Christ. Beil, an Old Resident, Passes Away

From Monday's Daily
Aged Resident of Kenosha Dies today After Long Illness—Funeral on Wednesday.

This morning at the farm home near the pioneer settlement of Kenosha, occurred the death of Christ. Beil, 89, a resident of Cass county for a period of some forty-three years, having made his home on the farm where he passed away. Mr. Beil in the last two years had been falling in health until death came to his relief and brought to the close a long and useful life.

The deceased was a native of Germany where he spent his boyhood and when thirteen years of age came to the United States and has since lived in Iowa and Nebraska. He was married some sixty-seven years ago in Iowa to Miss Minna Hesse, who with five children survive his passing. The family was reared on the farm home near here and where many happy years were spent by the family circle. Mr. Beil was a man held in the highest esteem by those who had the pleasure of knowing him and when able it was a delight for him to welcome to his home the friends in a true spirit of the old German hospitality.

The children surviving are Fred Beil, Mrs. Christine Campbell, of south of this city; Mrs. Clara Sitzman of Imperial; Mrs. Amelia Woodward, Albany, Oregon, and Mrs. Mary Bauer of Union.

The funeral will be held at 1:30 Wednesday from the Lewiston community center with the Sattler funeral home of this city in charge.

PLEASANT RIDGE COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING

Fake Corn Sealers Operate in This State

State Railway Commission Discovers That in Some Sections Farmers Are Being Preyed On.

The state railway commission at Lincoln which has charge of the handling of the hog-corn loans in the state have received reports of a new graft that has been worked on a number of farmers over the state, that of fraudulent corn sealers.

The reports that have reached the railway commission are that parties visit the farms where applications have been made for loans, measure up the cribs of corn and collect the fee, that of a half cent a bushel.

The farmers unsuspectingly paid over the money and it was not until later when the duly authorized inspector and sealer visited the farm that they knew of their being made dupes of the fake sealers.

There has been no cases of this kind reported from Cass county where the sealers are well known residents, Senator W. B. Banning, Rex Young, Henry Clapp and Earl S. Davis, known to a large part of the farming population of the county.

TENDER SHOWER TO FRIEND

Mrs. J. W. Tritsch entertained on January 6th at her home in honor of Mrs. Tillie Alexen Bomberg, one of the brides of the early winter season, a large number of the friends being in attendance.

Mrs. Tritsch was assisted by Martha Privett, Selma Hell, Florence Sjogren and Esther Tritsch.

There were two games enjoyed by the members of the party, a tree game and a music game and in which the greatest of interest was shown by the members of the jolly party.

One of the features of the occasion was a mock wedding and in which a great deal of enjoyment was derived by all of the jolly group.

A large number of beautiful and attractive gifts were presented to the bride as a token of the esteem of the friends.

The luncheon was served and carried out in the color plan of the shower, yellow and green.

The members of the party were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexen for the evening and where dancing and cards were the source of entertainment until the midnight hour when a delicious luncheon was served to add to the enjoyment of the members of the party.

DEATH OF B. M. CLINE

Bransin M. Cline, a resident of Cass county for 52 years died at his home east of Murray at 12:30 a. m. on Tuesday, January 16th. His death was caused by heart failure.

Mr. Cline was born at Corydon, Harrison county, Indiana, on July 24th, 1852. He came to Nebraska in November, 1882, and settled on a farm at Mt. Pleasant. He was a member of the Baptist church of Union.

On September 23rd, 1889, he was united in marriage to Miss Ida Dy-sart, a daughter of a prominent pioneer family.

He is survived by his wife and his three children, Mrs. Ruth Dysart, Eagle, Nebr.; Mrs. Rosa Ferguson, Nebraska City; Roy Cline, Kansas City, Mo.

He was a home loving man and in his quiet, kindly manner he lived, endearing himself to all with whom he came in contact. He will long be remembered as a devoted husband, a wise and gentle father and a true and loyal friend.

The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Baptist church at Union, Rev. William A. Taylor officiating. The Hobson funeral home of Weeping Water had charge of the service.

HELPED ORGANIZE SCOUTS

Relative to the Boy Scout movement in this city, Mrs. D. C. Morgan states to the Journal that probably the first movement to promote organized scouting was on October 6, 1910, when Mrs. C. C. Parmele held a meeting at the First Presbyterian church of the boys of her Sunday school class as well as their mothers and launched a move to form along the Scout lines. Rev. L. W. Gade gave the boys a talk on the moral and religious side of the Scout movement, while Thomas Darling of Kansas City, discussed with the members of the class the advantages in character building and physical development. M. S. Briggs of this city was also a speaker at the meeting to urge the organization of the boys. Later, Mrs. Morgan states, Mr. Parmele had the stairway constructed from the Sunday school room in the basement to the main auditorium in order that the class might more easily get to and from the main auditorium for the church services.

RADIO STARS AT WORLD

Cecil and Sully, famous radio personalities, will come to the World Theatre, Omaha, in person for six days starting Friday, January 19, with all of the familiar characters of their "comic strip of the air," in a two act comedy stage show, "The Funniest Things."

Aunt Bess, Uncle Thomas, Widow Mason, Dr. Morgan and all the others will be on hand to dispense their comely humor and entertaining idiosyncrasies as they have done for an indefinite time in coast-to-coast radio hook-ups.

The screen attraction for the engagement will be Edmund Lowe in "Bombay Mail" in which Ralph Forbes, Shirley Mason and a capital cast are featured. The production is a mystery drama that takes place on a speeding train.

SEEK REGIONAL TOURENY

Nebraska City has extended an invitation to hold the annual South-eastern regional basketball tournament at that city starting on March 8th. The tournament held there two years ago proved a much more convenient location for towns all over the district than that at Falls City last year when it was necessary for a large number of the teams to remain at Falls City for the three days, while at the more centrally located town of Nebraska City, most of the teams are able to return to their homes each day after the contests. The accommodations at Nebraska City are excellent for playing and the choice of that city for the annual tourney would be pleasing to the larger number of the schools competing, there is no doubt.
