

Nehawka

S. E. Lingo, the cream station man, was a visitor with his grandmother, Mrs. S. S. Lingo of Vilisca on last Sunday, driving over in his car.

Fred Drucker, who was farming on one of the Henry Wessell farms last year had his last year's corn crop shelled and taken to the elevator in Nehawka.

See the ad of Herbert L. Kunz, of a corn elevator for sale. This will go very low and is a good elevator. Anyone wanting one had better get after this one at once.

Miss Verle Stone, who has been visiting for some time at the home of her sister at Harvard, returned home last Monday to take up work in the Nehawka schools.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Milbern and the kiddies were over to Nebraska City last Saturday where he was looking after some business matters and she was doing some shopping.

Miss Dorothy Young was visiting for the latter portion of last week at the home of her girl friend, Miss Velma Wells of Plattsmouth, where they both enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Clifton Meisinger was having some wood hauled to his home which he had bought standing, had cut and sawed into stove length and having it dried is now in good shape for the winter's fuel.

Mrs. W. O. Troop was attending the Bible school convention which was held at the Congregational church in Weeping Water on Tuesday, October 18th of this week, and reports very fine time.

Louis Chappel with his two sons have been sawing wood and getting it in readiness for the winter which is slipping along notwithstanding the excellent brand of weather which we are having at this time.

Albert Anderson and family and J. H. Steffens and family were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens of Lorton, they being parents of Mr. J. H. Steffens and Mrs. Albert Anderson.

Misses Betty Sumner and Thelma Wessell and Messrs. Robert Pierce and Peter Jourgensen were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where they were in the citizens contest which was being staged at the court house.

D. C. West and Mrs. R. B. Stone were going to Omaha on Monday of last week, they driving over to the big city in their car, where Mr. West was looking after some business matters and Mrs. West was visiting with some friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCarthy and family, Martin Stava and two sons, Thomas and Louis were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Troop, Mrs. Troop being a daughter of Martin Stava.

Mrs. Anna Rhoden and Mrs. Font T. Wilson were guests for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rhoden where they went to visit with Mrs. Rhoden who has been very sick, and who while some improved still remains in not the best of health.

Mrs. Henry Knabe, living a short distance west of Nehawka, has been very ill for some time and much apprehension has been had on account of the seriousness of the illness. Some times she is a little easier, but still her condition remains very serious.

Preston Dale and Willard Sent who departed from Nehawka some time ago have not been heard from since their going and while the parents are somewhat concerned about them, it is hoped that they are getting along and that they have found employment.

Parr Young, who has been in the northwestern portion of the state for the past few days looking after the purchase of cattle, for feeding was accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Charles R. Troop of Plattsmouth, who visited with friends and relatives in Gordon while they were away. While Mr. Young found many cattle for sale he returned without making a purchase, and will probably return soon unless he is suited better otherwise. They returned home on last Sunday.

Made Short Visit Here.
The Rev. Green and family, formerly of Harbor Springs, Vt., and who are on their way to California where he is to have charge of a church, stopped on their way and visited with his aunt, Mrs. Mary Mass, where they and she both enjoyed a wonderful visit. After enjoying a few days with the aunt Rev. Green and family continued on their way to the west where he will minister.

Celebrated Birthday Sunday.
On last Sunday Wm. Wehrlein passed his steenth milestone and the occasion was made memorable by the celebrating of the occasion by the family, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Lloyd and the kiddies and Victor Wehrlein and family. The occasion was an enjoyable one.

Will Gravel Detour.
The old detour which is to be used considerable during the time of the paving of the O street road, the road which runs north from Nehawka is to receive a coat of gravel which will restore this popular thoroughfare and give Nehawka an opportunity to get out of town while the highway is closed.

Making the Wood Fly.
Some five years ago there was a number of long ricks of wood stored east of the mill, where during the years had seasoned and like the vintage of some twenty years ago in a certain dry drink, has mellowed materially during the time, and the wood was sold to D. C. West. The wood was sawed by R. D. Taylor, Chick Dalton, C. D. St. John and F. R. Cunningham last Monday and delivered to the West home for the winter's fuel.

Establish Quarantines.
By reason of a number of cases of scarlet fever and diphtheria and other contagious diseases, it has been thought to enforce some rigid rules regarding the school and other public places. Miss Mildred Neller, one of the teachers of Nehawka, who has proved the germ carrier, has been sent to her home at Beemer where she is to have her tonsils removed and also to take a treatment for prevention of certain diseases, and during her absence the work in the schools which she has been doing will be cared for by Miss Verle Stone.

On last Monday the Nehawka hotel had been placed under quarantine for a week during which time Miss Mildred Burton, who is sick with the scarlet fever shall have an opportunity to get well. The little child of George Paulus is showing improvement, as well as Clarence Hansen.

Showing Improvement.
Mrs. John Edmiston who recently moved here from Union and who has been found to be a germ carrier has been quarantined and given treatment and is showing improvement, and it is hoped she will soon be clear from the melody.

Attended Bible School Meet.
Those from Nehawka who were in attendance at the Bible school county convention which was held at Weeping Water on last Tuesday at the Congregational church of that city were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Pollard, Mrs. W. S. Norris, while the delegates from the Methodist church to the convention were Laverne Jurgensen, Helen Rose, and Mrs. Eugene Nutzman.

DEATH OF MRS. HENRY KNABE

The death of Mrs. Louisa Margaret Knabe, wife of Henry Knabe, well known resident of Nehawka, occurred on Wednesday at the family home in that place. Mrs. Knabe has been poorly for the past year, suffering from heart trouble and which has been so severe in the past few months that she has been largely confined to her home.

Mrs. Knabe was born in southern Cass county January 31, 1865, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heebner, pioneer residents of Nebraska, and she has resided in and near Nehawka for her entire lifetime. She received her education in the schools of this county. On January 20, 1887 she was united in marriage with Henry J. Knabe, the young people locating on a farm and where they have since resided. She was a member of the Methodist church at Nehawka for many years and very active in the work of the church.

She is survived by the husband, one son, Edward J. Knabe and one daughter, Miss Florence L. Knabe, who reside at home. There also survives her passing three brothers, Charles E. Heebner of Nehawka, Henry Heebner of Murray and George Heebner of Avoca.

The funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The bridge which has been out near the Knabe home for some time will be repaired so that the friends may join in the services.
