

UNION ITEMS.

Harry Stult, of Avoca, was a visitor in Union last Monday, coming to look after some insurance matters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hockack and daughter, Marjorie, with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, motored to Nebraska City Thursday afternoon.

W. H. Porter, who recently added another truck to take care of his increasing business, has Clyde Porter, a nephew, driving one of the trucks.

Ira Clarke was not feeling the best during the fore part of last week, but was still carrying on his work at the barber shop and thus wore his indisposition away.

Dr. L. N. Kunkel and wife were over from their home at Weeping Water last Sunday, being guests at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Kunkel.

Nellie Akers, of Howard, who has been visiting for the past three weeks at the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. M. Kunkel, departed for her home on Monday of this week.

Donald Becker, who underwent an operation at an Omaha hospital last Friday, is reported as getting along fully as well as could be expected.

Last Saturday Clyde Porter hauled a truck load of wood for Rev. W. A. Taylor from the McCarthy farm, the wood being donated by Charles McCarthy and the trucking by W. H. Porter, for which Mr. Taylor desires to express his sincere thanks.

Mrs. Mabel E. Reynolds has been assisting with the work at the post-office in Union and with her broad experience in business and wide acquaintance with the people of this community, is a valuable assistant to the postmistress in carrying on the work at the office.

While engaged in cutting up the summer's supply of meat after having butchered a number of hogs, John Armstrong met with an accident that cut a deep gash in one of his fingers. The injured member was dressed and is now getting along very well, although John is not able to make much use of the hand as yet.

J. C. Snodgrass, of Geneva, was visiting with his brother, John Snodgrass, of Brock, who has been very sick. He remained until the brother was showing good improvement, when a son of the sick man and nephew of J. C., Omar Snodgrass, brought the uncle to Union, where he visited for a short time at the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. N. Kunkel and continued on his way to his home at Geneva last Saturday.

To Give Musical Entertainment

The Faubel Entertainers are giving a high class musical entertainment on Saturday, February 24th, at the M. W. A. hall.

Woman's Auxiliary Meets

The Woman's Auxiliary met with Mrs. Ida Roddy Friday afternoon for a special meeting and program, that was arranged to "Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem." Groups of women all over the nation joined in this service some time during the day.

Announce Their Marriage

Late last week, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Niday announced their marriage, which was performed at Rockport, Mo., last November, and had been kept a secret from their friends until that time.

Married at Council Bluffs

To take a short trip and be married and then come home an announce the wedding as a surprise to their friends seems to be the popular order of things just now, and not a bad one at that, for it does away with a great amount of preparation by the family and eliminates some of the expense incident to a big home wedding.

Passing of William Stuart

William Stuart was born in Cass county, Nebraska, August 12, 1890. He departed this life on February 14, 1934, at Lincoln, aged 43 years, 6 months and 2 days.

Methodist Church Notes

There will be preaching at the Wyoming church at the morning hour and at the Union church in the evening, with all the Auxiliaries to meet at their accustomed time.

Funeral

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Sciota school house, conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, of Union. During the service, two hymns were rendered by D. Ray Frans, with Mrs. Frans at the piano. Interment was in the Sciota cemetery.

Mynard Minstrels of 1934 a Grand Success

The Mynard Community hall was filled to its capacity last Thursday and Friday evenings to witness the production of the Minstrels of 1934, which was directed by Raymond C. Cook of this city and presented by the Mynard Community Club.

A splendid cast, including a mixed chorus of ten voices, delighted the audience with their musical numbers and a running fire of comedy thruout the production furnished plenty of laughs for everyone.

The end men furnishing the evenings fun were Ray Bourne, Sherman Cole, Homer Spangler and Dick Livingston.

Dick Livingston was heard in a new and popular number, "You're Gonna Loose Your Gal."

The ladies quartette sang "The Old Spinning Wheel" and "The Waltz You Saved for Me."

Sherman Cole then delighted the audience with a real old time trombone "smear."

Peg Hitz, the popular little singer of big song hits sang one of the latest Broadway sensations, "O! Pappy."

The men's quartette then harmonized in "Ready for the River," and "Hold Me."

Lawrence Leonard sang "Easter Parade," and was followed by the feature number of the evening, "Thirty Years of Jazz." Beginning in the year 1900 a popular song of the period was sung by the chorus.

The "Olso" section of the minstrel was composed of several specialties.

The astounding magic of L. S. Devoe gained the audience spellbound. This unique act is well worth the price of admission.

The antics and side-splitting humor of Bennett and Cook as "Two Big Pigs," kept the audience in a roar of laughter.

Milly Bullin was encored repeatedly in her piano-accordion numbers. Due to unavoidable circumstances this popular artist was unable to appear at the Friday night's performance, much to everyone's regret.

Because of so many requests the tickets there will be a third performance of this minstrel on Tuesday, February 26th. All seats to this performance have been sold. The fourth and last presentation will be Wednesday night, February 21. Curtain at 8:15. All tickets general admission. No reserved seats.

Invited to come and enjoy the worship with this church.

Popular Demand Makes Necessary Holding of Third and Fourth Performances This Week.

The important place of interlocuter was splendidly handled by Eddie Wehrlein.

The musical numbers were so well received that the soloists, quartettes and chorus responded with many encores.
