MY TRIP TO PLATTSMOUTH
Say, you just bet you and I am glad
They's such a chap as my old dad;
Last week he took us all to town,
An' he had a time just browsin' 'round.
They was holdin' a King Korn Carnival show
An' everything was free, you know;
Why you never saw such ears o' corn—
Some long as my arm, as sure as you're born.
Them city folks sure was mighty sweet
To give us countries such a treat—
They was lots o' music, an' bands, an' fun—
One stunt hardly ended fore another begun.
An' a bunch o' police was in the crowd
Arrestin' folks just for 'cryin' out loud.
An' they took 'em an' put 'em in a pen,
An' fined 'em an' turned 'em loose again.
Them crooks was tough as an old barn lock;
Their 'mugs' would stop an eight day clock.
An' I'm glad the cops was near at hand
To protect us from that awful band.
They hung one right up in the judge's court,
An' folks just laughed cause it was sport,
An' I guess 'suppression' was about all right
For it put that scarecrow 'out o' sight.'
Parades, an' banners, an' floats—all free—
Why it was worth a-comin' miles to see.
An' the kiddies, an' ponies, and pets on display
I'll remember, an'-think of for many a day.
When we got back to home I heard ma say
We'd go to Plattsmouth 'smother day
To do some trade, and pay the bill
Them city folks earned by their good will.

THE WHOLE FAMILY will vote in the affirmative for pancakes, syrup or honey, sausage and coffee—if the question of "What shall we eat" is put before them. This frosty weather gives one a zest for something plain, hot and "good," and pancakes, or perhaps waffles or fritters are always the choice of the majority.

TRY DECIDING whether you prefer the strawberries and fresh vegetables we have in the springtime, or the corn, tomatoes and melons of summertime, or the peaches, pears, grapes, plums and apples of fall! I never can do it—I go all through the list and then remember that even during the winter we can obtain many fresh fruits and vegetables that heretofore used to be only the luxuries of the rich—due to the widespread use of refrigeration by the railroads, with thousands of cars such as go through the local shops bringing this produce direct to the wholesale centers of the north. Here in Plattsmouth, Mullen & Sons Grocery and Market keeps you supplied with oranges, lemons, grapefruit, bananas, lettuce and lots of other fresh vegetables. Right now they have an abundance of squashes, toky grapes, cranberries, apples and oranges. Whatever is on the market in the fresh fruit and vegetable line, Mullen's Market will have it.

Betty Lou GOES SHOPPING

Autumn activities seem to start in earnest with the advent of October—fall fashions arrive—new things for the home are shown and those of us who have early fall shopping to do (and who hasn't) find it lots of fun—especially in Plattsmouth where the shops are brimming over with interesting merchandise.

Sincerely—

Betty Lou

"I BUY ALL the children's hosiery at Knorr's now," a Plattsmouth mother told me. "I've found that they stand the darnest basket test—and that's what I'm on the lookout for—I just don't like to darn stockings. Those I buy at Knorr's seem to stand a lot of 'punishment' before it's necessary to put them in the darnest basket for repair." The word seems to have gotten round to other Plattsmouth mothers, because Mr. Knorr tells me that the children's hosiery section at his store is one of the most popular. I also noticed a counter containing lots of Halloween novelties—things "awfully" necessary to celebrate the evening properly. Lots of new things and merchandise arriving these days at Knorr's Popular Variety Store.

FALL FESTIVITIES really seem to get under way when the Halloween season arrives. You'll enjoy Halloween parties just that much more if you're looking your best, well-groomed self. Keep the hair tidy with frequent shampoos and waves, hands well cared for by regular manicures and home treatments—and don't neglect the face—an invigorating facial will do much to keep you fresh looking. 'Tis skill indeed, that leads so many Plattsmouth ladies to the Etta Belle Beauty Shoppe. Miss Nickles is most considerate of her clients—the service she renders is of the very highest—here one may have beauty work done with some degree of privacy. Phone 29, and make your appointments for all phases of beauty work.

THE RED and White Grocery store has the Red & White brand of prepared pancake flour. Just mix the pancakes according to directions and you will never have any pancake failures—they're so easy to make! And here's a suggestion for ressert: Serve a wedge of waffle with maple syrup and a dab of whipped cream on it. The Red and White Grocery Store has the brand of flour that makes delicious waffles. Ask for Red & White flour at the Red and White Grocery. Also a full line of the very finest of meats.

THERE ARE so many things at the H. M. Soennichsen store that I'll never be able to confine myself to the description of one article—There are these house dresses—I'm sure house-dresses couldn't be made any prettier than those, and they're priced from 59c to 98c each. Soennichsen's also have that marvelous line of Carter's underwear and the Allen-A hosiery. Over in the 'household' department one finds those woolly Esmond blankets—and I'll bet you can use an extra one at your house these chilly nights; the sheets and pillowcases are wrapped in Cellophane thus insuring fresh, clean merchandise. If you're planning some new table linen for Thanksgiving, by all means visit the H. M. Soennichsen store and see what they have to offer.

