The Old Settlers Reunion.

On account of the depression and the former meetings costing pretty high many of the citizens were rather loath to take up the proposition of holding a picnic this year. Judge Charles L. Graves, of Plattsmouth, who put in some forty years working for the success of the Old Settlers association and fearing lest the meeting this year lapse, came to Union last Friday with the writer and offered a proposition that if the town of Union was not going to hold their picnic that Plattsmouth would put it on at Plattsmouth for this year. This stirred the lovers of the picnic and they considered the matter and while some wanted the picnic here they feared the expense.

It looks like after there had been some 43 annual picnics held that it would be too bad to allow the meetings to lapse. There was to be a meeting of those interested in the movement for Tuesday night and as we are writing we do not know what has been done, but hope that they will hold the picnic as they have during times past. Come, get together boys, and hold your picnic so that in the years which are to come no one can say that there was ever a break in the years of holding the picnic.

Will Pave Remaining Space.

With the paving of highway No. 24 which is twenty feet in width, there will remain some twenty-three feet on each side of the slab between it and the walks and which it was decided on last Monday night at the meeting of the council, to pave from the juncture of the Missouri Pacific tracks two blocks east and from there for a block and a half east the pavement will be thirty feet in width or five feet additional on each side of the highway slab. The council empowered George A. Stites, mayor, to go to Lincoln and consult with the engineers having the matter of the paving in hand regarding having the work done all at once and thus making the paving uniform through the city. Mr. Stites was in Lincoln on Tuesday afternoon to confer with the state authorities there.

Home from Missouri.

Griffin and the family who were at Fairplay, Mo., for some week or ten days, returned home early this week, arriving at 10:30 Monday morning, having left their Missouri home at midnight Sunday, the trip taking between nine and ten hours to make. HORSE KILLS MAN

From Tuesday's Daily

This morning a message was received by Sheriff Ed W. Thimkan from Greenwood to the effect that a young man, Harry Seymour, 25, had been found dead. The young man was found on a farm near Ashland, in Cass county, he being engaged in working at various farms in that section. From the indications it is thought that Seymour, who was engaged in driving cattle, had crossed a small ditch or had tried to have his horse leap the ditch and the horse had fallen and crushed the young man. As there was no indication of anything but accidental death, an inquest was not deemed necessary by County Attorney W. G. Kieck, coroner.

EDITH FREDERICKA SHRYOCK

Edith Fredericka Shryock, daughter of the late Thomas W. and Rachel Shryock, was born in Baltimore, Maryland, September 23, 1859, passing away at Louisville, Nebraska, August 2, 1932, aged 72 years, 10 months and 11 days.

The deceased lady, with her parents came to Plattsmouth in 1885, but the family later removed to Louisville and where she has resided for the past forty-five years. She was a member of a family of five sons and five daughters.

Miss Shryock was a very devout member of the Methodist church which she had joined in her early womanhood and during her long residence in Louisville was one of the leaders in the church work, being one of the officers of the church. After the death of the parents, Miss Shryock continued to reside in the family home and where she was always pleased to entertain her many friends.

For the past year she had been a sufferer from heart trouble and has been bedfast for a great deal of the time and her condition was such as to offer but little hope of her recovery.

The funeral services were held Thursday at Louisville and conducted by Rev. John Calvert of York, former pastor at Louisville and Plattsmouth and now superintendent of the Mother's Jews Home at York. He was assisted by Rev. A. E. Chadwick of Lincoln and Rev. E. J. Booher of Kennard, both former ministers of the Louisville church. The W. C. T. U. attended the services in a body, Miss Shryock having been an active member of the organization for the past several years. The music for the funeral was furnished by a quartet composed of Thomas and William Solvers, nephews of the deceased, Miss Edith Stander, a niece, and Mrs. H. B. Kopp.

After the services the body was brought to Plattsmouth and interred in the family lot at Oak Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were Frank Stander, Chester White, Thomas and William Solvers, and James Fiddock.

The deceased is survived by three sons, Mrs. P. C. Stander of Louisville and Mrs. Edward Fiddock of Elsie.

Death Penalty Invoked in Reich to End Rioting

Cabinet Acts After Death of 140 Persons Since June 1st—Three Decrees.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—The government tonight invoked extraordinary powers, including the death penalty, in an effort to put a stop to outbursts of political violence which have resulted in the killing of at least 140 persons and serious injuries to more than one thousand since June 1.

With the approval of President Paul von Hindenburg, three emergency decrees were issued by Chancellor von Papen.

One of these extended the political truce to September 1. Another set up heavy penalties, including sentence of death, for acts of terrorism. The third instituted special "speed" courts to deal summarily with offenders.

The situation was considered so critical that the government did not wait for President von Hindenburg to return from his country estate at Neudeck in East Prussia.

Approval by Hindenburg. The substance of the three decrees was conveyed to the president by telephone, and he approved them. Meanwhile Adolf Hitler, whose Nazi storm troopers are held accountable for much of the violence, took steps to check the political passions of his followers.

Furious because of outbursts in which storm troop detachments participated, notably in East Prussia and Schleswig-Holstein, Hitler issued most stringent orders that discipline must be maintained.

Held Drastic Enough. Opposition newspapers expressed fear that the government has moved too late to put an end to the riots and sabotage which have kept Germany in turmoil for weeks. But members of the cabinet voiced the belief that the emergency decrees were sufficiently drastic to stamp out the regime of terror.

Among the offenses which will be considered in the new "speed" courts are gun carrying, arson, flooding, bombing and attempts to tamper with the railways, regardless of whether loss of life results.

Before the decrees were issued Chancellor von Papen, who had hoped that the disorders would cease with the reichstag elections July 31, declared that "our authority must be wielded brutally."—World-Herald.

HEAVY FLOODS IN CHINA

Harbin, Manchuria.—A hundred thousand Chinese residents of Harbin were forced by unprecedented floods to abandon their section of the city, which has become a vast inland sea. Approximately three thousand persons were reported missing in the valley of Sungari, which has risen far above the level of 1914, when Manchuria experienced the worst flood in its history.

Harbin's Chinese residents have congregated in cemeteries and fields on the outskirts of the city. Many of them are without food, clothing and shelter. Most of the settlements along the left bank of the Sungari have been annihilated, leaving tens of thousands of persons homeless.

Cholera is spreading in the district and the people are hoarding food as prices skyrocket. The crop loss has been very heavy. The flood has proved so serious that military operations throughout the area have been suspended. Torrential rains inundated parts of the European quarter of Harbin today.

THIEVES CARRY AWAY BABY

Monticello, Ia.—The two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller of Monticello was back with his parents Sunday night after he had been taken for a ride by thieves who stole the family car as the lad slept in the back seat while his parents attended a barn dance near Anaamosa. The child was found, wide awake and crying, in the morning, near Central City, where the thieves had abandoned the car after striking a guard rail. He was taken to a nearby farm house, from which his parents were notified. Authorities had no clues as to the identity of the thieves.

About 300 persons were in the tent when the storm broke. The lights suddenly went out, and then the water-soaked tent top began to slide towards the roadway. With Rev. Mr. Musser acting as leader, the worshippers grabbed the center tent poles, and were trying to hold them down when another wind blast sent the canvass tumbling. Those on the outside and three garage men managed to drag most of the victims free.
