Henry H. Becker was in Omaha last Monday, where he went to see his son who is in the hospital, where he is recovering from an operation on one of his ears. Although the lad is getting along nicely, the attending physician advised that a similar operation would undoubtedly be required to correct a similar trouble in the other ear.

A. W. Carr, who operated the filling station on the highway east of town, has been called to Paul to work for the Missouri Pacific for a time, leaving Mrs. Carr to look after the filling station during his absence. The Missouri Pacific is calling back a considerable number of its employees, which is one of the sure signs of a returning prosperity.

Helped Subdue the Frost
George A. Stites, mayor of Union, and a man interested in seeing the town advance, being desirous of knowing how the workmen viewed the matter of their employment, went into the streets and grasped a pick so he might assist in loosening the frozen top soil in order that the men could load the dirt they were excavating on Main street to make way for the new crushed rock surfacing on each side of the paving. He found the work strenuous enough but was glad to be able to be of some slight assistance to the men.

Will Hold Easter Services
The Easter services at the Baptist church in Union will have as their special guests the Knights Templar members residing in this vicinity. Rev. G. L. Sharpe will conduct the special service to which all are cordially invited whether they are affiliated with the Masonic fraternity or not.

Visiting Friends Here
Mrs. W. H. Yonker, of Ogallala, is visiting here with relatives and friends. She has been at Sedalia, Mo., where she was visiting at the homes of Herbert and Lee Yonker, who reside there. Mrs. Yonker will visit here for some time.

Made a Nice Book
Klar Clarke has prepared a very attractive scrap book for his friend, Jarvis Lancaster, which embodies a large number of pencil pictures of local celebrities, and having for its frontispiece, Franklin D. Roosevelt, president.

Will Hold Farm Sale
F. A. Zessen, of Weeping Water, who has been farming south of town and who has found it unprofitable with existing prices, expects to give up the farming game and will hold a sale of his farm equipment. He was in Union Monday putting up bills and went from here to Plattsmouth to get some of the bills in the hands of Rex Young, his auctioneer, for distribution there.

Purchases New Truck
Carl Hansen, who has been engaged in the trucking business for some time past, has found business picking up to a point where he had need of a better truck and recently traded in his old one on a New Ford V-8, being now equipped to give his customers the best of service.

Enjoyed Fine Birthday Party
Mrs. James C. Roddy passed a milestone in her life on last Sunday and celebrated the occasion at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Dixon, who resides in Fremont. In company with the children living at home, Mrs. Roddy drove over to the Dodge county metropolis. A splendid time was had and a very fine dinner provided, which all enjoyed to the utmost. Among those present were Mrs.

Roddy, the guest of honor, her daughter and family, Robert Roddy and family, Herbert Roddy, Frank Roddy, Lee Roddy and the relatives of Mr. Dixon. The husband, James C. Roddy, remained at home to look after affairs on the farm.

Getting Much Notoriety
Since the filing of Horace Griffin for nomination on the republican ticket for the office of county commissioner from the second district, he is being noticed by the papers all over this portion of the country. He avers he will make a thorough canvass of the precincts comprising the district prior to the primary.

Rev. Kunkel Poorly
Rev. Kunkel, pastor of the Methodist church of Union was not feeling very well during the fore part of the week and was kept to his home and bed for the day Monday. His many friends are hoping he may soon be restored to his former good health.

Quarry Work Picking Up
As the weather clears and signs of spring are seen, there is a noticeable increase in employment in the quarries and on the river. It now seems quite certain the river will not be closed any more with ice again this year as the channel is now clear beyond Pierre, South Dakota and it would take a lot of cold weather to again freeze the fast-running stream over.

The Tobin Quarries, Inc., are now putting men at work in their quarry on O street, the plant at Nehawka and their quarries at Auburn and as weather condition continue to improve are adding more workmen. The two shifts that have been running on a five hour per day schedule of late, are to have their time increased to six hours per day, or 36 hours per week, which at the prevailing wage of 40 cents per hour, will bring the weekly pay of each man to $14.40. As the season advances further and demand for rock increases, there is probability of additional increase in the number of hours the men can work.

