

GREENWOOD

Carl Weldeman was enjoying a fishing trip during the past week at the Platte river north of Greenwood.

Mrs. Rex Peters will teach school in the Lemon district this year, the term there starting next Monday.

W. A. White has been nursing one of his fingers, which he had the misfortune to injure at his work a few days since.

Henry Wilkins was feeling quite poorly on last Wednesday and was not able to be down to the shop, but was reported as feeling better later.

Fred W. Etheredge will celebrate the passing of his birthday on Wednesday of this week, August 31st, at which time he will be 72 years old.

Phillip Boll, of Indianola, Iowa, was a visitor for the day last Wednesday in Greenwood and was looking after some business matters while here.

Clayton D. Sanborn has been enjoying a visit from his children, Robert and Mary Jean, who likewise have enjoyed their visit here the latter part of last week.

Clayton Sanborn was not feeling any too good part of last week and was compelled to take to his bed on Wednesday, but able to be up and around the following day.

The "Guild" will meet Tuesday at the church, with the new officers entertaining. Anyone having rags suitable for carpet rags, which they are willing to donate to the organization, please bring them to this meeting.

A large crowd of people of the vicinity of Cedar Hill, and also from other places, gathered at Cedar Hill, where they enjoyed a very pleasant time, which was a sort of homecoming, for there was a crowd as large as at an ordinary Fourth of July celebration, made up of people who had resided there in the past, some as long as forty years ago.

Mesdames E. A. Landon, Wayne Landon and her son, Wayne, were over to Lincoln on Monday of last week, where they went to see Wayne Landon, Sr., husband and father of the latter two, who is still at the Bryan Memorial hospital, where he is convalescing from an operation last week for correction of a severe attack of appendicitis.

W. R. Young and Troy L. Davis, two candidates for office, accompanied the Booster trip arranged to advertise the Cass county fair that will be held in Weeping Water on Sept. 13, 14, 15 and 16, and for which great preparations are being made.

The graders who have been getting the road ready for the gravel, which is to be placed thereon from Greenwood to the county line west, have completed the work and are also completing the road south of town, putting that highway in the best of condition for traffic.

Got Home Late Wednesday

The Greenwood post delegation to the state Legion convention at Norfolk, arrived home during the night Wednesday, after a most enjoyable four days spent in the northeastern Nebraska town. They had an excellent time, but were a tired bunch of fellows when they arrived home, bringing back with them on the truck, the cannon, which created a sensation at the convention and especially in the parade on Tuesday afternoon, which they describe as being witnessed by 15,000 people.

Home from the South

A. D. Findley and wife, who have now made four annual tours including southern Missouri and Arkansas, and spending the heated season in the Ozark mountains, returned after having been away for three weeks. They arrived home on Friday of last week. Master Raymond Howard accompanied them on this trip and enjoyed it very much.

Gravel Donation Received

The fund for cemetery gravelling received another boost last week, when Mr. Roper sent his check for $10. The assistance of all friends of the Greenwood cemetery in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Will Hold Revival Soon

The Christian church is to begin a revival meeting at their church on Sunday, September 4th, which will ing the early summer, including a small band and a comedy team, as well as work up some snappy short plays, start out early, taken the cannon with them and stop at the larger size towns along the route, giving a good idea. Think it over, boys, and then get busy and put it into execution before next year's convention dates roll around.

Visited the West

E. L. McDonald, the good wife and their son, Bertrand, drove out to Red Cloud on last Saturday and visited with his mother for over night, returning home Sunday. They had a good trip both ways and saw much country at its best, with the corn looking mighty fine in most places, but in a few sections further outstate the crops were badly burned.

Has Sure Been Busy

Arthur Stewart, who has not been able to find much work elsewhere, did not despair and set back to work, but went to work with a will that has created the way, clearing off a parcel of land and planting same to sweet corn, which he is raising for seed. He has five different varieties, three acres of each, which has made a good deal of work to cultivate and look after. To keep the varieties separate, he divided the patches a good distance apart, thus preventing them from mixing. This ground he planted to other garden stuff, having almost thirty acres under cultivation, and which has required a good deal of hand work to keep the weeds down and the crops growing their best.

