

MURDOCK ITEMS

Mrs. F. C. Weber, wife of the new minister, who comes in the place of Rev. H. A. Norenberg, has been feeling ill for the past week.

Mrs. L. Neitzel is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock of Havelock. That gives L. N. a chance to try his hand on the culinary art.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heinemann were over to Lincoln on last Wednesday where they were visiting and as well looking after some shopping, they making the trip in their auto.

Miss Mary Alice Ault of Plattsmouth and her sister, Elizabeth Ault, were visiting for the day last Wednesday at the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. McDonald of Murdock.

George L. Berger was a visitor at the home of Albert Bauers and wife for a short time last Wednesday, and with them went to Plattsmouth, where they were guests at the home of their cousin, Mrs. Edward Ripple for a number of days.

Mrs. C. A. Kupke entertained the members of the Order of Eastern Star at her home north of Murdock last Wednesday and was assisted by Mrs. Rudolph Kuehn. Mesdames A. J. Tool, H. M. Patterson and Frank Buell were in attendance.

Charles Kupke, who has been making his home in town for the past number of years, was out to the farm last Wednesday and was taking his place with the other workers and by the end of the day was feeling somewhat tired for the first day's work.

H. M. Patterson, the new merchant, who has been living in the small house of A. H. Ward, moved to the Arthur Rikil rental property, as the house he had been occupying is too small for the family and the place to which he has moved is ample for the needs of the family.

Mrs. W. O. Schewe will teach L. Neitzel's Sunday school class next Sunday, or give Mr. Neitzel a chance to pay a long deferred visit to his brother-in-law, J. J. Martin at Cedar Bluffs, Nebr., the place served by Mr. Neitzel 52 years ago as pastor. It was one of nine appointments on his charge.

Eddie Craig and wife were over to Fremont last Sunday where they engaged in fishing for the day, not so much for the profit that comes by diligent application to this line of sport of it, and the outing. However they were able to bag their customary thirteen fish.

Wednesday of last week, A. J. Tool, the harness maker and proprietor of the hardware store, accompanied by Lacey McDonald, and Bryan McDonald, were over to Fremont for the day and for the outing which it afforded, as well as getting some fish. Mesdames Tool and McDonald looked after the store while the boys were away.

Steps are now being taken for the securing of amusement for the people of Murdock and vicinity, which will be in the shape of a band concert one night in the week. Just when they will get going and what night, is as yet unknown. However, it will be a good practice. Many towns in the county are at this time providing such amusement.

Henry A. Tool and wife and Mrs. Leah Tool, mother of Henry, and his sister, Miss Mae Tool, were over to Weeping Water last Wednesday, where they were visiting at the home of Fred H. Gorder and wife and also attending a meeting of an extension club. They were accompanied by Mrs. P. T. Johnson, wife of the candidate for nomination for the position of superintendent of schools of the county.

Has Nice Piece of Wheat.

Herbert Bornemeier harvested his wheat which contained some sixty acres and conservative estimates are that the field will average some twenty bushels to the acre. However, the same piece has at other times made as high as 50 bushels to the acre, but has done exceptionally well this year considering the conditions.

Has Severe Wreck.

While L. W. Clites of Elmwood, was going to Omaha with a load of stock in his truck, and was approaching the narrow bridge near the home of Gust Wendt, he met a car with exceedingly bright lights, which were hard to face and as a result he veered to the right and struck a ridge of loose gravel, went into the ditch and turned over, wrecking his truck.

In the wrecking of the truck one of the cattle was pinned under, while another was badly injured, the remainder getting away. Mr. Clites was not so badly hurt himself. The truck was entirely demolished and catching fire, was burned, the animal which was caught was burned to death, but the crippled one was able to get away. Of course one needs good lights, but some of them are beyond reason. Stringent regulations should be observed to protect those who travel at night from the dangers of bright lights.

The remains of the truck were taken to the garage of Henry Jacobson, where it is being looked over, but it seems that it is irredeemable. Fortunately it was that Mr. Clites was able to get out with as little injury personally, as he did.

Hears from Son.

