

MURDOCK ITEMS

L. Neitzel and G. Baur took part in the service last Sunday evening at the M. E. church at Louisville.

Lyle Horton, the mortician, was called to Peru one day last week to look after some business matters.

The Murdock schools will open today (Monday, August 29th). A large enrollment is expected again this year.

A new cement platform has been built at the entrance to the M. W. A. hall, making a nice improvement to that property.

A. H. Jacobson was called to Lincoln on last Wednesday afternoon, where he had some business matters to look after.

Olga Mary and Jack Hitchcock, of Havelock, are spending a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel.

Mrs. Meta MacDiarmid and daughter and O. J. Hitchcock and family called at L. Neitzel's home on last Sunday, being entertained at dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thimman are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby girl which came to their home on August 23rd. All are doing nicely.

Miss Zola Ostblom was over to Murray on last Friday and was well pleased with the nice business in the beauty culture line which is coming to her.

Walking along in the dark, Carl Kupke accidentally fell into a hole about the well and received a very lame hip from his experience and which is still very sore.

Miss Martha Thiel, who has a position as nurse near Elmwood, was home Wednesday to see her brother-in-law, Mr. Gustin, who has been ill the past couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were over to Wymore on last Sunday, where they visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Craig, they driving down in their auto.

The Rev. C. Jannen and wife, who are parents of Mrs. Henry Amgwert, have been visiting at the home of their daughter and husband for the greater portion of last week.

Mrs. Meta MacDiarmid and daughter started for Chicago on Tuesday morning to be gone for some time. Dorothea Jane may enter school there if a suitable one can be found.

Lawrence Race was a visitor in Elmwood on last Wednesday afternoon, where he went to make some repairs on the truck of his brother, who is engaged in the trucking business.

Mrs. J. E. McHugh and Edwin returned home the fore part of the week from Denver, where they had spent two weeks visiting with Jerry McHugh and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNamara, of Fairmont, were visiting at the W. O. Gillespie home, Mr. McNamara being a brother of Mrs. W. O. Gillespie and that made the visit one of great pleasure to all.

Homer H. Lawton has just completed the painting of a very fine sign for Lyle Horton, the mortician, which has been erected at the office of the latter between the filling station and the Lawrence Race garage.

Fred Dieckman, Sr., was in Omaha one day the fore part of last week to see Mr. Heartle, who has been in a hospital there for some time and who, much to the regret of his friends, is not showing a great deal of improvement.

Miss Mary Tool, the story of whose wedding is given elsewhere in today's Journal, was a guest of honor at a pre-nuptial shower at the McHugh home, at which she received many useful gifts. A fine time was had by those attending.

Otto Buck, who is located at York, was called to Ashland to do a couple of days' work last week for the telephone company and found time to run over and see the parents last Thursday evening. He returned to resume his work at York Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Rush, who has been visiting here for the past several weeks with the old friends, of whom she has many, departed Wednesday morning for her home at Centralia, Missouri, and regretted to depart, leaving her many friends here.

Charles Weymer was a visitor in Murdock from his home in Greenwood and brought with him a trailer load of melons, both muskmelons and watermelons. He found a very good demand for his stock and many were sold as fast as they could be handed out.

Horton Mortuary

Day and Night Service
Hearse and Ambulance
Murdock - Nebraska

Arthur Wellman, who has made his home here for some time past, residing with the family in the Skyles property, which they had acquired, left with the family last Wednesday morning for Colorado, where they will make their home in the future. They are offering the home here for sale at a very low figure.

Mrs. Myra McDonald, mother of O. E. McDonald, who makes her home in Murray, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Frank W. Moore and the latter's daughter, Miss Margaret, were spending the day last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McDonald, where all enjoyed the visit for day and as well the very fine dinner served by Mrs. McDonald.

Little Aileen Ward, who has been visiting for several weeks at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke, of Indianola, arrived home Wednesday in time to start school today (Monday). Rev. Clarke, who is minister of the Christian church there, and his wife, who is a sister of Mr. A. H. Ward, brought the little niece home, coming by way of Beatrice, where they picked up Milton G. Keedy and wife and brought them along. When they arrived here, they found Aunt Emily Sayles here from Greenwood for a visit at the A. H. Ward home, and with the coming of the two families made the day very pleasant by the group getting together. Mr. and Mrs. Ward served ice cream before the visitors departed for home.

