

Alvo News

Henry S. Ough was visiting with relatives in Lincoln for a time last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ganz have been at Cody, Wyoming, during the past week, going out on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Henry Roelofs, of Lincoln, was a visitor in Alvo for a short time last Wednesday, and was looking after some business interests while here.

Word has been received by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Heiers that Harvey is improving very slowly. It is hoped that he will continue to improve.

Misses Blanche and Vivian Rueter, who have been visiting for the past two weeks with friends at Manley returned home on last Saturday, having enjoyed a very good time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Braun, who were spending some weeks in Wisconsin returned on last Friday, after having enjoyed a splendid time and Mr. Braun went to work again at South Bend on Monday last week.

P. J. Lynch was over to Beatrice one day last week, and was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alta, who has taught in the schools there for the past thirteen years, and who is to teach this year. The schools will commence there on Sept. 12th.

Milo Frisbee, Mrs. George Frisbee and Mrs. Paul Coatsman and sons Billy and George, motored to Cole ridge, Nebr., last week, for a visit at the home of Mrs. Frisbee's sister, Mrs. Charles Melvin, who has been very ill, but is considerably improved at this time.

The Roy Armstrong family have moved their household goods from Beiden, Nebr., to South Omaha, where Mr. Armstrong will be more satisfactorily located for work with the Burlington railroad. Mrs. Armstrong visited with relatives in Alvo and Eagle while the moving was in progress.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carey and family were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sauer and family of Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rueter and family of Elmwood and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer West and family of Alvo. This was the celebration of the birthdays of Ralph Rueter and Mrs. Elmer West. A good time was had by all.

Planning County Convention
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coppel and their son were over to Plattsmouth on last Tuesday, where Mrs. Coppel, who is president of the Alvo Woman's club, was attending a gathering of the presidents of clubs over the county, held at the home of Mrs. James T. Begley, wife of District Judge Begley, who is president of the county organization. Plans were made for the county convention to be held in Louisville in October. An excellent time was had and all enjoyed the splendid program and the fine luncheon which was served by Mrs. Begley following the program.

Makes Purchase of Property
John Coleman has recently purchased the property where Roy Clifton has resided during their residence in Alvo. Mr. and Mrs. Clifton are to move to Kansas, where Mr. Clifton is employed with the Rock Island road as a track worker.

Visited at Valentine
Misses Lucille and Chloe Buesing and Doris Nelson, who have been visiting for the past ten days at Valentine, where they were guests of relatives and where they have many friends, returned home on last Wednesday, they coming to Omaha on the train and were met there by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Nelson. The party report a very fine visit while they were in the northwestern part of the state. John Woods and Miss Clara Rueter were looking after business at the Nelson store while Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were at Omaha.

Make Home in Chicago
Little Betty Mutz, who has been visiting here for some time past at the home of her grandparents, I. A. Bird and wife, and where she enjoyed a very good time, returned to her home in Chicago, and was accompanied by her aunt, Miss Eula Bird, who is accepting a position there which she has been tendered. She was formerly assisting with the work at the telephone exchange, but as business is quiet, she has had no work for some time.

Keeps Money Here
Simon Rehmster, in order to supply as many people with employment at home as possible, has instituted a system of selling ground feed to the Omaha customers and on last Wednesday, with a load of oats in one truck and the feed mill on another truck, with still another to haul the ground feed in, and with Frank Plymale, John Skinner and Sterling Coat-nan as assistants, quickly turned out a load of ground feed which was taken to Omaha by John Skinner and Sterling Coatsman.

When they were there with a load of corn last week, the pickets allowed them to proceed with their delivery, but told them not to come back again. However, John and Sterling went on Wednesday afternoon just the same.

Gave Good Entertainment
The Alvo Hardware and Implement company last Saturday night gave a free moving picture show, which was attended by a large number of people and who enjoyed the show very much. The feature was put out by the International Harvester company and included on the program were a number of comics as well.