Eddie Craig received a letter from his son, Jack Craig, who is stationed on the U. S. Pennsylvania, and which is a portion of the Pacific fleet which is cruising in Atlantic waters for the summer. Jack says he likes the trip and likes the Atlantic much better than the Pacific. They leave for home via the Panama canal on June 18th.

Married Fifty Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones, former residents of Murdock and vicinity and who resided here even before the town was started, Mr. Jones building the home where A. J. Tool now resides and was a teacher in the schools of this vicinity and as well as carpenter. They later moved to other parts and finally located at Topeka, Kansas, where they make their home now.

They were married on June 19, 1884, just fifty years ago on Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Matter, and a sister of Mrs. Leah Tool, mother of Henry A. Tool, who makes her home at Ackley, Iowa.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool, Mrs. Leah Tool and Miss Mae Tool went to Topeka where they enjoyed attending the golden wedding anniversary of this excellent couple.

Hold Annual Picnic.

For many years the Bible schools and church members of the three churches of this vicinity of the Evangelical faith, have seen fit to get together in an annual picnic which has been held at the grove of the Callahan church southwest of Murdock, where the abundant shade and space for games and which have been taken advantage of by the picnicers. This year was no exception. There was a large crowd attracted from all the churches and which made a large and happy gathering, who enjoyed the day last Tuesday in games, visiting, social conversation and the good eats which were brought along.

Suffers Loss of Home

On last Tuesday the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosenow was found to be afire. Every effort of the countryside and as well the city of Murdock, was put forth to extinguish the flames and save some of the goods of the home, but to no avail. All the household goods were destroyed and the house as well. The farm belongs to August Ruge and was covered by insurance, but on the contents of the house there was no insurance. The household effects, even the clothing of the family except what they were wearing, was burned. Mr. Rosenow had some fifty dollars in cash in his pocket in the second story of the house and this was burned. This leaves the family in very straightened circumstances. However they have many friends who are ever willing to step in and give assistance in this time of stress.

Will Visit in West.

Verle Linch and wife of Sioux City, Iowa where both are instructors in the schools of that city visited in Alvo a short time last week at the home of P. J. Linch while on their way to Burlington, Colo., where they will visit at the home of Mrs. Linch's parents, C. C. Bucknell and wife for a month or so.

Will Establish Beauty Shop.

Mrs. Lennie Lau, formerly Miss Zola Ostblom who has been in the beauty shop business in Omaha for some time, has decided to return to Murdock and operate a beauty shop at the Murdock barber shop.

ON WAY TO ESKIMO LAND

Seattle—Intending to study "what makes the Eskimo run," Dr. Victor E. Levine, professor of biological chemistry at Creighton university school of medicine, Omaha, was here enroute to Holy Cross on the northern bank of the Yukon and Akularak where the Yukon flows into Bering sea. "We are going to study the human side of the Eskimo," the scientist who has already observed the natives of Baffin Land and Labrador, said, "longevity, susceptibility to disease, his metabolic rate, his hygienic and nutritional problems. Other scientists have been primarily interested in geology and anthropology."

Agriculture is the foundation of all business prosperity.

Arrest Suspect in Attempted Extortion Case

Threatening Letter Sent to County Attorney W. G. Kieck Leads to Arrest of Albert Collins.

From Thursday's Daily Last evening Albert Collins, 47, was arrested in this city as a suspect in an attempted extortion against County Attorney W. G. Kieck.

A letter was received by County Attorney W. G. Kieck, mailed in this city on June 12th and which threatened him if the sum of $50 was not delivered in South Omaha. The letter was as follows:

"Wrap up $50 in bills and leave at Harry Miller's cafe in South Omaha for Mrs. Addie Spicer and make it snappy if you want to save your hide and ask no questions. After leaving it make a quick getaway if you don't want to get into trouble."

ALBERT COLLINS

The county attorney prepared a package similar to that of the bills and left it at the cafe designated while Omaha detectives awaited a claimant but none appeared and the scene of the investigation was transferred to this city.

It was learned that a man named Collins was residing at the home of Gotthard Rhode on South 10th street and accordingly last evening Sheriff Homer Sylvester came to the Rhode home and ran the man down as he attempted to escape.

Collins, whom it is claimed is a former resident of this city, has been living in Omaha but came here three weeks ago from that city and secured a room at the Rhode home where he was apprehended.

The man on being arrested denied sending the letter although he stated that Mrs. Spicer, mentioned in the note, was a cousin of his.

County Attorney Kieck is turning the man over to the federal authorities for investigation and action as the threatening letter came through the mails and the man will probably be prosecuted for mailing threatening letter through the mail.

EAGLES SCORE WIN

From Friday's Daily After the Phillips 66 Kittenball team of Omaha had started out last evening to take the local Eagle team to a cleaning, they found that the Eagles had a strong comeback and when the final inning was played the fraternal group were winners 8 to 7.

The visitors scored four in the opening inning while the Eagles came back in the second to annex four also.

The game was decided in the last inning when Ernest Schubeck smashed out a blow that was good for a circuit drive and brought in two additional runners.

The box score of the game was as follows:

ENTERTAINS FOR VISITORS

Mrs. Frank L. Cummins was hostess at a very delightful evening party on Friday at her home on Pearl street, the event being in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wescott of Chicago.

The home was arranged most charmingly with the decorations of Dorothy Perkins roses and baby-breath to lend their beauty to the delightful event.

In the bridge contests Mrs. William Schmidtman, Jr., and Carl J. Schneider were the winners of the high score.

The hostess served dainty refreshments at an appropriate hour to add to the enjoyment of the evening.

Alvo News

Ollie Campbell had his well repaired last week by the Alvo well driller.

A. H. Ward of Murdock was a business visitor in Alvo last Saturday and was visiting his many friends.

George Braun and wife of South Bend were in Alvo last Wednesday and were visiting at the home of Mrs. Braun's mother, Mrs. Wm. Yeager.

Edward Hinchley was a visitor for a few days last week in Lincoln, where he has friends and as well was looking after some business matters.

Mrs. Orville Quellhorst has returned to her home at Wellsville, Kansas, after spending two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Rouse, who is pretty well again.

John Banning and wife were over to Lincoln last Wednesday where John was looking after some business and the wife visiting with friends during the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt have been cleaning house, also using Waterspar paint and varnish which she is greatly pleased with, adding life to the house in which they live.

Harvey Sloan, operator of the Rock Island, is moving from Alvo to Elmwood, as he is wanting better housing accommodations and will drive to and from the work at the Rock Island station in Alvo.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jewel with their children drove from their home near Gordon to Alvo last Thursday, where they were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jewell, parents of Clifford, for a week.

Mrs. Roy Stewart took a group of five girls to Lincoln Monday, June 11 to attend a 4-H club activity which the girls all certainly enjoyed and felt that their attendance would be of benefit to them in their club work.

Mrs. Dale Boyles of McCook was a visitor for a week in Alvo and was guest while here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Boyles where she enjoyed a very fine visit, and as well met with many of the friends which she has in Alvo.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Goodmeier of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Art Heier and son, spent last Sunday at Cortland, and enjoyed a picnic dinner. The Country Band furnished good music. All went home wishing for another good time like this.

Business called Charles C. Parmele, claim representative of the Burlington, to Alvo last Wednesday, he being accompanied by W. E. Rosencrans of Plattsmouth, they both having some business matters to look after at Elmwood as well.

The ball game which was played between the teams of Eagle and Alvo on Sunday June 10th, resulted in Alvo winning by a score of 17 to 11. Another game was played at Eagle the following Sunday, which was yesterday, but we do not have the results.

Earl Bennet began the harvesting of his wheat which has survived the intense heat and of which he has some sixty acres which he has carefully estimated and thinks will make something about ten bushels to the acre.

Home from Hospital.

Frank Taylor, who was at the Bryan Memorial hospital for several weeks, where he underwent an operation for the removal of his appendix, has so far recovered that he was able to be home again last week, and is improving with every day.

Happy Worker Meet.

The Happy Workers sewing club met at the home of Grace Muencheu June 14, President Mary West presiding.

We had our regular business meeting after which silps were judged which were made by the girls. Then acre and is hoping it will exceed that figure.

