Cloidt-Fitch Wedding is Held at Clarinda

Well Known Young People Are Joined in Wedlock in the Iowa City on Saturday.

The wedding of two of the well known and popular young people of the community occurred on Saturday at Clarinda, Iowa, when Miss Nadine Cloidt and County Surveyor Robert D. Fitch, Jr., were joined in the bonds of wedlock.

The young people motored to Clarinda and where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Merdeth, pastor of the First Methodist church, at the church.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe and wore a sorsage of red roses.

Mrs. J. W. Jones, aunt of the bride, was the only attendant at the ceremony.

Following the wedding the bridal couple drove to Shenandoah, Iowa, where they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, the latter an aunt of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitch returned to their home here Saturday evening and where they were showered with the congratulations of the relatives and friends.

Both of the young people were born and grew to manhood and womanhood in this city where their friends are legion and where both have been very active in the younger social set of the community. The bride is a daughter of A. W. Cloidt and a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1933. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fitch, Sr., and is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1929, also attending the University of Nebraska and the Peru State Teacher's college. Mr. Fitch was elected county surveyor in the fall of 1932 and is now serving in that office.

Mr. Fitch at Nebraska was a pledge of Phi Kappa Alpha and at Peru of the Everet fraternity.

The many friends are joining in extending to the newly wedded young people their best wishes for a long and happy wedded life in the years to come.

GIVE FINE RECITAL

From Tuesday's Daily
Last evening the pupils of Mrs. J. M. Roberts were presented in recital at the home of their instructor on high school hill, the occasion being a most delightful event for the music lovers.

The class of students was heard in a varied program and in which they demonstrated the fine grasp that they had acquired of the training and in the artistic manner in which all of the numbers were given.

In the recital Mrs. Roberts also presented Billie Reddy and Miss Mildred Knoflick, two of the young musicians of the city whose numbers added a fine touch to the program of the evening.

The attendance was large despite the heat, and those who were present felt amply repaid in the fine presentation given by the young people, which was a distinct credit to themselves as well as their teacher.

Miss Mary Jean Knorr, one of the advanced pupils, was especially outstanding in the rendition of some of the difficult numbers of the program. Solo numbers as well as piano duets and trios were included in the program.

RECOVERING FROM OPERATION

The many friends of Mrs. Harry Nielsen will be pleased to learn that she is now recovering very nicely from her recent operation for appendicitis at the Methodist hospital at Omaha. Mrs. Nielsen was operated on a few days ago and has shown a speedy recovery that has been very pleasing and gives promise of her speedy return from the hospital.

Flower Show Committee in Appreciation

Chairman A. L. Tidd for Committee Thanks All Who Assisted in Success of Show.

As chairman of the Flower Show committee on behalf of the committee, we desire to express our sincere appreciation to the general public for their attendance at the Flower Show and for their words of encouragement and praise. To all of those from the several towns of the county and the country who made entries of their own flowers and won many prizes we desire to say it was the greatest encouragement that came to the committee and makes the committee feel that their work and efforts to produce the First Annual Flower Show in Cass county was worth while. To the Garden Club and Chamber of Commerce for their splendid support we desire to express our sincere thanks. To Mrs. E. H. Westcott, president of the Garden Club, we especially desire to express our sincere thanks for her counsel, efforts and support. To Mrs. Arthur E. Rapp of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Miss Julia Svoboda of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, we extend our sincere thanks for their able, accurate and impartial judging of the hundreds of exhibits. To the Henry Field and Earl May radio stations at Shenandoah, Iowa, we extend our appreciation for their courtesy in announcing the flower show to their radio listeners. To the Plattsmouth Journal we desire to say that the flower show committee and the garden club both want to extend their sincere thanks for the valuable space in the paper given us and your courteous attitude to all our requests in presenting the flower show to the reading public. To the Home Dairy we desire to offer our thanks for the furnishing of the milk bottles for the display of the exhibits which were offered in the flower show. To all who furnished exhibits as a setting and surrounding for the flower show we are especially grateful. To the photographer and the Boy Scouts and all others who assisted in preparing, arranging, decorating and clearing the hall for the flower show, we express our sincere thanks. To the American Legion for the use of their hall without rental charge we are very thankful. To the committee who worked with the chairman, and particularly to those who gave so freely of their time to attend committee meetings and assisted me in planning and carrying out the many, many details which made the flower show such a grand success, the entire community owes the greatest gratitude. To the flower show committee and to those particularly who were of such valuable assistance in planning and carrying out the details of the flower show, the chairman desires to personally express his warmest and most sincere thanks, for the success of the Flower Show belongs to them.

