

MURDOCK ITEMS

Uncle Charles Kupke is putting in some long hours these days helping the boys with their threshing.

Henry Carson, the elevator man, was loading a 100,000 capacity car with wheat, which he shipped to Omaha on last Wednesday.

The Rev. W. P. Hutton, of Omaha, was a speaker at the ministerial meeting which was held at the Callahan church on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Otto Eichoff and children were over to Lincoln last Tuesday, where they were visiting and looking after some business matters.

Miss Adalade Knosp was a visitor at Elmwood for the greater portion of the past week, where she was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. August Wilkin.

John Eppings and family and J. H. Buck and family were in Plattsmouth last Tuesday and were visiting for a time at the home of State Deputy Jarvis Lancaster.

The Christian Endeavor held a business and social meeting on last Tuesday, where they enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable gathering at the home of Harold Luetchens.

Rudolph Kuehn was threshing his wheat on Wednesday and was pleased to find an average yield of slightly more than 20 bushels to the acre. That is considered very good for this year.

Rev. F. C. Weber went to see his parents on last Monday. They are both past 80 years of age and feel the weight of their years very heavily. They reside at Platte Center, not far from Columbus.

John Eppings and family were in York last Sunday, where they visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Carl Buck and husband, who make their home near that place. A very pleasant time was had.

Miss Alpha Peterson, county superintendent of schools, who is a candidate for re-election, was a visitor in Murdock the fore part of last week meeting with the voters and school patrons of this vicinity.

The town board met Tuesday evening to look after business of interest to the city and its taxpayers. The board is conducting its affairs in a most efficient manner, holding down expenses to a minimum in order to lighten the tax burden.

P. T. Johnson, superintendent of the Murdock schools, who is a candidate for the office of county superintendent, was at Greenwood during the past week, where he was meeting with the voters and lining up support prior to the primary, which is rapidly approaching.

At a meeting of the board of education of the Murdock school, it was determined to reinstate the teacher, known as the fourth teacher, a position the board thought best to eliminate during the stringent times of the past year. This puts the number of instructors back to eight.

A. J. Neitzel and family spent last Tuesday in Lincoln. While there they visited the state capitol building, ascended the tower, visited Morrill hall of the University of Nebraska to study the relics of the plains and the African jungle and believed they were well repaid for the trip.

Dr. Walter Bornemeier, of Chicago, where he is engaged in practice, was a visitor in Murdock and a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Baumgartner and family. Dr. Baumgartner has not been here for some time and enjoyed visiting with his many former friends.

Some Lincoln parties were in Murdock early last week, looking over the town with a view to instituting a cafe and eating house here. There is need for such an institution and the securing of one might help to attract other lines of business here as well. Come on boys, do your stuff.

The many friends of Will Streich were giving this excellent gentleman a shower on last Thursday, as a demonstration for the friendship they have for this man. Mr. Streich is soon to take unto himself a very winsome bride, and it is the hope of all his friends that his married life may be both long and happy.

Miss Jessie Robertson, of Plattsmouth, candidate for county superintendent, was in Murdock last Tuesday, where she was calling on the voters in the interest of her candidacy. She is making a thorough canvass of the county and feels that she is doing everything she can to keep her name before the voters.

L. Neitzel put in a strenuous day last Sunday, going to Cedar Bluffs, then to Fremont, teaching the Bible class in the Evangelical church, back to Cedar Bluffs, then to Murdock, and after a half hour's rest, on to South Bend, where he preached in the evening, altogether a drive of 155 miles. That's the way he spends most of his Sundays, though.

The American Legion junior baseball team were over to Lincoln where they played a like aggregation of that city, winning over them in a closely contested game. The members of the team are as follows: Norris Knope, Gerald Kuehn, Vernon Rikkl, Wayne Breamer, Bobbie Allen, Orin Miller, Ora Kwish, P. Reeder, Ralph Reeder and Howard Lorenz.

