

UNION ITEMS.

Thomas H. Straub, of Avoca, was a visitor in Union last week for a short time.

Clifton B. Smith and family, of Nebraska City, were visiting with friends in Union on last Thursday.

Mrs. Bryan, sister of Mrs. William Barrett, is visiting with her sister for a few days. Mrs. Bryan makes her home in Omaha.

Tommy Chapman was a visitor in Lincoln over the week end, driving over in his car and returning on Sunday evening.

Ray Erwin was a visitor with friends in Nebraska City last Sunday evening. (Perhaps we should say—with "a friend.")

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Garrett and their son and Mrs. D. C. LaRue were visiting and spending their vacation in Union last week.

Rue H. Frans and the family, of Syracuse, were visiting in Union on last Sunday, being guests of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Frans.

Henry O'Brien, a brother-in-law of C. L. Greene and wife, was taken to an Omaha hospital last week for observation and treatment.

Joe Bauer and wife and Miss Anna Bauer were over to Nebraska City on last Wednesday, where they were enjoying the Fourth of July.

George Saxton and family, of Omaha were visiting with friends and spending the Fourth of July in Union, driving down in their auto.

P. L. Alexander and wife, of Lincoln were visiting over Sunday at the home of Mrs. Alexander's mother, Mrs. Flora Murray, of Union.

Otto Keck was a visitor in Union last Monday, making the acquaintance of the voters in his campaign for nomination for county clerk.

Donald McQuinn and father, Tom McQuinn were both shelling and binning their corn for feeding purposes, the work being done by Louis Burby.

Rev. and Mrs. N. B. Kunkel were enjoying a visit over the week end from their daughter, Ruth, and husband, who make their home in Lincoln.

Ray Flannagan, who formerly was employed in a bank here, but who has been away for a number of years, was visiting here for a short time last week.

George A. Stites and the family were visiting in Omaha Monday afternoon of this week. Mr. Stites also looking after some business for the afternoon.

Miss Velda Dysart, who has been making her home at the Nebraska Masonic Home at Plattsmouth, is spending her vacation at the home of her parents in Union.

Derrell Erwin and Clarkes Clarke have been given a place in the C. C. C. camp and have been sent to Nebraska City until it shall be determined where they are to be sent.

Joe Green was a visitor in town on last Monday afternoon, coming to secure some lumber for the construction of some built-in kitchen furniture in the new home which he has built north of town.

George S. Ray, of some four miles north of Union, was a visitor in town last Monday afternoon and reported that the rain there was three or four times as heavy as it was in Union or further north, as to that.

Guy Murray, of Summerfield, Kansas, and the family, were visiting with relatives in Union last Sunday, returning to their home in Summerfield the following day after having enjoyed a very fine visit here.

R. D. Stine and Joe Dare were called to Plattsmouth last Monday to look after some business at the court house. They returned via Nehawka, where they also had some business matters to look after. George Stine looked after the store while they were away.

Mrs. Earl Troop, of north of Nehawka, was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach, for a great part of last week and was taken home on last Sunday by Mrs. Leach and daughter, Miss Harriett, who also visited for a short time in Nehawka.

Mrs. Mary A. Taylor and daughter, Rachel, were visiting in Union last Monday. They will depart soon for Colorado Springs, where they will visit for the greater part of the summer. They have ordered their Plattsmouth Journal sent to their address at 1603 Crown street, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Returns from His Vacation.
E. Patrick Roddy, who is traveling out of Hastings, has been spending the past week at Lake Okoboji, where he enjoyed the time fishing, swimming and boating. Returning home, he came via Union Monday and picked up his regular route out of here, resuming work that same day. He reports a very fine time and is greatly refreshed from his week's outing.

Visiting in the West
Miss Ruth Dysart, who has-but recently returned from the hospital, where she underwent an operation for the restoration of her health, and who is progressing nicely at that time, accompanied by John Fraser, departed for Huntley, where they will visit for some time and where Ruth expects to better her health.

