

Funeral of B. Henningsen at Lanham, Kansas

Broder Henningsen, Grandfather of Rev. A. Lentz, Laid to Last Rest Near the Old Home.

Broder Henningsen was born on the 17th day of December, 1848, at Spateboel, a portion of the church parish Leek, Schleswig-Holstein, Germany. There he was brought up by his Christian parents, and there he also spent the years of his childhood and youth. There he had also been received into the Lutheran church through holy baptism and through the rite of confirmation.

On the first of November, 1873, he was united in marriage to Christine Margarete Bendixen of Derpum, Schleswig-Holstein. To this union one daughter, Maria Magdalena, was born. This daughter later became the wife of Rev. R. Lentz and emigrated with her husband to Texas, where she departed this life on the 20th day of October, 1906.

In the year 1901 Mr. Henningsen had visited his daughter and her family for the first time in America. After his return to Germany he waited until 1903 before he again decided to come to this country. He then brought his wife along and lived with her for a number of years at Weimar, and later at Frelsburg, Tex.

On the 11th day of January, 1923, his wife also was called from time to eternity. Since the month of October of the same year he made his home with his grandson, Rev. A. Lentz, now of Cedar Creek, Nebr. Here, surrounded by tender care, he was able to enjoy the peace and serenity of his remaining years.

By trade Mr. Henningsen had been a tailor, but later he had gone into farming. Though long retired from active life he loved to be useful to all whom he came into touch, his greatest joy being to lead a soul unto Christ his Saviour.

He had been ailing for the last few years. His last year was one of much weakness. Monday, while visiting his grand daughter-in-law's mother, Mrs. Duis of Odell, at an age of 85 years and 15 days, he was called to his eternal rest.

His loss is mourned by his son-in-law, Rev. R. Lentz, of Fredericksburg, Texas, his two grandchildren, Rev. A. Lentz of Cedar Creek, Nebr., Mrs. Immanuel Rowoldt of Texas, by four great-grandchildren, two brothers, Martin H. and Ludwig Henningsen, one sister, Mrs. Marie Johansen, his brother-in-law and best friend, Emil Bendixen, all three still living in Germany; also by other relatives and by a host of friends.

His heart had always been attached to Lanham. He had found so many good friends here, and so he desired to find a resting place in the Lanham cemetery. This wish is now fulfilled.

The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home of Mrs. R. A. Duis, Odell, Nebr., 1:20 in the Lutheran church at Lanham, Kans. Rev. Heinz, pastor of the church at Lanham, liturgist, and Rev. J. Schrader, of Yutan, Nebr., president of the German Evangelical Lutheran synod of Nebraska, preaching the funeral sermon. The choir sang two numbers in German.

Full bearers were Mr. Aug. Adam, Mr. Aug. Brel, Mr. John Duis, Mr. Henry Wetters, Mr. Geo. Wehling and Mr. Fred Miesner, all brothers-in-law of Pastor Lentz.

Interment was made in the Lanham cemetery.

Letterheads, envelopes and all kinds of Job Printing at the Journal office.

Colored Men Draw Fine for Stealing Coal

One Member of Trio Has Fine Paid by Friends From Omaha and Others Remain in Jail.

The arrest of a colored man, giving the name of E. Mackey, at Union, early Saturday morning by Missouri Pacific detectives, culminated in two other gentlemen of color being captured for the same offense.

While the indictment was being prepared Saturday against Mackey on the charge of taking the coal from a car of the railroad company, the defendant stated that two other men had been with him in the case and that his part in the show was the use of his truck. When he had been captured there was no trace of any other men in the immediate vicinity of the car or truck.

Before the case was settled Sheriff Sylvester was driving along highway No. 75 south of this city and saw two colored men hiking along the highway for the north and he stopped and invited them to have a ride, bringing them on to this city for questioning and it was developed that one of the men was Ernest Mackey, a relative of the first man captured, and Joe Weaver.

The men made a plea of guilty to the charge and were given a fine of $20 and costs each, the costs to be divided among them. Friends of E. Mackey, who is a leader in one of the colored churches of South Omaha, came forward and paid his fine, but the remaining members of the group are still in jail.

Weeping Water

Warren Richards of Wabash was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday and was visiting with his many friends.

Mr. Wm. Bates was over to Nebraska City a few days ago where he was marketing a number of hogs of which he is producing a large number.

Frank Bergman of west of Manley, was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday and was meeting his many friends, as well as looking after some business matters.

The home of Roy Cole and wife was a happy place last week when the stork brought to their home a very fine boy which also brought joy to the happy parents. All are getting along nicely.

