SOUTH BEND

Louis Wehrmann is ill in an Omaha hospital and as he has been in poor health for some time his friends are hoping that the treatment in the hospital will give him much relief.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham visited relatives in Central City last Sunday, bringing Miss Elsie Williams home with them.

Members of the Trinity Lutheran church near Murdock were invited Sunday evening, August 14, to assist in the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church, Rev. T. Hartman's ministry in that locality. The ladies of the church served refreshments to about 500 people upon that occasion. Many from this vicinity attended.

Mr. and Mrs. George Braun are spending a two weeks' vacation in Minnesota.

South Bend Boy Killed
When Thrown from Horse
A fatal accident occurred one day last week when Harry Seymour was thrown from a horse at the farm home of Cliff Wortman at whose place he was employed. He was 22 years old.

He had started out on horseback to round up the horses and bring them into the corral. As he started to cross a ravine, the horse stumbled and fell with Harry underneath. The horse returned to the farm alone and a search was made for the rider. He was found dead.

Harry had been making his home since infancy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Zaar, prominent farmers here and the community was greatly shocked at his sad death. He was well liked and highly respected by all who knew him.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS
Mrs. Herman L. Thomas entertained at a most delightful afternoon bridge party Tuesday, the event honoring Mrs. Elmer J. Rummel, of Burbank, California and Miss Beulah Thomas, of Stroud, Oklahoma, who are guests in the city of friends.

The afternoon was spent in the fascinations of bridge and was much enjoyed. In the playing Mrs. J. F. Wolf received the first prize while Mrs. James G. Mauzy was awarded the consolation prize. Guest prizes were also presented to Mrs. Rummel and Miss Thomas.

During the afternoon several charming piano numbers were given by Mrs. Christine Kirkpatrick and Miss Aimee Jane Thomas, that added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

As the afternoon drew to a close Mrs. Thomas, assisted by her daughter, Miss Aimee Jane, served a most delicious luncheon that served to complete a most enjoyable day.
