

UNION ITEMS.

Carl Hansen was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water on last Tuesday.

Mrs. W. H. Porter and Miss Mary Becker were in Omaha a few days ago, driving to the metropolis to look after some business matters.

John Clarence was a visitor in Murray and Plattsmouth on last Friday, having some business matters to look after in each place.

Isaac Dye and son were shelling and delivering corn on Tuesday afternoon of this week, the grain being delivered to the Stites elevator here.

Edgar Newton and family, Plattsmouth were visiting for a short time last Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Vesta Clark, mother of Mrs. Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Stull, both of Nehawka, were visiting with friends and looking after some business in Union for a short time last Monday afternoon.

William Lincoln Stine was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on Monday morning of this week, driving over to the county seat in his auto.

Frank and Anna Bauer were over to Mrs. Chris Bell's on last Sunday, where they were visiting with Mrs. Bell and with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bauer, who make their home there.

Mrs. Joseph Lindsay has been in very poor health for the past few weeks, having sustained an attack of flu, and while she is better at this time, she is still not entirely well.

Miss Marjorie Hoback was a guest of Miss Opal Yonkers Thursday, also visiting the Union schools on Friday morning.

Miss Opal accompanied her back home, where she was a guest over the week end.

Vic and Loy have been putting their disc grinding machine on a truck, which will enable them to go from farm to farm engaging in this line of work. They expect to have the outfit ready in a few days.

A. L. Becker and Joe Davis were in Lincoln Monday with a load of wood, and at the same time Mr. Becker was looking after the details of a new stock rack which he is having manufactured for his new truck.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Everett is reported as being very poorly and is being nursed by Mrs. H. M. Christwiser. The many friends of these people are hoping that the little one may soon be well again.

Mrs. P. F. Rihn was hostess to the W. C. T. U. in their gathering which was held at the Rihn home Tuesday of last week. There was a large and very enthusiastic gathering and a good program was given. Mrs. Rihn served delightful refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Comer and Mrs. Comer's sister, Jennie, who is now visiting at the Comer home, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stine, where they all enjoyed a very fine visit and an excellent dinner.

The barge of stone which has been frozen in the river at the stone quarry was loosened on Monday and the load taken to Nebraska City. The work it was hoped would be opened soon will be postponed for a time awaiting the coming of warmer weather and the clearing of the channel of ice.

Joe Green, who is farming this year on the farm of Mr. Liston, of Elmwood, which is located a few miles north of Union, was sowing his clover seed. Mr. Green was anxious to get the seeding completed, as he has some excavating to do for the basement of a house which is to be erected on the farm this year, and that will take considerable time a little later in the season.

Ray Becker took his brother, Henry and the latter's son, Donald, to Omaha, where the lad entered a hospital for an operation to relieve a mastoid which has developed on one of his ears. It was considered best to have the operation performed as soon as possible in order to avoid possible complications. All are hoping the lad may come through the ordeal in fine shape and be relieved of his painful experience.

Mrs. Harold Otte Dies.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor received a telephone call from Wabash asking that he come there to conduct the funeral of the late Mrs. Harold Otte, who died on Monday and whose funeral was held Wednesday, with interment in the Wabash cemetery. A more complete account of the life of this excellent woman will appear in a later issue of the Journal.

Died in Omaha Sunday

Lester Boyd a former superintendent of the Union schools some few years ago, and who has been making his home in Omaha of late, passed away there Monday from that dread disease cancer. Mr. Boyd leaves to mourn his departure, his wife and two children. The home of the parents of this young man is at Dunbar, and the remains were taken there for interment, the funeral being held on Tuesday. Prof. Boyd will be remembered by many of the people of Union, where he was superintendent of schools and one of the active instructors for two years.

Made Good Record

Phillip F. Rihn, who served as county chairman of the NRA, has been asked by Hon. Richard L. Metcalfe to accept the chairmanship of the county for the National Emergency Council. While Mr. Rihn has spent much time with the affairs of the NRA and succeeded in fine shape, he feels that he cannot afford to put in the time necessary to handle the affairs of this new organization and has so advised Mr. Metcalfe.

Visiting in Old Home

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Meade departed on Monday morning of this week for the old home town of Fair Play, Mo., where they are visiting with friends. They expect to remain a week or ten days and enjoy every minute of the time.

Gave Excellent Show

John Jones, of Weeping Water, a well known director of music, who has been acting as director of the American Legion's minstrel show at that place, was in town on Monday of this week posting bills for the show, which was presented on Tues-

Mardi Gras Queen

Down in New Orleans, all the men are gentlemen. They proved it by selecting the beautiful and blonde Miss Laura Fenner to occupy the throne as Queen of the Mardi Gras. A true daughter of Louisiana, Miss Fenner is blue-eyed, has a peach bloom complexion, is a devotee of outdoor sports and expert dancer.

day and Wednesday evenings to a large audience. A number from this vicinity went over Tuesday night and all speak well of the excellence of the show. The Weeping Water Legion post will net a neat sum of money from their efforts.

