Chevrolets Win Fast Game from Packers

Both Teams Play Good Ball With "Chevies" Snatching Victory in Second Inning.

From Wednesday's Daily Barring a bad second inning the kittenball fans had a real treat afforded them last night when the Chevrolets and the Norfolk Packers staged one of the best games seen this season, which resulted in an 8 to 4 win for the auto team.

Both Pucelik of the winners, and Roiff of the Packers pitched good ball and had excellent support.

The Chevrolet team in the second frame were able to hang up six scores that was to mean victory for them as they were able to hold the Packers in the succeeding innings.

The box score of the game was as follows:
