FUNERAL OF MRS. MORLEY

From Wednesday's Daily
The funeral of Mrs. William Morley was held this morning at 9 o'clock at the St. John's Catholic church, the requiem mass of the church being celebrated by Father Patrick Harte, pastor of the St. Patrick's church at Manly. During the service, John J. Clodt gave as solo numbers, "There Is No Heart Like Thine," and "Thy Will Be Done." The interment was at the Catholic cemetery west of the city.

HAVE PLEASANT TRIP

Mrs. Jennie Klimm of near Murray and Mrs. Ivan Balfour of Union, who have just returned from the Mother's camp at Crete, on their return trip stopped for a short time at Lincoln. They visited the state penitentiary for a short time and enjoyed a trip through the buildings. They found the inmates busy at games as this has taken up a large part of their time since the closing of their various shops of the prison.

Orphans, V-8s are Winners of Double Header

Orphans Win 9 to 3 While Rovers Make Good Showing in Game With the Fords.

The Kittenball fans had the opportunity Monday night of witnessing the two new teams of the league in action against two of the veteran teams, the Rovers especially making an impressive showing and both of the new teams with more practice and experience will make it tough going for the other members of the circuit.

The Orphans and the Bobcats were featured in the opening bill and until the sixth inning the Bobcats were held scoreless but in that stanza of the battle the hard hitting of E. Meisinger, Salsburg and Mayabb, resulted in three scores for their total, the Orphans winning 9 to 3.

The Orphans started their attack in the second inning when they annexed two scores and followed this in the third with a hard hitting attack that gave them three scores. The Orphans added two more each in the fifth and sixth.

The box score of the game was as follows:

Bobcats—		AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Speck, rf-1b	---	4	0	1	2	0	0

Fords Win From Rovers.
The Ford V-8 team started a merry-go-round in the first inning of their game with the Rovers by scoring 11 runs and winning the game 15 to 10.

The opening inning was a weird exhibition with hits, errors and poor judgment on the part of the Rovers adding to the V-8's scoring. In this inning Bob Brittain added to the route with a home run. The V-8's were not forced to exert themselves greatly and scored one run in fourth and three in the seventh.

The Rovers in their opening inning scored four runs with four hits and an outfield error, one of the hits being a circuit drive by Ethen, first sacker of the rovers.

The Rovers added two more runs in the fifth and three in the sixth to give the customers a thrill and the vision that a rally might overcome the lead of the Fords but the V-8's whizzed on by to win.

The box score of the game was as follows:

Rovers—		AB	R	H	PO	A	E

MOVES TO NEW LOCATION

The Kruger paint store, which has been located in the Hotel Riley building, was removed Sunday to the Bekin building just across the street on North Sixth street. The move was made necessary by the fact that Mr. Lapidus, the new owner of the hotel building is contemplating some extensive changes in the building and which requires the vacating of the various rooms. Mr. Kruger is now located in the new room and ready for business as usual.

LEAVES FOR THE EAST

Mrs. Edgar Newton and little son, Charles Howard, departed Sunday evening for Lorain, Ohio, where they will enjoy a short visit. They will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borne, the latter a sister of Mrs. Newton, and enjoy looking over the many places of interest in that section of the east.

Barkhurst-Abbott Wedding Held Tuesday

Prominent Young People of South-east Nebraska Wedded at Home of Bride's Parents.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Miss Evelyn Mae Barkhurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barkhurst, became the wife of Lea Abbott, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Abbott of Nebraska City. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents at Union, before a background of ferns, with candelabra at each side. Rev. Ronald McKenzie of Alvo officiated, in the presence of seventy-five guests. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Eleanor Spivey sang, Miss Bertha Blank of Franklin, accompanied, and played the Lohengrin wedding march. The bride entered on the arm of her father. Her gown was of floor length blue crepe, trimmed in pink chiffon velvet, and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and baby breath. Miss Velma Barkhurst, as her sister's maid of honor, wore yellow organdy and carried a colonial bouquet of tallisman roses. Miss Evelyn Heston, bridesmaid, wore green organdy. Her bouquet was of yellow roses. Helen Connor of Minncapolis, was the flower girl, wearing blue organdy. Ivan Barkhurst, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Miss Joan Wallis of Pawnee City, and Miss Adeline Sar of Wakefield. At the reception following the wedding, Miss Annabell Abbott of Nebraska City, was in charge of the guest book, and Miss May Heston of the gift room. Miss Wallis and Miss Sar assisted with the serving. Appointments were in pastel shades. The couple left immediately after the reception for Dallas, Tex., where they will make their home. The bride's traveling suit was of light blue crepe, with navy accessories. Mrs. Abbott is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan university, where she joined Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Mr. Abbott has attended the University of Nebraska and is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. He is an air mail pilot stationed at Dallas.

A story in Washington is that of a 12-year-old boy who was asked where the capital of his country was. "In tax-exempt securities," he replied.

HOMER SYLVESTER

Candidate for Re-Election

Cass County Sheriff

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

In the annual report of State Sheriff for the year 1933, Cass county ranked thirteenth in the ninety-three counties of Nebraska in the number of arrests. Other counties with larger percentages included Douglas and Lancaster.

This record is worth considering, and shows that Cass county stands high in the matter of law enforcement!

Victims of Drouth Feed

Farmers of western Kansas were warned because of the drought to be careful about giving their cattle partially cured feed or green weeds as a feed, and especially careful about drought-damaged corn, cane grain or sorghums. This photo shows part of a fine herd of Jersey dairy cows belonging to a farm near Grover, Kan., which were killed by prussic acid contained in partially cured weeds which they ate.
