TAX BOTH CORN AND MONEY

An estimated 48,000,000 bushels of Nebraska corn owned by 40,000 farmers upon which the federal government has lent an estimated $21,600,000 is taxable in the crib and if any of the proceeds of these loans are on hand or are on deposit in banks the money also is taxable. That both the corn in crib and any money as proceeds on hand are taxable are the instructions given to county assessors, said State Tax Commissioner Smith, who had been appealed to by a county assessor for advice. Smith said Assistant Attorney General Ayres gave an opinion Feb. 16 so advising the state board of taxation.

Smith admitted the ruling means double taxation, but he said it appears to be the law and it was his opinion that not much of the money lent by the federal government on the corn would be found on hand or deposited in banks to the credit of the owner. The tax in each case is to be assessed against the owner of the corn and owner of the money. Money is taxed at 5 million on the dollar. Corn is taxed at the prevailing property tax rate in the district where it is found. Smith said the corn is treated the same as property under chattel mortgage, the owner being required to pay the tax.

LOUISVILLE RETAINS BOARD

The voters at Louisville Tuesday returned to office the three retiring members of the village board, Dr. E. H. Worthman, C. A. Gauer and John H. Busche, they all receiving good majorities for the offices. C. E. Pettit and Forest Brunson are the holdover members of the board, Mr. Pettit serving as the mayor of Louisville at the present time.

Dr. Worthman and LaRue Williams were named as members of the board of education at the election.

DISARMING THING OF PAST

Paris.—France and Great Britain are ready to let Chancellor Hitler buy more guns and airplanes while they are limited in armaments, it was indicated by the government in a memorandum to England. The two nations were shown to be in agreement that a new arms limitation conference is necessary, but the question of a parley was viewed as one which should be decided by all countries at Geneva. It was said the two powers now believe the only way out of the present disarmament impasse is to throw all the old legal arguments into the ashcan and start over with new premises. Disarmament was regarded as a thing of the past and its replacement by "arms readjustment" was urged by the communication to Britain.

HOLD HEARING ON ESTATE

From Friday's Daily
A hearing was held this morning in the county court in the estate of Charles E. Noyes, deceased, who in his lifetime was one of the prominent residents of the county. Mr. Noyes had made a bequest of some $20,000 to the Wesleyan university many years ago, claim for which was filed against the estate. The value of the estate, however, had decreased greatly in the past few years and the heirs at law in their presentation of the case sought to have the dower rights of the widow protected against the claim due on the note, contending that her half should not apply to the other division of the other property.

'GLIDER TRAINS' FORESEEN

London.—The first glider to be towed by an airplane across the English channel, a possible forerunner of aerial trains, arrived in London with a 23 year old English girl at the helm. Joan Meakin, the pilot, hitchhiked all the way from Frankfurt, Germany, to begin the trip at Ostend.

At Hecton airdrome, London, she cast off the 300 foot towing cable, performed gliding evolutions and landed without mishap. The theory of glider trains is that with the development of aviation gliders could be hooked to a big plane. They would cast off and land freight and passengers at any destination without the locomotive plane slackening speed.

FLOOD MENACE DISAPPEARS

Elk City, Okl.—The flood crest of the Washita river moved downstream with a spent force, leaving citizens of the devastated Hammon area to bury their dead and begin rehabilitation work. This stream and others claimed twenty-two lives in Oklahoma and Texas this week.

Relief leaders at Hammon announced the situation was well in hand, with sufficient shelter, food and clothing available for the flood victims. With twelve bodies recovered, the river was dragged for five other persons drowned in that area.

Four lives were lost in the Menard, Tex., Saline creek flood. At Tallhina, Okl., a workman fell from a bridge and was drowned in a swollen creek.

ESTIMATES ON WAGES

GARDEN CLUBS ORGANIZED IN THE SCHOOLS

The Junior high, sixth, fourth and kindergarten grades have organized Garden Clubs and are raising flowers and vegetables in a hotbed built on the school grounds. This project is controlled and planned by the pupils who have planted several varieties of seeds in each bed with the hopes of transplanting them either at home or selling them. The boys of the junior high school are interested in tomato plants while the girls have devoted their attention to flowers. Clifford Dasher is the chairman of the committee who has full charge of this project. It is hoped that they will have a sufficient number of plants and flowers to put on a display at the exhibit.

For those seeking information as to who has filed for the various offices of the county and on the several tickets, a bulletin board has been prepared at the office of the county clerk. This board was the work of Paul Vandervoort and has spaces for all of the county offices that are to go on the auction block this fall. As the various aspirants file their names they are placed in the proper spaces on the board and where they can be readily seen by the public.
