Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, October 2nd

By L. Neitzel

The Christian's Devotional Life Matt. 6:5-15; H Tim. 3:14-17.

For the next three months we will study "The Standard of Christian Living." It should prove very beneficial to all who will apply themselves to the study of it. And as every worth-while undertaking should begin with prayer, so we begin these lessons with the study "What Prayer Is." Here is an outline of the lesson:

Prayer is—

- 1—Joyful communion with God. (Psalm 1:1-6.)
2—Thoughtful communion with God. (Psalm 119:1-6.)
3—Regular communion with God. (Dan 6:10.)
4—Trustful communion with God. (Matt. 6:5-15.)
5—Scriptural communion with God. (H Tim. 3:14-17.)

The Christian longs for the "sweet hour of prayer;" it is his delight to talk with his best friend, to confide in him, telling him what a joy and pleasure it gives him to be with him. We must "take time to be holy, to speak of with the Lord." Jesus spent much time in communion with his Father; so did the apostles; so have all the saints of God. Daniel had regular hours of prayer, and what a character he was! Nothing could swerve him from the path of righteousness and loyalty to God.

Daniel had method in his devotion. Three times a day "he knelt upon his knees," at 9 a. m., at noon and at 3 p. m. And other things being equal, the man of method is the man of achievement, in things spiritual as in things temporal.

Jesus teaches his disciples, first, how NOT to pray. Orientals prayed standing. The scribes and Pharisees would seek out places where they could be seen, in the synagogues and on street corners. Their religion was more for show and externals. What they were looking for was men's praise, and that is what they got. They were not seeking true communion with God.

Alone with God, behind the "closed" door, where no one but God can see you! Having shut out all the frets and worries and distractions of life, then, and only then, the petitioner can lay his soul bare before God, in worship, praise, thanksgiving, supplication and intercession.

God does recompense in his own way. The consciousness of having been with Jesus will soon be apparent, as in the case of Peter and John in Acts 4:13, where we read that the supreme court took "knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." Vain repetitions in prayer show only thoughtlessness. The heathen will best during the fore part of the week but still kept at his work. However he is feeling much better at this time.

Three Lehnart brothers of east of Avoca were visiting in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday and stopped in Murray for a short time to look after some business matters.

T. J. Paterson of Newton, Iowa departed last Tuesday for his home there. He had been visiting his brother, Wm. Paterson, and also at Weeping Water with other relatives.

Mesdames George E. Nickles, J. F. Brendel, Henry G. Long and Don C. Rhoden were over to the Eight Mile Grove church to the ladies aid meeting on last Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Frank Mrasek delivered some forty head of stock cattle feeders to the farm of Jacob Binger the first of this week. He will put them on feed and return them to the market.

Frank Mrasek with his fleet of trucks was over to Omaha last Tuesday with three loads of hogs, two from the feeding pens of C. R. Troop and one from the pens of Albert W. Wheeler.

On Thursday, Oct. 13, will be the annual supper at Lewiston Community Center. This will be the regular 25c chicken supper that the Lewiston Community Center is famous for.

C. R. Troop and George Troop will feed cattle this winter at the home of George Troop. They received from Omaha twenty one head on last Monday, the same being delivered by Frank Mrasek and the boys.

Mrs. Ed Leach was a visitor at Peru on last Friday evening, going down to bring her daughter, Miss Harriet, home. She is attending school at the state normal and was spending the week end at home.

R. A. Noell, with his lister, was plowing potatoes out on last Tuesday and the owners, B. H. Nelson, Henry Heebner and Joseph Staska were picking them up and storing them. The potato crop in this vicinity is excellent.

Andrew Dort Bakke and the family were enjoying a visit at the Sweden of America, which is Essex, Ia. Mr. and Mrs. Bakke were former residents of that place and have many friends there which the family enjoyed visiting last Sunday.

O. A. Davis was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon where he went to attend the meeting of the Republican County Central Committee. He was accompanied by Major Isaac Hall who is the committee man from east Rock Bluffs.

Delbert Todd was in town and secured some lumber and metal strips which are used instead of wood buttons and is to make his hen house warmer, well knowing that the best care for the flock is reflected in their better production of eggs and flesh.

Frank Ozburn, formerly employed with the Murray Garage some six years ago, was a visitor with his friend, W. L. Seybolt. He has been making his home at Waukeo, Iowa and was accompanied here by his brother Earl Ozburn and Misses Helen Willis and Helen Frazier all of Waukeo.

Aubrey Townsend who has been so sick for the past two weeks was able to be down to the barber shop for a short time each day. He was attempting to work but becomes so weak he has to sit down. He however is gaining slowly and is hoping soon to be able to be back to work again.

George E. Nickles, candidate for state representative, and W. B. Banning, candidate for state senator, both on the democratic ticket, were over to Louisville where they were enjoying the banquet that was given by the Ashgrove Cement Company on last Saturday afternoon. There were a large number of people in attendance.

Mrs. W. A. Troop and son Tommy and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein were over to Plattsmouth to take the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Troop home who had been visiting for the past two weeks at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop. Miss Mary Phillips is but three weeks old at this time. However she and the grandparents enjoyed the visit very much.
