Mr. Brown Schleif of St. Louis, a brother of Mrs. George Lindsay, has been visiting with his sister and brother-in-law for the past week and has been enjoying the visit very much.

Mr. Schleif is liking this country very well and is also much enthused over the great progress which his own town St. Louis, is making.

Wayne Lewis and family who are now making their home at Louisville where Mr. Lewis is engaged in the barber business, were visiting in Union at the home of Mrs. Lewis' mother and enjoying a very fine visit.

Mr. Lewis returned home Monday morning while the wife and daughter remained for a longer visit, they having relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Vesta Clarke, manager and chief operator at the telephone exchange, is at this time taking her vacation. Mrs. Clarke has been and is kept very closely at the work of the care of the office and its many duties and taking of the vacation now and then is vital to her health and gives her an opportunity for a little rest from the close confinement of the office.

Last Saturday night J. C. Snively and son, Carl and wife went to the home of Joseph Lidgett and wife, taking with them a chicken dinner which they all ate together and also where all enjoyed a very fine visit.

Mr. Joseph Lidgett, who has been poorly all summer was feeling some improved, but still so as to have to be about the home and a portion of the time lying down. His many friends are hoping that he may soon be in better health.

Messrs. James and John Fitzpatrick, hearing that their sister, Mrs. L. W. Whittaker of Fremont and as well her daughter, were very ill, departed, going via Weeping Water, where they picked up their father and hastened to Fremont to the bedside of their sister, to find that her condition had turned for the better and as well the condition of the daughter was also better. This was good news to the brothers and father, so remaining for a while they returned home, arriving last Sunday morning.

Here from the South.

Enjoyed Picnic Sunday.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Roddy was held a family reunion and picnic and at which there were a number of friends as well present. All enjoyed the fine shade and the very fine dinner which was spread under the trees. All had an excellent time and enjoyed the company of the relatives and friends who attended.

Many Attend Den Meet.

Phillip F. Rihn and some sixty-two others of Union and vicinity announced their intention of attending and enjoying the show which is put on by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben at their den in Omaha by securing tickets, and most of them were able to attend.

Plenty of Water Now.

The city of Union is pleased that the water in their wells now is on the increase in volume as well as being the best in quality, and they have taken off the restrictions on the use for gardens and lawns. This is a pleasing feature as it shows an increasing amount of moisture in the earth, which is desired by all. Go to it boys, wash you feet and take a bath occasionally.

Shower for Bride-to-Be.

Misses Martha Upton and Edith Foster, two very popular young ladies were sponsors of a very pleasant gathering a few days ago when they entertained in honor of their friend, Miss Hattie Griffin who is soon to wed Mr. Lester Schumacher. A most enjoyable time was had and many were the tokens presented the bride, and wishes for a happy married life. The gathering was held at the home of Miss Martha Upton.

Lois Cole Graduates from California College

Member of One of the Best Known Families in Cass County Completes College Work.

The following account of the graduation of Miss Lois Cole will be of interest to a great many friends and relatives of the Earl V. Cole family of Brule, Nebraska, as they were residents of eastern Cass county until about fifteen years ago, when they moved to western Nebraska, their home being in Brule, near which place they own a large farm in the great western wheat country.

The past four years the family has spent the months of the school year in Southern California, returning to Brule for the summer vacations. During these four years the daughter, Miss Lois, has been attending college, the first year in Pasadena, and later was a student at Santa Barbara State Teachers college, at Santa Barbara, Calif., from which place she was graduated with high honors last week, the commencement exercises being held Friday June the fifteenth at ten o'clock, on the beautiful College Court. During her college career Miss Cole was a member of Areta Gamma, a social sorority in which she served as vice-president in her Junior year, and president the past year.

During her Junior year she was elected to membership and held office in Kappa Omicron Phi, a national, professional and honorary fraternity in Home Economics, in which subject Miss Cole majored. In her Senior year she was elected to membership in Kappa Delta Pi, a national honorary educational fraternity, and in this she also was an officer.

Miss Cole is also an accomplished musician, playing the trombone and also the piano, and has enjoyed playing with the college bands and orchestras while in the coast cities.

She is a granddaughter of Mrs. Catherine Perry of Murray, and Mrs. Caroline Cole of Mynard, who were unable to attend the Commencement Exercises, but who, with many others are extending congratulations to Lois.

crowded house. The program had been prepared by the scholars under the instructions of the teachers and the ladies of the church. All who attended were highly pleased with the very fine program.

4-H CLUB MEETING

A most unusual and entertaining meeting of the Sunnyside Girls Room Club was held June 19 at the pleasant country home of Grace Louise Wiles.

The main feature of the afternoon was in Miss Baldwin's explanation of the work expected of the girls for this year. Miss Baldwin also explained in a very entertaining manner how to arrange a study center for the girls room. Miss Baldwin is very busy in her work of County Home Extension Agent and the girls feel very grateful to her for giving so freely of her time.

Another interesting feature of the afternoon was in having a number of the mothers and sisters of the girls present. The visitors were Mrs. C. L. Wiles, Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Guy Wiles, Mrs. L. O. Minor and Constance Rea.

During the business meeting three girls were voted in as new members. The new members are Eleanor Minor, Virginia Trively and Grace Welch. The Club is glad to welcome these new members and are certain that they will prove an asset. To fitfully and delightfully bring the afternoon to a close, delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Guy Wiles.

DIES ON WEST COAST

Word has been received here of the death at Oakland, California, of Fred Eaton, 70, former well known resident of this city. Mr. Eaton was the youngest son of Emerson H. Eaton and wife, pioneer residents of Plattsmouth and where he spent his boyhood days. He was engaged for a great many years in railroad work in the west.

The deceased was a brother of Miss Alice Eaton of Omaha and an uncle of Mrs. C. C. Wescott, Mrs. Maude Fricke and Mrs. F. L. Cummins of this city.

FARMS WANTED—If you want to sell your farm, write detailed description of your improved or unimproved 80, 120, 160, 240 to me—I have cash buyers for Cass County farms. RALPH FETTERMAN (First Nat'l Bldg.) Lincoln. j11-4tw