Alvo Schools to Open
The Alvo schools are to open for the coming year and will be supplied with an efficient teaching force who will look after the education of the students during the coming nine months. There has been a reduction in the number of instructors, made necessary on account of a required curtailment of expenditures for school operation.

Will Return Home Soon
Charles C. Bucknell and wife, who were visiting here for some time and later went to Sioux City to visit with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Veal Lynch, returned to Alvo early last week and after having visited here for a time will depart for their home at Burlington, Colo.

4-H Club Holds Election
The 4-H Cooking club held their achievement program at the church on Friday afternoon, August 26, with several guests present in addition to the club members. The program was as follows:
Song by girls of club.
Dialogue, Florence Roelofs and Mary West.
Solo, Iris Miller.
Recitation, Laverne Holka, Irene Peterson and Lela Rueter.
Duet, Iris Miller and Verna Vickers.
Dialogue, Joan Cook and Catherine Edwards.
Song by club girls.

At the conclusion of the program, the business meeting was held, including election of officers. Those named were: Florence Roelofs, president; Joan Cook, vice president; Verna Vickers, secretary and Iris Miller, news reporter.

The girls rounded out the afternoon in nice manner by serving punch and their home made cookies. All are looking forward to another year of interesting and educational work in Home Economics lines.

Happy Workers.
We are glad to let you all know that our achievement day was a success. We had an audience of about 65 including our mothers, and tried to give them a good program, which was as follows:
A cake demonstration by Florence Roelofs and Mary West; A piano solo by Verna Vickers; A play by Joan Cook and Katherine Edwards; a poem, "Feeding Father," by Josephine Stewart; a piano solo by Iris Miller; a poem, "Our House in Early Morn," by La Vern Hafka; a poem, "A Pleasant Smile," by Iris Miller; "An Abused Stomach," a reading by Lela Rueter; a piano duet by Verna Vickers and Iris Miller; a poem "Make the Best Better," by Irene Peterson. We sang two songs, "Dreaming" and "Club Work."

We all received our certificates and are going to exhibit at the county fair. We served a lunch of punch and cookies. We are going to take girls from next year.

REPORTER.

SECRET SIX TO CARRY ON
Chicago.—Investigation of State's Attorney Swanson's office by the "secret six" will continue, Col. Robert Randolph made known. His chief investigator, Alexander Jamie, reiterated his charge that a "politico-criminal cabal" existed in Swanson's office after having retracted the accusation. "Jamie would have preferred to have kept that quiet," his office announced, "but now that it is out he wants to stand back of it."

Jamie said "satisfactory progress" was being made in his investigation, warranting its continuance. Randolph, director of the crime fighting group of the Chicago association of commerce, conferred with Jamie and said he would not interfere in the controversy raised when Jamie seized Swanson's agents tapping "secret six" telephone lines. The state's attorney issued a statement observing that it was a "curious anomaly" that the "secret six," which he himself had suggested several years ago, should turn around and investigate him.

LOCAL NEWS
From Thursday's Daily
Thomas H. Cotton of McCook, Nebraska, is the guest of Miss Vivian Moore this week.

Mrs. Ethel Bennett of Malvern, Iowa, is here for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Mason and also looking after the family lot in Oak Hill cemetery.

From Friday's Daily
Mr. and Mrs. George Vogler and daughter, Edith, of near Louisville, were in the city today for a few hours looking after some business matters and visiting with friends.

Miss Dorothy Wichmann, who has spent the past week here with her father, Rev. O. G. Wichmann, returned this afternoon to Denver where she is engaged in teaching in the schools.

From Saturday's Daily
Joe McCarthy of Aurora, Illinois, is here to visit over Sunday and Labor Day with the relatives and friends while enjoying a vacation from his shop work.

James R. Tremble, residing at the Nebraska Masonic Home, departed Friday evening for Sullivan, Illinois, where he was called by the serious illness of a sister. He expects to spend several days at the bedside of the sister.

FOR SALE—New seed Rye, 50c per bushel.—John Rice, Cedar Creek.

Taxpayers Session Flays State Police Proposal
Resolution Condemning the Move Given Approval Unanimously at the Meeting.

