

MURDOCK ITEMS

George Bornman and August Ruge were shelling and delivering corn to the Farmers Grain company Thursday of last week.

Lawrence Race and the good wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a very fine son, who with the mother are reported as getting along very nicely. Lawrence is also very happy.

Paul Fleming, of Manley, was a visitor in Murdock on last Thursday, accompanied by two of his children, and was over to see the family doctor, Dr. L. D. Lee and get some medicine for his illness.

Miss Evelyn Kuehn, who underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils, at Lincoln a short time since, is getting along nicely at this time and is expecting to be entirely well in a short time.

Joseph J. Gustin, who has been very sick at his home for the past three weeks and has been under the care of the family physician is so far improved that he is again able to be out and was in town one day during the past week.

Robert Rager and wife of near Gretna were visiting in Murdock last Friday afternoon, Mrs. Rager attending the meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America when they entertained the lodges at Manley, Weeping Water and Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel went to Ithaca last Sunday afternoon, to call on an old friend, Mr. Herman Hageman, who suffered a paralytic stroke some years ago. They found the sufferer quite helpless, but still cheerful, just waiting for the end.

E. D. Friend and wife, parents of Mrs. Eddie Craig, gave a dinner on last Sunday in honor of the passing of the birthday of Eddie, and which was at their home north of Alvo. The event was greatly enjoyed by a small circle of friends and relatives.

Charles Haerdt, who has been in the hospital at Omaha for some time, where he has been under treatment, and who was very seriously ill for some weeks, is reported as being a great deal improved at this time, and it is hoped that in due course of time he will be able to return home entirely well.

The members of the E. L. C. E. of the Callihan church gave a very pleasant reception and miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chestnut on Tuesday of last week. Many presents, tokens of the high regard in which this young couple are held, were presented and accompanied by the wishes of all for the happiness and prosperity of the newly-weds.

Combined Band Furnishes Music

A combination of the Louisville, Elmwood and Callahan bands furnished the music for the Callahan picnic which was held on September 26th. The band was directed by A. W. Hawkins, of Weeping Water, and Dr. Ziegenbein, of Ashland. The principal address for the afternoon was delivered by the Rev. Cobb, of Wesleyan University and was entitled "Quo Vadis," or where are you going, and which is a very pertinent question to all and especially the young in their selection of a life's work.

Callahan Bible School

The Bible school at the Callahan church is one of much life and interest, they having a membership of one hundred and sixty-six, one half of this number being adults, and the remainder intermediates and primary attendants. There are six adult classes on whose shoulders as well as the church membership rests the success of the workings of the Bible school and the church. Martin Boremeier is the efficient superintendent and Harry Stock the secretary. There are eighty members of the adult classes and of the Mission band, 16. The Senior League comprises 51 members and the Junior League 18. A good live working Bible school and also a vigorous working church with Rev. Hugo A. Borenberg as pastor—that expresses in few words what can well be said about the Callahan church.

Adolph Kuehn Dies

Adolph Kuehn was born in Germany in the year 1857, July 20th, and was, when he passed away on last Sunday, 75 years, 1 month and 7 days of age. In 1884 he came to America and settled at Germantown, northwest of Lincoln, the name of the town being changed to Malcolm since then. He was united in marriage with Miss Pauline Pullman in 1888, which union was blessed with thirteen children, six of whom have preceded the father to the other world, two sons and four daughters. There remain to mourn his departure, besides the wife and mother, seven children, two sons and five daughters. Mr. Kuehn resided near Murdock for many years and removed to near Malcolm, where he continued to engage in farming. The funeral was held at the Lutheran church in the country near Malcolm and interment was in the cemetery of the Trinity Lutheran church two miles north of Murdock. The funeral and burial was held on Tuesday of last week, August 30th.

Good Time at Callahan

The picnic at the Callahan church on Friday of last week was one of much interest and success and attracted a large and greatly interested crowd. A conservative estimate places the number there at around 800 people. A very interesting phase was the collection of antiques of which there were many on display. The one to draw the first prize was a Bible owned by S. H. Dinger, of Palmyra, which was known as a Lutheran Bible and was published in 1620, the same year that the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock. In the spinning contest, in which there were four entries, the prize was won by Mrs. Henry Reicke. Two ball games were played, the Girls of Callahan winning over the Misses of the team from Murdock, while the Murdock boys won over the country lads.

SEPTEMER MORN On the Banks of the Old Missouri

September morn, they step on the grass, And start the youngsters to school, With laughter and song they go through the grass, And inhale the atmosphere cool.