Joseph Banning and wife of Union and accompanied by Miss Pearl Banning and Mary Becker Havenridge, also of Union, were over to Lincoln attending the alumni picnic last Sunday and as well Mr. and Mrs. John Banning was also there. Following the gathering there, the Union party stopped in Alvo for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Banning.

E. L. Nelson and family were over to South Bend last Sunday, where they were enjoying a picnic at the state fisheries and where they had an excellent time. They also met there the family of R. M. Coatman, who were also enjoying a picnic. By the way Mr. Coatman is candidate for the position of county commissioner on the democratic ticket. He now has opposition by the filing of the present incumbent, Fred H. Gorder, both good men for the position.

Has 100 Acres of Wheat.

Edd Carr of near Eagle has some one hundred acres of wheat which for this year is a good field of this grain. He was having the same combined beginning last Wednesday noon, the work being done by John Elliott. The field, which looked well, notwithstanding the severe and extended dry spell, was estimated very carefully and by the best of judges to be able to yield 15 bushels to the acre. Even in a year with moisture this is doing fair.

Purchase New Combines.

Two have bought combines for harvest, John Elliott, the member of the Alvo Hardward and Implement company, and W. C. Timlin, a farmer northeast of town. They had heard of a combine which was for sale at Midland, and both drove over to see it, which had been setting out in the weather and was looking the worse for the exposure to the weather and they were loath to consider the purchase, so they returned home and both purchased new ones.

Attended Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Sloan and the kiddies were over to Hastings on Monday of last week where they were meeting with other members of the family in a family reunion which was attended by members from Nebraska, Colorado and Kansas and where all had a very pleasant time.

Garden Club Meets.

The 4-H Junior Garden club met with Dean and Dwight Taylor Saturday afternoon. Dean Taylor, the president, and Jim Ganz, the news reporter blazed the trail for the club picnic which ended at Frank Cook's grove which is a beautiful place. The business meeting was held, then the picnic supper followed with ice cream. Mrs. Roy Stewart, leader. The guests present were Rev. and Mrs. McKenzie and son, Ronald, and Mrs. Ruth Taylor. Singing, club yells and kittenball was the next amusement. All returned to Alvo early for band concert and free movie.

4-H Cooking Club.

Miss Doyne Skinner was hostess to the 4-H cooking club which met at her home on Saturday, June 17 when Mrs. Hazel Nickel gave her class a very interesting and important lesson in cooking. The entire class composed of ten girls was greatly interested in their studies.

Business House Changes.

One of the leading business houses of Alvo changed hands, when E. Bankhurst and Son sold their store to Earl Bennett last Saturday. Bankhurst and Son have been in business for the past four years and have made many friends while here. Mr. Eugene Bankhurst has land interests near Nebraska City which will claim his attention as well as in the western portion of the state, while the son has a very flattering offer for employment. Mr. Earl Bennett, one of our best citizens is well known here and was formerly in business here and should make a success of the new business.

Mrs. Melvina Jordan.

Mrs. Wineld Scott Jordan, of Lincoln, formerly of Alvo, where she resided for many years before they moved to Lincoln to reside, died at their home in Lincoln Thursday night.

The funeral was held in Lincoln Sunday. The services were conducted by Rev. Ira W. Kinsey while a quartet composed of Carroll Fredrickson, Elizabeth Ferguson, Greta Hogeman and Louis Barron, accompanied by Mildred Rohrer, furnished the music.

The pall bearers were C. A. Crist, A. W. Frederickson, Ferd H. Stone, R. A. Willis, S. A. Porter and Joy Rabb. The burial was made at Alvo, her former home, Sunday afternoon.

Summer White House

If President Roosevelt accepts the invitation of the Roseman (Mont.) Chamber of Commerce to spend his Summer vacation in the Rocky Mountains, the President's executive forces will be quartered in the beautiful Spanish type inn which nestles in the heart of the Rockies at the mouth of the Gallatin Canyon, located fourteen miles from Bozeman. The canyon was named for Albert Gallatin, Secretary of Treasury from 1801 to 1913. The invitation will be extended about June 14 in Washington by United States Senate been signed by Governor Cooney and other prominent people.