Recovers His Water Can
The water can, which was stolen from the garage of E. W. Thimman, conducted by E. M. Shatto, was returned last week and in good condition. Sheriff Thimman saw the can in a car he stopped at the Platte river bridge, recognizing it as his own, but letting the parties go when the said they had bought the can at Murdock. Later he found his suspicions were correct and that the can had been stolen. Having kept a record of the license number of the car, he informed the parties the can must be returned at once if they did not want to answer to the law—so the can came back.

Hold Fine Club Meeting
The 4-H club of Murdock held their achievement day program at the school on last Monday and were also pleased to have Miss Jessie Baldwin and Mrs. D. D. Waincott with them. They viewed their work and gave a fine program as well.

Leo Rikli had his class of boys present and had a live calf on the platform, discussing the various cuts of beef as well as talking about the costs of raising a calf. The one they had before them was a June calf.

Pretty Home Wedding Held at Murdock

Miss Verna Martha Knaup United in Marriage to Robert A. Chestnut of Billings, Oklahoma.

An arch of pink and white crepe paper in front of which were two tall baskets of zinnias formed the setting for the marriage of Miss Verna Martha Knaup, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Knaup of Murdock, to Mr. Robert A. Chestnut of Billings, Oklahoma, Wednesday evening, August 24. The ceremony was performed at the Knaup home by Rev. Norenberg, minister of the Callahan Evangelical church of Murdock in the presence of about sixty relatives and friends.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Hugo Norenberg sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile" accompanied by Miss Wilma Knosp of Murdock, who also played the wedding march. Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Knosp of Murdock then sang "Hold Thou My Hand," accompanied by Miss Knosp.

Miss Anna Louise Knaup, little sister of the bride, was dressed in white and carried the ring in a white lily. Miss Gene Ola Fitch of Elmwood as maid-of-honor was attired in a pale green flowered flat crepe dress cut low in back with a short jacket of the same material and with the skirt cut floor length. She wore a dark green chiffon velvet bow at the waist and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride was gowned in a white satin dress with a lace jacket and with the skirt ankle length. She wore accessories to match and carried a bride's bouquet of cream colored roses.

The groom and the best man, Mr. Henry W. Knaup, a brother of the bride, wore the conventional dark suits.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at which time Miss Opal Knaup had charge of the gift room and Miss Della Neben of Murdock the guest book.

Miss Lean Riecke had charge of the refreshments and was assisted by the Misses Ione Weddell, Grace Backemeyer, Anna Riecke, and Martha and Ruth Neben all of Murdock and Miss Lois Snyder of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Chestnut will live on a farm near Billings, Oklahoma.

The many friends of both the bride and groom extend to them best wishes for a happy married life.

Wedding of a Popular Murdock Young Lady

Miss Mary Isabel Tool Becomes Bride of Orris Earl Bradford of Mt. Clare, Nebraska.

A very pretty wedding occurred on Sunday, August 21st, at 3:00 p. m. in Murdock, Nebraska, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool when their daughter, Mary Isabel, was united in marriage with Mr. Orris Earl Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bradford of Carleton, Nebraska, Rev. H. A. Norenberg, pastor of the Callahan Evangelical church officiating. Ferns, palms and lilies formed a background for the ceremony. Miss Chelsea Besack of Omaha, cousin of the bride sang "For You" and "Whither Thou Goest," accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Norenberg who played the wedding march. Mrs. Gladys Tool, sister-in-law of the bride served as matron of honor, wearing a dress of silk with floral design on white, and carried a bouquet of deep pink roses. Ila Mae Bradford, sister of the groom, attired in a dress of rose-colored silk voile, carried a lighted taper and lighted the candles. Marjorie McDonald, attired in yellow voile made ankle length, carried a Bible on which the vows were taken. Lois Jean McDonald and Patricia Anne Tool, attired in ankle length gowns of pink and orchid carried matching baskets of sweet peas and Baby's Breath.

The bride wore embroidered net in blue with velvet sash and wore lace mitts. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and double Baby's Breath tied with lily of the valley tulle. A crystal pendant, a gift of the groom, was her neckpiece.

