Plattsmouth Young Folks Wed at Nebr. City

Miss Dora Eledge and Mr. Harold Buechler are Married at Christian Church Parsonage.

The young people motored to the Otoe county city and at the Christian church parsonage the marriage rites were read by the Rev. C. W. Long, pastor of the church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eledge of this city where she was born and reared to womanhood. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Buechler, well known residents of near this city and where he has been reared to manhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Buechler will make their home on the farm near this city in the future.

In their new home the young people will carry the well wishes of a large circle of friends over the community.

Tickets for Ak-Sar-Ben Show Here Tuesday

Ample Supply Being Requisitioned to Meet Demand—Band May Accompany Local Group.

Complimentary guest tickets for Plattsmouth night at the Ak-Sar-Ben coliseum in Omaha, Monday, June 18, will be available by Tuesday of next week, at the following listed places, according to announcement made by the local "Ak" ambassador today: Bates Book Store, Home Dairy, Ofe Oil Co. station, New Way Lunch and Conis Shining parlor.

Ladies may accompany male escort and no extra ticket is needed to admit them. As in the past, children will not be admitted to the show.

It is expected to have a large turnout again this year for Plattsmouth night.

There is possibility that the local band will accompany the delegation again this year, although no definite assurance can be given as yet. The members will be contacted within the next few days and announcement made as soon as it is learned for certain whether they will be able to go.

This year's show, like that of last year, plays up a well-known section of the state, the western portion, and is a typical cow-boy type of show. Last year, it will be recalled, the show was dedicated to the apple-raising country of southeastern Nebraska, of which Cass county is a part. Ray McGrath, who had a leading role last year, is again one of the stars in the cast and will sing some of the late song hits in the same inimitable fashion as last year.

Admission to the show is free to all holders of complimentary tickets, and after the show the usual buffet luncheon will be served. This being the first season of Ak-Sar-Ben shows since the legalizing of 3.2 beer, that beverage will be served instead of the near beer that was dished out during the years from 1917 to 1933. Back in the old days and the old den at 20th and Lake streets, Ak-Sar-Ben shows for men only featured plenty of real beer. The past few years has seen a marked change in policy, inasmuch as women are now admitted to the shows as well as men.

The opening performance on next Monday night is largely for members of the Ak-Sar-Ben in Omaha, who pay $10 per year for the privilege of belonging. The first out-of-town guest night will be one week later, with all of southeastern Nebraska included on the list. The past two years Plattsmouth has furnished the largest attendance of any town on southeastern Nebraska night and has been accompanied by a band.

Watch for announcement Monday concerning the arrival of tickets, to be distributed to the places of business listed above, where they will be available to any resident of this vicinity who wishes to go.

SUNNYSIDE CLUB

The Sunnyside Girls room club had a very interesting meeting on Friday, June 8 at the home of Mrs. Giles. Accessories for the girls room were discussed. Pictures that had been studied at a previous meeting were reviewed. Pictures were judged in order that we get a clearer idea of what kind of pictures would be suitable for the girls room. The club decided to go to Lincoln on judging day, June 1.

Very delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Giles.

AN APPRECIATION

The members of the Red Sox baseball team of this city desire to express their deepest appreciation for the splendid support given them by the residents of the city in the financial donation to get the team started. Also the team desires to thank Ed Thimman for his work in soliciting the funds.

UNCLE ENOCH'S PHILOSOPHY

Uncle Enoch's aged face was a coal black—
He had hair and a beard white as snow;
And we kids used to gather at his shack
To listen to drear tales he told

Of his life on a great big plantation
When he lived down in Arkansas;
And of legends and myths of his nation,
Where he reigned in a kingdom afar.

His philosophy, grew so and eerie,
In these days would seem rather crude,
But to us it was "spooky" and "skeary"
As 'twas told 'neath the old cottonwood.

His conjuring tales made our hair "rise";
And the "spells" that the witch-doctors made
With the "chahms" of the voodoo obis,
Kept us spell-bound, and "powerful afraid."

Then he'd kinda poke fun at us white folks
For our stupid beliefs in "the signs,"
That to him meant but volumes of weak jokes
And parades of some rude monkey-shifts.

"Curin' rheumatics by carryin' a tater—
Riddin' warts if you use the right "chahm"—
Why, they'll all leave you sooner or later,
An' besides, ain't no cause for alarm.

"You're a scared if you meet a black tom cat,
Or fetch up 'gainst a cross-eyed man;
Have good luck when the new moon you look at,
Ef you get a clear view where you stand."

"Now, I'm not in the least superstitious
Like some of my people you meet,
But I hold it as kind-a auspicious,
Ef you own one or two rabbits feet."

"An' they's one thing I sho' do remember,
That's true 'as I been a-sittin' here—
Ef I'm alive on the Fourth of November,
I always live at least another year."

Chamber of Commerce Holds Regular Meeting

Number of Guests Are in Attendance at Luncheon Held at Hotel Riley Thursday.

The Chamber of Commerce held their regular meeting on Thursday at the Hotel Riley and enjoyed the pleasure of having with them several guests of honor from other points and from nearby school districts.

E. A. Sweeley, mechanical superintendent of the Burlington Refrigerator Express Co., of Alexandria, Virginia, E. B. Chapman, county commissioner from the second district, as well as the representatives of the nearby school districts, Delbert Todd, Elmer Wendt, Victor Stoehr, and Clarence Meisinger.

A. L. Tidd, the chairman of the Flower Show committee, was present and gave a most entertaining report of the show that had proven a very great success in every way and had greatly stimulated the interest of the residents in the campaign to make the city more attractive in flowers and gardens of all kinds. Mr. Tidd has been untiring in his work in this direction and is a pioneer in flower gardens, as he has a very fine Iris garden at his home that has attracted much attention each spring.

DEATH OF E. C. HILL

Earl C. Hill, 62, founder of the Hill Hatcheries in Lincoln ten years ago, died suddenly of heart disease at the offices of the hatchery, 1044 No. 55th, in that city, at 1:45 p. m. Wednesday. His son, Roscoe, who has been associated with his father in the business, was out of the room, but a few minutes when he returned and found Mr. Hill dying.

He had been in apparent good health during the morning, picking ten quarts of strawberries from the garden and making a trip downtown, and then going to the hatchery with his son after lunch. He suffered a heart attack in January but had apparently recovered.

Mr. Hill had been a resident of Nebraska for approximately fifty years, serving as station agent for the Burlington railroad for twenty-seven years in a number of Nebraska towns. He left the employ of the Burlington while stationed at Plattsmouth in 1919 and moved to a farm in Cuming county. Five years later he moved to Lincoln and established the hatchery business.

Besides his son, Roscoe, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Amos of Hastings; two sisters, Mrs. W. W. Glenn of Lincoln, and Mrs. Arthur B. Smith of Evanston, Ill., and three grandchildren. The body is at Wadlows.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Warren Methodist church at University Place.