Visiting Relatives Here
John B. Roddy departed for Ponca, Oklahoma, late last week and returned Saturday, being accompanied by the Misses Punk, Deede and Bessie Anna, children of Harold Nickles and wife, who will visit here for the rest of the summer.

Has Store Secure Now
Frank Bauer, after suffering a loss of over $200 in goods stolen from his store, has placed a steel plate on the door which separates the rooms. It will take little short of a full-sized machine shop to get through this door. Although it has cost him considerable, the cost is nothing like the value of the goods which he lost in a recent visit of burglars.

Grandparents Doing Fair
There was a good deal of apprehension as to the recovery of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Upton from the extreme joy which they experienced when they received the news that their grand-daughter, the little one coming to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Busbey, of Lincoln. The mother was formerly Miss Vera Upton. All concerned are doing fine, except the grandparents, who are recovering slowly.

Business Changes Hands
Mr. Guide, of the Gude Grocery company, who has filed for nomination for sheriff of Otoe county, last week disposed of his grocery store to C. E. Morris, who will conduct the business in the future. Mr. Morris, who has made his home here and been manager of the Standard Oil bulk station here for a number of years, needs no introduction to the people of Union and vicinity, as all who are acquainted with him, know him to be one of the very finest of gentlemen and a good business man.

was taken to the hospital at Omaha for treatment and observation and an operation if need be, but it was determined that the operation was not necessary and so the patient was brought home. Eugene Roddy went over to Omaha with his auto, bringing the patient home. It is hoped that at home she will show better improvement and soon be in her former health again.

Delivered Address Last Sunday
Dr. Morton, of Omaha, a minister of the Baptist church, was a visitor in Union on last Sunday and occupied the pulpit, delivering a most worthwhile address to the church and a most interesting sermon. The services were made the more pleasant by the singing of Mrs. Nettie Mougay, who was accompanied on the piano by Miss Augusta Robb.

Saw New Streamline Train
The new Burlington speed train, the Zephyr, was stationed on the Burlington tracks at Nebraska City one day last week, where it attracted a large number of people, among them a considerable number from Union, who describe the new train as the last word in modern rail traffic. It will be placed in regular daily operation soon, running between Lincoln and Kansas City, with a round trip daily. The route will be Lincoln to Omaha, Plattsmouth, Pacific Junction, and south from there over the Kansas City line of the Burlington.

Did You See the Sign?
We refer to the large billboard at the corner of the Banning orchard at the junction of the two highways just east of town, telling of the candidacy of Mr. Banning for the governorship of Nebraska. The sign was the handiwork of King David Clarke, who is now at work on a smaller one to be carried on the automobile of the next governor, Mr. Banning.

Enjoyed the Fourth
When the Fourth of July dawned bright and fair it occurred to W. H. Porter that there might be some fish at Cedar Creek which would accept his invitation to come to Union with them if they would drive over. However, be that as it may, Mr. and Mrs. Porter, Nola Banning and Mary Harveride and Donald Erwin went over and fished and fished and fished. Well, yes, they did get some, but not a truck load, and then they ate their dinners in as cool a place as possible, but the temperature was 112° and very little or no breeze. They stuck it out until evening, when they returned home with their minds made up that the next time they would select a cooler day.

RED CROSS MEETING

Returned Home Sunday

When Stewart Rough and wife were over to Iowa City about three weeks ago, they were accompanied here by their grandson, Harold J. Dane, Jr., who visited here until last Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Rough accompanied him to Omaha, where he was placed on a train en route to his home town of Iowa City.

Had Excellent Time Fourth

At the Otterbein church north of town on the 4th of July, and especially in the evening the membership of the church and Bible school gathered at the church building, where they enjoyed a visit and a very fine program as well as a fine picnic supper together notwithstanding the intense heat.

Visiting in Chicago

The Rev. Otto Engelbrecht, pastor of the Nehawka church and the Otterbein church, is taking a vacation and is attending the Century of Progress in Chicago. He is accompanied by two young men, Bert Shepherd and Roland Sutphan, and will see the principal sights while they are there.