Enjoyed a Good Visit

Mrs. R. E. Mathews and son, Emory, were visiting for a week at the home of the mother of Mrs. Mathews, Mrs. Belle Wilson, of Powhatan, Kansas, and there both she and the son enjoyed a splendid time. On last Thursday Bob took the car, driving down to Powhatan and remaining for an over-night visit, but on the following day returned, being accompanied by the wife and son.

Filling Station Changes Hands

S. D. Porter has purchased the filling station which has been owned by Ray Fredricks for some time past, and will add much to the place. He expects to place crushed rock or gravel about the place so that cars can drive in from any direction. He will also provide a fruit booth so he can carry a stock of fruits and will also conduct a cafe which will accommodate the traveling public. He is expecting to turn the place over to his son, Harold, when he shall have gotten it changed as he desires.

Visited C. G. Mayfield

Clarence G. Mayfield, residing in the vicinity of Louisville, has been confined to his bed for many weeks, with heart trouble and complications, and although he has grown a great deal thinner and is in a weakened condition, he enjoys greatly a visit from his many friends whenever they come to see him. On last Monday, Fred W. Etheredge, Albert Buskirk and Rev. W. E. Goings drove over to Louisville, where they visited with their old time friend, but found him very weak that day and not able to enjoy their call. The many friends of Mr. Mayfield trust that he will rally from his sickness and again be able to resume his normal activities.

Enjoyable Social Event

The members of the Christian church and Bible school gave a social on their lawn on last Saturday, which was also made a joint affair, as they had the members of the Methodist church and Bible school as their guests. They had a very appropriate program as well as games for the younger portion of the crowd and served home made ice cream and cake, with fruits. The evening was enlivened by music furnished by the Ashland band.

Band Concert Great Success

The band concert given in Manley last Friday night (August 12th) by the Louisville Farmers Union band, proved a great success. It is estimated there were well over 500 present, including visitors from nearly every town in the county and some from outside the state. The music struck a popular chord with the listeners. Besides the band numbers, there were a number of other features including a boxing match at intermission time. All are hoping for another like concert in Manley before the close of the present year and express compliments for the splendid music provided by this rural band.

be conducted by the local members of the church. Rev. Goings will preach all the sermons, while a special chorus made up of members of the church and Bible school will furnish the music. The public is cordially invited to attend. Watch for further announcement concerning sermon topics, etc.

Schools Open Monday

Everything is in readiness for the opening of school next Monday morning. The teachers are all on hand, refreshed from their summer vacations, and most of the kiddies seem happy that school is again to reconvene, for even all play grows monotonous when stretched out over a course of three months.

The resignation of Edgar Cole, 7th and 8th grade teacher, coming at a late hour, left the board in somewhat of a dilemma, but in these times there are plenty of good teachers looking for jobs so the position will not be hard to fill.

Library Hours

In the future exchange of books at the library maintained by the Greenwood Woman's club shall be made only on week days, and then between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 and 9 o'clock in the evening. Librarians give their time freely and gladly in looking after this work, changing off so as not to make the task burdensome, and it is fine that they can see fit to spare as much time to it as they do.

Betty Lou GOES SHOPPING. The most enjoyable time to shop is in the cool of the morning. Try it! Plan your shopping trips these mornings soon after the stores open. And another idea—read my suggestions carefully before you start. I am very sure they will save you steps, which is a big consideration in hot weather. Sincerely—Betty Lou

THE SECRET of poise and charm is largely a result of being utterly unconscious of one's person. I have a friend who has that happy faculty of meeting people easily—and I've discovered that one of her "assets" is that she's always "just so." Warm summer weather need not deprive you of poise because your hair won't stay "put." A Permanent wave will be your chief aid. The Etta Belle Beauty Shoppe give those famous Gabrielen permanents that are so satisfactory. After you've had your "permanent," an occasional finger wave at the hands of Miss Etta Nickels will keep your hair looking its best. She gives those wide, loose, becoming finger waves.