September morn, the clouds appear Like ocean spray in the blue, They dance and sing regardless of fear, Then drop to the earth as dew.

September morn, with that crop of corn, All safe and in the shock, Makes the recipient dain even to scorn, The Giver who stands on the rock.

September morn, the birds assemble, With gladness and joy they bring, Though our hearts sadden and even tremble, For fear they won't return in the spring.

September morn, at the Masonic Home, The trees put on their autumn hue, As the residents prepare to roam, The hills and dales all through.

September morn, as breakfast we eat, We close the windows down, To carefully conserve a little heat, That in August caused a frown.

September morn, the pesky gong, Breaks our slumbers all too soon, And calls the laggard to whistle his song, Before the lovers get ready to spoon.

September morn, all gay and bright, As music swells the breeze, Fills our hearts with new born light, As the zephyrs rustle the trees.

September morn, without a care, The Masonic Home has given, All residents time enough to spare, To think of those who have just riven.

September eve, is drawing near, As the leaves from the trees drop brown and sear, We are one by one laid to rest, In the sweet quietude of Loves' hillcrest.

TROPICAL STORM DIES OUT

Mobile, Ala.—The tropical storm which swept into the Gulf of Mexico from the Bahamas after crossing the southern tip of Florida and striking the northern gulf coast line south of Mobile was centered near Meridian, Miss., with greatly diminished force. The disturbance was described by the weather bureau as being confined to heavy rains around which centered only stiff winds. Meridian had only a twenty-two mile wind as the storm center passed west of the city. Hurricane and storm warnings along the Alabama and Mississippi coasts were ordered down after fifty to sixty mile winds had lashed the section. Only one death was officially reported. Ben Baker, twelve, was fatally injured when he came in contact with a live wire which had been blown into the street at Pensacola, Fla.

Horton Mortuary

Day and Night Service
Hearse and Ambulance

Murdock - Nebraska

change, just remember they cannot unlock the safe, nor can anyone, until the clock moves round to the hour of opening the following morning.

Herbert Steinkamp and wife, who have been working in Oklahoma for some time, arrived in Manley on last Sunday evening and are visiting for some time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Steinkamp.

SEPTEMER MORN On the Banks of the Old Missouri

September morn, they step on the grass, And start the youngsters to school, With laughter and song they go through the grass, And inhale the atmosphere cool.

September morn, the clouds appear Like ocean spray in the blue, They dance and sing regardless of fear, Then drop to the earth as dew.

September morn, with that crop of corn, All safe and in the shock, Makes the recipient dain even to scorn, The Giver who stands on the rock.

September morn, the birds assemble, With gladness and joy they bring, Though our hearts sadden and even tremble, For fear they won't return in the spring.

September morn, at the Masonic Home, The trees put on their autumn hue, As the residents prepare to roam, The hills and dales all through.

September morn, as breakfast we eat, We close the windows down, To carefully conserve a little heat, That in August caused a frown.

September morn, the pesky gong, Breaks our slumbers all too soon, And calls the laggard to whistle his song, Before the lovers get ready to spoon.

September morn, all gay and bright, As music swells the breeze, Fills our hearts with new born light, As the zephyrs rustle the trees.

September morn, without a care, The Masonic Home has given, All residents time enough to spare, To think of those who have just riven.

September eve, is drawing near, As the leaves from the trees drop brown and sear, We are one by one laid to rest, In the sweet quietude of Loves' hillcrest.

Mobile, Ala.—The tropical storm which swept into the Gulf of Mexico from the Bahamas after crossing the southern tip of Florida and striking the northern gulf coast line south of Mobile was centered near Meridian, Miss., with greatly diminished force. The disturbance was described by the weather bureau as being confined to heavy rains around which centered only stiff winds. Meridian had only a twenty-two mile wind as the storm center passed west of the city. Hurricane and storm warnings along the Alabama and Mississippi coasts were ordered down after fifty to sixty mile winds had lashed the section. Only one death was officially reported. Ben Baker, twelve, was fatally injured when he came in contact with a live wire which had been blown into the street at Pensacola, Fla.

Journal Want-Ads cost only a few cents and get real results!

Manley News Items

Frank Misck and the family departed for Lincoln, where they will make their home for some time.

Many of the relatives of Mrs. Theo Harms, from Talmage, have been daily visitors in Manley during her severe illness.

Mrs. August Krecklow, who was quite ill for a number of days during the past week is reported as being much improved.

