DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

Charles E. Walradt, former Cass county resident, died at his farm home near Clay Center, Nebraska, on Friday, May 11th.

Mr. Walradt, who was fifty-two years of age was born on a farm three miles east of Louisville, where he made his home for a number of years, moving fourteen years ago to Clay Center.

He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Eleanor, aged 14, four brothers and five sisters. Mrs. Henry Ahl of Louisville and Mrs. Mary Duff, of Cedar Creek, are sisters of the deceased.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Clay Center and interment in the cemetery at that place.

SECURES BEVERAGE LICENSE

From Wednesday's Daily Harry Albin, one of the popular young men of this portion of the county, was granted a license today to operate a beverage parlor at Murray. Mr. Albin has purchased the business of L. A. Weber at that place and will be in charge in the future and ready to serve the interests of the residents of that section.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Frank Toman of this city was operated on Tuesday at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha, he having been suffering for some time from an affliction of his feet that has made it difficult for him to get around. The operation proved very successful and the patient is now doing very nicely and it is hoped will soon be on the highway to recovery.

ENTERS INTO ETERNAL REST

The death of Mrs. August Wendt, 69, one of the prominent residents of western Cass county, occurred last night at the family home at Murdock.

The deceased lady was formerly Martha I. Thiemann and was born at South Bend, spending her lifetime in this county and where she was universally loved and respected.

The passing of Mrs. Wendt will bring a great regret to the host of friends that had the privilege of knowing her during the many years that she lived in this community.

The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Louisville Lutheran church, Rev. T. Hartmann officiating and the Horton funeral home of this city in charge.

DEATH OF BABE

From Wednesday's Daily

Funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock for the new born babe of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Peteret, residing northwest of this city. The little one was born last night at the Methodist hospital at Omaha but lived only five hours until called away to rest forever in the bosom of the Master. The mother was doing as well as possible following the caesarian operation. The family will have the deep sympathy of the many friends in the sorrow that has come to them.

FILES FOR ASSESSOR

From Wednesday's Daily

W. H. Puls, who has served very efficiently in the office of county assessor of Cass county, today filed his name as a candidate for the democratic nomination for that office at the August primary.

Mr. Puls is one of the well known and popular residents of the county and has served in the past as state representative and county assessor, proving a very able officer in both of these positions.

This is the first filing for this office on either ticket.

ATTEND STATE MEETING

From Wednesday's Daily

E. P. Lutz, secretary and F. T. Range, treasurer of the Plattsouth Loan & Building association, departed this afternoon for Columbus, Nebraska, where they are to attend the meeting of the Nebraska association of the building and loan societies. The meeting is one that will bring representatives from all of the associations over the state and be filled with the greatest interest to all who attend.

OMAHA PARTIES MARRIED

County Judge A. H. Duxbury was called upon Saturday to join in the bonds of wedlock Miss Harriett Jorgenson and Ellsworth Henry, both of Omaha. The wedding ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Max Beem also of Omaha. Following the wedding ceremony the bridal party returned to their home in the metropolis where they were tendered a reception by friends.

EIGHT MILE GROVE LUTHERAN CHURCH (Pentecost)

9:30 a. m. Sunday school.
10:30 a. m. Combination German and English services. Offering will be taken for rechurch work.

The ladies aid society will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors. Hostesses, Mrs. P. A. Hild and Mrs. John L. Hild.

COMPLETES SCHOOL WORK

Miss Isabel Rainey, who has been teaching for the past several years at Springfield, Nebraska, is home now to spend her vacation and rest from the work of the teaching year. Miss Rainey has been one of the successful teachers of Springfield and her services have been recognized in her repeated re-election to her position.

Mrs. Belle Stoner, of Glenwood, who was here to spend the day Tuesday, returned to her home after a pleasant visit at the home of her son, Hillard Grassman. Miss Laura Grassman and Joseph Manasek of Omaha were here also to spend the day with Mrs. Stoner and other relatives.
