Korn Klub is to Remain in Status Quo

Present Officers Retained—To Call Meeting in August for Planning Second Annual Festival.

The Korn Klub, which so successfully put over the 1932 Corn Festival last week, is not to disband. Last night, at the final luncheon meeting of the chairmen of committees that handled the various arrangements for this year's show, it was decided to keep the present officers—Henry G. Soennichsen, president, and Dr. G. L. Taylor, secretary, and E. A. Wurl, treasurer—on the job until next August, at least, when they are to call a general meeting to discuss plans for next year's show.

The luncheon was attended by upwards of 30 and was a splendid get-together arranged to hear reports of the various committees on this year's festival and point out mistakes that could be overcome in arranging for other similar events in the future.

President Soennichsen thanked all who had contributed to the success of this year's show and turned the conduct of the meeting over to C. C. Wescott, who had been chairman of the Program committee.

Mr. Wescott called upon Treasurer Wurl for a brief report, which showed the entire expense had run under $600, raised by contributions among the business men, a band donation by the city and $94.95 profit realized from the sale of caps. In addition to this, approximately $100 worth of merchandise contributions were given to agricultural display winners, etc.

Frank Bestor, of Soliciting committee stated they had met with almost unanimous response in their canvass for funds and stated he believed even more generous response would be had next year.

Clem Woster, the champion cap seller, told how easy it was to dispose of 75 caps.

Chairman Robertson of the Kangaroo Kourt committee offered a suggestion of arranging one parade each day next year, instead of bunching two on one day. It was also suggested that an all farm parade, including some of the old time buggies, etc., be worked out next year.

Next L. S. DeVoe, the guiding spirit behind all the parades and originator of the Korn Klub cap idea was heard from. Among his suggestions, was the arranging of a dinner some time in the next few months, with school board members from over Cass and parts of Sarpy and Mills counties as guests, to build up an even greater spirit of co-operation for the 1933 show.

Leslie Niel of the Decorating committee reported the banners had been preserved and window eyelets left in place for stringing the same at any time needed. He suggested the securing of additional "Welcome" banners for flag-pole decoration plan, and paid the merchants a compliment for the manner in which they responded to the committee's call for appropriate window decorations.

contemplated dates of next year's festival.

Following passage of this motion, it was unanimously decided that the present officers hold over, at least until the date of such preliminary meeting next August.

Vote of thanks was also carried, to be sent to the Mayor and City Council for their contribution for band concerts; to Superintendent Jaeger for letting drum corps members off with-out lots of time and to the Plattsmouth Journal for its unstinted publicity in connection with the 1932 festival.

Mrs. D. C. Morgan Entertains Her Former Pupils

Pleasant Gathering at Country Club of One Time Pupils of the Sunday School.

From Friday's Daily
Last evening Mrs. D. C. Morgan, one of the long time members of the First Presbyterian church of this city, was hostess to a large dinner party in honor of her former Sunday school class. The dinner was held at the Elks Country club.

For a long period of years Mrs. Morgan was very active in the Sunday school of the Presbyterian church and taught a class of little girls in the primary department. The little girls of yesteryear were present at the dinner and many are now married and had their husbands with them to join in the pleasant party.

After the dinner a number of short talks were made by the members of the party, George L. Farley, who over a twenty year period was the superintendent of the Sunday school, telling many interesting experiences in the work and particularly of the time that Mrs. Morgan was active in the work. Miss Olive Gass, one of the long time members of the church, also gave interesting facts as to the activities of the older church membership. Fred Heisel told of many incidents of early days in the city and activities of his father, the late Conrad Heisel, one of the earliest residents of the community. Carl J. Schneider, the present superintendent of the Sunday school discussed the Sunday school work of the present day and the school as it is now operating. Miss Margaret Hodge, secretary and treasurer of the church for a quarter of a century, also was called upon and discussed the work of the Sunday school and church in the past and present.

In the arranging and carrying out of the delightful event Mrs. Morgan was assisted by Mrs. John F. Gorder, Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans and Miss Anna Heisel.

Missionary Society Holds Fine Meeting

Large Number Attend Meeting of M. E. Foreign Missionary Society Wednesday.

The opening meeting of the Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clara Wescott with Miss Emma De Hart, the president, as official hostess. Special program was arranged and was open to all ladies of the church.