Herman J. Rauth was making hay during the latter portion of last week and getting it out of the way of other work to follow.

Miss Maggie Wolpert was for a time last week feeling very poorly and was kept to her bed, but later reports tell of her showing good improvement.

M. R. Colburn, the Missouri Pacific agent at Elmwood and Lee Coon were in Manley on last Thursday morning, looking after some business matters for a short time.

Phillip Sauter, C. W. Rippe and L. M. Crawford, all members of the Nebraska Masonic home family at Plattsmouth, were visiting in Manley for a short time last Thursday.

Anton Auerswald was called to Omaha on last Thursday to secure some repairs and supplies for the shop and while he was away the place was looked after by C. E. Mockenhaupt.

Mrs. John Palcek, of Plattsmouth, has been visiting for the past few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John A. Stander, and has been enjoying the visit very much as has also the daughter.

John Falischman and the family, of Louisville, were over to Manley on Wednesday of last week, he coming to look after some business matters and to visit with his brother, Fred Falischman and family.

Grover Rhoden and the family were over to Plattsmouth on Wednesday of last week, where they were looking after some business, visiting with friends and as well attending the Russell Brothers Circus.

Herbert Steinkamp and wife, who have been working in Oklahoma for some time, arrived in Manley on last Sunday evening and are visiting for some time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Steinkamp.

A number of members of the Royal Neighbors of America were over to Murdock, where they were enjoying a meeting which was being given in honor of this and the Weeping Water and Elmwood lodges all being guests of the Murdock lodge.

Mrs. Theodore Harms, who has been so ill at her home in Manley for more than a week, and has been kept to her bed, is reported as being somewhat improved of late, and it is hoped and desired that she may soon be in her former good health again.

Frank Stander, of Omaha, was a visitor in Manley and vicinity one day this week, he coming down to look after some business matters and had to say that while he was able to get about he was still suffering somewhat from the injuries which he received in the wreck two weeks ago.

Walter Jenkins, of Havelock, was a visitor in Manley on last Wednesday and brought Clyde Jenkins and family here. Clyde has lost the position which he held and comes to Manley to occupy the home of his mother as it was unoccupied and it would save the rent which he would have to pay in Lincoln.

Mrs. Charles Gade and daughter, Delores, of Ashland, were visiting for a number of days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falischman, and were accompanied by her sister, Miss Rachel Fleischman, who has been at the Charles Gade home in Ashland for nearly a month past assisting in the work there. Miss Rachel was visiting at Falls City with a cousin before going to Ashland, being away from home for some time. The entire family were enjoying the occasion.

Hugh O'Brien and family were visiting with friends and relatives in Omaha on last Sunday, stopping at Plattsmouth, where they picked up Miss Eleanor O'Brien, who also accompanied them on into Omaha. Returning, they came via Plattsmouth, to return Miss Eleanor to her work, she being one of the operators employed at the Plattsmouth telephone exchange. They all enjoyed the visit in Omaha.

At the ball game a week ago yesterday, which was played at Manley, the home team won over the visitors, Greenwood, by a score of 4 to 3. The Manley team was scheduled to play at Waverly yesterday, but we have no report on the outcome. Next Sunday winds up the league season with Elmwood here for the closing game. A complete report of league activities is promised us for publication at the close of the season, showing how the teams stand in the percentage column and other general information.

August Glauibitz Improving

Notwithstanding his advanced age and his very serious injuries, August Glauibitz, over 90 years of age, who has been at the St. Joseph hospital since his injury in the auto wreck two weeks ago, is showing good improvement, it being confidently expected that he would be able to leave the institution during the latter portion of the past week.

Enjoyed Social Gathering

The people of Manley were enjoying an ice cream social which was held at the Manley hall on Monday evening of last week at which there were not only a large number of the home folks present but many from out of town. O. C. Hinds, Weeping Water banker, took home the silver service that was offered as a prize.

Married Last Sunday at Church

On last Sunday, August 28th, there was celebrated the wedding of Miss Eula Schliefert, of Manley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schliefert, to Walter Kupke, of Hardsville, where he is working in a bank. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. George Kupke, brother of the groom, who resides at Magnolia, Iowa, where he is a minister to the church.

The wedding ceremony was performed at the Emanuel Lutheran church, in the presence of about one hundred friends and neighbors and relatives. Following the ceremony, the guests, friends and neighbors repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Andrew Schliefert, where a delightful wedding dinner awaited them. The young people will make their home at Hardsville, where Mr. Kupke is employed in a bank.

