunday. Mrs. Wilkens will be at the shop again now.

Little Emory Mathews, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mathews, who has been so ill with threatened pleurisy and who had the tonsillitis, is reported as being much improved at this time.

Ed Barkey and wife, of Pender, where he is county treasurer of Thurston county, and who are close friends of W. G. Holt, of Greenwood, and Guy Griffin, of Plattsmouth, visited Mr. Holt and wife over the Fourth and you may be sure that all had a good time.

Mrs. Jennie LaRue and daughter, Miss Gladys, of Lincoln visited here on last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Myra Howard returned home with them and visited there until Wednesday afternoon when she went on to her daughter's, Mrs. Austin Finley and visited for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Foster and their daughter Rose came down Sunday evening to visit her mother, Mrs. Lulu Hurlbut, over the Fourth. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hartscock. They returned home Monday evening and Mrs. Hurlbut accompanied them home for a week's visit.

Mrs. O. P. Peters' Sunday school class had a picnic supper at the A. E. Leesley home on Tuesday evening in honor of Greta Wolzels' birthday and also for Daisy Hurlbut, who is leaving for Falls City. The evening was spent playing croquet and they also enjoyed a hike.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Holland, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Holland and Mrs. Earl Barley and baby Linda Bell drove up from Topeka, Kansas, on last Wednesday for the day and visited at the R. E. Mathews home. Mrs. Barley and baby remained for a longer visit. On Sunday Mr. Barley and son, Garrett, of Topeka, Kansas, drove up and visited until Tuesday morning, when they all returned home.

Shipped Car of New Wheat

E. A. Landon, manager of the Farmers Grain company of Greenwood, on last Thursday shipped the first car of new wheat which was grown on the farm of J. C. Lemon and which yielded 29 and 35 bushels to the acre. This was harvested by a combine and immediately marketed.

Home from West

G. W. Hill and wife, who have been spending a month in the west, returned home on Thursday of last week and report having had an excellent time while away. They found plenty of rain and on their trip out passed through about a mile of snow an inch deep. They report a good wheat crop, with corn fair.

Enjoyed Attending Convention

Col. Phil L. Hall and wife were spending the greater portion of last week at Kearney, where they were in attendance at the state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and as they were very intimately acquainted with many of the folks attending they sure enjoyed the visit from the start to the finish. They returned home on Thursday morning, well pleased with their week's vacation.

Burned Both Hands

D. H. Headley, having some trash to burn, made a bonfire in the yard, and as his son, Jack, age five, was curious, he pulled a piece of burning rubber from the fire which was blazing and melting and as he jerked it from the fire, some adhered to his hand and the other forearm and wrist, causing a very severe burn.

Out on the Prairie

That is the name of the tree picture show which is sponsored by the business men of Greenwood and to which a large and very much interested crowd looked and listened on last Thursday night at Greenwood. All are pleased at the good shows and the good crowds which have come to see them.

Earl and Ed Stradley

Earl and Ed Stradley, who have been in the west looking after getting their machines in readiness for the threshing season, have also been called upon to make repairs on other machines, and as they are experts in this kind of work, no wonder their services are in demand. They were expected home last week, but if they do not get to come soon they might as well remain for the threshing season, which will soon be on.

Great Vacation; Big Fish Feed

That tells the story in short meter, but here is a longer account. Dewey Headley, wife and son, Jack, left on Thursday, June 30th, for Atkinson, where they resided for two years while Dewey was managing a lumber yard there, and where their son was born. Finding business rather quiet just now, they secured some one to look after the business, and taking their trusty auto started for their old home town and there enjoyed a number of days visit with the former friends. On the Fourth they went to Meadville. Now a little explanation will be necessary. Meadville consists of a small store in which is located the postoffice and a house nearby in which the store owner and postmaster and his wife reside, located away up on the Niobrara river not far from the South Dakota line. Be that as it may, there was a ball game staged at this village of almost no population, and all the country turned out to see the game, about a thousand people, and a good game it was with no one disappointed in this respect.

There they fished and with excellent luck and were able to bring home with them a large quantity of very fine fish. On Tuesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Headley, who are both experts in the cooking line as well as caterers, served a very fine fish supper to their friends at their home in Greenwood. We were talking to a number who were in attendance and they say it was the best fish supper they ever had. There were there for the occasion, E. L. McDonald and wife and their son, Bertrand; L. C. Marvin, wife and their daughter, Helen, Geo. Trunkelbeil and family, E. H. Armstrong and wife, Henry Armstrong and wife, E. O. Miller and wife and his father, Goodhart Vant and wife.

Visit Old Home

Mrs. Elmer Nickerson of Papillion, and Mrs. Anna Fasse of Tucson, Arizona, cousins of Mrs. McDonald, were in attendance at the Rock Bluffs picnic on July 4th. Their father built the Naomi Institute in Rock Bluffs in the sixties, and conducted the school there for several years. A part of the building remaining there yet after the cyclone taking all of the second story of the building. It was quite an interesting place for these women to visit.

