"God Cares for Elijah"

I Kings 17:1-7; 19:1-8

We deal today with the greatest character of the Old Testament, Elijah. Nothing is known about his ancestry, without father or mother, (like Melchisedek, Gen. 14:18; Heb. 7: 1-3) only his country is named Tishbeih in Gilead, east of the Jordan. He is the man of God's special care, the man of many miracles, of unusual power in prayer, unafraid as God's messenger; on Mount Carmel, the restorer of Jehovah worship, the man who never died. The times need of such a man. Every age has produced men equal to the task required of them to perform. Can you cite some in history or modern times? He appears upon the scene—like John the Baptist—before Ahab, a weak and wicked king, who was ruled by his wife Jezebel, a daughter of Ethbaal, king of Sidon. Through her the Kingdom of Israel adopted the worship of Baal. His message to Ahab, of only twenty-five words, sound more like the pronouncement of a God, than a mere man.

A long time has he seen the downward trend of his people; his soul is stirred within him; he talks it over with God, something must be done, and at once, if not, the whole nation shall be ruined, and God's purpose with his people frustrated. His soul filled with indignation, his heart burning with holy zeal for Jehovah. With the assurance of God's approval, he goes to the head of the nation "... neither dew or rain these years but according to my word;" and he disappears as suddenly as he had come. He was not taken seriously, laughed at, derided; but as dew and rain failed, day after day, month after month, people became serious, they began to look for the man, but God had sent him east of Jordan to the brook Cherith, where ravens (or should it read Arabs?) should bring him food. A miraculous feeding. God has many ways to take care of his own. Elijah trusted God. A long year he has lived in caves in meditation and contemplation until the brook is dry. Now he receives orders to move beyond the jurisdiction of Ahab, where no one would look for him. Here again he is miraculously fed, a poor widow is foreseen by Jehovah, will take him in and care for him. The little meal and oil are renewed every day, like a manna from heaven; here Elijah lived and by performing a miracle, in restoring a dead child to life, the mother was converted to the living God.

Over three years have thus passed, the idolatrous Israelites have been punished enough. God in his compassion hears the cry of man and beast and orders Elijah to meet Ahab,

Policeman Loses 62 Pounds of FAT

Mr. J. W. Frost writes: "I've used 7 bottles of Kruschen and reduced from 275 to 210 lbs. with no ill effects whatever. In fact I feel much better than I have for some years. As a police officer I recommend Kruschen to brother officers to keep in regulation weight and health." Kruschen is the safe, healthy, sensible way to lose unhealthy, surplus fat—simply take a half teaspoonful every morning in a glass of warm water—you'll feel so good—so energetic. You'll gain in strength and ambition—you feel years younger and look it. By reducing excess fat you'll be apt to live years longer. One bottle lasts 4 weeks. You can get Kruschen Salts at F. G. Fricke & Co. or any drug store in the world.
