Filings Complete for Primary Aug. 14

- CANDIDATE VISITS CITY
- From Friday's Daily—
 Edgar Ferneau, of Auburn, one of the many candidates seeking the republican nomination for congress in the first district, was in the city for a short time today visiting friends. Mr. Ferneau is one of the prominent members of the bar in Nemaha county and has been active in the public life of the state over a period of several years. He has served as county attorney of Nemaha county several times and is one of the best known residents of that section of the state. He was a member of the state constitutional convention in 1920 and had the pleasure of visiting here with W. G. Kieck, also a member of the convention from Sarpy county at that time.

SUFFERS MINOR INJURIES

Wednesday morning while Frank Payne was engaged in celebrating the Fourth by the discharge of a large can filled with blasting powder near his home on South Sixth street, the can exploded quicker than anticipated and as the result those near the scene suffered minor injuries.

As the powder flashed up Mr. Payne had his arm scorched by the flash while George Winscott, standing near had his clothing scorched and a man named Beck suffered painful burns on one arm where the blaze from the powder had scorched him.

Union Shoe Shop Suffers from Robbers

Business Establishment of Frank Bauer at Southern Cass County Town Looted.

The shoe shop operated at Union by Frank Bauer, was visited by unwelcome callers sometime Tuesday night and as the result the stock is short seven and a half dozen pairs of shoes of assorted sizes.

The robbers gained entrance to the store through a rear door and had a real job to make their entrance as the door had been provided with a large number of bolts and hooks that resisted the efforts of the robbers to pry the door open.

The entrance to the building was finally gained by boring holes in the door that finally permitted them getting their hands and arms into the space sufficient to unhook the door and get into the store.

The job, from the appearance, required some time and the robbers apparently were not disturbed.

HONORING MISS VALLEY

Mrs. John H. Brunson assisted her little daughter Patty in giving a June Moon buffet supper at their home on North Hill last Monday evening, for the Blue Birds, accomplishing Miss Helen Valley of Plattsmouth, a former teacher of Patty's whose engagement to Harold O. Peterson, superintendent of the Bellevue schools was recently announced.

The Blue Birds are juniors of the Camp Fire Girls organization and when of a proper age they are admitted to the latter.

The dainty color scheme was pink and white. The menu was wedding ring salad, surprise sandwiches, rosy sunset punch.

The guests were Rose Tempelmeyer, guardian and mother, Mrs. Rose Tempelmeyer, Mrs. Philip Kahler and young granddaughter, Mary Lou Brunson, the following Blue Birds, Frances Larson, Doris Graham, Dorothea Koop, Wanda Jane Robinson, Elizabeth Busche, Kathryn McGrew, Leona Tye, Marguerite Brammer, Roberta McCafferty, Joyce and June Crawford, Alberta Alfrey, Ruth Sutton, Marvella Heier, Mary Alice Arnold, Josephine Zastera, Beulah Baum, Bernice Baum, Phyllis Sluyter, Helen Hoehel, and Helen Dean Lesan. Also the honor guest and mother, Mrs. Glenn Valley of Plattsmouth.

Assisting Mrs. Brunson and Patty were Mrs. Jack Dye, Misses Laura Reichart, Lelia Stohman, and Nola Noyes.—Louisville Courier.

CORNICE STARTS FALLING

Considerable excitement was created on North Sixth street when a section of the stucco on the cornice of the Bekin building came loose and for some time hung as a menace to those who might pass below. The services of J. C. Brittain was secured and who crawled out on the top of the cornice and pried the loose section away, it falling with a great deal of noise the three stories to the walk.

Workmen had been busy in the morning in cutting a doorway through the west wall of the building to the Wasley beer tavern and the pounding had probably loosened the stucco which has been in service for a long period of years.

The building is one of the oldest in the city, erected in 1871 and at the time when such ornamentation as the cornice was considered to be the last word in architectural beauty.

All enjoyed the games and social time. A very interesting book depicting the life of Mary from infancy to old age was made from magazine pictures and presented to her.

The bride to be was the recipient of many practical and attractive gifts, which when she uses them in her own home will serve to remind her of her many friends whose best wishes go with her to her new home.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of molded ice cream with a pink heart shaped center, cup cakes wafers and iced tea were served by the hostess.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

HAVE SPLENDID TIME

The regular meeting of the River-view club was held the middle of June at the home of Mrs. John Notelman. As the hostess plans her entertainment during the summer months, Mrs. Notelman gave a pleasant surprise, by holding the meeting in the form of a picnic at the foot of King Hill.