The Bergmann store has added to their stock a line of Wear-You-Well shoes, which have added much to the ability of this store to supply its customers with all their ordinary wants.

In the ball game last Sunday, Manley was winner over Waverly by a score of 2 to 0. It was a very good game. Yesterday Manley was to play Louisville, but we are unable to give the result.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Alberding, of Manhattan, Kansas, where Mr. Alberding is attending school, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Harms for over the week end and the Fourth.

Working on West Coast

A. B. Hill departed early last week for the west coast and will work in Washington, Oregon and California. Mrs. Hill drove him to Omaha in the auto to catch the western train.

Celebrate 15th Wedding Day

On Sunday, July 10th, was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bergman, the passing of their fifteenth wedding anniversary, which was solemnized on July 11th, 1917. A most pleasant time was had with their neighbors being present with them and sure good things to eat. The change of days, which put the celebration on Sunday instead of Monday was in order that those who desired to work were not inconvenienced. There were many very beautiful presents, tokens of the love and esteem of their friends, for this popular couple. Sincere congratulations and well wishes for a happy and prosperous future were also extended by the many friends.

Enjoyed Fourth at Grand Island

Fred Falischman and family and Charles Gade and family, the latter from Ashland, were spending last Sunday and the Fourth at Grand Island, where they were guests at the home of Charles Sinnard, Mrs. Sinnard and Mrs. Falischman being sisters. They surely enjoyed the visit there very much and especially the features of the seventy-fifth anniversary.

Betty Lou GOES SHOPPING

All the "trade-at-home" arguments in the world won't convince! But good stores, good merchandise, friendly service, and a square deal convince every time. You have these advantages in Plattsmouth and I hope you take full advantage of them.

Sincerely—

Betty Lou

AS I WAS PASSING the Oie Oil Company station the other day, a car shot past me and almost swept me off my feet. And just then one of the attendants dashed out to see if I had been hit, but when he saw that I was all right, he just laughed and said, "You have to be careful around here, for when we fill a tank with Parco Ethyl Gas you just can't hold 'em." I believe it! There certainly seems to be oceans of pep in that gas, judging from the way that car shot past me. Put gas like that in the old bus and it'll surprise you with its pick-up. Real service, too, at the Oie Oil Company station.

SUMMER TIME is also picnicking time—and if the picnic site is not too far away it is not impossible to take along a hot dish, or even two. A pan of creamed potatoes and a hot meat loaf may be taken from the oven just before the departure and will be found hot if packed carefully. In packing picnic lunches, be generous with the use of wax paper. Each article should be wrapped separately. A wire corn popper is a convenient utensil for broiling frankfurters at a picnic. They may be placed in this and held over the fire and shaken around as they brown. Mullen & Sons Grocery and Meat Market will be glad to supply ALL the good things to eat for your picnic—from "soup to nuts."

IF IT'S SOMETHING in the cold meat line you crave, you're sure to find just what you want at this popular market.

ARE YOU BOTHERED by sinking spells in the middle of the afternoon these days? The best thing in the world for that condition, so far as I can see, is a good old fashioned chocolate soda at the Mauzy Drug Store. I have tried their chocolate sodas made with their marvelous chocolate syrup and one will work like a charm. You try one and if it doesn't cure you're beyond all hope! The folks at home would appreciate your bringing home a brick of ice cream or ices. Mauzy's have a special neopolitan brick ice cream that's a favorite with everyone in Plattsmouth.

YOU CAN HAVE GAS to cook with—to heat your water—to light your house with—even if you live miles from a gas supply line. Skelgas is the answer! With Skelgas in your home, you can keep house with as much convenience as your city neighbors do, because Skelgas is a pure, highly refined natural gas that burns with a clear blue flame, does not blacken your pots and pans—and best of all is the convenience of Skelgas. Nothing to do but light it. Bestor & Swatek Co. Hardware Store are the agents for Skelgas in this territory. They have the complete equipment and you will be surprised for how little it can be installed—there's a very liberal partial payment plan. Ask Mr. Bestor or Mr. Swatek for a demonstration of how Skelgas will solve your cooking problems.

VACATION DAYS are here! And you will want your clothes to be all ready for wear when you start out on the vacation trip. At the Fred Lugsch Cleaning Shop they are busy as bees these days getting people's clothes ready for trips. You should see how they clean white silks and flannels—and hats. Summer-time requires clean clothes—and lots of them. Fred Lugsch will take the greatest care possible with pleats, colored dresses, loosely woven materials, etc. Just call 166 and their truck will be right over to get your garments.

THE WEATHER MAN played a terrible trick on the coal dealers last winter. But how do you know that he isn't going to play tricks on you this fall? You don't! He's such a deceitful being that you just have to be prepared for your own protection. By ordering your winter's supply of coal now, it's possible to save money. And don't you think that's worth while? I'm no economist, but you know what the famous Orient brand of coal is! Now the thing to do is to order early and by so doing receive the benefits of complete heat satisfaction this winter. The Hartford Coal Company is at your service.