Have Auto Smashup

Eight young men in an auto with high spirits and fiery gasoline were scotching along the highway east of the Nehawka corner when their car, a Chevrolet, which some say was making less than a hundred miles an hour, took a notion to leave the roadway, or left without any notion, as the case may be. With plenty of mo-

Gust Hollenberg was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday afternoon.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman, of Union, was in Nehawka, and was looking after some business matters for the county on last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. E. E. Leach and daughter, Harriett, of Union, were over to the home of Mrs. Earl Troop, bringing Mrs. Troop home after a visit of some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leach.

W. H. Porter and Claude Porter, of Union, with the big truck of W. H. Porter, were over to Nehawka, delivering corn for feeding to the farm of W. A. O last Monday for the Nehawka elevator.

Marion M. Tucker who has charge of the Sheldon Department store in Nehawka, was a business visitor in Omaha Monday of this week, going to get goods for the store and look after other business.

Mrs. Dovey Asche will make a tour which will be her vacation and will see many interesting places during her trip and sure she will enjoy the traveling as she always does. She will be away for a number of weeks.

Mrs. John D. McBride and her son, John, of Omaha, were visiting with friends in Nehawka last Sunday, being guests here while of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm and many other of the friends whom they knew while residing in Nehawka many years ago.

W. O. Troop and son, George, Miss Lois and Charles Troop of Plattsmouth were over to Omaha on last Friday, where the men were looking after some business at the stock yards they all having a shipment of hogs and three which belonged to Miss Lois brought thirty dollars.

Miss Emma Grueber, of Omaha, a sister of Henry Grueber, is reported as being quite poorly at this time and has been compelled to have a nurse to care for her. The many friends of this excellent woman are hoping that she may soon be in better health and be out again enjoying the outdoors.

Mrs. John Campbell, Jr., while at work about the home sustained a head stroke that prostrated her, and while she has partially recovered, she is feeling quite poorly from the effects of the prostration. Mary Erwin, of Union, has been assisting with the household work since Mrs. Campbell has been feeling so poorly.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemon were over to North Bend last Sunday, at which place they visited at the home of Mrs. Lemon's mother, Mrs. M. Chambers for the day and where they had a very fine time. Returning home in the evening, they were compelled to run a race with the storm that came up rather hurriedly Sunday night, winning by a narrow margin.

Mrs. Robert Troop, Sr. and Mrs. William Gorder, both of Plattsmouth, were enjoying a very fine visit at the home of W. O. Troop last Sunday. When Mrs. Gorder returned to resume her studies at Peru, her sister, Miss Lois Troop, accompanied her for a week's visit. Mrs. Robert Troop, Sr. returned to her home in Plattsmouth, being taken over by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop.

Celebrated Fourth Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Lloyd, living north of Nehawka, celebrated the passing of their fourth wedding anniversary on July 4th and with their guests enjoyed the day very nicely. There were there for the occasion and to assist in the very fine time which was enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. William Wehrlein, W. O. Troop and family, Victor Wehrlein and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Creamer and family.

All of the eight occupants were more or less bruised and cut, but none seriously injured it would seem that certain death would have been inevitable for at least a part of them. The remains of the car were sold for five bucks—not a high price, but according to those who saw it, enough. The boys are sore and somewhat cut up but all are going again just the same.

Will Hold Family Reunion
On Sunday, July 15th, there will be held at Otoe, a centralized point for those comprising the Schlichtemeier family, a reunion, at which time it is expected to form a permanent organization and elect officers, with the idea of making the reunion an annual affair. All are expected to come and bring their cats, which will be shared with others. In all it is expected there will be around a hundred in attendance. The head of the family, Wm. Schlichtemeier, Sr., came to Nebraska City from his home in Ohio in 1859, and from that the family was started that now numbers so many descendants.

Had Nice Yield of Wheat
Roy Gress, who had a very fine piece of wheat, a portion of which was better than the remainder, realized 24 bushels per acre on the whole and 20 bushels per acre on a part. He was able to market the grain for 80 cents per bushel.