Grand Island, Neb., Sept. 1.—The Nebraska Federation of County Taxpayers Leagues pounced this afternoon on Attorney General Sorenson's proposed referendum for a law enforcement commission.

A resolution condemning the proposal introduced by John M. Paul of Harvard was passed unanimously by delegates to the state convention here. Paul is socialist candidate for governor.

The delegates objected to the project on the grounds it would create a new bureau; impose no limitation on the number of highway patrolmen employed or wages paid; would take from each city and county the right to manage and control its own officers; and that it might entail an annual actual expense of two million dollars.

The resolution was discussed 40 minutes but no objections to it were raised.

Discuss Income Tax.
Speakers asserted Sorenson paid personally three thousand dollars for circulating initiative petitions for the referendum and that he paid 5 cents apiece for signatures.

The delegates considered resolution on reflation of the currency and on relieving the property tax burden by an income tax.

The principal debate of the morning was over the wording to a protest against existing tax burdens. As originally worded, it declared the league was organized "in the spirit of protest against existing conditions arising from the assessment of high taxes which are confiscatory as compared with present incomes."

A motion to insert the word "property" before the word "incomes" brought on about 10 minutes of debate, and finally resulted in withdrawal of the motion. A second motion to insert as the final phrase of the sentence following the word "confiscatory," the words "and not in harmony with our general incomes," but this amendment was also slaughtered by the opponents.

GARNERS PROFIT ON CATTLE

South St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 1.—A new top price for beef cattle in more than a year was reported at the South St. Paul market when Robert J. Nelson, farmer of Tracy, Minn., sold two carloads of choice steers for $9.50 per hundredweights to Swift & Co. One load of eighteen head averaged 1,403 pounds each, and the second, with twenty steers, averaged 1,236 pounds.

Both shipments were marketed through the central co-operative association. Nelson paid $5 per cwt. when he bought the cattle for feeding last October. He made an estimated gross profit on the lot of more than $3,000 and a net profit of nearly $2,000.

Mayor Walker Resigns; To Seek Vindication

Act of Gotham Executive Comes as Climax of Hearings—Will Run for Re-election.

New York, Sept. 1.—Mayor James J. Walker Thursday night announced he was resigning his office immediately.

The announcement was made at 10:20 p. m.

This step probably puts to an end the hearing of charges against Walker, which had been scheduled to resume Friday before Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt in Albany.

Aldermanic President Joseph V. McKee automatically succeeds Walker as New York's chief executive.

Walker and his advisers decided that he seek vindication by running again for mayor. It was said that a court case might be necessary to determine whether he could run this November or would have to wait until the regular mayoralty election in 1933.

Walker was convinced that he was not getting a square deal in the hearings before Governor Roosevelt.

The text of the resignation as made public at city hall was as follows:

"Hon. Michael J. Cruise, City Clerk of the city of New York,
"Municipal building,
"New York.
"Dear Sir:
"I hereby resign as mayor of the city of New York, the same resignation to take effect immediately.
"Very truly yours,
"(Signed)
"JAMES J. WALKER.
"Mayor."

Walker said the question had become this:

"Shall I permit myself to be lynched to satisfy prejudice or political ambition?"

In resigning to let the voters for vindication of charges on which his removal had been asked, Walker stepped out of an office he had occupied since 1925.

MINERS FORMULATE POLICY

Gillespie, Ill.—Petitions asking for the removal of District President John W. Walker and other officials of the Illinois district of the United Mine Workers of America were presented at the "rank and file" meeting of striking coal diggers when opened here but no action was taken by the convention pending a check of the number of signatures. Union laws require that 51 percent of the approximately 45,000 union miners of the state sign such petitions before the state officers are subject to recall.

Demands for higher wages, calling for the old basic wage scale of $6.19 a day and 91 cents a ton for hand loaders to replace the recently adopted $5 basic schedule with a tonnage rate of 68 cents, and a six hour day and five day week also were before the convention. Members of the policy committee of the miners' protest group said 250 delegates from Illinois and 22 from Indiana were participating in the discussions and that they represented 75 percent of the organized miners in the two states.

