

UNION ITEMS.

James Smith, the musician, who is at this time making his home at Murray, was a business visitor in Union on last Monday, driving down in his car.

Earl Hathaway, the man who cares for the delivering of your milk and cream to market, shelled and delivered his corn crop to the Stites elevator on Tuesday of last week.

A couple of the citizens of Union had the misfortune to have their cars come together on last Sunday, with the result that no one was hurt, but the looks of the cars was spotted.

John Armstrong was a visitor in Plattsmouth last week, where he went to look after some business matters for a short time and also visited with his many friends while there.

Marion Boyd, of Elmwood, came to Union last Tuesday to take charge of the Trunkbolz oil station here, which was formerly conducted by Claude Lane, who was transferred to Nelawka.

Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd N. Kunkel, of Weeping Water, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. N. B. Kunkel, of Union, all enjoying a very fine visit together at the parsonage.

George A. Stites was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Friday, where he went to look after some business in connection with the CWA workers in this vicinity and to bring back the pay roll for the workers.

Ohlie Atteberry and Miss Velda Dysart, the latter employed at the Masonic Home in Plattsmouth, were enjoying a visit with friends in Omaha last Sunday evening, making the trip in the former's car.

Mrs. J. C. Gillespie, who has been spending the past week at the home of her son, Dean Gillespie and family, departed for her home at Nebraska City on Monday of this week. Mrs. Gillespie has not been feeling the best for some time past.

John Erwin, who puts in his time during the week at the elevator, concluded that he would make a trip to Omaha on last Sunday and as Curley Hathaway was making the trip on that day, as he is wont to do frequently, John went along with him notwithstanding it was rather cool.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snavely were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Coppenhaver, of Nebraska City, where they enjoyed the visit very much. They were accompanied by Carl Snavely and wife, who also visited there, but at the home of the parents of Mrs. Carl Snavely, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hamilton.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church of Union met last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Madison, south of town, where all of the thirty-six ladies present enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon, looking after some business for the society and devising ways and means whereby they could assist in furthering the program of church work. Rev. and Mrs. Kunkel were present at the meeting.

Happy with Two Sons

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Greene are happy over the arrival of a very fine boy which was presented to them by the stork last week. Another son was born some two years ago and the arrival on January 4th makes a very fine pair of sons. There is also much rejoicing, as the sister of Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Harry O'Brien, of near Wabash, presented her husband with a son the day before the arrival of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Greene. This makes the cousins' birthdays come within one day of each other.

Services at Methodist Church

The morning services of the Methodist church this coming Sunday will be held at the Wyoming church and the evening services will be conducted at the Union church. The other services will be held at the regular time. All are cordially invited to attend all the services of the church.

Visited in Murray Sunday

E. E. Leach and the family were guests for the day and for a very fine dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt, of Murray, where all enjoyed the day and a very fine dinner. Messrs. Leach and Tutt have been fast friends for many years and it is always a most enjoyable occasion when they can spend the day together—to say nothing of the enjoyment other members of the family had on this pleasant occasion.

John McCarthy Resting Nicely.

John McCarthy, while making a trip to Lincoln to look after some business matters, met with a serious accident west of Eagle, when his car turned over. Mr. McCarthy applied the brakes to slow down and the car skidded on the icy pavement, being overturned with the result that he had the vertebra of his neck and back dislocated, causing a serious fracture. He was taken to Nebraska City and placed in St. Mary's hospital there. After the dislocated vertebra had been returned to place, he was put in a cast and will have to remain in that unmovable position for some time to come. At latest reports, the patient was making good progress.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd were married January 7, 1902, and have made their home in and near Union for the past thirty-one years and thought it appropriate that they should celebrate the event which came on last Sunday. As this was also the occasion of the third anniversary of the wedding of their son Melvin and wife, the occasion was properly celebrated together. Among the guests present were the parents of Mrs. Melvin Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schanot and family, comprising Richard, Jr., Bobbie, Helen and Beverly, Miss Dorothy Todd, Isaac Todd and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Ribn.