Mrs. Wm. Howland, secretary of stewardship, led devotional from "The Water Jar" which accompanies this year's project, "The Well of Salvation." The stones used in the building of the well are the things which the society aim to accomplish for themselves as well as missionary work during the year and the first stone is membership. It was very pleasing to have three new members had in their dues with many of the regular members and it is hoped these new ones will find a real joy in the service of this work. Miss De Hart gave a short talk on her ambition for the work this year and if followed will help members to overcome many a hilltop. A little playlet, "The Better Way," by Meadames Edna Wescott, Arn and Barkus, entertained the company as well as giving each something to think about the three-fold stewardship for this year. At this point the candelabra holding the three candles, purple for possession, red for personality, green for prayer, was brought in with candles lighted and prayer of reconsecration offered.

The society was very happy and fortunate to have present the Omaha district corresponding secretary, Mrs. George W. Tiley of Omaha, who addressed the members on the "S. Curves" for the year, and her words and illustrations were of much encouragement to workers of the program. In the absence of Mrs. White, Mrs. Barkus gave us the winner of the reading contest as Mrs. Troy and Mrs. John Elliott, a close second if not a tie. In the disappointment of not having the marimba selection by Edgar Wescott, the place was filled with a duet "Last the Voice of the Saviour," by Gladys Bushnell and Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Devoe accompanying, which fitted well the program. After the benediction the members discussed present day problems upon which missionary work depends while the officers prepared refreshments, and the pleasant afternoon closed with a social half hour, with hopes that all the coming meetings would be as well attended and inspirational.

ARREST SUSPECTS

Chief of Police Libershal, in response to calls from the west section of the city, visited that locality Friday afternoon to check up on some reported cases of chicken stealing. Several fowls were reported as missing from the James Miller place on South Maiden Lane. The chief on visiting the scene discovered two young men lurking in that locality and who were suspected by the owner of the chickens with having made away with them. The chief had a very exciting pursuit of the two boys who were finally rounded up and brought in and turned over to the county authorities to deal with. Later in the day the chief with the boys visited the locality of the chicken stealing and two of the chickens which had been thrown into the weeds near the Louisville road were turned over to the officer and in turn given back to the owner. The matter was placed in the hands of County Attorney W. G. Kleck for his action. The two young men held gave the names of Mason Well, 15, and Gerald Daniel, 15.

GREEN PEAS IN OCTOBER

Mrs. George Mumm brought this office a few vines of green peas Wednesday evening, that were taken from her garden, and on Tuesday she gathered enough for a good meal for the family. This crop came on voluntarily and it was a real surprise to Mrs. Mumm to be able to gather a mess of green peas from her garden in the month of October, following several almost killing frosts.

HOMER SPANGLER IS BACK IN CALIFORNIA

Homer Spangler, who has been home for the past few weeks visiting his parents and sisters, and returned to San Diego, California, a few days ago, writes his parents that he made the western trip in 56 1/2 hours. Homer is a nurse in the Navy Hospital in the coast city. He made the trip home with a couple of young friends engaged in the same vocation, and were residents of South Dakota and Minnesota, and they drove back here and returned with him. They report a very pleasant trip on the westward journey.

Well Known Young People are Wedded

Miss Bernadine Carper United in Bonds of Wedlock to Mr. Joseph Dietl, Jr.

From Saturday's Daily
Miss Bernadine Carper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carper, who live northeast of Weeping Water, and Joseph Dietl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dietl, Sr., of the same neighborhood, were united in marriage at St. Patrick church, Manley, at 8:30 a. m. Wednesday morning, October 12th. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Father Harte, parish priest.

The happy young couple are well known in their home community, having lived in Cass county their entire lives. The bride graduated from the Weeping Water high school in the class of 1928, and the groom attended the Plattsmouth high school. The bride has spent the past two or three years with her parents, and working in the Weeping Water office of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph office as an operator. Her kind, pleasing manner has endeared her to the hearts of all that know her and has made her a success in her profession.

The groom is an industrious young farmer, having farmed in the neighborhood in which he lives for some time. He is well known to all and is respected by all with whom he comes in contact.

CHARGED WITH SALE

From Saturday's Daily
Charles Hickson, residing on west Pearl street, was arrested this morning by Sheriff Ed W. Thimgan, the defendant being charged with the sale of intoxicating liquor. The sale was made to a representative of the law enforcement department and the matter at once reported to the sheriff who made the arrest. Mr. Hickson was lodged in the county jail to await the hearing of his case. This is the fourth offense of this nature with which Mr. Hickson has been charged.

