

The John Bauer Co.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA

Authorized Service Station

for CHEVROLETS, OVERLANDS and WILLEYS-KNIGHT CARS

We carry a stock of all fast moving parts for the above named cars and can give you good service on same.

Ford Owners

We are getting in and are going to carry in the future Replacement Parts for your car and will try and give you the best service possible. Within a week we will be able to supply you with most anything you need in the way of Ford parts.

GREENWOOD

Mrs. Wm. Buck is rather poorly at this time.

Mrs. W. L. Hillis has a new night cook at their lunch room, Mr. Winner of Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Peters were visiting at the A. E. Leesley home on Monday evening.

Albert Erickson went to his home at Kirk, Colo., Monday to look after things for a few days.

Prof. and Mrs. H. E. Warren and sons Russell and Jerry were Lincoln visitors on last Saturday.

Miss Blanche Bright was a visitor for a few days with friends and relatives at Hamburg, Iowa.

Virginia Newkirk has been having a siege of the flu for the past week, but is better at this time.

Mrs. Mercer of Falls City is here visiting her daughter Mrs. Frank Hurlbut and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Carpenter and son Douglas of Lincoln visited with Mrs. Minnie Mason on last Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Erickson is reported to be improving at this time, which will be good news to her many friends.

James Greer was called to Lincoln last Monday to look after some business, making the trip over to the big town in his car.

P. A. Sanborn was looking after some business matters in Lincoln on last Tuesday, driving over in his auto for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Headley and son Jack were dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trunkholz on last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Willis spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hillis. Mrs. Willis remained for a visit here this week.

Mrs. Dora Leesley, Mrs. Lulu Hurlbut and Mrs. G. W. Lunciford drove to Waverly last Friday afternoon to attend the R. N. A. lodge meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Homan, of Omaha, a daughter of John J. Mefford, was a visitor with her father, J. J. Mefford, for a few days during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins and daughter, Ruth, of Manley, were Sunday guests of Mrs. W. L. Hillis for lunch and six o'clock dinner.

Rex Young, of Plattsmouth, republican candidate for sheriff, was looking after business in Greenwood on last Tuesday and meeting his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cook and family of Elmwood and Mr. and Mrs. Emory McDowell, of Lincoln, were visitors at the C. A. Mathis home on last Sunday.

E. L. McDonald was looking after some business matters in Lincoln on Wednesday afternoon of last week and while he was away the store was looked after by Mrs. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong have just returned home from Gordon, where they visited his brother, Hugh Armstrong and family. He also did some duck hunting while there.

William Potter, of Plattsmouth, was a business and social visitor in Greenwood on last Wednesday afternoon and was accompanied by his grandmother and her fishing partner.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Headley were over to Lincoln on last Thursday evening, where they went to attend the wedding of a sister of Mr. Headley, Miss Bennie Headley, to Mr. Arthur Hand, of Interior, S. Dak.

Mrs. Nancy Hurst of Los Angeles, Mrs. Duane Wickland, Mrs. Lawrence Wickland, Mrs. Sheffield and daughter, all of Valley, and Mrs. Mary Talcott were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Talcott on last Tuesday.

Mrs. Myra Howard returned home Sunday afternoon after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Austin Finley and family near Emerald. While away she also visited the John Kyles family near Lincoln. She reports a most delightful time.

Messrs and Mesdames Earl Bartley and Earl Smith, all hailing from Powhatan, Kansas, and the former couple cousins of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mathews, were spending last Sunday at the Mathews home, where all enjoyed a very fine time.

A group of friends stepped in on Miss Eunice Kyles Monday evening, October 17th, to help her celebrate her birthday. Pinochle was played during the evening. Lois Blair received high honors and Alta Kyles low. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Hall were over to Lincoln on last Thursday night, where they were attending the wedding of Miss Bennie Headley, and where Mrs. Hall played the wedding march as well as accompaniment for Prof. Lee Kold, who sang at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith and daughter and Earl Bartley and son Garrett, of Powhatan, Kansas, drove up Saturday to visit at the R. E. Mathews home. Mrs. Bartley and baby, who had been here for about ten days, returned home with them Sunday evening.

H. D. Allen, of Wymore, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Patterson and son of Liberty and Mrs. W. A. White returned Tuesday afternoon from Wessington

HERE MEN, is what you've been looking for!

MEN'S FINE DRESS Overcoats

at
$12 $15 $18

THESE COATS ARE STRICTLY CASH

These are all brand new Fall models just received from the manufacturer. Such prices as these have never been known for real quality Overcoats. Sale begins Wednesday, Oct. 26. These prices good for 10 days from that date. Come in now; don't delay.

Wescott's

Springs, S. D., where they had visited Mr. Allen's and Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. Sophia Allen and sister, Mrs. O. A. Walker and family.

On last Wednesday Hon. W. B. Banning and Dr. Stacey Niday, both of Union, were in Greenwood and were meeting with the people and putting forth the excellent abilities and telling of the excellent service which Mr. Banning has rendered for the people while a member of the state senate in the past. They were leaving literature touching on the work of Mr. Banning as well as for the perusal of the voters.