Two candidates for county clerk were visitors in Murdock last Wednesday, Bernard Wurl, democrat, being accompanied by his friend, John Lutz. Otto Keck, republican aspirant for the same office, was here later in the day. All are out making hay while the sun shines for the time until primary election day is just one month off. Go to it, boys, the race will be hot and furious this year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie departed early last week for the west with their school bus, which is commendable and affords the comforts of a small hotel in traveling and even better for they can stop where they choose for the night and enjoy real rest on their trip. They are now at Douglas, Wyoming, where they are visiting with a couple of sisters of Mr. Gillespie, also a brother. This makes a very fine trip for them.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Murdock Evangelical church met on last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Melvin, where they were looking after the work which devolves on them in their aid of the church. There was a goodly crowd present and all were busy and eager to do their part in any and all work. Mrs. Melvin proved a very capable entertainer and served delightful refreshments at the close of the gathering.

Entertained Their Classes
Mesdames Otto Miller and Frank Rosenow, who are teachers of two very bright classes in the Murdock Bible school entertained the members of both classes at the home of Mrs. Rosenow on last Tuesday, where all enjoyed a very fine time.

Ministers Enjoy Gathering
There was a meeting of the ministers of the churches of Cass county at the Evangelical church southwest of Murdock, which is known as the Callahan church. At this meeting, there was a demonstration of good fellowship and a good deal of work was done for the organization and the churches and its work. Dinner was served in the church building and the gathering was considered to be one much worth while.

Give Reception to Minister
The congregation of the Callahan church southwest of Murdock, where the Rev. F. C. Weber has been appointed to minister, as well as the Wabash church, met on last Tuesday evening, when they gathered to the number of two hundred to extend a welcome to their new co-worker. A very fine program was rendered, with addresses, music and song and something good to eat. Besides there was brought many things needed in the home in the way of eats and which was greatly appreciated by the minister and his good wife. A very fine evening was had.

CLIPS WING OF OGPU
Moscow.—Revolutionary charges in the method of prosecution of political cases was provided for in a decree of the central executive committee of the soviet union. The judicial functions of the OGPU (secret police) were abolished, and hereafter cases investigated by this organization will be tried in the supreme courts of the republic constituting the union.

A Purdue professor introduces a bit of hot weather relief consisting of a wristband containing a tiny piece of dry ice, utilizing the theory that if the wrists are cooled, the body is also cooled. But will it aid those whose hot weather discomfort centers in tightened shoes and collar bands?

Says was Paid for Conducting Propaganda

George Sylvester Viereck, New York City, Publisher Claims He was Paid $2,000 for oWrk.

Testifying before a special congressional committee at New York City, George Sylvester Viereck, publisher, stated that he had been paid $2,000 for publicity favoring the cause of Germany before the American people.

Viereck said Dr. Kiep paid him $500 a month for four months, beginning June, 1933. This was in addition, he testified, to the $1,750 a month office room, and a secretary, which he was receiving from the publicity firm of Cary Boyer as his "cut" on a contract with the German railways.

The $2,000 payment was waved away by Viereck on the witness stand as a "trifle," and he declared that every other major foreign power also was paying for propaganda. But when he mentioned casually that France had just appropriated 18 million francs for propaganda and indicated that he knew who had been hired for the French publicity here, it caused a sudden stir. Representative McCormack, democrat, Massachusetts, chairman, announced that the committee would inquire into this at once in executive session. After the public hearing, Viereck was summoned privately.

Dr. Kiep, Viereck said, "begged me to accept some money because he knew it was interfering with my work. It took so much of my time to give him advice. So I accepted a trifle, a very small amount." Viereck said he was told the money came from friends of Dr. Kiep's in Germany. It was paid in cash, he shouted, to avoid the "spies among his professional Jews and bolsheviks."

Viereck said that for the money he advised Dr. Kiep on German-American affairs, some of them inside the United States.

"You have talked with the present German consul about the same lines?" asked McCormack.

"Yes, he is a personal friend. I received no money from him."

Frankly avowing himself an admirer of Adolf Hitler, Viereck said that on trips to Germany he had advised German officials of the necessity of propaganda here. He called it "defensive measures."

Hitler was quoted by Viereck as having told him he "had not declared war on the Jews, but they had declared war on him. He said he had done nothing but curtail some of their special privileges," asserted the witness.

"I told him it was a mistake to have such things as a sign on a beach saying Jews were not allowed to bathe there. He said that was unauthorized and asked me if there were no beaches in America where Jews were not allowed to bathe. I told him yes."