This morning Mr. Hickson was arraigned on the charge of sale of intoxicating liquor, to which he entered a plea of guilty in the court of Judge A. H. Duxbury. The preliminary hearing of the case was set for Saturday, October 22nd. The bond of Mr. Hickson was fixed at $500 and in failure to supply the same he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

CHARGED WITH TAKING BOAT

Sheriff Ed W. Thimgan was out along the Platte river northeast of this city Thursday afternoon searching for a boat that was reported stolen from the Sarpy county side of the river. The owner of the boat, Charles L. Watson of Omaha, accompanied the sheriff and a boat claimed by Mr. Watson as his property was found being used by Lester Holman, a resident of the Cass county side of the stream. The man was arrested and brought to this city where he was held until this morning when he was turned over to Sheriff Mondell of Sarpy county to be taken to Papillion where complaint was filed. The boat when stolen was at the Timm farm west of La Platte and the boat has been missing for the past thirty days.

Cass County Bankers Meet at Greenwood

Enjoy a Fine Day of Entertainment and Banquet—W. N. McLaren, New President

The Cass County Banker's association held their annual meeting on Wednesday, October 12th at Greenwood, a very large percentage of the membership being in attendance.

The business session opened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Masonic hall with President H. A. Schneider of Plattsmouth, presiding. The visitors were welcomed by Mayor E. A. Landon of Greenwood, who is also vice-president of the Greenwood State bank. To the welcome the response was made by Carl Ganz, cashier of the Farmers & Merchants bank of Alvo.

"The New Receivership System" was discussed by George Woods, of Lincoln, bank commissioner, who explained by which the affairs of closed banks were now being handled by the state department.

Attorney James L. Brown of Lincoln, discussed the Prejudgments Against the Legal Profession, taking up a large number of the prejudices that are held against the lawyers.

George Holmes of the First National Bank of Lincoln and Clarence Owens of the Stock Yards National Bank of Omaha, also spoke briefly on the matter of interest to the bankers in general.

William Hughes, secretary of the State Bankers' association was also present and touched on the work of the state association. He also extended to the bankers an invitation to attend the state meeting at Omaha.

While the business session of the bankers was being held the ladies of the members were being entertained at the hospitable home of Mrs. E. A. Landon. The occasion was a tea and card party and in which the time was passed most enjoyably. The Landon home was arranged in a very handsome manner for the event.

The banquet was held in the Christian church at 6 o'clock where the ladies of the church had arranged a fine feast, a fried chicken dinner being the menu of the evening.

The toast list was presided over by Col. Phil L. Hall in his own pleasant way and who introduced the various speakers and features of the program.

County Attorney Max Towle, of Lancaster county, gave a most interesting talk on "Crime Investigation," his talk covering the story of the Lincoln National bank robbery, Mr. Towle also told of the long months of investigation of the robbery, the negotiations with the underworld for the return of the bonds and securities and the final result of the recovery of $600,000 of the bonds from the gang.

Fred E. Bodie of Omaha, head of the newly formed Regional Agricultural corporation, discussed the work of the organization and explained to the bankers the plans proposed to care for the agricultural relief through the new corporation.

Mr. Hughes also spoke of the work of the state association and a general greeting to the bankers and their ladies on this very pleasant occasion.

In the annual election of the officers of the association the following were named:
President—W. N. McLaren, of Elmwood.
Vice-President—Harvey Koop of Louisville.
Secretary-Treasurer—Guy Clements of Elmwood.
The next meeting will be held at Elmwood, the county association accepting the invitation of the two banks of that city.

PREPARE KIDDIES CORNER

The H. M. Soennichsen Co., is arranging a very clever and attractive section of the store that will be known as the "Kiddies Corner." This is bright colored and has a large array of cut out animals as well as a bench following the animal design and will make a most pleasant spot for the little folks in the shoe department. The corner is prepared by the Poll Parrot Co., and is a very pleasant spot for the little folks.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

From Thursday's Daily
This afternoon Mrs. George Conis departed for Omaha where she was placed in one of the hospitals in that city and will be operated on for appendicitis. Mrs. Conis was taken ill Wednesday with the malady and her condition was such that it was decided that an operation as soon as possible would be necessary. Mrs. Conis suffered a similar attack last winter but recovered without the necessity of an operation, but the condition this time was such that the operation was deemed advisable.

Cass County Chapter, Red Cross Meets

Session Held at Weeping Water—Miss Augusta Robb, Chairman, Mrs. Tool Secretary.

The annual meeting of the Cass County Chapter of the American Red Cross was held on Friday evening at the First Congregational church in Weeping Water, with all but one chapter represented.

The meeting was one of the largest that the Red Cross has held since the war time days, the relief program of the society being very heavy owing to the national depression. There were nineteen present from the Plattsmouth chapter.