The King's Daughters Sunday school class was pleasantly entertained on last Friday afternoon, October 14, at the Christian church by Mrs. Ben Howard. There was a good crowd present. The business meeting was conducted by the president at which time much business was taken care of. A vote of thanks was extended to all the men, especially Rev. Goings and Mr. W. A. Armstrong, who helped so faithfully in getting ready for the banquet. The rest of the time was spent socially and with fancy work, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be in two weeks with Mrs. E. O. Miller as hostess, at the church.

George E. Nickles Here George E. Nickles, who is the democratic candidate for state representative from this district, was in Greenwood for a short time on last Wednesday afternoon and was visiting with his friends here and making more. Mr. Nickles was born in Cass county and has lived all his life in the county, being well qualified to look after the interests of all taxpayers in the county. He is engaged in the lumber and coal business and has a host of friends in the eastern portion of the county who are so by reason of the square dealing which has characterized his life and his business career.

Many Attend Red Cross Meet Miss Catherine Coleman, Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Talcott and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong were those from Greenwood who attended the Cass county Red Cross meeting at Weeping Water a week ago Friday night. Officers of the county organization were chosen and other business transacted. They report a large attendance and much interest in the work of the Red Cross this year.

Attending State Conventions George E. Bucknell is a delegate from the Greenwood lodge of the I. O. O. F., of which he is a member, and Mrs. June Kyles, who is a member of the Daughters of Rebeckah as well as district deputy grand master of this district and delegate from the Daughters of Rebeckah of Greenwood, were attending the sessions of the grand lodge and the grand assembly in Hastings last week.

Visiting in South Dakota Mrs. W. A. White, of Greenwood, accompanied by her brother, H. D. Allen, of Wymore, and Carl Patterson and wife, of Liberty, the latter a sister of Mrs. White, departed last week for Wessington Springs, South Dakota, where they will visit for about ten days at the home of the mother of Mrs. White and the brother and sister, Mrs. Sophie Allen and a daughter, Mrs. O. E. Walker.

Very Pretty Home Wedding At the home of Mrs. Anna Headley, of Lincoln on last Thursday evening occurred the wedding of her daughter, Mrs. Bennie Headley, of Lincoln, and Mr. Arthur Hand, of Interior, S. Dak. The wedding occurred at the home and was surrounded with the home influence and witnessed by close relatives of the contracting parties and a few other friends. The bride is a sister of Mr. D. H. Headley, of Greenwood, and with the husband, visited for a short time in Omaha after which the newly wedded couple departed for their ranch at Interior, South Dakota.

Journal Want-Ads get results! NOTICE TO CREDITORS State of Nebraska, County of Cass, ss. In the County Court. Fee Book 9, page 321. In the matter of the estate of Jessie W. Hall, deceased. To the creditors of said estate: You are hereby notified, that I will sit at the County Court room in Plattsmouth, in said county, on the 18th day of November, A. D. 1932, and on the 20th day of February, A. D. 1933, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each day to examine all claims against said estate, with a view to their adjustment and allowance. The time limited for the presentation of claims against said estate is three months from the 18th day of November, A. D. 1932, and the time limited for payment of debts is one year from said 18th day of November, 1932. Witness my hand and the seal of said County Court this 21st day of October, 1932. A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge. (Seal) c24-3w

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

State of Nebraska, County of Cass, ss. In the County Court. Fee Book 9, page 321. In the matter of the estate of Jessie W. Hall, deceased. To the creditors of said estate: You are hereby notified, that I will sit at the County Court room in Plattsmouth, in said county, on the 18th day of November, A. D. 1932, and on the 20th day of February, A. D. 1933, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each day to examine all claims against said estate, with a view to their adjustment and allowance. The time limited for the presentation of claims against said estate is three months from the 18th day of November, A. D. 1932, and the time limited for payment of debts is one year from said 18th day of November, 1932. Witness my hand and the seal of said County Court this 21st day of October, 1932. A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge. (Seal) c24-3w

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters. The place to get them—why, at Bates Book Store, of course.

REPORT OF CONVENTION Mrs. Martha J. Peterson and Mrs. Lois Troop, who were in attendance at the district convention of the Woman's Relief corps, at Lyons, report a very interesting meeting throughout. The first session opened at 9:30 and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nellie M. Smith, of Lyons. The business session was held and then the memorial service was observed. Mrs. Lois Troop of this city, chaplain, conducting the services. At the afternoon session Mrs. Troop also favored the members of the convention with one of her always enjoyed readings. At this session the initiatory work was exemplified by Fremont camp. The election of the officers of the district resulted in the selection of Mrs. Dora Michael, Tekamah, president; Mrs. Arson, Blair, senior vice president; Mrs. Edna Matterson, Blair, chaplain; Sophia Walters, treasurer; Grace Homer, Omaha, conductor; Martha Peterson, Plattsmouth, guard. Blair had the largest delegation at the convention and Fremont the largest showing of membership. Everything for the student—from penny leadpencils to typewriters