

UNION ITEMS.

Charles Garrison had business in Nebraska City last Saturday morning, driving over in his car.

J. A. Chapman, the druggist, was looking after some business matters in Lincoln Monday of this week.

W. H. Marks was looking after some business at Plattsmouth Thursday of last week, driving over in his car.

Mrs. J. R. Dysart has been spending the week with her son and wife in Omaha. She returned home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Land were visiting for the day with friends in Plattsmouth, driving over in their car.

Joe Lidgett, who has been quite poorly of late, is showing some improvement the past week, we are glad to state.

Fred Snavely and A. H. Ward were among the pallbearers at the funeral of Wade Critchfield at Elmwood last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Copenhagen and son, Wesley, were visiting in Plattsmouth last Saturday, doing some shopping while there.

Mary Becker has accepted a position with an Omaha firm as sales-lady and bookkeeper, a job that she is well qualified to handle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lidgett and Mrs. Martha Lynn were calling in Nebraska City last Saturday, doing some shopping while there.

Mrs. John Lidgett and Mrs. Martha Lynn were visitors in Murray on last Thursday, calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gruber for a while.

Miss Nola Banning is spending the week with her cousin, Miss Dorothy Pell, at their Omaha home, where both the young women are enjoying the visit.

Little Miss Ellene Chriswiser, of Nehawka, was spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter. She returned home last Saturday.

The Morris Grocery last week purchased a truck to use in connection with their business, getting it from the Cass County Chevrolet company, of Plattsmouth.

The families of O. W. Finney, of Auburn, and Edgar Newton of Plattsmouth were visiting at the home of Mrs. Vesta Clarke for the day last Sunday.

Mrs. J. T. Reynolds was a visitor in Omaha last Sunday, where she was enjoying a visit at the home of her daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Carl P. Schmidtman.

Some parties from Syracuse were in Union late last week, coming to place some new plate glass in the store front of L. R. Upton, which was recently blown out by the high winds.

George Stine was called to Nehawka where he went to have some work done on a piece of farming machinery that he had broken and was desirous of using again as soon as possible.

Mrs. J. A. Moore and daughter, Miss Adaline, departed early this week for Duluth, where they will visit with their son and brother, who is interne in a hospital there. Dr. J. A. Chapan, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Yonker and the kiddies, of Ogallala, arrived in Union for a visit with relatives and friends. They have also been visiting with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Buttery, in Plattsmouth.

Elmer Withrow, the produce man, and Tuglies, i. e. Elmer, Jr., together with Frank Bauer and the three kiddies, Punkte, Deece and little sister, were all over to Graham's Mills, bathing on last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Reynolds, of Minneapolis, arrived in Union on last Sunday evening for a visit with friends and relatives here for a time and especially to visit with Mrs. J. T. Reynolds, mother of Linas.

Wade E. Moore and the family, who are located in York, where Mr. Moore is engaged in the drug business, were visiting with friends in Union last Sunday. They enjoyed the visit here very much, having been located here prior to moving to York some months ago.

Harry O'Brien, who has been at the hospital in Omaha for some time, suffering from an infected hand, was compelled to undergo another operation on the hand last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Greene and Mrs. Harry O'Brien were over Sunday to see him and found him cheerful, but still the hand is quite bad.

To Conserve Corn Stalks
Blair Porter got the old corn binder out and was preparing to operate it in making some roughness for the stock for the winter. Things are not looking so good at this time.

Some of the farmers are preparing to fill their silos with corn fodder, and others who have no silos are devising other means. Some will line their cribs with heavy paper or even the green corn itself in order to get the most possible out of their corn crop in the way of feed, as it now seems there will be a very light yield, even if rain should come at once.

Enjoyed a Pleasant Visit
There were gathered last Sunday at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach, a number of their friends, who enjoyed the occasion very pleasantly. Among those present were A. W. Propst and family and Mrs. C. S. Johnson, mother of Mrs. Propst, of Nebraska City and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt, of Murray, all close friends of the Leach family. They had a most enjoyable day.

Miss Ora Clarke Better
Miss Ora Clarke, who has been at the Methodist hospital in Omaha for some time, last week underwent an operation for the restoration of her health. She is reported as somewhat better at this time and it is hoped she may be able to return to her home here restored in health.

Sure Hot Job
H. W. Griffin, the blacksmith, was pounding hot iron at his forge last Monday, with the sweat running down his face, his clothing saturated and sure it looked like he was truly and literally earning his bread by the sweat of his brow.

Home from the East
The group from here who have been touring eastern America, in the vicinity of Boston, Bunker Hill and historical sites in that part of the country, arrived home late last week, very tired out from travel, but very happy over the fine time they had enjoyed. Those in the party included Mr. and Mrs. Robert James, son and daughter, Mrs. William James and daughter and Paul Davis, the latter acting as pilot and driver. They had been away for about six weeks and saw a great deal of country in that length of time, but we dare say none of which appealed to them any more than the old familiar sights right here at home. So, for them, it's "Home again, Home again."

Rev. B. N. Kunkel and wife were looking after things at the farm during the time the folks were away.