A. L. TIDD,
Chairman.

Memorial Sunday Observed in Union Service

First Presbyterian Church Scene of Impressive Observance of Honor to Veterans.

The memorial Sunday services which are held each year to honor the memory of the soldiers and sailors of the nation in the wars of the past, was held yesterday at the First Presbyterian church and was largely attended.

The observance was held under the auspices of the W. R. C. and in which the other patriotic societies of the city were invited to participate in the tribute to those who have served the nation and passed on.

The ladies of the W. R. C. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Morgan before the service and attended in a body being joined at the church by the representatives of the other societies of the city.

The services were participated in by the protestant churches of the city and the ministers were seated on the platform which was appropriately decorated for the impressive patriotic occasion.

The scripture lesson was given by Rev. G. A. Pahl pastor of the St. Paul's Evangelical church, while the prayer was offered by Rev. C. O. Troy, the pastor of the First Methodist church.

The choir of the church gave a very beautiful rendition of the number, "Send Thy Light," by Gounod. The sermon of the day was given by Dr. H. G. McClusky, the host pastor, who had as his subject, "The Soldier," in which he paid tribute to the sacrifices that had been made by the veterans of the wars of the nation in the past and their steadfast devotion to duty and service in the tasks to which they had been called.

The services were closed by the benediction by Canon W. J. H. Peter of the St. Luke's Episcopal church.

ORPHANS WIN CONTEST

From Tuesday's Daily
The Orphans team of the local kitchentball league, which was given a defeat last week in the opening round of the season, last night came back strong to defeat the V-8's, rated one of the strongest in the league. The game was close, however, 11 to 10, and several bobbles of the auto team served to help them on the way to defeat.

Young for the Orphans and Roy Turner for the V-8s did the hutting and both were working well.

PERFORMS WEDDING CEREMONY

Late Saturday night, Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church received a call from two young people, residents of Mills county, Iowa, who requested him to perform the marriage ceremony for them. The young people had secured a marriage license at Glenwood and had expected to be married here, but it was explained to them that the license was good only in the county where issued. To accommodate the bridal couple Dr. McClusky drove with them to the Missouri river bridge and on the Iowa side of the structure with the lights of the cars to illuminate the scene, pronounced the words that made the two as one.

HERE FROM ST. LOUIS

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bradway and children of St. Louis, are here to spend a short time over Decoration day at the home of Mrs. John Geiser, mother of Mr. Bradway and also to look after the care of the family lot in Oak Hill cemetery.

St. John's School Holds Exercises Last Evening

Class of Thirteen Graduate from the Eighth Grade—Fine Entertainment Offered.

From Wednesday's Daily
The closing exercises of the St. John's parochial school were held last evening at the Knights of Columbus hall and attended by a large audience to enjoy the program that had been arranged by the Ursuline sisters in charge of the school and given by the young people of the school.

The audience was given welcome on behalf of the class and the school by Miss Evelyn Kratochvil, a member of the class.

The intermediate grade girls presented a very entertaining skit, "Helen's Dream," that was cleverly given by the little folks.

The boys of the school gave a three act play, "Spook Island," a clever and well presented feature of the evening and enjoyed to the utmost by the entire audience. The story covered the adventures of the "Little Scorpion" club on the haunted island and had many thrills. The members of the cast were James Sandin, Elmore Brink, Leo Welch, Joseph Chovanec, Gerald Otterstine, Matthew Sedlak, Dennis Hiskit, Frank Aschenbrenner, Bernard Kubicka, Theodore Libershal, James Webb, Ambrose Claus, Stuart Sedlak, Joseph Kvapil and Leo Hiskit.