SHOW ME ANYONE who is busier than the young lady or young man who is preparing to go away to school next month! They're rushing around gathering their clothes together and sending them to the Fred Lugsch Cleaners so that they'll be all cleaned and pressed—ready for whatever activities are in store for them. This is the white flannel trouser season and the young man will want his fresh and clean to take back to school, and the young lady likewise will want her sport clothes and nicest dresses epic and span. The Fred Lugsch Cleaners will do their best to have your clothes in apple pie order—all ready to pack for the trip off to school.

AFTER WATCHING THE BOYS at the Ofe Oil Company hop to it for a little while, it didn't take very much thought to decide where the modern meaning of the word "service" was found. The minute a car drives up there, they're out and after it in a jiffy. They fill the gas tank, look at the water, clean the windshield and headlights, and even test the tires if you want them to. And they are careful not to spill oil all over the car, too. And on greasing jobs—they're never yet been known to miss a single point. If you value your car, like to keep it in tip-top condition, you'll find the service at the Ofe Oil Company station the kind you've been looking for!

IF YOU HAVE a "weakness" for warm weather refreshments—especially refreshing liquid refreshments—pause at the Mauzy Drug Store. Just sit down at one of the booths—give your order and proceed to "un-lax." By the time your order reaches you, you'll be all ready to enjoy it. One thing about the Mauzy Drug Store—you'll always find someone there that you know, for everyone goes there when they're looking for delicious fountain drinks. You will feel equal to the rest of the day's trials after you've finished your mid-afternoon drink at Mauzy's Drug Store. Mauzy's feature the McKessen line of drugs—they're drugs with a reputation.

YOUR POPULARITY as a hostess will be enhanced, if toward the end of the evening you say, "Don't go yet—I'll go out into the kitchen and forage around in the ice box—I think I can scare up a lunch." Then, while the Advo coffee is perking—arrange a platter of cold meats and summer sausages and put it on the dining room table, together with freshly sliced bread and lots of crackers and cheese and pickles. Have plates, silverware and napkins at one end of the table, and let each serve himself. These late "snacks" are always a success if they're more or less impromptu—and you're prepared by having stocked your icebox with the "makings" from A. G. Bach's Meat and Grocery department.

THE FIRST HINT of early fall clothes is here. The styles are just as charming as the summer ones were and I noticed that many of the sleeves are getting all the attention, although necklines are important, too. Those of you who prefer one-piece dresses will adore the fall ideas and if you have a leaning toward jacket costumes, as I have, you'll be equally delighted. And—materials are still lightweight woolsens and rough crepes—the kind of clothes that you can wear now and on until early winter. The hats, too, are assuming darker hues and changes in fabrics. Mr. Busch at the Ladies Toggery has some of the early fall models in Bloomfield, LeVine and Mme. Renaud frocks to show you.

HAVE YOU SEEN any of the new fall dress materials yet? Wurl's General Store has some in—new woolsens in the featherweight fabrics. As usual brown is a leading fall shade and Wurl's have several lovely shades of brown materials. Trimmings are going to be important—watch particularly the sleeves and necklines this fall. If you don't believe they're of importance, just notice the style books yourself. Wurl's have the Simplicity patterns—and they're as easy as pie to use. Directions are so clear and explicit that you couldn't make a mistake. The fall dress materials and Simplicity patterns is a combination that's hard to resist. Personally, I wanted to get a pair of shears and a sewing machine and get busy making a dress!

THIS IS just about the height of the canning season when delicious aromas emit from the kitchen where fruits, pickles, chili sauce, etc., are in the process of being "put up." I just want to remind you that your canning paraphernalia is awaiting you at the Bestor & Swatek Co. Hardware Store. They have cookers—all sizes in kettles, stone jars and jugs—lots of fruit jars and jelly glasses—colanders, sieves, funnels, large spoons and ladles. Everything you'll need to make your canning more convenient will be found at the Bestor & Swatek Hardware Store. And, another thing, their prices are as low as you'll find anywhere.