Kenneth A. Tool, brother of the bride, served as best man. Richard E. Tool, the other brother of the bride, served as usher.

At the reception following the ceremony the guests were directed into the dining room by Mrs. Euna McHugh where Miss May Tool, aunt of the bride, seated at the lace covered table, beautifully decorated with a floral center piece of Auratum lilies and pink Lantana with lace ferns, surrounded by four white tapers in crystal holder, poured coffee. Others assisting were Miss E. Viola Everett, Miss Ione Weddell, Miss Inez Buck, Miss Eppings and Mr. and Mrs. Weddell. Mrs. Pearl Bakker, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the guest books.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Tool, Wahoo, Nebraska; Richard A. Tool, Kingsley, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bradford, and daughter, Ila Mae; Mrs. Laura Stables, grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stables and daughter, Helen. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beggs and Wilma Fae, all of Carleton; Mrs. Leah Tool, grandmother of the bride, and daughter, Miss May Tool, another daughter, Mrs. Pearl Tool and sons, Peter C. and Charles F., all of Ackley, Iowa. The grandmother had reached the age of 88 years. Miss Vina Hart, Hastings, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Besack, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wiers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lovell and children, Robert, Betty and Gordon, Mr. Mark Besack, Miss Mary J. Johnson, all of Omaha, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard G. Besack, Fremont, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillespie, North Loup, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Gail E. McDonald and children, Norma, Howard, Bernice and Marjorie, Hampton, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Gorder, Weeping Water, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Turner McKinnon, Alvo, Neb.; Mr. Bernard Porter, Sidney, Iowa.

After the wedding ceremony the bride and groom left for a short trip, the destination being unrevealed.

The bride was reared in Murdock, Neb., and was graduated from the Murdock high school and also a graduate of Stephens College, Columbia, Mo.

The groom was reared in Carleton, Nebraska, a graduate of the Carleton high school, and did college work at Coter College and graduated from the University of Nebraska.

They will reside at Mt. Clare, Nebraska, where the groom is principal of the school of that place.

Journal Want-Ads cost only a few cents and get real results!

Alvo News

Miss Clifton is now greatly improved from her attack of jaundice. Miss Pearl Banning, of Omaha, was a guest at the home of her brother, John Banning and wife.

Mrs. Peterson has rented her property to Mr. Quick, new superintendent of the Alvo schools. John Banning received and unloaded a car of lumber last Thursday, which he now has ready for distribution.

Miss Jennie Nickel has not been feeling the best, as a result of having a considerable number of her teeth extracted some ten days ago.

The county fair boosters were in Alvo Tuesday afternoon and the citizens enjoyed the fine band concert as well as meeting their Weeping Water friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards took a little trip last week, calling on friends at other points. Frank Edwards was looking after things during their absence.

Mrs. Ruth Taylor entertained the R. N. A. lodge Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harold Fee and daughter, Betty, of Raymond, Washington, were guests at the Frank Cook home last week.

Mayor Arthur Dinges and Rural Carrier A. B. Stromer were called to Lincoln last Thursday afternoon to look after some business matters. They drove over in the car of Mr. Dinges, notwithstanding the rain.

Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick, who was injured the second time in an auto wreck, is still confined to her bed most of the time, although able to be about a little each day. Her many friends are hoping that she may soon regain her health.

Herman L. Bornemeier, who has been at the hospital for some time past, where he underwent an operation for the removal of his appendix, has not been improving as rapidly as expected, although there is no cause for alarm at his slow recovery.

Miss Edna Lewis, who taught in the schools at Pacific Junction, Iowa, last year, was again secured by the board of education there for the coming school year. Miss Edna is an excellent teacher and the school board of the Iowa town has used good judgment in again engaging her services in this line.

Miss Wilma Cook left last Monday to resume her school duties on the west coast. Prior to her departure, Mrs. Leonor Cook, of Elmwood, gave a dinner party, at which Mr. and Mrs. Orest Cook and son Wendell were guests. Mrs. Frank Cook was also hostess at a dinner party in honor of Miss Wilma and her mother, at which a number of the relatives were present.