After the regular business meeting and songs a Father's day discussion was held. Each member related some event in her life, in which her father held an important role.

At the close of the pleasant afternoon the hostess served cooling refreshments which were enjoyed by all present.

The July meeting will be a picnic for members and families, Sunday July 15, at the Robert Patterson home.

He has been advanced in the work and has charge of a large detachment of the members of the camp force.

Red Sox Win Game from Miller-Knuth

Score of 8 to 6 Rolled Up by Locals Before Large and Sweltering Crowd Wednesday.

The Red Sox chalked up a victory Wednesday afternoon against the Miller-Knuth team of Omaha, winning by a score of 8 to 6. The game was witnessed by a large holiday crowd despite the fact that the intense heat made the watching anything but comfortable.

The Sox scored first in the second inning when Joe Krejci opened the festivities with a triple to the deep center field. Stone followed with a pop up to second. Richard Herold, playing left field for the locals then came to bat and smashed an offering of Kizzler to center for a double that scored Krejci and Rich later scored on the double of Oliver who also tallied in the inning on the single of Sylvester.

In the fourth inning Kizzler was relieved on the mound by a pitcher who designated as Christianson, but who proved to be "Clint" Burkhart, old Hamburg, Iowa, hater and who several years ago pitched for the locals. The Sox, however, were able to knock him for five runs.

Thimgan led the locals with three hits out of three times at the bat. The box score of the game was as follows:

Treasure Hunt to Be Feature of Coming Week

Commencing Wednesday, July 11th and Ending Saturday, a Special Bargain Offer Made.

Starting on Wednesday, July 11th, and up to and including Saturday, there will be started in this city a "Treasure Hunt," a special feature arranged by business houses of the city affiliated with the Business Men's Ad club.

This feature will be in addition to the splendid bargain offerings that are made in the lines of merchandise in the stores and which embraces many wonderful bargain offerings.

There will be some sixteen stores participating in the Treasure Hunt campaign.

The Treasure Hunt feature is especially interesting and one that will test the skill and eyesight of the persons participating. Persons visiting the stores that carry the Treasure Hunt campaign, will be given a card, on which there is provided space for the name of the store as well as the number of signs that bear the "Treasure Hunt" designation. The person checks the number of signs they can find in each store and which is then turned in to the Journal office where a committee of judges will check the cards and award the prizes according to the most accurate and complete cards that are turned in.

This is merely a special to the bargain offerings which can be found listed in the advertisements that will appear in the Journal the coming week.

The contestants are also requested to write on the back of their cards in not more than 50 words an essay on "Why I Like to Trade in Plattsmouth" which will also be judged by the committee to be announced later.

WIMPIES TAKE GAME

From Friday's Daily
 Last evening the Wimpies were the winners in a thrilling finish of the kittenball game between them and the Norfolk Packing Co., decided in the rally of the beverage boys in the fifth inning.

The Packers started into the opening innings with a determination to annex the contest and played a good fast contest up to the time the game cracked. The Packers and Wimpies were three alike when the rain came on and after a short rest between showers the play was resumed with the bags loaded with Wimpies. Svoboda, who had one ball called on him when the rain started resumed batting and was given a walk to force in Carlson. Louise Knoflicek then singled to score two and advance the Wimpies to their six point score which they held to the close.

The remainder of the game was fast and well played and neither of the teams were able to get a score over the plate.

John Svoboda was the hurler for the Wimpies while Rolphe did the tossing for the Packers.

The box score was as follows:

OLD RESIDENT DIES

From Saturday's Daily
 The funeral services for John Bourke, 70, for many years a resident of near Manley, was held there this morning at 10 o'clock from the St. Patrick's Catholic church. Mr. Bourke has made his home in Omaha in recent years where he passed away on Wednesday night. A short service was held at the Heafey & Heafey chapel at Omaha at 8:30 today and the body taken from there to Manley for the interment.

The services at Manley were largely attended by the old time friends and neighbors of this estimable gentleman.

Library Plans Book Shelf for Garden Club

Special Works Along Line of Flower and Vegetable Gardens—Book Exchanges Decrease.

The report of the Plattsmouth public library for the month of May shows 5 new borrowers. The number of books exchanged was 3,251. This is a decrease over May, 1933, of 279 books.