Were After No Good

Three suspicious looking strangers, driving an Essex car with but three tires thereon, were in Manley for a number of days and nights, and were driving and lurking in the alleys, arousing the suspicion of the citizens who concluded to find out what they were up to. They camped on an unused road east of town and when the car appeared with but two in it, Oscar Dowler and John Gruber accosted the two and asked what they were lurking about the town for, and were told that they car was giving trouble. When asked about the whereabouts of the third man, they denied that there was a third until Mr. Gruber said he knew there was and that if they did not get out of town and stay out he would have them arrested.

They immediately shook the dust of Manley from their feet—worn auto tires, rim, or what have you—and departed, headed westward. They were trailed as far as Eagle on their way towards Lincoln.

It is quite probable their intentions were robbery and that they were making surveys of the town to locate where they might rob some home or store.

It is a good plan to view with suspicion strangers who loiter about a town day after day, for usually the purpose of their visit is for no good cause.

Schliefert-Kupke Wedding Last Sunday

Marriage of Members of Two of Prominent Families of County at Louisville.

Miss Eula Schliefert, of Manley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schliefert, and Walter Kupke, of Hardsville, Nebraska, were united in marriage at Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran church southwest of Louisville last Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, Rev. George Kupke, of Magnolia officiating. The minister and nearly all of the bridal couple were closely related by family ties.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white and she wore a long veil. Hulda Schliefert, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Leila Stohlman was bridesmaid. Miss Mary McHugh was also a member of the bridal party, being an attendant.

Paul Stohlman, son of Mrs. Louise Stohlman, was best man and is a cousin of the groom. Martin Bohlsion, of Omaha, played the wedding march. Preceding the ceremony, Misses Ruth Stohlman and Lola Vogler sang a duet, "Oh, Perfect Love," very sweetly. The bride's attendants were gowned in attractive dresses of delicate tints and the little flower girl, Dorothy Kupke, was attired in yellow. Donald Kroeger, of Omaha, was ring bearer.

After the ceremony, the wedding party and guests assembled at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schliefert, where dainty refreshments were served by three charming girls, Misses Marguerite Hartman, Ruth Stohlman and Lola

WEDNESDAY Newest Fall Turbans! Sailors! Brims!

... of Soft, Pliant Felts!

The time's right ... and so are the hats. Little affairs with big bows ... stitched sailors ... swooping brims ... deftly draped turbans. Get yours Wednesday ... and have the fun of wearing your new fall hat while it's really new.

Black Brown Wine Tones Green
COMPLETE RANGE OF HEAD SIZES
$1.49 $1.95

Ladies Toggery

The Shop of Personal Service
Plattsmouth, Nebr.

Vogler. Among the guests were a number of Omaha relatives and friends and also from Lincoln, Murdock and Alvo.

On account of illness in the neighborhood, the customary charivari was not given, which is a token of popularity among their friends, but they gathered at the home to present their compliments and best wishes and were privileged to get the bride and groom in person.

These young people are highly esteemed and represent two of Cass county's oldest and most prominent families. The groom has a position of responsibility in a bank at Hardsville, where they will make their future home.

They have a host of friends who will wish them happiness and success in their future life together.—Louisville Courier.

RESUMES SCHOOL WORK

Miss Ella Margaret Wiles, who has been spending the summer here at the family home, departed Friday afternoon for Grand Island, where she will take up her school work the coming week. Miss Wiles has been very successful in her work in several of the Nebraska cities and for the past two years has taught in the Grand Island schools, one of the large school systems of the state.

If you want to sell anything, try a Journal Want-Ad. The cost is small.

As Court Ruled Against Walker

Justice Ellis J. Staley (left), of the New York Supreme Court, is shown as he handed to John J. Curtin, attorney for Mayor James J. Walker, the decision whereby he ruled that the judiciary has no power to interfere with the functions of the Governor of the State. The Walker forces had sought a writ prohibiting Governor Roosevelt from removing him from office if, in the Governor's opinion, the evidence presented at the hearing warrants such drastic action.

TIME LOCK HOURS

In view of the recent bank robberies wherein the officers of the banks have been compelled to go to the bank at early or late hours and open the safe, being then carried away with the loot, the BANK OF MURDOCK has adopted the plan of locking the time lock safe at 4 p. m., and setting same to open at 9 a. m. the following day (except in case of Sunday, when it is set to open at 9 Monday morning).

We will do all in our power to safely guard your money in our keeping. Now kindly remember our hours and help us make the country safe for depositors.

The Bank of Murdock

Murdock, Nebraska