GREAT SALT LAKE EBBS

Salt Lake City.—The Graet Salt lake is approaching its lowest—and saltiest—point in its history. If the drought continues next November, the lake level is expected to fall below the recorded lowest, reached Nov. 1, 1905. The present mark is .6 of a foot below the zero mark at Saltair. In 1905 it reached 1.1 feet below zero. The present saline content is approaching 28 percent.

BRAKEMAN RESCUES CHILD

Reno.—By leaping from the pilot of a moving locomotive, C. D. Rose, a brakeman saved the life of a little girl. Rose saw the child standing in the middle of the tracks. He leaped from the pilot of the engine, seized the girl and threw himself and the child down an embankment. The engineer said he did not see the child in time to stop the train.

Mae West's film, "It Ain't No Sin," has been changed to the more grammatical but equally provocative title of "The Belle of New Orleans."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to the friends and neighbors for their sympathy and acts of kindness to us in the illness and at the time of death of our loved one. We also wish to thank those taking part in the funeral services and for the beautiful floral offerings.—Mr. and Mrs. Max Bowman and Family and Relatives.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

Leroy Creamer, of San Jose, California, arrived here Wednesday for a visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Duxbury and family and his brother, Edgar and family. Leroy was a boy in school when the family resided here and formerly one of the carriers of the Journal. Mr. Creamer is en route to Harrisburg, Pa., where he will join his brothers, Joseph and William, and he expects to be employed there in the future.

LEAVE FOR WEST COAST

From Saturday's Daily Henry Donat and niece, Miss Mary Jane Mark and Leland Shanholtz are leaving Sunday for Portland, Oregon. The young people are making the trip by car. While in Portland they will be guests of Miss Norma Curtiss for some time, then motoring to California, where they will enjoy the beautiful scenery of the western coast.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

The William Patrick O'Donnell family are rejoicing over the arrival at their home on Wednesday evening of a fine little daughter. The little one, christened Alice Marie, with the mother is doing nicely and the occasion has brought much happiness to the father and the brothers and sisters.

Death of Former Resident Occurs at Salt Lake City

J. V. Egenberger, Jr., One Time Baker in This City Dies After Illness of Some Duration.

The message was received here late last night telling of the death of J. V. Egenberger, Jr., one time resident of this community and well known to the older residents of the city, at Salt Lake City.

Mr. Egenberger had been suffering from heart trouble and dropsy for some time and had gradually grown worse until his death.

The deceased was born in Walthausen, Germany, sixty-nine years ago and when a young man came to the United States and located at Plattsmouth where for some fifteen years he followed his trade as a baker, being very successful in his work.

While a resident here Mr. Egenberger was married to Miss Anna Holschuh, a member of one of the old families of the community, and who was a sister of Mrs. Mary Egenberger and Mrs. John F. Hirz of this city.

The family moved to Salt Lake City and where they have since resided and have numbered among the best known residents of that city.

The deceased is survived by the widow and one son, Charles, who resides at home, the daughter of the family having passed away a number of years ago.

Mrs. Mary Egenberger and niece, Mrs. P. T. Becker, are leaving this evening for Salt Lake City to attend the services and to be with the members of the family.

ARRIVAL OF NEW SON

From Friday's Daily This morning at the University hospital at Omaha a fine seven pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hitt of this city. The mother and little one are doing very nicely and the occasion has brought a great deal of happiness to all of the members of the family circle. The many friends will join in their well wishes for the future happiness and success of the young man.

ENJOYING VACATION

Miss Mary Anne Rosencrans is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Esper McCleary at Arcadia, Nebraska, from which point she will accompany the McCleary family to the Black Hills where they will enjoy a motor tour and take in the many scenic beauties of that section of the west.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

The condition of Don Brittain, who is at the University hospital at Omaha, is reported as some better at this time. The young man has suffered for several months from a severe attack of rheumatism and which has been so severe that he was kept in bed for several weeks. It is hoped that the patient will soon be able to be around altho he will be under treatment for some time.

IMPROVING BUILDING

The interior of the corner room of the Bekin building at the corner of Sixth and Main streets, occupied by the Wasley beverage parlor, is being improved. The walls and ceiling are being painted in tones of ivory and white and adds much to the general appearance of the room. The work is being handled by Harry Kruger and his force of workmen.

GOES TO CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Frank Mullen departed Thursday from Omaha in company with Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Stone, of Los Angeles, for a trip to California. Mrs. Mullen will visit with her son, Edward, who has been located on the west coast for the past two years and also with other relatives in that section of the west.