The little folks of the primary grades were heard in a song in costume, "We Have the Mumps," that proved a much enjoyed feature.

The older girls of the school presented a one act play, "The Graduate's Choice," the roles being taken by Margaret Ann Pitz, who introduced the prologue in which the student leaving school faces the choice of the virtues or the vices which characters were taken by Eileen Case, Mary Altschaffl, Teresa Sedlak, Emily Kratochvil, Mary Alice Shiffer, Mary Pittman, Alice Bennett, Helen Sikora, Harriet Case, Clara Toman, Florence Sedlak, Pauline Pitz, Mary Kvapil and Anna Altschaffl appeared as the fairy assistants.

The intermediate grade boys gave a special number, "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree" cleverly, and showed the excellent training that they had received.

The valedictory of the class was given by Joseph Kvapil, who told of the feeling of the class at the completion of their eight years of study, the devotion and interest that had been given them by the sisters, their teachers, and the influence that the church had brought to give them a fine education and the spiritual training so necessary to their future welfare.

The class address was delivered by William A. Robertson, prominent member of the bar, who congratulated the class on the completion of their courses of study in the school and commended them on the fine record that they had made. The speaker urged the class to carry with them in their future life the inspirations that their school life had given.

The presentation of the diplomas and awards was made by Father George Agius, pastor of the church to the following members of the graduating class: Leo Welch, Joseph Chovanec, Joseph Kvapil, Ambrose Claus, Emily Kratochvil, Clara Toman, Teresa Sedlak, Margaret Ann Pitz, Mary Alice Shiffer, Eileen Case, Florence Sedlak, Mary Altschaffl, Pauline Pitz.

Father Agius congratulated the class and commended them for their faithfulness as students and in their church work.

HERE FROM THE SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDaniel, of Lake Worth, Florida, are enjoying a visit at Ralston with relatives and were here Tuesday for a short visit with old friends. Mrs. McDaniel was formerly Miss Dorothy Cowles of this city. They were accompanied from Florida by R. L. Propst who will visit for the summer months with the relatives in this section of Nebraska. The many friends were delighted to meet the Florida visitors and have the opportunity of enjoying the visit with them.

PLATTSMOUTH FLOWERS ARE SENT TO OMAHA

Monday afternoon Henry Jasper, local florist, shipped two truck loads of the beautiful geraniums that he has grown at his greenhouse on West Locust street to Omaha. The potted plants made a most attractive sight with their wealth of red and pink as they were taken on into Omaha by Joe Mrasek.

The demand for flowers has been extensive this year and Mr. Jasper in his skillful and experienced manner has produced a large number at the greenhouse and many varieties of flowers can be found there.

Rotarians and Rotary Anns Enjoy Picnic

Pleasant Event Is Held at the Elks Country Club Golf Course Late Tuesday Afternoon.

The members of the Rotary club last evening entertained the Rotary Anns at a most delightful picnic for the members and their families and which in the intense heat of the day made the Elks Country club a most ideal spot for this entertainment.

Those who wished played golf in the earlier portion while baseball and other games were featured for the Rotarians and their ladies that added much to the enjoyment.

With appetites whetted by the sports and exercise the members of the party were treated to picnic suppers from the array of well laden baskets that the ladies had prepared with dainty and delicious viands to make the picnic feature a real success.

During the evening the members enjoyed a short program, Mrs. Robert M. Walling playing several selections on the piano accordion, while George Jeger, the Rotarian violinist, gave several artistic selections to add to the enjoyment of the program. Mrs. E. H. Westcott gave several vocal overings as did Robert M. Walling, and Superintendent L. S. Deoe, completing a delightful musical program.

The members of the picnic party remained to enjoy the coolness of the open air until late in the evening when they departed for their homes.

CLYDE JACKSON INJURED

Clyde Jackson, well known service man of this city and an employe at the Lyman-Richey sand pits, is at Omaha in very serious condition as the result of an accident that occurred Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Jackson with other workmen were engaged in handling a large car of gravel and according to reports given of the accident Jackson was slipped under the car and was able to get all but one foot out from under the car when it was put in motion.

