Wabash News

Henry H. Gerbeling, who believes in getting his corn in early, completed the planting of his crop late last week.

John Wood with his three trucks and drivers are working on the O street paving which is being laid between Eagle and the Elmwood corner.

Mrs. Golden and their little son, who was born in Lincoln week before last, was able to return home on Saturday of last week and all are getting along nicely.

A number of the people of Wabash have been working on the paving of Highway No. 24 near Eagle. Among them Carl Jensen, Robert Reeves, Warren Wickem, John Cardwell and Clyde Lau.

Mrs. Raymond Norris, living east of Weeping Water, was a visitor in Wabash on last Wednesday, coming to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hinds. All enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Ralph Dorr was a visitor in Plattsmouth on Monday of last week, being a member of the jury in district court there and after the jury had rendered their verdict were excused until recalled for further jury duty.

Mrs. Virginia Lawton Very Sick

Mrs. Virginia Lawton, who for many years has made her home in Wabash, has been sick at her home here for some time past and has been cared for by her son, Homer H. Lawton, of Murdock, who came over and cared for the mother until the arrival of a daughter, Mrs. Edith Greene, of Aurora, who arrived last Tuesday evening to assist in the care of the mother. All that is possible is being done for the patient and it is hoped she will soon rally and be restored to her former health.

Will Make Home in West

Some time ago Ray Leonard went to the west, where he secured employment at his trade of carpenter, and last week his wife left to join her husband. The people of Wabash, who have appreciated the friendship of this couple, on last Tuesday evening went to their home, where they made a merry evening for this good woman and gave her a happy farewell party, extending wishes for a happy and prosperous home in the west.

Met with Serious Accident

Last Sunday evening while Ralph and Lyle Bouton, accompanied by P. H. Clarke, were driving west on Highway No. 1, they passed up the turn and continued on west over the Rock Island tracks. As they were traveling at a good rate of speed and the crossing is considerably higher than the road level, when they came to the tracks the wheels of their car struck the rails with a rebound that caused the car to somersault. The result was that the doors were broken off and the occupants spilled out on the ground, being dazed and bruised from the fall. The car was pretty much of a wreck, but the occupants are recovering from their experience without serious result.

Injured Three Years Ago

Three years ago, Lester Bothwell was injured while he has been slow in his recovery, he has ever been optimistic and hopeful of finally regaining his health and strength. On last Wednesday he was able to engage in work for the first time since he was injured and was glad to again be able to earn something, as he has been out of commission for a long time.

Some Fishers

A few days ago Frank Rogers and Earl Miller concluded they would try their luck fishing and after making the necessary preparations, went to the Weeping Water creek south of town, where they dropped their hooks into the water and were rewarded with thirteen fish. They were well pleased at their success and will go again some time soon.

HOLD FAMILY EXAMINATIONS

The final eighth grade examinations were held on Friday at the office of County Superintendent Miss Alpha C. Peterson, for this portion of the county. There were sixty-three of the young people taking the examination and a very fine group of young people who are preparing for their further educational work.

PRIZES FOR SPECIAL DAYS

As a feature of the four big Rooster Booster days to be held here, May 9, 10, 11 and 12, there will be special prizes offered to add to the interest of the big event. In addition to the extra premium prices to be paid for the roosters on these days there will be special prizes.

On the opening day of the Rooster Booster days there will be a prize given to the person bringing roosters from the greatest distance to this city, $2.50 in scrip being the award for this.

There will be crates in which a rooster is placed in front of each of the places of business that is entered in the Rooster Booster program and the public is requested to guess on the number of kernels of corn that the rooster will eat. This will be a feature at the close of the four days when the roosters will be deprived of corn for several hours before the close of the event and will then be fed and the result of the contest decided by a committee of prominent farmers of this section.

TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL

From Saturday's Daily
This morning, Thelma, daughter of Mrs. H. L. Capper was taken to the University hospital at Omaha where she will undergo an operation as she has not been in the best of health for some time and it has been decided that an operation will be necessary to give her permanent relief.

BRING YOUR MAGAZINES

The Public Library will be glad to receive any magazines that may be suitable to give to Camp Plattsmouth FERA boys who are away from home, and who will appreciate having reading matter that need not be returned. Detective, mechanical magazines and western story magazines are especially asked for.

Alvo News

Mrs. Jennie Rouse, who has been so very sick for some time past, is reported as being some better at this time.

Attorney C. D. Ganz was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Monday, where he was looking after some business matters for a client.

Miss Lucille Heussing, who is attending a business college at Lincoln was visiting at home a part of the past week, coming Wednesday afternoon.

J. W. Hanks, of southwest of Eagle, was a visitor in Alvo on last Wednesday afternoon, as well as going on over to Ashland to look after some business matters.

Eugene Barkehurst was looking after some business matters in both Lincoln and Havelock on last Wednesday afternoon, bringing home a load of groceries for the store here.

Henry C. Backemeyer has asked that the Plattsmouth Journal make their home a visit twice each week, and the proper arrangement has been made so that he will receive the paper regularly hereafter.

Roy Stewart received three windmills from Omaha last week and installed two of them during the week. One was put up on the farm of Chas. Haertel, Jr., and the other at the home of Jess Olson, near Greenwood.

Simon Rehmeier and the family were in Omaha on last Saturday, where they visited with relatives for over the week end and also where Mr. Rehmeier was attending the meeting of the Shriners at the Tanager temple.