REVISE SUTHERLAND BIDS

North Platte.—John Latenser, jr., state PWA engineer, met with officials of the Sutherland power and irrigation project Thursday to study and make necessary revisions and provisionally let contracts and expense budgets for the first two months preliminary work on the project.

D. D. Price, chief engineer and general manager, said the overlooking of the PWA requirement of contractors' compliance with NRA labor wage scale provisions will make necessary the reletting of the contract for remodeling an office building for the district sponsoring the project.

New bids on contracts, which had been let provisionally, will be received Friday, price explained. Bids received yesterday by the district for general office supplies and field equipment for engineering forces were being tabulated Thursday. Meeting with Latenser were W. H. Maloney, district treasurer, and Price.

2 TRUCKS HIT 2 CARS

Omaha.—Three persons were injured, one seriously, in an accident near a street intersections here involving two automobiles and two motor trucks. Charles Roucek, 23, suffered bruises and a possible skull fracture. The truck Roucek was driving collided with the rear of a car driven by William Koci, and then collided with a car driven by John Ahmanson. Impact of the collision hurled Koci's car into a truck driven by Fred Gustafson. Koci and Miss Marjorie Haas of Howells, who was riding with him, were bruised. The others were only shaken up.

Wabash News

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hinds and the children, of near Avoca, were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hinds, of Wabash.

The Wabash quartette were furnishing the music for the temperance meeting which was being held in Elmwood last Thursday. They gave some excellent and very appropriate music.

Frank Rogers, who is employed at Louisville in a stone quarry, moved a few days since to a farm property of H. J. Hohlmann, southeast of Wabash, where he will make his home for the present.

Mrs. H. P. Hinds has been suffering quite a bit from the twinges of rheumatism of late, which has made it very inconvenient for her to get the house work done, but they have managed together to get it done.

Miss Myrtle Wood, the efficient carrier of the mail on the Wabash route, and who has served the patrons of this route for many years, was a visitor at the state convention of rural mail carriers which was held at Grand Island July 9th and 10th. During the time she was away, the work was looked after by her brother, John Wood.

The Ladies Aid society of the Wabash church were meeting on last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Reuter, where they were looking after the work of the church and also enjoyed a very sociable afternoon. The hostess served delicious refreshments at the proper time and all expressed a desire that they might soon meet under this hospitable roof.

Make Trip to North

John Wood and sister, Myrtle, together with Louis Reese and L. Wiskhan, made a trip to Waterbury, in the northeast portion of the state, one day last week, to look after some road work which has been allotted to some contractors at that place. They found there is a large amount of earth work to be done before the paving can be started and that it may not be done this year. However, they had a very fine trip and enjoyed looking over the country in the northern portion of the state.

Enjoyed Fine Dinner and Visit

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hinds were enjoying a very fine visit and dinner at the home of W. L. Copple, when their daughter and husband, Ray Norris and wife, came via Wabash and picking up the father and mother took them to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Copple, west of Alvo, at which place all enjoyed the day.

Some Showers of Late

Yes, there was a shower at Elmwood. Many wanted it to rain, but it did not. However, the shower was very pleasant for it was for the bride to be, Miss Mary Capwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Capwell, who is soon to wed Will Strach, of near Murdock. Another was also had on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dejes Derner for the same winsome young lady. A merry time was had and many beautiful and worthwhile tokens of love and esteem were presented to the bride elect.

DESCRIBES 'WILD' PARTY

Los Angeles.—Intimate details of a "wild Hollywood party which she allegedly saw when she walked unbidden into the apartment of June Delong, raven haired film extra girl, were described by Mrs. Pearl Owings here in the trial of Dave Allen and Gloria Marsh on morals charges.

Allen, at the time manager of the Central Casting corporation, Hollywood agency which handles motion picture extra players for the movie studios, was in the living room with Miss Marsh, also an extra, and Miss Delong as she entered, Mrs. Owings asserted.

A vivid description of an assertedly immoral Hollywood party was given by Deputy District Attorney Veitch to the jury of eight men and four women. Veitch said the state would prove Miss Marsh and Miss Delong, and Allen, all were involved in the party. Miss Delong is the complaining witness in the case, which Allen has branded a "frameup" in an attempt to drive him from the casting job.