Have Made Great Change

The CWA workers who have been putting Union's house in order, completed their work on Tuesday and have wrought a great change in the appearance of the town as well as earned a considerable sum of money with which to purchase food and clothing for their families. It has been a good thing for all concerned. Latest news dispatches are to the effect that the CWA work is to be continued to May 15th, with a gradual tapering off in the number of men employed as the spring season brings about a resumption of other activities which give employment to workmen.

Seventy-Five Years Ago

Seventy-five years ago the city of Council Bluffs was host to a prominent visitor from the east—a man who was then 50 years of age and a candidate for the presidency. That man was none other than the great and immortal Abraham Lincoln—a man whose life stands out as a shining example to the youth of our nation as it has for years. Council Bluffs was proud to welcome him on this occasion and well they may have been for he was destined to become one of the greatest presidents the nation has ever had.

Meek and as honest as the day is long, this tall, and rather ungainly rail-splitter came before the people of that day with a message straight from the shoulder. He had embarked in many less important undertakings and tasted defeat on numerous occasions, both in his private business affairs and in running for office. It seems that fate was holding him for the very time when he was placed at the head of our national government and guided the nation through its trying period of civil warfare. He paid in full his devotion to his beloved country by giving up his life, which was dedicated to the service of humanity. So we are all glad to pause and pay tribute to this splendid man. May the record of his life be an inspiration to every boy in the country!

Funeral of Mrs. E. C. Harris is Held Sunday

Large Number of Friends and Relatives Here to Attend Service at Sattler Funeral Home.

The funeral services of Mrs. E. C. Harris were held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Sattler funeral home where a large group of the friends had gathered to share with the family the deep sorrow that the sudden death of this estimable lady had occasioned.

The services were conducted by Rev. H. L. Grassmuck, of Arlington, Nebraska, a former pastor of the First Christian church of this city, who had officiated at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Harris. The pastor spoke words of comfort and hope to the sorrowing members of the family circle and held to them the blessed promise of the future life when all things shall be made right and separation and sorrow unknown.

A male quartet composed of Frank A. Cloldt, R. W. Knorr, L. D. Hiatt and George E. Sayles, gave two of the old and loved hymns, "We Are Going Down the Valley One by One," and "The Old Rugged Cross." Mr. Cloldt gave the beautiful hymn, "Asleep in Jesus" as a solo number during the service.

The body was laid to rest at the family plot in Oak Hill cemetery.

The pall bearers were old friends, Art McGinsey, Cozad; Harry Godbaston, Christian Jensen, Marris Jensen, Ray Honby, E. A. Olson, Omaha.

Others from out of the city for the services were Art McGinsey, Wallace Herrington, Ray Honby, Mr. and Mrs. George Muller, Mr. and Mrs. Munger and family, Omaha; Miss Thelma Frantz, Lincoln; Chris Jensen and Morris Jensen of Omaha.

Mrs. Harris was born at George, Iowa, August 21, 1892, and at the time of her death was aged thirty-two years, five months and nineteen days.

She is survived by the husband and little daughter, Jeanette, one brother, H. W. Nightingale, Little Rock, Iowa; five sisters, Mrs. Tillie Green, Mrs. Charles Marr, Jr., Mrs. Dick Graves, all of Des Moines, Minnesota; Mrs. John Miller, George, Iowa; Mrs. Harvey Miller, Chicago, Illinois.

The family were deprived of their parents in early childhood by death.

SORORITY ENTERTAINS

From Wednesday's Daily Last evening a pleasant gathering of the students of the Plattsmouth Study Center was held at the Woolcott home. The students have taken an active interest in the college work and have even taken up the social activities of college.

The boys have organized a Gag Fasm fraternity, and the girls a Feathe Bowh sorority. Last evening the members participated in the first social activity of the year when the Feathe Bowh sorority entertained the fraternity brothers at a delightful dinner.

The dinner was prepared and served by Miss Helen Woolcott, who was assisted in the serving by her mother. The following menu was served: Bitter-sweet, Love Birds, Birds Love Nest, Fancy Stuff, Three's a Crowd, Rejected Lovers, Diamonds, Hidden Love, Sweets to the Sweet Love potion.

After dinner the students were entertained by a feature act by Tritsch and Garnett and an enjoyable time was had by all who attended. Those who attended were: Elnora Hennings, Fay Hennings, Leona Hudson, Albert Toman, Stuart Porter, Floyd Shanholtz, George Adam, Helen Woolcott, Agnes Brink, Wilhelmina Henrichsen, Aulton Roland, Esther Oltjenbruns, Greth Garnett and Marvin Tritsch.

J. A. BURROWS VERY LOW

The message was received here Sunday night by Lester Burrows that his brother, J. A. Burrows, formerly of this city, was critically ill at Tulsa, Oklahoma, where for the past three years he has made his home. Mr. Burrows has been suffering from heart trouble and his condition became such that it was necessary to have him removed to a hospital for treatment. The messages received here stated that the condition was critical and have little hope of recovery.

J. A. Burrows and family made their home here some ten years ago, later going to Oklahoma and New Mexico where they resided for some years and then returned to Tulsa where the family have since resided.

If possible to make arrangements to reach Tulsa in time to see his brother, Lester Burrows is expecting to leave this evening for the south.