In Nehawka the demand for quarry workers is calling the CWA force, as the earnings in this line are greater than CWA permits and then there is certainty that the CWA work will be ended in another week or so.

Walter Johnson Threshing
Walter Johnson, who resides west of town, and who has grain which he stacked as long ago as two and three years—both wheat and oats—was threshing the same on Monday of this week and had a very fine day for the job. Seems rather strange to be threshing in the spring time, but such was the case and the grain that had been stacked for so long a time threshed in fine shape.

Business House Gone
Last Monday saw the last load of the stock of goods of the Union Drug store slip away. W. E. Moore, the proprietor, came here a number of years ago and engaged in business. During the more opulent years, he enjoyed a very good business, but when the depression came on, volume of his business dropped down to a point where it did not even pay expenses at times. While Mr. Moore and his family were the best of citizens and he made every effort to build up the waning business, he was not able to do so and consequently decided to locate elsewhere.

Widening Main Street
By Friday of this week the work of spreading crushed rock on Main street on both sides of the pavement will be well under way. Workmen have previously hauled dirt from the street to provide the proper depth for the coating of crushed rock and when the job is completed the town will have its main street hard surfaced from sidewalk to sidewalk. The crushed rock should make a fine roadbed when it gets ground into the dirt and with a bit of limestone dust to bind it, should become almost as good as macadam paving.

The stone for the work is being quarried from one of the pits near Nehawka, and so the project here is furnishing work for the residents of both towns.

Union Needs the Business
It is a deplorable situation for a live town like Union to lose its bank and as well to lose one of its business houses at the same time. Union is a lively town and needs these two lines of business.

The financial and business interests of the town require that there be a bank here and as the city had gotten in such a place that the pressing bills were being liquidated, there was promise that all would be paid and the bank put back on a paying basis. However, the powers that be stepped in and ordered the institution closed and liquidated, thereby imposing a hardship upon the people

Plattsmouth Shows Good at Auburn Contest

One First, Two Seconds and a Third Place for Students in Dedicatory Work.

From Wednesday's Daily By winning a first place, two seconds, and a third, Plattsmouth high school representatives made a very fine showing in the sub-district dedicatory contest, held at Auburn yesterday. The following six schools were entered: Union, Louisville, Shubert, Falls City, Auburn, and Plattsmouth. Frederick Fricke, reading the difficult selection, "Number Six," gave a splendid interpretation of this selection and was awarded first place. In a closely contested humorous section, Virginia Trively won second place with her reading entitled "Good-bye Sister." Her interpretation of this reading was very well done. Edgar Seltz was awarded second place in the extemporaneous speaking with his speech on "The Army Carries the Mail." Lorence Rhodes, local orator, was ranked third with his oration, "Facing the Crisis." The speakers were accompanied by their coach, Mr. Figley, and the fine showing which was made is in keeping with the high standard of dedicatory work maintained by Plattsmouth high school.

Plattsmouth was the only school of the six to place in every event. While Auburn scored the most points, with two firsts and two seconds for a total of sixteen points, Plattsmouth ran a close second with twelve points. The sub-district cup will be awarded to Auburn.

As a result of these rankings, Plattsmouth will have three representatives in the final district championships to be held at Columbus on April 6 as winners of first and second places are entitled to enter this contest.

of the community.

And now the removal of the drug store will work an additional hardship upon the people of the community who will be forced to go elsewhere to purchase their medicines and drug supplies.

Every citizen should be interested in doing everything they can to secure for our community both a bank and a drug store. Let all get together on this proposition and see what can be done. And when the are induced to locate here, let all work together in harmony to keep their business going at a profit.

Union is too good a town to be without these important facilities.
