Social Circle club met with Mrs. Lee Farris Tuesday.

Big Ice Cream Social at Lewiston Community Center, July 13.

Come to Lewiston July 13. Home made ice cream and cake. Come and bring someone with you.

There will be an ice cream social and free program at Lewiston Community Center, Friday, July 13.

A large crowd of neighbors and friends attended a charivari for Mr. Lyle Hostetter and bride Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Shrader departed last week for South Bond to spend several days with their daughter, Mrs. Ben Gerlach.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. R. A. Young, of Weeping Water in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Noell on last Sunday, July 1st.

Mrs. Dale Horn, daughter of S. Y. Smith, departed for her home Wednesday from Gering, Nebraska, called her on account of her sister, Mrs. Vernon Earl.

Joe Barker shelled and delivered corn on Monday of this week, besides placing some in his bin for feeding. Louis Burbey was also shelling and placing the shelled corn in the bins.

George S. Ray and J. E. Hatchett were in Weeping Water a few days ago, Mr. Ray having some business there to claim his attention and so asked Mr. Hatchett to accompany him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hohscheidt, Mesdames Glen Thompson, Tony Kline, Charles Wolf, Arthur Hansen and Margaret Moore attended the funeral of Mrs. Vernon Earls of Syracuse last week.

Hugh Hamilton and wife and their son, Junior, of Omaha, were visiting for the day last Sunday with their friend, Tom Nelson, and also picking choke cherries, they getting a bushel of fine ones.

Thomas Nelson and George Meltinger have just completed another hay rack, this one going to Everett Sudduth, who lives a number of miles west of Murray.

Ray Frederick, who is slowly recovering from the injuries which he suffered in a recent wreck, was a visitor in Ashland last Monday, driving over in his auto to look after some business matters.

The family of Earl Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Noell, Mrs. Alice Dill and Mr. Melvin Read were guests for the day and a very fine dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ferris, where all enjoyed the Sunday very pleasantly.

Cyrus Livingston, residing some eight miles west of town, was a visitor in Murray last Monday morning, looking after some business matters for a short time and reported slightly less rain than fell in and near Murray.

James E. Hatchett, who has been quite poorly for the past few weeks, is compelled to remain at home and lying down a good portion of the time. With the hot weather, he has no appetite and has lost much weight in the past month.

Mrs. William Sporer, who has been so poorly during the past week, is reported as being slightly improved. Mrs. Sporer has been sick for some time and is making a wonderful fight to regain her health. Her many acquaintances and friends are all hoping that she may soon be able to be out again.

Rex Young, of Plattsmouth, was in Murray late last week distributing cards announcing his candidacy for the office of sheriff on the republican ticket. The office of sheriff seems to be a very popular one, as there are ten candidates in the field.

Had Interesting Session
At the Christian Bible school of Murray on last Lord's day there was a very fine attendance, the roll call showing 193 present. Both of the Bible schools of Murray are doing very good work even during the dull summer months.

To Visit the World's Fair
L. B. Todd, with a car of cattle of his own feeding and one for Parr Young, accompanied by Melvin Todd, of Union, his cousin, departed for Chicago with the two cars of cattle and after their delivery the young men planned to look in on the Cen-

Views Cattle Here

Prof. Tholson, of the University of Nebraska, who is connected with the agricultural department was here last week from his home in Lincoln to look over some cattle on feed by Boedecker and Wehrlein, East. Some time ago, similar lots of cattle were purchased by both the experiment station at the state farm and by the local feeders and the visit of Prof. Tholson was made in order to compare results. He found the cattle on feed here just as fine as those which are being conditioned under the expert care given them at the state farm, which is a fine testimonial to the ability of Messrs. Boedecker and Wehrlein as feeders.

Murray's Free Movies

The free movies in the open air at Murray are creating much interest and as well drawing large size crowds to the town on Saturday nights when the shows are held. The shows are put on jointly by the merchants and citizens of the town and the adjoining farming community, all uniting to provide the cost of the films and other expense of operation.

Farmed Sixty-Seven Years

George Lloyd has just completed the threshing of his wheat, which made a much better yield than he had reason to expect it would during the earlier portion of the season. He was agreeably surprised. He is now harvesting his oats, but only for roughage or hay, as there is not sufficient material to make a crop of hay. Mr. Lloyd said he had resided in Cass county for 67 years and had never seen a year like this. There is a stream near his house that for 66 years has always carried a good flow of water, but which this summer is entirely dry.

Returned from Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boedecker and Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Stuart and their son Morgan returned home on last Sunday evening from a two weeks' stay at Spirit Lake, Iowa, where they were camping, fishing, boating and swimming and sure they have acquired a very healthy coat of tan all around. Mr. Boedecker tells of there being fine fishing and that one rain while they were there measured five inches of water. Say, we could use one like that.

Sunnyside Project Club

The Sunnyside Project club of Murray have completed their lessons from September, 1933, to May, 1934. Their first meeting in September was held at the home of Mrs. Will Minford. Election of officers resulted in the naming of the following: Margaret Todd, president; Mrs. Ray Gerking, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Dale Topliff and Lawrence Todd project leaders.

In October the club met with Mrs. Will Brandt. The topic of the lesson was "Tailored Finishes Made Easy." This was very interesting.