One of the chief matters of the evening was that of the election of officers and the members were unanimous in the re-election of the present efficient leaders, Miss Augusta Robb, Union, as chairman and Mrs. H. A. Tool, Murdock as secretary-treasurer.

The audience had the pleasure of a most interesting talk by Miss Gables, social welfare representative of Lancaster county, who discussed at some length the work of her department.

Miss Weedman of Lincoln, also talked on the public health service county nurse and the operations in Lancaster county, a talk that was followed with interest.

Several county speakers were heard, Judge A. H. Duxbury telling of the work of the distribution of the flour sent by the Red Cross over the county, W. M. Barclay of this city discussed the handling of the relief work from a centralized head as a means of better and more efficient working out of a big problem. Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans talked of the distribution of the cotton goods over the county to be used in the making of needed garments for the needy.

A committee was appointed, headed by W. M. Barclay, who will take a survey of the county and assign the territory to be served by the various Red Cross chapters of the county.

ATTEND INSTALLATION

Rev. C. O. Troy, pastor of the First Methodist church, of this city, was at Omaha Thursday where he was in attendance at the installation services of Dr. Gilbert, new district superintendent. The services were held at the Pearl Memorial church and conducted by Bishop Leete of the Iowa-Nebraska district. There was a very large attendance from the ministry of the district.

The new district superintendent was formerly in charge of the financial program of the Wesleyan university and will at once start in on the new line of work in the district.

DOING VERY NICELY

The reports from the Clarkson hospital at Omaha are to the effect that Mrs. George Conis of this city, who was operated on there Friday morning is doing very nicely. Mrs. Conis was suffering from appendicitis and it was decided that an operation would be necessary in order to give her relief from the malady. The many friends will be pleased to learn that she is doing so well and trust that she may continue to improve until able to return to her home here.

Blue and White Win from Ashland, 12 to 7

Locals Snag Touchdown in First Minutes of Play and at Close of Third Period.

The Plattsmouth high school football team Friday afternoon secured revenge for their defeat of last year on the Ashland lot, scoring a 12 to 7 victory over the visiting team.

The battle was hard fought and both teams battled hard throughout the game, being well matched and while the locals were more successful in their around end plays, the visitors had a well sustained passing attack and which netted their only touchdown. In the punting exchanges the visitors also edged the locals, especially in the second period when both teams booted a great deal.

The Platters kicked off to the visitors, Ashland losing the ball and then the locals made their first down and were in the enemy territory and then the fireworks started. Bob Hirt, carrying the ball came through the Ashland line on a cut back play through tackle and before the blue sweatered Ashland aggregation knew what it was all about, Bob was over the line. The attempt for the extra point failed and the score was 6 to 0 for Plattsmouth.

The second period of the game was sawed between the two teams, the Platters suffering several penalties that took away the hard fought gains made by Ronne, Adam and a pass to Garnett from Hirt.

The proteges of Red Worl uncorked their passing attack in this period after the two teams had been held for downs and forced to punt a number of times. Ashland in possession of the ball and Pifford, fullback sent a bullet like pass to Hobbses, half of the visitors and who laid the pigskin on the local thirty yard line. In the next play Pifford again hurled a pass and this time, Welsh, the receiver, scampered over the line for the touchdown. Pifford made the boot for the extra point and the score stood 7 to 6 for the Ashland team.

Following the Ashland touchdown in the second play from the kickoff, Ronne intercepted a pass intended for Robinson and swept around the Ashland left end for thirty yards before he was hauled down by the visitors. With the ball resting on the visitors twenty-yard line, Hirt duplicated his run of early in the game, eluding the pursuing enemy to slip around end and race over the line. The try for point failed, however.

Ashland striving desperately to save the day battled through and caught Hirt and Arn on attempted runs, for losses, forcing a kick and which Nevins returned well, then a pass was tried that might have brought trouble, but it fell into the hands of George Adam, instead of the boy from up the Platte. Arn tried the line for no gain and the Platters were forced to kick. Ashland tried several plays through the local line for little gain and were held and forced to kick. Adam returning the ball for the locals, Hirt then gained several yards in one of his fast end scrampers. Ronne then smashed the visitors line for a good gain and a first down. Arn attempted a run and was held and then the ball was again snapped to Arn who fumbled, Ashland recovering and then came the end.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to take this means of expressing our deepest appreciation of the kind acts of the friends and neighbors during the long illness of our wife and mother, also for the sympathy and aid in the time of her passing, as well as for the beautiful floral offerings. These acts will long be remembered with gratitude.—George Schanz, Sr., Gibson Schanz, Jr.