John W. Banning, with the assistance of Robert Custer and George Hardnock, were unloading a car load of lumber and as Mr. Hardnock says, they were all assisted by Maude and Kate, the faithful team, and we see where he is right.

Orest Cook is to build a new house on the farm in a short time, which will be modern in every respect and which will make a very convenient home for he and the family. The materials are being supplied from the John Banning lumber yard.

New Town Board Organizes

At the last meeting of the village board of Alvo, the votes cast at the recent election were canvassed and the newly elected officers installed and assigned their proper places for work during the coming year. Hon. Arthur Dinges was again selected as mayor for the coming year, while S. C. Boyles was selected as treasurer and R. M. Coatsman as clerk. The lot of street commissioner fell to Simon Rehmeier. In balloting for this position, the vote stood a tie, showing that Mr. Rehmeier and C. F. Rosenow were both equally popular and it became necessary for the mayor to flip a dollar to see who should be the choice, the flip resulting in favor of Mr. Rehmeier. The position of health officer was given to Mr. Rosenow.

This task completed, the board settled down to their regular work.

Found Dead at Des Moines

Bert McBride, a brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart, who resides at Des Moines, Iowa, was found dead last week and it was thought he might have been killed in the machinery of the mill in which he was employed. His wife, who was a sister of Mrs. Roy Stewart, had died a short time ago. There were two children, one seven and one two years of age.

Ladies Aid Active

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church were meeting at the basement of the church on Wednesday of last week, where they were first looking after the business of the society that brought them together and planning work for the summer as well as enjoying a social time with plenty of good cats.

Many are Shelling Corn

Notwithstanding the very busy times on the farm incident to putting in the spring crops and other work, there has been much corn delivered of late. Mr. Rehmeier reports some 7,500 bushels received from S. C. Kellogg just recently and others who have shelled and delivered corn are D. Fisher, Henry Backemeyer, Jess Hardnock and Dan Noben. There were some six car loads of corn shipped from the Alvo station during a period of three days, as well as much delivered from the farm to the feeders near Omaha via truck.

Want Pure Water

A. B. Stroner has been making a filter for his cistern that the water may be the best and pure enough to use for all purposes. Mr. Dinges, the mayor of Alvo, is also building one for his cistern, they being of the same design, and we know they will work to perfection when these workmen have them in hand.

Little One Dies at Hospital

The little ten months old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman, who has been ill from double pneumonia, and who was taken to the hospital in Lincoln, where it might receive the best of care and attention, passed away on last Friday night and the funeral was held on Sunday, with interment in the Alvo cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman have the sympathy of their host of friends here in the loss of their little one.

Loose Gravel Caused Spill

While Mrs. Herman L. Bornemeier was driving her auto from their home near Alvo to Lincoln, she came to a place where the road had been newly graveled and one wheel of the car caught in a ridge of loose gravel, jerking the steering wheel out of her hand and although she grasped it again very firmly, she was not able to keep the car from leaving the road. After skidding along in the loose gravel, the car turned over, but no serious damage was done. Mrs. Bornemeier escaping with only minor cuts and bruises. Even the car was not damaged nearly as badly as one might expect. Loose gravel is hard to negotiate at any time, especially if the car is traveling at any speed, and when one comes upon it suddenly while howling along at a good rate of speed it is doubly dangerous.

Will Visit Home Here

Raymond Hempke, who has been located in the Philippines, where he is in the service of the United States army, is to complete his term of enlistment in the near future and will return to the United States and to his home here. He is expected to be able to return home about June 15th.

The Name Next Week

Some of the young boys of the town of the ages from ten to fourteen, have been engaged in publishing a miniature newspaper, for which they solicit ads and dispose of their paper for a penny per copy, thus showing an industrious turn of mind. The paper is printed on a typewriter and takes a lot of hard work, but the boys are going to it with a determination that begets success.

The Town Council

The Alvo aldermen held a big pow-wow, and stop signs are a permanent scene here now. "So if you don't stop, you'd better look out for the cops will get you without a doubt." This is the way it looks to some of those who are wondering if the stop signs will be observed.

DIES AT LOS ANGELES

From Saturday's Daily
The message was received here last evening by Mrs. Frances Scotten of the death of her only brother, John R. Sexton, which occurred Friday at Los Angeles as he and Mrs. Sexton were preparing to return to their home at La Junta, Colorado, after the winter spent in California. The deceased was for a number of years a resident of Plattsmouth where he was engaged in the Burlington shops and later removed to the west where he was for many years connected with the Santa Fe, being one of the leading officials of the Colorado division. He was retired from active service a number of years ago and had since made his home at La Junta where he was one of the most active civic leaders. The body is being brought to Lincoln where the family resided for some time after leaving Plattsmouth and where the funeral services will be held.

FILES FOR SURVEYOR

County Surveyor Robert D. Fitch, Wednesday filed for re-election to the office that he has held for the past two years and will be a candidate for the democratic nomination at the primary election in August. Mr. Fitch was elected in November 1932, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Fred Patterson, and has proved very efficient in the office to which he was called. This is the first filing made for this office on either ticket.

OMAHA PARES MARRIED

From Saturday's Daily
Last night shortly before the midnight hour County Judge A. H. Duxbury was aroused from his slumbers by the request of an Omaha party of young people to have a wedding ceremony performed. The contracting parties were Miss Mildred J. Silk and Mr. Fred C. Empey. The wedding was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Rulo N. Berens, also of Omaha. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Silk, well known residents of the metropolis.