"AN IDEAL PLACE to entertain," remarked a lady who was a guest at a luncheon party at Brown's Cafe and Dining Room. And that's just exactly what I had been thinking when I overheard her remark. Mr. Brown is a friend indeed when you're planning a dinner party or luncheon—or in fact any kind of entertainment where refreshments are served and space required. The next time you're entertaining, talk to Mr. Brown about it. Brown's Cafe and Dining Room is the perfect solution for the problem of entertaining—especially so during the summer months.

THIS IS A SEASON of white clothes—and naturally white dresses call for white shoes—which is one of the reasons the Petzer Shoe Company is showing those delightful and charming slippers in all white, and in white with contrasting color trims. Right here in our own city of Plattsmouth you'll find the season's most popular shoe styles—sandal effects, ties and oxfords and the ever popular opera pump. When you wear their shoes, people are going to say, "Where did you get those good looking shoes?" And you can proudly say, "At the Petzer Shoe Company."

FOR THE PAST few months mesh hosiery has been growing bigger and better in popularity. First, there appeared a small conservative mesh, very neat—and gradually the idea has blossomed until now we have all variety of "openwork" hosiery from to choose. And—there's no prediction where the trend will lead—except that people like it more and more. The H. M. Soren-nichsen Department Store has beautiful hosiery—the Allen-A Hosiery. They are showing medium sized mesh, and their lace designs are lovely and distinct. Too, the lace and mesh effects, which are surprisingly durable, have not entirely supplanted the sheer wispy chiffons and dependable service weights which are also shown in a profusion of shades at Soren-nichsen's.

"VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF LIFE" as somebody of importance once remarked. Certainly you'll find diversification enough in merchandise to make your shopping interesting at Knorr's Popular Variety Store. I like variety stores! You can usually make your purchases all in one stop. At Knorr's Popular Variety Store they're having a nine-cent sale—Oh, just everything imaginable will have a 9c mark on it. And, of course, that's your opportunity to shop for many of those household wares that you've been needing. Mr. Knorr must have had a grand time shopping for things to show you people in Plattsmouth. You shop at Knorr's during the Nine-Cent Sale and you'll have a grand time, too.

BE YOURSELF—but be sure that it's your best self—with charms enhanced by the wonderful beauty work done by the Etta Belle Beauty Shoppe. This skill that leads so many Plattsmouth ladies to this shop with its restful atmosphere and the competent service of the operator-owner Etta Nickles. You will like especially the "Secret" line of toilettries—marvelous beauty preparations for every type of skin. These summer days when we're out of doors so much, our complexions need extra special care, and you'll find that "Secret" beauty aids which Miss Nickles recommends will be a great help to you in keeping your "school girl complexion."

IF SHEER PROCKS are to be considered a weather barometer—we're in for a cool summer. I don't know when there's been a livelier or more practical fabric for summer wear than the "triple sheers" we read about—and see all over. All the very nicest dresses are sheer materials—and they're just as cool as they look, too. The Ladies Toggery's selection of smart summer dresses includes a number of "sheers" in the tailored or sports dresses as well as in the dressy types. You'll enjoy looking for dresses at the Ladies Toggery—their models are all selected in such perfect taste.

HERE'S SOMETHING to think about—it only recently came to my attention: The process of preserving or canning foods has made such foods accessible to all people which formerly were the luxuries of the rich. Thrifty housewives never overlook the display advertisements of the Red & White Grocery Store in the Journal, for they know that when there's a "special" listed, it's to their advantage to stock their pantry shelves. After all, canned foods are easier to prepare—there's no waste. The Red & White Grocery and Market are offering some real bargains this week—Better see what they are.

LIFE ISN'T WORTH living unless you have a cotton wardrobe this summer, since Fashion has decreed that cotton is THE thing—and if you've been into Wurl's store recently you'll understand why I'm mentioning the cotton materials there. Just think of all the attractive summer dresses you could have. The designs are varied and new and the colors are lovely—most of them washable, of course. I'd suggest that you go down to Wurl's General Store, select materials and then look thru the Simplicity pattern book. Simplicity patterns are only 15c—and have such distinctive styles.

TWICE A WEEK wouldn't be too often for me to see lamb included in the menu—it's a welcome dish to me, and also it's said to be the most easily digested and very nutritious. A leg of lamb served with a tart sauce, or jelly—well, it's a special company meat. Another way to prepare the cheaper cuts of lamb is to have a piece of the shoulder meat ground as for hamburger—shape into patties (not too thin) and make a "frame" of strips of bacon, holding them in place with tooth picks, and then fry them. And what is more delicious than a ragout of lamb stew—with carrots. Plattsmouth people are fortunate in having such a good meat market as A. G. Bach's. Watch their ads (including one in this issue) for money-saving values.