The shelves of Juneville non-fiction have been read to the 600, or mechanical science group, with the help of Miss Marian Tritsch. Very few books have been found lost.

Members from the government camp near here have come with a truck for the books and magazines left for them at the library. Anyone having reading material for the camp may continue to leave it at the library.

Miss Jones is arranging a shelf of books and magazines of particular interest to garden enthusiasts. Any suggestions or donations for the shelf will be welcomed. She will also keep a reference list of current magazine articles on gardening and kindred subjects, at the shelf. It is hoped that this service will be much used. Much expenditure of money will not be justified unless there are many users. Those of you who have good seed, flower, tree or other plant catalogs which you have finished using, might like to give them to the shelf. Such catalogs are good reference material and answer many questions that puzzle gardeners.

Anthony Adverse continues to be very popular with readers. Favorites from the pay shelf are The Lord's Anointed and Oil for the Lamps of China. The last named is a very fine novel picturing Chinese life—not the Pearl Buck's novels, but the life of life of peasant China as depicted in commercial China as touched by Americans in International trade. There is a moving and personal love story as well, which shows the part played by wives of that great struggle.

The most popular story from the general shelves is "Within This Present" by Margaret Ayre Barnes.

The Juvenile International Mind Alvoe books are most interesting and attractive. Castles in Spain is of course Spanish. Lupe goes to school, tells a Mexican story, children of Italy gives the Italian picture. Also the Camel is a charming story of a runaway camel who went to see the sights of an Arabian city. It is good for reading aloud to younger children, and an easy-to-read book for children who read to themselves.

Humpty Hobbie, the adventurous Penguin is a story for younger children. They and the grown ups, too, will enjoy the spirited illustrations of Humpty and his relatives.

PLAY AT NEBRASKA CITY

C. E. Ledgway, clerk of the district court and E. P. Stewart, were in Nebraska City Wednesday forenoon where they participated in the parade that was a feature of the state convention of the eVeterans' of Foreign Wars. The local men played with the band of the Ralston American Legion post which was used to head one of the divisions of the parade. The heat was intense and the band men suffered a great deal in the line of march under the blistering sun.

Mr. Ledgway and W. R. Holly were at Omaha Wednesday evening where they played with the Ralston band in the Fourth of July observance at Fontenelle park.

Plattsmouth Band Heard in Fine Concert

Delightful Program at Masonic Home Grounds Enjoyed by a Large Audience Last Night.

From Friday's Daily
 The Plattsmouth city band under the direction of W. R. Holly presented a fine concert last evening at the grounds of the Nebraska Masonic Home, enjoyed by a very large audience, listening from the lawn and from the cars that were parked along Elm street in the vicinity of the Home.

The local band was assisted by John Matcha, director of the Ralston post American Legion band, Joe Plubneck, clarinet, Cy Woodward, solo cornetist, Elmer Lusted, trombone all of the Ralston band and George Taylor of Nebraska City, trombone.

There were thirty-five pieces in the band and they gave a beautiful rendition of the program of standard numbers, comprising the popular overture, "Mazepa," the dance characteristic, "Fairly Phantoms" and the fox trot, "Texarkana."

Mrs. Gilbert Hirz was heard as the vocal soloist of the concert, presenting the popular number of the present day, "The Old Spinning Wheel," with the band accompaniment. This number was received with a great deal of applause and proved the popularity of this talented little lady.

This is the first in a number of "Good Will" concerts which the local band is planning to give in the summer months and which will be a real feature on the entertainment program. Mr. Holly has created a fine musical organization in which the veteran musicians of the city have with them a group of the talented young men that have served in the high school and junior bands in the last few years.

The Ralston post, American Legion band will be presented in a concert here in two weeks at the Nebraska Masonic Home as a compliment to the residents of the Home and the Plattsmouth people. The band is under the direction of John Matcha and with Dick Rosalter as the manager. This band will go to the American National convention at Miami, Florida, the coming fall.

PROPOSE CITY TEAM

The organization of a city kitenball team, one that can schedule games with out of town teams and selected as the team is from the cream of the players can very fittingly represent the city against the very best of their opponents.

It is suggested that the team be equipped with sweaters and caps and for this purpose it has been suggested that the American Legion or some other civic body sponsor the team and aid it in getting started.

The team would play on dates when the regular games are not scheduled and should make a real feature of the summer sport program.