Leaders said they hoped to formulate a program which would induce most of the union miners now employed to quit work in order that the miners' forces would be solidified in the campaign for a return to a wage scale in effect up until last Spring.

TWO IDENTIFY BOTTORFF

Fremont, Neb.—R. A. Twiss, Pilger farmer, and Marshal Herman Nuttleman of Wisner Friday identified Harry Bottorff as the gunman who kidnaped Twiss and his son Willard, after a battle with Nuttleman recently. Bottorff is held here pending trial for robbing the Hahn garage and officers says he was wounded by Nuttleman but escaped in an automobile with the Twisses whom he forced to drive him to Arlington.

Farmers' Grain Group Reports a Large Profit

Annual Meeting Hears Corporation Handled 148,000,000 Bushels—$1,000,000 Cleared.

Chicago, August 29.—The Farmers' National Grain Corporation, the federally sponsored co-operative whose differences with the Chicago Board of Trade recently came to a head, earned a net profit last year of more than $1,000,000 in handling 148,000,000 bushels of grain, it was reported at the corporation's annual meeting here today.

The fact that the corporation survived, rendered an adequate service and even prospered during a year of unsettled conditions, was stressed as extremely significant by Mr. Walter I. Beam, vice president and treasurer, in giving his report.

Reviewing the year during which it was claimed the corporation had not only experienced "extreme growth, expansion and adjustment," but had refined its operations, cut its costs and generally strengthened its position, Mr. C. E. Huff, the president, declared that efforts to alienate farmers from the co-operative movement at this late date could not possibly succeed.

Merchandising policies of the Farmers' National have not only returned higher prices to its members than those paid by its competitors, but have placed producers in all areas in better position with respect to marketing their commodity, Mr. Geo. S. Milnor, general manager, said in his report.

The 148,000,000 bushels of grain handled during the fiscal year ending May 31 did not include that purchased from or handled for the Grain Stabilization Corporation, Mr. Milnor reported. The corporation has increased its storage facilities in country and terminal warehouses 55,000,000 bushels in the past year, from 20,000,000 to 75,000,000 bushels.

Farmers' Grain Group Reports a Large Profit

Annual Meeting Hears Corporation Handled 148,000,000 Bushels—$1,000,000 Cleared.

Chicago, August 29.—The Farmers' National Grain Corporation, the federally sponsored co-operative whose differences with the Chicago Board of Trade recently came to a head, earned a net profit last year of more than $1,000,000 in handling 148,000,000 bushels of grain, it was reported at the corporation's annual meeting here today.

The fact that the corporation survived, rendered an adequate service and even prospered during a year of unsettled conditions, was stressed as extremely significant by Mr. Walter I. Beam, vice president and treasurer, in giving his report.

Reviewing the year during which it was claimed the corporation had not only experienced "extreme growth, expansion and adjustment," but had refined its operations, cut its costs and generally strengthened its position, Mr. C. E. Huff, the president, declared that efforts to alienate farmers from the co-operative movement at this late date could not possibly succeed.

Merchandising policies of the Farmers' National have not only returned higher prices to its members than those paid by its competitors, but have placed producers in all areas in better position with respect to marketing their commodity, Mr. Geo. S. Milnor, general manager, said in his report.

The 148,000,000 bushels of grain handled during the fiscal year ending May 31 did not include that purchased from or handled for the Grain Stabilization Corporation, Mr. Milnor reported. The corporation has increased its storage facilities in country and terminal warehouses 55,000,000 bushels in the past year, from 20,000,000 to 75,000,000 bushels.

It was also pointed out that during the past year the corporation had improved its financial standing by making a funding agreement with the Federal Government to pay back its $16,000,000 debt over a 10-year period.

Mr. C. V. Gregory, auditor of the Prairie Farmer, said it would undoubtedly be a long step backward to give up the gains which had been made under co-operative marketing, and declared that the fight to abolish the Farm Board was really a fight directed against co-operative marketing.