Wm. Patterson who has been visiting at the home of his two brothers, Judge A. J. Patterson and David Patterson for the past two weeks, returned to his home at Murray last Tuesday evening.

On last Saturday the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sheehan was made happy when the stork brought to their home a beautiful blue eyed baby girl. This is an added joy to this already happy family.

Mrs. Edna D. Shannon were over to Plattsmouth on Tuesday of this week where they were looking after some business and as well visiting with their many friends while there.

Miss Ruth Ranney, who is a teacher in the schools of Nebraska has been home for some time on account of illness and the work which she had been doing at the school there is now being looked after by Mrs. Ingwersen, who will teach until such a time as Miss Ranney is able to resume her labors.

Well Represented Now.

There are some five produce and cream stations in Weeping Water now after the opening of the one this week, which seems to be a plenty for taking care of the territory surrounding Weeping Water. Sometimes plenty of places to do business stimulates that same business.

Have Excellent Gathering.

The meeting of the Brotherhood of the Methodist church of Weeping Water was held on last Monday evening at the basement of the church and was attended by some fifty-five of the active men of Weeping Water who have a better future for the city in view. Attorney James S. Brown of Lincoln was the principal speaker, and his address was enjoyed by every one attending as they seemed spellbound at the very pleasant address which was made.

One of the very enjoyable numbers was a solo by Mr. Lloyd Linton of Lincoln and who was accompanied at the piano by Frances Meier of Weeping Water. Another pleasing number was a baritone solo by Merritt Welles of Lincoln and who was accompanied by Mr. Willis Eberle, also of Lincoln. The cats were also a wonderful treat as each member brought a covered dish as his contribution and every donor was endeavoring to excel all others in his offering. The refreshments were indeed a banquet.

Former Citizen Buried Here.

Mrs. Frank Fowler, for more than a half century a citizen of near Weeping Water and well known by many people here, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Marshall at Elmwood on last Tuesday morning, at the advanced age of 92 years. Mrs. Fowler with her husband lived west of town on a farm for more than forty years and also made her home here many years. When the family left the farm they came to Weeping Water to reside where the husband was engaged in business for some time, and following his death the widow continued to reside here until a few years ago when she went to Elmwood to make her home with her daughter. She was for many years a member of the Methodist church here and also attended the church at Elmwood.

The funeral of this excellent woman was held Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church and was conducted by the Rev. Bliss, pastor of the Methodist church of Elmwood and the Rev. E. R. Pangborn, pastor of the Methodist church of Weeping Water. The interment was made at Oakwood cemetery.

Mrs. Fowler was born in the east on March 12, 1843, and came to this portion of the country when a young woman.

Wants Use of Water.

Elmer Michelson, proprietor of the Weeping Water Variety store, is a subscriber to the water system of Weeping Water, like others has a meter to measure the water. During summer when the meter was out of order, he used water as at other times and was rendered a bill which he thought unreasonable and refused to pay the same. After he and the water system, which belongs to Weeping Water, were not able to get together, they making a number of offers back and forth, the city turned the water off. He then enjoined the city and they were compelled to turn it on again as per the temporary injunction.

The time for hearing the matter of making the temporary injunction permanent was set for Jan. 27, before the district court. Mr. Michelson is represented by Mrs. W. L. Dwyer.

Seeks to Be County Sheriff. Martin D. Nelson, living west of Weeping Water and who has declared his intention of running for county sheriff on the democratic ticket, was a visitor in Louisville where he has a number of friends and where he visited and felt the pulse of the public and was greatly encouraged as to his chances for nomination. He is expecting to file some time in the early spring.

New Institution for the City. Weeping Water is to have a new institution in the shape of a produce station and creamery, which is being installed by L. P. Hansen, who comes from Auburn, and will make purchases for himself of cream and butterfat and will expect to make butter as well as conduct the business as a home dairy. He will include in his line of business all country produce as poultry and hides. Just how soon he will get the creamery in operation is not as yet known. However he opened for business on Wednesday of this week.

The Journal aims to print all the news and will appreciate your assistance to that end. Call No. 6.

HUNTER GETS NICKED

Sunday Gilbert Hirtz with several companions were rabbit hunting south of this city, in the vicinity of Rock Bluffs, finding trace of many of the bunnies. One of the rabbits broke from cover and at which one of the hunters fired, missing the rabbit, but Gib received a part of the charge in the calf of his right leg. The wound was not dangerous but very painful and made necessary Gilbert taking an enforced vacation from his duties at the Hinky-Dinky store.
