

SECURE INTERESTING FILM

The Chamber of Commerce, in conjunction with the national re-employment bureau, has secured a special clean up and paint up film which is to be shown at the Ritz theatre starting this evening. The film is an appeal to clean up the homes and to give employment to the idle men of the community. The film is a talkie and tells the story of the need for aid where possible in the hiring of men for small tasks.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE

From Monday's Daily
An action was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court today in which Ella J. Frazier was the plaintiff and Wilbur A. Frazier, the defendant. The petition sets forth that the parties were married at Nelson, Nebraska, on October 5, 1927, and that in February 1929, the defendant deserted the plaintiff and has not since provided for her care or that of the two minor children.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Creamer, Mrs. Ruth Koukal and Mrs. Edward Thrall, were at Creston, Iowa, where they attended the funeral services for Orlo Phebus of Omaha, a former resident here. Mr. Phebus, who died Friday at Omaha, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Phebus, who made their home here for a great many years.

RETURN FROM MISSOURI

Chester B. Briggs and W. P. Cook have returned from a visit of some two weeks in southern Missouri, where they were engaged in setting out an orchard as well as sowing clover on the farm of M. S. Briggs in that section. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Briggs are planning on moving to that locality and to farm there, although this year they will have a part of the land rented out to farmers in that locality.

VISIT RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brooks of Burlington, Iowa, were here over Sunday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crabill and family. Mrs. Brooks being a sister of Mr. Crabill. They have been making an educational tour, visiting several of the high schools in the southwest on the trip. Mr. Brooks is the superintendent of the school system at Burlington, Iowa, where he has been very successful in his school work.

VISITING IN THE CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Neal and family and Leland Briggs motored over from Wahoo Sunday to spend the day here with the W. J. Hartwick family and Mr. Briggs at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Briggs. Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Franzen and family of Omaha were also in the city for the day as guests at the Briggs home.

DIES AT OMAHA

Mrs. Amelia Wynn was at Omaha Monday evening where she was called by the death of her nephew by marriage, Harry Ackerman, who passed away on Sunday as the result of an attack of heart trouble. Mr. Ackerman married the daughter of the late Henry Stull of this city, a brother of Mrs. Wynn. The funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at the Duffy & Johnson funeral home at 3634 Farnam street, Omaha. The body will be brought to this city where services will be held at Oak Hill cemetery.

SPEAKS AT WEEPING WATER

From Tuesday's Daily
Robert Foster Patterson, principal of the Plattsmouth high school, accompanied by Frank A. Clويد and J. R. Reeder, were at Weeping Water last evening to attend the Fathers and Sons banquet.

Mr. Patterson was the principal speaker and gave a very fine talk on the relations of father and son that was much appreciated by the 165 members of the banquet party.

Gene Jones, who has spent the past several weeks at Weeping Water, was the toastmaster of the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bates of Weeping Water were in the city Saturday for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends. While here they were pleasant callers at the Journal office.