Had Very Enjoyable Visit
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dela Meter, son Gale, daughters and granddaughter, of Ohio, Nebraska, and John Taylor, of San Diego, Calif., visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John Lidgett and Mrs. Martha Lynn and many other relatives and friends for several days last week. They left on Sunday for home, after a most delightful visit. It was indeed a very pleasant time for Mrs. Dela Meter and Mrs. Lynn, as they were school mates together and life-long friends.

Death of Mrs. Earl
Mrs. Vernon Earl, formerly Vera Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Smith, passed away at the home of her parents near Union on Tuesday, July 23rd. She had been in poor health for several weeks, but didn't think her illness serious.

Mrs. Earl and her five children had come up from their home east of Syracuse to visit her parents while her husband was working at Murdock for his aunt.

She was stricken suddenly, and with peritonitis setting in, nothing could be done to save her.

Second District

ON THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET
I will Appreciate Your Support
Primaries August 14, 1934.

For just a few short years, God came and took her back to heaven
Despite our prayers and tears,
The voice we loved so well is still,
Her darling hands at rest;
We prayed that God should do his will—
He does things for the best.
An angel took her by the hand,
And led her far away.
Some day we'll surely understand
Why He wouldn't let her stay.
And when our work on earth is done—
Our cares and sorrows o'er
We'll go to meet our darling one
Over on the Golden Shore.

Repeal Hikes U. S. Income, the Report Shows

Liquor Taxes Bring in Over $28 Million Dollars in the First Six Months.

Washington, July 25.—With repeal in effect but six months, taxes on liquors and beer brought the treasury $258,911,332 during the fiscal year which ended June 30. Figures on internal revenue collections show increases in all general categories.

For the fiscal year 1934, income tax collections were $817,025,339 or $70,233,935 greater than the year preceding. The capital stock tax yielded $80,168,344; dividends tax, $50,229,122, and excess profits $2,630,615. The estate tax showed an increase of $74,292,226 and the gift tax $4,536,414. All tobacco taxes were up $22,423,969 and stamp taxes gained $9,182,649.

Manufacturers excise taxes brought $142,257,899 more, with $77,645,622 of the increase coming from the tax on gasoline, $19,952,829 from the tax on automobiles and motorcycles and 12 million dollars from tires and tubes.

Miscellaneous taxes gained $9,291,297, including a $4,686,043 gain in collections from the levy on telephone, telegraph, radio and cable facilities, one of $2,912,072 from pipe lines, and $2,926,705 from the tax on checks, drafts and other orders for the payment of money.

The excise tax on imported distilled spirits totaled $6,577,958, an increase of $6,572,453. The processing taxes, which were in effect only a part of the year, yielded $371,422,885.

McBRIDE GOING TO LIBERIA
Washington.—A survey of present conditions in Liberia, on which to base possible aid to the almost bankrupt African republic, is to be made by Harry A. McBride, assistant to the secretary of state. The state department announced McBride would sail from New York on Wednesday for Monrovia, the Liberia capital. He has been ordered to make a first hand investigation of the complicated situation before returning to Washington in October. McBride was receiver of customs and financial adviser of the Liberian government in 1918-1919. Liberia has refused to accept the League of Nations' plan for financial and economic rehabilitation and administrative reforms.

EXPLOSION ON AN OIL BARGE
Toronto.—Two firemen were killed, one was missing and twelve persons were injured by an explosion which wrecked the oil barge Enarco in the Eschbridge bay section of Toronto bay. The two dead are District Fire Chief James Dixon and Lieut. James Henry. A fireman named Squires was reported missing. For a time it was feared others had been trapped, but firemen said a late check up showed all accounted for except Dixon and Henry.

The California labor strikes got a great play in the Florida newspapers. This is pure generosity on the part of the Florida papers, since there will be no chance for California papers to return the favor until the equinoctial hurricane reaches Miami.

AVOCA NEWS

Herbert Neumeister has accepted the management of the Jerpe Produce station in Avoca and is conducting the business at this time.

Earl Freeman was a visitor for the day last Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Freeman northeast of Weeping Water.

Have Most Merry Time.
Max Southerland and his winsome bride who were united in marriage last week, in appreciation of their friends who were so good to them gave a dance to the friends on Thursday night of this week when they made merry for their many friends. At the dance the Hen House orchestra of Avoca furnished the music and say how they can play. The orchestra is composed of Ernest Gollner, Emory Vogle, Lella Bose Elmer Bose and Verno Rawalt.

Needed More Water.
When the well which Fred Marquardt had been using for the watering of his stock seemed to show signs of falling he dug it deeper and in a short distance found quick sand and beginning to sink in it a portion of the well caved in but the water came to the top of the ground, which was all that Fred desired. He has plenty of water now.

Mothers and Daughters Meet.
The mothers and daughters of Avoca, an organization for the betterment of the social affairs of the city, were meeting Thursday of this week at the basement of the church and where they enjoyed an excellent program and where following a very interesting meeting they enjoyed a social hour, finished off with ice cream and cake.

It is said that the German people's admiration of Hitler makes him bold, but their veneration of Von Hindenburg keeps Hitler within bounds. Three things in that statement we don't quite understand—the admiration for Hitler, the veneration of Von Hindenburg and the meaning of "bounds."

HERE FROM WASHINGTON
Mrs. James McBride of Tacoma, Washington, is here to enjoy a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peterson and with her sisters, Mrs. Sophia Mayfield and Miss Mary Peterson.