The right foot was badly mangled and two of the toes of the foot severed in the accident and the injured man was hurried here to the office of Dr. L. S. Pucelik where first aid was given and the injured man later taken to Omaha and placed in the St. Joseph hospital.

VISIT OMAHA SHOW

A group of the members of the Plattsmouth Garden club were at Omaha Sunday where they visited the Omaha Flower Show and enjoying the many beautiful specimens that were on exhibit there. The Omaha show, while larger, was not more attractive than the Plattsmouth show which was held here Friday and Saturday. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tidd, Harold Hager, J. A. Pitz, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crabill, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Woster and little daughter, Mrs. Lillian Freeman, Mrs. C. E. Hartford, Mrs. L. L. Wiles.

VISITING IN KANSAS

Con Lynch departed Saturday for Pleasanton, Kansas, where he will visit for a few days and on his return will be accompanied by his mother, who will visit at the home of her son for the greater portion of the summer.

Showers Given in Honor of Ellen Nora Meisinger

Marriage of Popular Young Lady to Leonard Stoehr Will Occur Earl in June.

During the past week, a group of showers was held in honor of Miss Ellen Nora Meisinger, whose marriage to Leonard Stoehr will occur in early June.

On Saturday afternoon the charming home of Mrs. F. W. Nolting was the scene of a pleasant gathering, the occasion being a miscellaneous shower tendered by Mrs. Nolting, Mrs. Everett Spangler and Mrs. Wm. Holmes.

The home was well filled with members of the party, numbering nearly one hundred. The color scheme of pink and white was carried throughout the decorations, peonies and roses being used.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in writing recipes and in various contests. After these, Misses Charlene Spangler and Vivian Meisinger, little cousins of the bride-to-be presented the overflowing basket of gifts which will be a delightful remembrance of the host of friends.

At a suitable hour, delicious refreshments, also carrying out the color scheme were served by the hostesses.

On Thursday afternoon at the attractive country home of Mrs. Sterling Ingwerson was the social meeting of the Four Mile Community club. The entertainment of the afternoon consisted of writing advice to the bride-to-be and in games and contests. The club then presented to Miss Meisinger a lovely gift of sterling silver. At the close of the afternoon, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Donald Harris entertained a group of young ladies, school friends of the bride-to-be. The afternoon was spent in giving advice and playing of card games in which Mrs. Wm. Brandt of Nehawka won first prize and Miss Mary Swatek of this city, the consolation.

Miss Meisinger was showered with many beautiful and useful gifts and the well wished of the friends. Dainty refreshments were served at a suitable hour.

DRAWS STIFF SENTENCE

Ross Shopshire, a resident of near Weeping Water, who has figured in many actions in court in the county, was arraigned Tuesday in the district court on a charge of breaking and entering.

The man was charged with breaking and entering the Cole garage at Weeping Water and where he had taken $1.75 and was caught in the act by Marshal A. J. Patterson of that place.

To the charge as preferred, Shopshire was entered a plea of guilty and was then questioned by Judge Livingston as to his reasons for the crime.

Judge Livingston sentenced the man to the state penitentiary for a term of from one to three years and the defendant was remanded to the custody of Sheriff Homer Sylvester until he is taken to the penitentiary.

DECORATE GRAVES

The task of flagging the graves of the soldier and sailor dead in the cemeteries in and near this city was carried on Tuesday by the members of the W. R. C. and the other patriotic societies. The task of flagging the G. A. R. graves required fifteen dozen flags and the work was under the supervision of Mrs. Val Burkle, assisted by Mrs. Agnes Chapman of Lincoln, a former president of the local W. R. C.

In the work of placing the flags the ladies were assisted by James Sandin, John Bestor, James Webb, George Mark and John Rishel.

Mrs. Herman Thomas, president of the Legion Auxiliary, conveyed the ladies to the cemetery for the decorating.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Arion Lewis of Omaha were in the city for a few hours Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stewart, the latter being a sister of Mrs. Lewis.