A packed courtroom listened intently and hundreds of persons in the corridors outside strained their ears as Veitch asserted the state would prove Miss Delong brought Miss Marsh to her apartment at the insistence of Allen and that the two women disrobed in the casting director's presence.

SALES UP 18 PERCENT

Washington.—Department store sales showed an 18 percent increase during the first six months of the present calendar year as compared with 1933, a survey by the federal reserve board reveals. The changes ranged from a 10 percent increase in the federal reserve district of New York to a maximum gain of 36 percent reported by the Atlanta district.

The percentage increases by federal reserve districts were: Boston 12, New York 10, Philadelphia 13, Cleveland 28, Richmond 21, Atlanta 36, Chicago 25, St. Louis 23, Minneapolis 13, Kansas City 21, Dallas 30 and San Francisco 12.

From May to June there was a more-than-seasonal decline in sales. The index figure dropped 72 to 73 percent of the 1923-1925 average. Sales for June, according to preliminary figures, were 9 percent larger than in the same month of 1933.

FEMININE CAMPS PLANNED

Washington.—The federal government was shown to be investing a sizeable pile of dollars in a sort of feminine CCC plan, designed to fit women to jobs by a brief but intensive re-education course. Thirty-one camps and schools for unemployed, unattached women, each an experiment painstakingly adjusted to its community, will start functioning within the next four weeks.

Twenty-two have been approved. Nine more are under consideration, with prospects of being approved. Each individual camp or school will receive on the average of about $5,000 which will exhaust available funds. Enrollment will total about 1,700. The camps are partially an outgrowth of an insistent interest on the part of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

NRA BLAMED BY FACTORIES

Fredericksburg, Va.—In the face of an order from the compliance board of the NRA to restore nearly $200,000 in wages to its employees or face the loss of its blue eagle and possible prosecution, the G. & A. Clothing company closed its factory here.

Approximately 500 workers were thrown out of employment. Plant officials said that the factory, a unit of L. Grief & Bros., inc., of Baltimore, would remain closed indefinitely. It is the first time the plant has suspended operations in twenty-one years.

Mobile, Ala.—Sumter Lindsey announced that on Saturday the Lindsey Mill company, manufacturers of lumber and lumber products, would suspend operations due to "inability to meet the requirements of NRA."

WHY THE KING QUIT GOLF

London.—The Prince of Wales disclosed that his father, the king, quit playing golf because it made him get too angry. "I asked him the other day why he did not go on with golf," the prince related in a speech at the annual banquet to the Lucifer golfing society, of which he is the captain. "All he said to me was he got so damned angry." The prince recalled the days when he had carried his father's golf clubs for him.

Germany is bidding for friendlier foreign relations, but more important appears to be the need for friendlier relations within Germany.

REJECTS RATE REDUCTION

Scottsbluff, Neb.—An offer by the Western Public Service company to reduce consumer electrical rates by 11.5 percent was rejected Wednesday night by a special committee of the Scottsbluff city council because the company insisted that the city agree, at the same time, to give it a lease covering the period of the electrical franchise on a piece of property owned by the city and on which the company's power generation system is located.

City representatives insisted that rate reductions to consumers, over which a number of municipal and legal contests have been fought in the past two years, should be disposed of first and then the matter of leasing the property be considered upon its own merits.

Negotiations did not end however, with the rejection of the offer, as G. W. Swift, president of the company, said he would consult with officials of the Stone Webster company, Boston, parent organization, to learn whether they would sanction consideration of the proposals as two separate transactions. Swift urged that disposition of the two matters at the same time would clean the slate of controversies in Scottsbluff. The company's lease expires in 1936.

NEW RATE PLAN APPROVED

Washington.—The interstate commerce commission granted authority to railroads to establish rates on livestock in carloads between points in western trunk line territory without observing the long and short haul provision of the interstate commerce act.

The order provides that relief from that provision will apply where the distance over the short route is 150 miles or less and where the circuitous route is more than 70 percent longer than the shortest route. It also would apply where the distance over the shortest tariff route exceeds 150 miles and the circuitous route is more than 50 percent longer than the shortest route.