Appreciates Friends' Kindness

Mrs. G. S. Upton, who with her husband have made their home in this vicinity for many years, during that time have cultivated many warm friendships among their neighbors. For the past year or more, due to poor health, Mrs. Upton has not been able to get out much, and has enjoyed many a visit from her friends as well as being the recipient of many presents in token of the appreciation of these friends, together with kind letters, Christmas, birthday and similar greeting cards. She regrets very much her inability to answer all on account of a lame arm and takes this method of announcing to her many friends her appreciation for their acts of kindness. The multifold acts of kindness insures the continued well wishes of all who know her and come as a fine expression of the sentiment that makes life worth living and this a good old world after all.

Brennenstuhl-Lewis.

In a simple ceremony solemnized by Rev. W. A. Taylor, Mrs. Jennie Brennenstuhl and Mr. John W. Lewis were united in marriage Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. C. H. Whitworth, at Union, with only the immediate family present.

Although the contracting parties were not as it might seem, childhood sweethearts, they were acquaintances of many years standing. Their first glimpses into this beautiful world of ours were but two miles apart and within a span of eighteen days, and the bride enjoys the thoughts of how she played with the groom when he wore gingham dresses.

Both have been deprived of their former companions by the grim Reaper, and it is most fitting that they are now enabled to share the pleasures and sorrows of middle age together as they did in childhood days.

They will make their home on a farm, which Mr. Lewis owns and has been tending for many years, near Galt, Missouri, for which they departed early Tuesday morning.

The Journal offers congratulations and best wishes for the newlyweds in their native haunts.

A Near Tragedy.

Happiness was nearly turned into grief by the treacherous ice on the highway at the junction east of Union when the car bearing the betrothed couple, who are now Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lewis, skidded in two complete turns to the land in the W. B. Banning orchard, Sunday afternoon.

They had nearly completed the journey of some 200 miles and were consulting to each other about the successful trip when the accident occurred.

That there were neither injuries to the occupants of the car nor damage to the car itself is considered an extremely good piece of luck.

It seems just a shame that someone always gives the bride away. It seems to her that once in a while everybody would keep quiet.

The above leaders in each neighborhood in the community were appointed who will in turn appoint their assistants and organize the city into several garden clubs. These sub-divisions will be under the direction of the central organization which will meet once a month to transact the necessary business. The first project planned is a flower show at some appropriate time in the future. Plattsmouth has unlimited possibilities in this field and the co-operation of all civic organization as well as every citizen is heartily solicited in this Better Homes and Gardens project.

It is the intention to select a Plattsmouth flower, Plattsmouth tree, and Plattsmouth bush by popular vote of the citizens and school children. It is also suggested that a slogan be adopted by popular vote. Some suggestions that have been sent in are: "Let us Spray," "Beautify Plattsmouth," "Plattsmouth Beautiful," etc. Anyone having a suggestion for an appropriate slogan is asked to call Mrs. E. H. Wescott.

Those in attendance at the meeting were: F. A. Clodt, Mrs. E. H. Wescott, Julius Pitz, J. H. McMaken, L. S. Devoe, Mrs. Lillian Freeman, Mrs. Fred Fricke, and Mrs. C. E. Hartford.

NEBRASKA CITY HERE FRIDAY

The Plattsmouth high school will face one of their severest tests on Friday evening when the Nebraska City quintet arrives here for the annual battle of the purple and gold and the blue and white.

Nebraska City this year has an exceptionally strong team, one that looks good to go places in the southeast conference, having defeated Falls City, last year's regional champions by the score of 37 to 15. The Oteasans have not lost a game so far and won their contests by wide margins.

The Platters have for the past several years had the call on the Oteasans in their basketball contests and will arrive to maintain that supremacy Friday against the Plattsmouth, but will find the going not as easy as in the past few years.