JUST A GENTLE REMINDER to you folks who did not have your winter coat cleaned last spring before storing it! You'll wake up one of these

THESE FROSTY DAYS certainly put an "edge" on the ol' appetite—and one of the most popular places to appease said appetite is at the Brown Cafe. And are they serving marvelous foods these days—lots of good things that just "touch the right spot!" And that French dripulator coffee—it's flavor is simply delicious! Brown's Cafe is equipped to serve a large number of people—and special arrangements may be made for luncheons and dinners. You will find that Brown's will co-operate in every way—they'll suggest menus, or make suggestions about special dishes. Your party will be remembered as one of the most enjoyable your guests have attended, if you plan to have it in the spacious hotel dining room at the Brown Cafe where the Rotary club and Chamber of Commerce hold their luncheons.

ONE WAY for you men to obtain shoe value is to buy Florsheim's. They stay new longer—the quality of materials make them dependable—in fact, you'll find they wear so long they last less in the end. Florsheim shoes have been on the market for forty years and men have learned that the name is their protection when buying shoes. Indeed, there is pleasure in owning and satisfaction in wearing Florsheim shoes—they're so constructed that they put new vigor into your step without detracting from the appearance of the shoe. Peizer Shoe Company will fit you perfectly with these smart-looking shoes for fall. Peizer's also are equipped to fit Dr. Scholl's foot appliances—they do give relief to foot troubles.

"I'LL BET I didn't carry out more than a scuttle-full of ashes in a week last winter—I'm going to buy my coal from Charlie Hartford again this season." That's what a man replied to my question about his opinion of the coal sold by Mr. Hartford. Every one who uses Hartford's coal is familiar with the comfort it gives. It's high in heat units and low in ash and burns clean. You aren't shovel-coal all day and lugging out ashes all the time when you burn coal from Hartford. It's a mighty comfortable feeling to know that you can depend on the coal you're burning to give a clean, even heat. And that's just what Hartford's coal gives. Phone 22, and Hartford will send one of his drivers to deliver your coal in a jiffy. That's another thing, Hartford drivers are careful and painstaking. You'll like the Hartford standard of service.

IN THE MATTER of coats, the sleeves and collars distinguish them from the styles of previous seasons. The "gay nineties" are responsible for that trend. Those winter coats that the Ladies Toggery is displaying are indeed of the latest fashion—the newest colors are there and frequently some of the models have detachable fur capes—and these ARE the last word in smartness. You will notice, too, that these winter coats are beautifully lined and also have a warm interlining that makes them especially suitable for Nebraska's winter weather. The Ladies Toggery also has many of the accessories to harmonize with your new frock or coat. The fall shades in LaFrance hosiery are lovely.

fine mornings to discover that really cold weather has breezed "around the corner" and found you unprepared for it. Better call the Fred Lugsch Cleaners and ask them to call at your home today for some cleaning work. Lugsch's are expert cleaners. Your coats with fur trimming receive special care in order not to harm the fur nor shrink the cloth so that the collars don't fit well. Clothes that are kept cleaned and well-pressed are going to look the best and wear longest.

ASK THE MAN who wears 'em what he thinks of Blue Ribbon work shoes. I did—the man was in the A. G. Bach store buying a pair, and he replied: "The toughest work shoes I ever wore. Why those Blue Ribbon work shoes wear so well that I've been thinking about using them to shoe the horses with." They are strong, stout work shoes, and Bach's say that they can't remember ever hearing anyone complain about the wearing qualities of these work shoes. You men who spend a lot of time outdoors will appreciate these sturdy work shoes. A. G. Bach's store sells them. Bach's also have a good line of work clothes—shirts, overalls, etc.

THE UNSIGHTLY heating stove is a thing of the past since the advent of the artistic circulating heaters. They are not only an improvement in looks, but in heating efficiency. For homes without a furnace space, there's nothing equal to a circulating heater for keeping a house comfortable. And at the Bestor & Swatek Co. hardware store they have the parlor heater that is very good looking—the finish would fit in nicely with any color scheme you might have in house furnishings and it would add another piece of attractive furniture to the room. Stop in at Bestor's Hardware Store and investigate the Heatrola circulating heater; notice the sturdy construction and beautiful finish.

ONE of the first things we become unpleasantly aware of with the advent of chilly weather is that the hands have a tendency to be rough and dry feeling—especially you ladies who do your own housework will notice it—and that's why you should keep a bottle or jar of hand lotion on the bathroom shelf or down near the kitchen sink. Use it after washing the hands and you'll avoid hard, red, rough hands. They're not only unpleasant to look at, but they feel so scratchy. Stop in at the Mauzy Drug Store and ask Mr. Mauzy to recommend a good hand lotion—he has a nice line of cosmetics and I'm sure you will find a pleasing hand lotion there. And don't forget creams for the face!