An automobile accident occurred at the corner two miles south of town Saturday afternoon, that turned out lucky for all parties concerned. A car coming from the west and a truck coming from the south collided at the intersection, but none of the occupants of either vehicle were seriously injured. Neither car bore a Cass county license and the identity of the parties was not learned.

Home from the West

Mrs. Eugene Barkhurst, who has been visiting in the west for the past month, being accompanied by her sister, Miss Catherine Anderson, arrived home last Wednesday evening, after a day's drive across the state. They had been spending much of the time at Bushnell, where they were guests at the home of their brother, Hugh Anderson and family. They tell of crops being very good out that way and with plenty of rain. Miss Catherine Anderson is an instructor in the schools at Superior, Nebraska, and goes back greatly refreshed as a result of her outing in the west.

Goes to Hospital for Treatment

Miss Della Sutton, who has been very poorly since the accident which partially crippled this estimable lady, has during the past several weeks been endeavoring to do her work and also make a living as a result of her handicraft, but during the past few weeks her health has been very poor and she is now compelled on the advice of her physician to go to the hospital for treatment. Ole Olsen, the night operator, took Miss Sutton to the hospital in his car on last Thursday afternoon.

Church Problem Arises

The withering hand of the depression is reaching out to touch every activity, and with the lack of earnings and the scarcity of money, the maintenance of the work of the churches is greatly hampered. The expenses must be met—the minister cannot live on wind, sunshine and water. He must be paid, and while times seem very close, still no town can afford to abandon its church.

A meeting was held a few nights ago and a committee appointed to go into the matter of church finances and even to consider the matter of sharing time of a pastor with a neighboring church.

Nothing definite has been done as yet, but they will discuss the question pro and con and will arrive at the solution to the situation later.

Will Build a Barn

Lee Stewart has torn his old barn down and has built a foundation for a new structure which he will erect, doing the work himself. The lumber for the new structure was procured from the John W. Banning lumber yard.

SEEK DIVORCE CLAIM

The executors of the estate of Mrs. Mary Busche, are seeking to press a claim to continue a divorce action in the Douglas county district court and against Frank Busche, former Plattsmouth resident. Under the divorce action, started in 1928, Mrs. Busche obtained a decree and $25,000 settlement, against the well known contractor.

It is claimed by the executors of the estate of the late Mrs. Busche that Busche is $7,000 behind on the

ECLIPSE SPECIALS

for Wednesday, Aug. 31st

Men's Black and Gray English Stripe Cotton Worsted Pants—corner pockets, 20-in. bottom, belt loops, reg. sizes. $1

Boys' fcy. wool stripe School Longies. $1.49
Wide Leg—Emblem—Loops

7 to 9 o'clock, Boys' Underwear 19c
Another Chance at this Most Unusual Last Wednesday Night's Featured Bargain

Ask for Gift Coupons Wescott's Store Open in Evening

payments of the settlement. The sum, they claim, belongs to the estate of Mrs. Busche, who died in 1929. Mr. Busche has since married. The Busche family resided here for a number of years and Mr. Busche has done a great deal of road contract work in this city, having had the contract for the road to the Missouri river bridge. Business goes where it is invited. Merchants who advertise are the ones who "sell the goods" nowadays. Let the Journal assist you in keeping up sales volume during the coming year.

THE NEW COATS

NEW FABRICS! FINER FURS!

$27⁵⁰

WEDNESDAY

Choose from coats with these glorious furs

SEAL, RACCOON, BEAVER, FITCH
DYED CROSS FOX, KIT FOX
MARTIN, AUSTRALIAN OPPOSUM

Expertly Designed for Sport or Dress

DO YOU REMEMBER when ... ? Yes ... we all remember when coats like these were twice the price. Except that these are more interesting ... more flattering ... more desirable. Beautiful dress coats ... fur-laden on top ... slim and straight below the waist. Lovably sport coats of wooly woolens ... with generous fur collars. Examine the linings. Feel the fabrics. Compare the furs. Then tell us you can pass up one of these lovely coats at $27.50.

Black Brown Tweed Mixtures Detachable Fur Collars Interesting Sleeves

A small deposit will hold a coat for you

Ladies Toggery

The Shop of Personal Service
Plattsmouth, Nebr.