The ladies of the Methodist church served the dinner which was enjoyed by all present.

"America" was sung by the happy crowd, the first and last verses being selected. Then came a duet by Misses Rose Kimmery and Wilma Sloan, accompanied by Mrs. L. N. Kunkel; a bass solo by Kenneth Wollen, accompanied by Jean Jones, followed by a violin solo by Dr. Kunkel, accompanied by Mrs. Kunkel. Then came a trumpet solo by Lloyd Lauritzen, accompanied at the piano by Miss Frances Meier. The benediction was given by Rev. E. S. Pangborn.

The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. R. Foster Patterson, principal of the Plattsmouth high school, and who was accompanied here by Messrs. Frank A. Cloldt and J. R. Reeder of Plattsmouth.

This will be the last meeting of the Brotherhood until the fall season, which will be the second Monday in October.

Taken to the Hospital. George Spohn, one of the leading business men of Weeping Water who has been feeling quite poorly for some time was over to Lincoln last week where he underwent a clinic, and also returned this week on last Monday, entering the institution for an operation. One cause for the operation was the removal of gall stones. There were other things which he had treated at the same time and it is hoped that he will return greatly improved in health. During the time he is at the hospital Mrs. Spohn has been conducting the business at the store.

Banker Henry A. Tool Here. Banker Henry A. Tool of Murdock was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water last Tuesday, meeting and explaining to the depositors of the Bank of Murdock, the plan which is to be in vogue for the reopening of the bank. The depositors are placing in the bank sixty percent of the amount of the deposits which will be available for the paying of the sixty percent of the deposits immediately on the opening of the bank, the other forty percent to be paid as collections are made.

This will enable the bank to come under the federal insurance law and will make the bank equal to any.

Norfolk Packing Co. and Ford V-8 Teams to Stage Opening Game—BREX Draws Bye.

From Wednesday's Daily

The meeting of the board of control and managers of the teams in the local softball league last evening completed arrangements for the formal opening of the season next Monday evening.

Selection of umpires for the season was also made at the meeting and V. E. Handley was named as chief umpire and others named to serve were E. G. Shellenbarger, J. W. Taylor and Charles Fulton.

The season starts with nine clubs listed and owing to this fact in the first week of play the BREX team, one of the strong organizations, will be given a bye and sit on the sidelines. It is hoped that the tenth team may be secured soon and start in to make the full schedule.

The games will be nine innings with the exception of Friday nights, when the games will be seven innings in a double header which will be started as soon as the tenth team is organized and ready for play.

There will be sixty foot bases and the ball to be used will be the twelve inch ball instead of the fourteen which is used on the shorter forty-five foot base such as was used last year.

The schedule for the games for the first week of the season will be as follows, all games to start at 8 p. m.:

Monday—Norfolk Packing Co. vs. Ford V-8.

Tuesday—Eagles vs. Orphans.

Thursday—Wintersteen Hill Hoot Owls vs. Chevrolet.

Friday—Myard Tomcats vs. Wimpy Inn-Donat.

The entry blanks are to be signed by the person making the entry together with the postoffice address and the class in which the person desires to make his or her entry together with the name of the flower entered or flowers entered in the different classes.

Committee on entries composed of: Mrs. F. R. Gobelman, Mrs. Thomas Walling, Mrs. Luke Wiles, Mrs. J. J. Cloldt, Mrs. C. E. Hartford, Mrs. Frank A. Cloldt, Mrs. Lillian Freeman, Mr. Roy Olson, Mr. Julius A. Pitz.

The entry blanks must be returned to the entry committee on or before May 24th. The entry blank can be returned to any member of the committee or to the chairman of the flower show. Flower growers will find upon examining the schedule of classes that they can enter almost any flower they may grow in their yard or garden. There will be many splendid and important exhibits such as rock garden, lily pool, cactus tables; also many beautiful houseplants will be exhibited. Don't forget the date of the return of the entry slip, May 24th. Tag your flowers entered with the number on the entry slip. That is your number.

LOUISVILLE MAN WEDDED

From Wednesday's Daily

This afternoon at Beatrice, Nebraska, occurred the marriage of Frank Stander, of Louisville, to Miss Alyce Zimmerman of Springfield, the wedding occurring at the home of Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Low, the latter a sister of the groom. The marriage lines were read by Dr. Low.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stander are to leave on a trip through the Ozark country of Missouri and Arkansas, before returning to Louisville where they are to make their home.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman, members of one of the pioneer families of Sarpy county and among the most prominent residents of the Springfield community.

The groom is one of the prominent young business men of Louisville, he being in charge of the store of Stander & Stander, succeeding his father, the late P. G. Stander in the commercial business. He was born and reared in Louisville and graduated from the schools there, later attending the University of Colorado.

Cards for the graduation time are now on display at the Bates Book store. A wide range of prices makes them available for everyone.

Nehawka

George Troop last week purchased a new radio that will keep him in touch with the happenings of the world.

Ray Creamer, wife and children were in Plattsmouth last Sunday, at which place they were visiting for the day.

Lois Troop was spending the week with friends and relatives in Plattsmouth, returning in time to attend school Monday.

Fred Schumacher was a visitor in Omaha last Monday, driving over to the big town, where he had some business matters to look after.

