Injured in Auto Accident.

Word reached relatives in Eagle Thursday night that Joseph Sack of Bosworth, Missouri was in a very serious condition. The injuries were the result of an auto accident, which happened sometime Thursday. Mrs. Emory Clemans, William Sack of Eagle and C. J. Sack of Lincoln, left immediately. He passed away a few hours after they arrived. Joseph Sack will be remembered by the older residents of Eagle, for he spent most of his life in this community, until he and his family moved to Missouri about twenty-three years ago.

Benjamin Elisha, son of Albert A. and Elizabeth Lincoln, was born in Athens county, Ohio, February 2, 1850 and departed this life May 17, 1934, at the age of 84 years, 3 months and 15 days.

He spent his early life in his native state at coal mining and lumber, but being of an aggressive nature he disliked this type of work. Seeking freedom he emigrated to the then new west and located near Pacific Junction, Iowa, where he engaged in farming.

He was the eldest of five brothers with two sisters his seniors. All of whom with his father and mother followed him and located near Pacific Junction in 1880.

The same year he returned to his old home in Ohio and was united in marriage with Margaret Thompson. They started immediately with team and wagon for the home he had established here, where they spent their entire married life.

His wife having passed on in January of this year, he leaves to this life two daughters, Mrs. Blanche Godsey, Eckley, Colorado, Mrs. Addie Ling, Glenwood, and three sons, Lafe, Shirley, and Sheldon, all of Pacific Junction. Walter having preceded him in 1897 at the young age of 7 years. One sister, Martha Carter of Woodbine, Iowa, and one brother, Charles J. of Reedley, California. Twenty-two grand children and two great grand-children and many other relatives and friends.—Glenwood Opinion-Tribune.

Funeral Services Held in Junction for Ben Lincoln

Sturdy Old Pioneer Citizen Who Came to Missouri River Valley Settlement 57 Years Ago.

With the passing of Ben Lincoln, that sturdy old patriarch whose influence has been felt for over a century in the life of his community near Pacific Junction, another one of the pioneers whose courage and energy has contributed to the development of this great middle west has passed on. Such men as Ben Lincoln live on in the achievement which their vision has conceived and their energy consummated. He found here a virgin prairie with grass waving in the winds which swept across the Missouri river valley over which wagon trails connected a sparsely settled community. Here he built a home and from the fertility of the soil he amassed a competence. He was a leader in community affairs and ever urged his relatives and neighbors on to greater effort and achievement. He lived to see the prairie shanty give way to a modern comfortable farm home, to see the covered wagon trail become a surfaced highway over which high powered motor cars whizzed back and forth, while airplanes flew overhead. He was a part of the era which brought this great development unequalled in any like period of time in the recorded history of man. He leaves the problem of maintaining and perpetuating this material development which he participated in bringing to pass but he also leaves the solution for this problem in the legacy of the memory of that courageous optimistic spirit and ceaseless untiring energy which he displayed throughout his life and which is worthy of emulation.

Benjamin Elisha, son of Albert A. and Elizabeth Lincoln, was born in Athens county, Ohio, February 2, 1850 and departed this life May 17, 1934, at the age of 84 years, 3 months and 15 days.
