

UNION ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor were at Nebraska City Thursday afternoon.

C. E. Hatchell and son Donald and C. W. Hoback were visitors in Nebraska City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoback and daughter, Marjorie, motored to Nebraska City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor extend thanks to the C. W. Hoback family for a goodly supply of beef.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn were over to Omaha on Monday of this week, where they were looking after some business matters for the day.

Claude Lane, who is in charge of the Trunkenholz oil business at Nebraska, was a visitor at both Union and Plattsmouth last Monday.

John Vanhorn was unloading a car of coal at the Frans Lumber yard on last Monday, while Wayne Ackley was delivering it to customers at the same time.

A. L. Bedker and Joe Davis, his truck driver, were in Lincoln on last Friday, where they were delivering a truck load of wood and also looking after some other business.

Carl Nickles and wife, of Weeping Water were in Plattsmouth last Monday and stopped in Union on their way home to meet with their many friends, as well as to look after some business.

J. L. Griffin and wife, of Lincoln, while on their way to Plattsmouth to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Griffin, parents of H. W. Griffin, stopped for a short visit with relatives here.

Misses Mary Roddy and Gertrude Chittenden, both teachers in the public schools of Union, were in Omaha last Saturday, where they visited with friends as well as looked after some business matters.

Elmer Withrow and Frank Bauer were over to the wolf hunt on last Sunday, but nary a wolf did they see. One of the members of the party shot a large hoot owl, however, measuring 56 inches from tip to tip.

Jessie Pell of Omaha was a visitor in Union on last Monday, coming to look after some business matters in connection with his application for a corn loan, which he is getting, and as well to make arrangements for his hog adjustment allotment.

W. B. Banning and wife and Miss Pearl Banning were in Lincoln on last Saturday, where they were visiting and looking after some business and when the ladies had completed their errands there they drove home, leaving Mr. Banning to continue his work there.

Fred Clarke, who has been very sick for the past two weeks, and who has been kept to his home and bed during that time is now feeling much better and is able to be out and was down town on last Saturday, visiting with his friends after having been kept in bed for so long.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frans and their son, Jimmie, were in Lincoln on last Saturday, where they were visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and their son, John. They remained until Sunday evening. On their return trip Sunday, W. B. Banning returned with them.

Len Thacker and wife of Glenwood, Iowa, arrived in Union on last Saturday and were guests over the week end at the home of the sister of Mrs. Thacker, Mesdames J. C. Niday, E. L. Hathaway and C. T. Moore. While here they also visited Mrs. Thacker's brother, J. A. Eaton and family.

Henry H. Becker was a visitor in Omaha last Monday, taking with him their son, Donald, who has been having some trouble with his ears and where he had the young lad examined by an ear specialist with a view to having something done to alleviate the trouble. The boy has suffered a great deal and his hearing has been much impaired as well.

Make Good Address
Mrs. Florence Helgshelg, of Omaha, and her mother, as well as Mrs. Emma Johnson, who is a returned missionary, were guests for a short time last week at the home of Miss Augusta Robb and also attended the Woman's club meeting which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Siftes, and at which Mrs.

Johnson made a most interesting address. Her talk was very educational, dealing, as it did, with the missionary problem in the far east, and was greatly enjoyed.

W. H. Porter, who has been engaged in the trucking business for a number of years and has ever made it a practice to do the best work in his line, says business is picking up in nice shape. He has been forced to purchase a second truck, making selection of a Chevrolet, which he has found to be a substantial and dependable wagon for his needs. Clyde Porter will drive one of the trucks, while W. H. will operate the other. He received the new truck recently and on last Monday had four loads of stock for the Omaha market as well as two more during the night, making six loads in all. Business is good.

Dees Meritorious Act
Vance and Sterling Harris were the moving spirit in the volunteer saving of a large number of cords of wood for Hall Pollard, living some six miles west of Union on last Saturday. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pollard, Coral, aged three years, has been confined to her bed for the past three weeks with an acute attack of pneumonia, and while during the past week, she was suffering some improvement on last Saturday she was taken very seriously ill and it was with much labor, nursing and the best of medical service that the little one was kept alive. During this time, the father, Hall Pollard, could not get out to look after the sawing of wood and so Messrs Harris and a number of moving spirits went to the Pollard home and sawed a large number of cords of wood, supplying the home with fuel. Among those from Union were Vance Harris, Sterling Harris, Marion Stone, Lee Ferris, Hayes Harris, Roy Davis, Dan Anderson, Merritt Pollard, Stewart and Schuyler Smith.

Welcome to Church Services
The Methodist church of Union and Wyoming extend to all who are not worshipping elsewhere an invitation to come and join with us in our many church services of the Sunday and the Young People's meeting. The services this coming Sunday will be at Wyoming during the morning hour and at Union during the evening. The following Sunday there will be service at Union both morning and evening. Come one, come all.

Woman's Club Meeting
The Union Woman's club held a special meeting Wednesday evening, January 31, at the home of Mrs. D. Ray Frans, to complete the review of the two books under discussion the past few months. Mrs. Frans reviewed "How to Enjoy Music." The musical numbers illustrating the study were piano numbers, Allegro from the 5th Symphony, by Beethoven, and The Humming Bird, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, played by Ora Clark; Piano duet, Turkish Rondo, from Sonata in A, Mozart, played by Mrs. Frans and Miss Clark; Also McDowell's "To a Wild Rose," played by Miss Chittenden.

Songs, "The Years at the Spring," Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, and "Jersey," Jessie Ganor, sung by Dorothy Creamer and Augusta Robb.
Trio, Ganor's "Slumber Boat" and the old English ballad, "I Passed by Your Window," sung by Dorothy Creamer, Ora Clark and Augusta Robb.

The Thurlow Lieurance story, "By the Waters of Minnetonka" was read by Mrs. Kunkel, followed by Ora Clark in Indian costume singing the number.

Mark Twain's "American" was comprehensively reviewed by Miss Chittenden, followed by Twain's likes and dislikes of music, written by the daughter of Clemens, told by Mrs. Frans.

A musical reading, "How the Elephant Got His Trunk," by Mrs. Laurance Meisinger closed the program.

On display about the room were art pictures of musical nature. Mrs. Frans presented each member with an art picture of historical nature from the Perry collection.

ENJOY ILLUSTRATED TALK

The Rotarians Tuesday at their weekly luncheon had the pleasure of enjoying an illustrated talk on the life and times of Abraham Lincoln, the two reel motion picture of the life of Lincoln being shown and Superintendent L. S. Devoe gave a very fine sketch of the life of the great civil war president and one that was followed with the greatest interest.

The club also enjoyed their first luncheon provided by the Stewart cafe that is now operating the Hotel Riley cafe, a fine menu being provided for the Rotarians.

VISIT HERE SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bach entertained at dinner Sunday a number of relatives and friends at their hospitable home, the guests being Father Mayes of the St. Columbian mission at Bellevue and Mrs. John Carney and family of Omaha. Mrs. Carney being a sister of Mrs. Bach.