J. J. Pollard was called to Omaha last Monday, where he had some business to look after connected with the implement business which he conducts here.

Harry Albin was a visitor in Syracuse on last Wednesday, where he made the purchase of a horse that he was needing on the farm and was well pleased with the animal.

Glen Rutledge was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on Monday of this week, making the trip in his auto and was meeting with his many friends in the county seat.

Mesdames William Gorder and D. C. Rhoden, who are teaching at Hidden Timber and Okcreek, South Dakota, following the close of their schools the coming week will return home to spend the summer vacation period.

Mrs. Anderson Lloyd and husband entertained for Mother's day on last Sunday, having as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Wehrbein and also Victor Wehrbein and family. All enjoyed their visit together and as well a very fine dinner.

Thomas E. Fulton, who has been feeling poorly for some time, has been kept to his home and bed a greater portion of the time. Some times he has been so he could get out and at other times has been kept to his bed, but he is still not feeling the best.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Pollard were in Lincoln last Sunday, where they were enjoying what was known as Parent's day at one of the fraternities of which their daughter, Miss Leona Pollard, is a member. Needless to say they enjoyed a fine visit and an excellent dinner.

Forest R. Cunningham was called to Plattsmouth last Monday to look after some business matters for a short time. Mr. Cunningham has just concluded the work of sawing native lumber from a large wooded tract in the vicinity of Cedar Creek and will soon move his saw mill to another place.

George Trunkenholz, of Eagle, the president of the Trunkenholz Oil company, was a business visitor in both Union and Nehawka last Monday, looking after the interests of the company. He was well pleased with the fine rain which came to Cass county Saturday, coming just fifteen minutes before it was too late.

Mr. and Mrs. William Obernaulte were visiting at Stella for the week end, where they enjoyed a fine visit with the relatives of Mrs. Obernaulte. On their return, Will reported a very good rain in that part of the country, much more than was had here. In fact, around Auburn, it assumed the proportions of a cloudburst, causing considerable flood damage.

On account of the shipments of stone from the different quarries to Omaha for use in river work there congesting the terminal facilities in that city, it was necessary to shut down the quarries here from eleven o'clock Monday morning until the following day, giving time to use up some of the stone on hand in order that further shipments might be made.

Meets with Accident While Gail Sturm was shelling corn for R. Kettlehut, which he was delivering to the Farmers elevator in Nehawka, in some manner he got his hand caught in the machinery of the sheller, with the result that the little finger was broken and the flesh torn from the finger next to the one broken. The injured hand was dressed by Dr. Henry W. Walters, and although he is feeling some better, the injury is still very painful.

Now Drives a Pontiac Winfield Scott Norris, who has for a long time driven a Reo automobile, and who is partial to that make of car, took his old machine to Omaha, where he expected to be able to trade it for a new one of the same make, but found the demand far in excess of the supply. Failing to get a new Reo, he exchanged the old car for a Pontiac, which he says he will drive until he can get a Reo from the factory, which he expects will be quite soon, as the rush is abating somewhat and they expect to be able to make delivery of this popular make of car in the near future. So, in the meantime, Mr. Scott is driving a Pontiac.

Score Well in Tennis In the state tennis tournament which was staged at Lincoln on last Friday, two Nehawka lads were able to score high in the playing, they being Martin Jourgeson and Stanley Ross, both of whom are good players, and sure they were pleased that they were able to score so highly.

Feeling Much Better Now Peter Opp, who has been confined at the home of his son, John Opp, due to illness, seems to have broken the grip of the disease and was able to step out in the air and the sunshine and walk down town, where he was greeted by his many friends. Uncle Peter is feeling much better and hoping soon to be entirely well again.

Mother's Day Experience Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rough were guests for the day at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Martin Ross, where with a number of other friends and relatives they enjoyed a very fine dinner and during the afternoon a very fine visit. In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Rough went to Plattsmouth, where they visited and also enjoyed a very fine supper, driving home in the evening after having enjoyed a very pleasant day. Mrs. Rough received a letter from each of the daughters on Sunday and as well a telegram from their son, Stuart, Jr., of Los Angeles.

Meets with Bad Injury While Merritt Pollard was unhitching a horse from a buggy the animal became unmanageable and in the melee which followed Mr. Pollard was kicked and trampled upon in such a manner that one of his arms was broken in four places, besides numerous cuts and bruises from the seemingly wild horse. Merritt is still feeling very badly and will for some time on account of the severe injuries which he received. The horse has been considered an outlaw so far as horses go and it has proven true in this case.

Entertained Mother and Father Mrs. Albert Anderson entertained at their home on last Sunday and had as their special guests her parents as well as other relatives and friends, among them her brother, John H. Steffens and family together with D. Steffens and family, of Nehawka; P. C. Cunningham and family, of Norfolk and Grant Horstman and family, of Syracuse. With the merry crowd coming together on Mother's day, they also honored the father as well, C. Steffens, of Lorton.

The Junior-Senior Banquet The Junior-Senior banquet which is to be held at the Methodist church this Friday evening, is being cooked by the mothers of the members of the Junior class and served by the daughters, and which will be a big affair. This practice of the Juniors giving the Seniors a banquet, comes from the practice of many years and is really a very enjoyable occasion.