The channel is planned to be 200 feet wide, but when pressure was brought to bear to speed up the construction, it was necessary to concentrate activities on a 100-foot channel for the time being. The full

Journal Want-Ads get results!

DODGE FARMERS ORGANIZE
Fremont, Neb., Sept. 1.—A thousand farmers have organized the Dodge County Farmers Holiday association. C. O. Schiferl, elected president at a meeting here, said local organizations will be formed at once in each township.

GRAPES FOR SALE
One-cent per pound. Fred Dreckner, four miles north of Nehawka.

Engineers Rush Work on Illinois Inland 'Seaway'

Completion of 100-Foot Channel Planned for October—Connects Great Lakes, Mississippi River.

Chicago.—The inland waterway connecting the Great Lakes and the Mississippi River, the dream of many years, is to come true in part about the middle of October, it is stated here by United States engineers in charge of the work.

Construction is being rushed over the route from Chicago to Utica, on the Illinois River, which empties into the "Father of Waters," in the effort to complete a usable 100-foot wide, nine-foot deep channel some six months ahead of the schedule.

This opening will give "seaway" communication to many towns. Local terminals for barge fleets are being constructed, and several barge lines have begun limited operations in anticipation of the 7,500,000 annual tonnage which engineers estimate may be developed along the route. The Federal Barge Lines recently ordered six new barges.

Use of the canal will be restricted to low barges and tugs with hinged stacks for some time, it is said, because a number of stationary bridges remain to be placed on piers.

Some of the publicly owned bridges have been reconstructed, but not those of the sanitary district of Chicago. Its bridges are movable, and are not equipped with the machinery to move them. The sanitary district has no money, due to delayed tax payments and inability to sell new bond issues, with which to undertake the task of putting power in these bridges. Two railroads have begun remarking their bridges, but several others are doing nothing.

The channel is planned to be 200 feet wide, but when pressure was brought to bear to speed up the construction, it was necessary to concentrate activities on a 100-foot channel for the time being. The full

BRANDEIS TROUBLE ENDED
Los Angeles, Sept. 1.—The Examiner said E. John Brandeis, wealthy sportsman of Los Angeles and Omaha, and his estranged wife, Claire Blavette, French beauty, are reported reconciled after starting divorce proceedings. The reconciliation came about, friends were reported as saying, after a chance meeting on ocean beach near here. The two are said to be living at his Santa Monica home.

Brandeis filed suit for divorce several weeks ago, alleging mental cruelty. His wife replied with a cross complaint, claiming he had sought to prevent her entry into this country. They were married in Paris in 1929. She is the daughter of Dr. Victor Blavette, French surgeon, and he is the son of a wealthy Omaha family.

Plattsmouth stores offer every shopping advantage of the larger city, plus a personal contact between buyer and seller that means far more than the "opportunity of choosing from an extra shade or two of pink."

American Designers Lead with New Fashions

Home Creations Well Ahead of Paris with Latest Styles for Late Fall and Early Winter. Color and Fabric Stressed.

Milady is going to be very enthusiastic over the new clothes for the coming season. American designers have excelled their foreign competitors, and even themselves, in turning out a lovely line of creations in all models—street, sports and formal—so entrancing that milady will not be able to resist them. Wool leads in the choice of fabrics for street and sports wear and velvet for formal evening. Above are three models chosen by Hollywood notables. At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna Loy in a smart outfit of Chartrouse wool. It is novel in its vari-colored woven fabric waist band and collar. The smart little hat is of the same material. In center, Jean Harlow wears a gorgeous velvet evening gown. It has a creamy lace bodice and is trimmed with wide bands of silver fox fur. At right is a tweed and pique combination, worn by Madge Evans. The dress shows a short-sleeved tie-around top with pique fashioning the cuffs and vestee, which is finished with a cat-whisker bow. The most fashionable colors this season are all shades of red of rosy tones from light to deep wine shades.

At left is Myrna