In November the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ivan Deles Derrier. This was the Christmas lesson. "Let's Keep Our Christmas Merry" was the topic.

The December meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Gerking, this being the lesson on "Secrets with Biscuit Dough." The instructors showed different things made from the biscuit dough.

The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Herman Wohlfarth, the title of the lesson being "Ways of Playing." We play as well as work too, in the club.

The February meeting was held at Margaret Todd's, the subject being, "Making Old Chairs New," which was very helpful.

The March meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Everett Spangler. It was the house cleaning lesson, the subject being "Care and Repair of Walls and Floors."

In April the local achievement was held at the Murray Christian church and a very nice program was given, with the work accomplished during the year on exhibition at this time. A nice lunch was served by the clubs.

Our club consists of twenty-one members for the coming year, with seven new members. The club meets the fourth Thursday of each month.

Soon boats will be plying up and down the Missouri, hauling vast cargoes of freight.

Weeping Water

E. L. McCartney and wife were over to Waverly on last Sunday where they went to visit with the parents of Doc. Mr. and Mrs. J. I. McCartney, where they all enjoyed a very fine visit.

L. P. Hansen was looking after some business matters in Avoca on last Tuesday afternoon and while he was away Howard Rasmussen was looking after the business at the produce station.

Oscar Anderson, who has been sick for so long, more than two years, has of late been showing improvement so that he is now able to return to work at his former place at the store of Knude Jensen. This is fine, for Oscar had a hard struggle with the illness.

We hear of a wedding in which the parties were named as Mrs. Laurine Johnson and Mr. Carl Recton, but our informant was not able to say just when the wedding occurred nor where the ceremony took place. However here is wishing much happiness and a long and prosperous life.

Mrs. Owen Runyan has accepted a position in the new Bill Johnson cafe and is making a very good assistant in the conduct of the eating house.

Mrs. George Utt, grandmother of Mrs. Owen Runyan who makes her home in Murdock, was a visitor with the granddaughter and husband on Tuesday of this week and where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Restaurant Changed Hands.

Art's Quick Lunch, which Art Johnson has been operating for some time past, was disposed of a short time ago when he sold it to "Bill" Johnson, his brother, who is now operating the same. Bill immediately changed the signs, placing in large bold letters the word Cafe, so that he who runneth might read.

Pussy Wants a Corner.

Owen Runyan moved to the place where Orville Hennings has been living while Orville and wife have moved to where Dick Keckler formerly resided and they moved to the Mrs. Hanlen property.

Suffers Severe Fall.

Some time ago while Frank H. Baldwin was wending his way home from the day's work at the blacksmith shop his foot caught on a plank which was protruding on the floor of the Weeping Water bridge, which tripped our genial blacksmith, causing him to fall and injure his left arm.

Celebrates Birthday.

Little ten year old Maxine Grubbs celebrated on July 9th the passing of her tenth birthday anniversary with a number of her little girl friends, who played games on the study lawn and also were treated with dainty refreshments by Mrs. Grubbs, mother of Maxine. They all surely enjoyed the very pleasant afternoon, although it was excessively warm.

Are Testing Proposition.

The creating of a huge sandbar in the Missouri river near Omaha has placed the river in such a condition that unless the bar is in some way removed the work which has been in progress on the river there cannot be continued. So W. J. Partidge, Tip Recker, and James Kameron went to Omaha last Tuesday to see what they could do with a number of blasts to open a channel so that the current of the river might pass through the bar and thus dissolve the same. Just what was done we have not as yet been advised.

Rearranging His Store.

Knude Jensen has been making some extensive changes made at the store, having extended the sales room to the rear some distance and installed a help yourself department in front and will add a larger stock of goods for the selection of his rapidly increasing trade. The carpenter work was done by Sam Baker and the painting by Henry Lempe, Jr., which insures that both are first class.

Facing Grave Problem.

The city of Weeping Water and the citizens thereof are at this time facing a serious problem in the shortage of their water supply. The lake which is known as Crystal lake and which in the years which have passed since the construction of the lake, has furnished an abundance of good pure water, but since the extremely dry weather the lake and the creek which feeds it has shown signs of falling and the estimates of those in close connection with the question are of the opinion that there is barely sufficient water for another week. The city has been very conservative in the use of the remaining supply. To add to the difficulties which the city is facing, is the fact that some miscreant a few nights ago went to the main which emerges from the reservoir and turned the gate opening the same, allowing the entire supply in the reservoir to run out and away. One who would do a thing of this kind surely should be punished. We are sure that the city will in some way solve this problem, as they have solved the many perplexing ones of the past.

Enjoying the West.

On last Tuesday morning W. E. Maxfield and wife and their son, accompanied by Walter Rasmussen departed in their auto for Estes Park, Colorado, where they are expecting to spend some ten days or two weeks in the cool invigorating air of the Colorado mountains.

HAS ARM INJURED

From Tuesday's Daily
George Troop of near Nehawka, was in the city for a short time today looking after some business matters and visiting with his friends. George was painfully injured on Monday afternoon when he was kicked on the right forearm by a horse and suffered what is thought to be a cracked bone. He was engaged in spraying the horse, one that was supposed to be old and sedate, when the animal kicked and injured the arm.

Henry Kauble, of Scottsbluff, former resident here, was in the city today to enjoy a visit with the many old friends in this community.