"SCHOOL DAYS—D. O. G. R. D." Boys and girls nowadays are delighted when it's time to return to school. It's so much more interesting than it used to be. This business of getting yourself educated, while still hard work, is more like a game. Certainly Mr. Knorr has done his best to add to the interest of school work. The children have already discovered that Knorr's Popular Variety Store's stock of school supplies includes the things they desire most—pencils, paper, note books. Everything! Yes, indeed, the school children—and their mothers also, are bound to be pleased with the school needs at Knorr's Popular Variety Store.

ISN'T IT TRUE that when you're looking for something really modern, you'll go to a modern-looking store to find it? That's why I went straight to the Fetzler Shoe Company for a pair of fall shoes. It's such an attractive place. They handle the Enna Jettick shoes, you know—those shoes that come in such a wide range of sizes and widths that even the most difficult of feet are properly fitted for Enna Jettick shoes. The new fall line of Enna Jettick shoes for ladies may be seen at the Fetzler Shoe Company. If you're having trouble with your feet—inquire about Dr. Scholl's foot remedies at Fetzler Shoe Company's store—they have the complete line.

THE NEXT TIME you have occasion to buy insurance on your house, ask the insurance agent what a difference in rates is on homes heated with coal and those heated with gas. Then ask him the rates on gas heated homes are so much higher. He'll tell you that heated homes are a greater hazard in the opinion of the insurance companies. It may be a bit early to starting fires in the furnace, but not a bit too early to be getting a bin full ready for winter. Besides by ordering your coal now, you'll get better prices and the delivery service is better.

GETTING THESE CHILDREN started off to school again is no small job, I can tell you. Getting shoes for them is just one of the easiest what with the H. M. Soennichsen department store featuring the "Poll Parrot" shoes for children. They're the kind that will last in spite of the rough usage the children give them. They also are extremely particular about fitting children's shoes at Soennichsen's because of striving to have proper fitting shoes. Soennichsen's also carry Allen's—its, too, has a reputation for long service.

ARE YOU TIRED of cooking? a new recipe every day. There is mance in cooking—a painter constantly creates new pictures—a student learns new songs—and so, how making should be progressive, a Cookery would indeed be uninteresting if the menu was increased by delicious, usual dishes. The Red White Store is forever striving to keep before you fresh fruits and vegetables and nationally vertised groceries and canned goods—to say nothing of the very fine cuts of meat—in order that your cooking may not "get in a rut." nice, neat grocery store—one you will enjoy shopping and trading with. And—best of all, these days—all you have to do is place your order and their delivery will bring you the goods you want almost immediately. Watch their for money-saving prices.

HOW DO YOU FRY A STEAK? is the way I make mine different. Order a top sirloin of beef one-half inches thick. Make six slits or pockets and insert a slice garlic or onion therein. If you have a broiler, heat a skillet very hot, melt butter in skillet and add steak. Brown nicely on both sides, then turn the fire low and let the steak stand for about eight or ten minutes so as to be rare but raw. Do not use a cover at any time. Garnish with strips of bacon mushrooms fried in butter. you want a choice steak—or meat any kind—just drop in at Muller's Grocery and Meat Market. sure know how to cut steaks there.

WHEW! THIS KIND of weather apt to make one susceptible to disease known as "flu" I don't doubt, however, if you'd fall a minute to that "bug" if you're having your meals at Brown's Cafe. Brown is having a success with the plan of special summer meals. Perhaps you've noticed that he's taking advantage of this season of fruits and vegetables and lots of Plattsmouth people abandoned the home-cooked dinner in favor of those served at Brown's Cafe. You'll enjoy meals at Brown's Cafe. Just as Rotarian what he thinks of the served there.
