CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Morley is again with her husband—and happy. She has no need of anything save perhaps a prayer. It was only the living that had a longing for human sympathy; only the mourners that felt the need of acts of kindness. Sympathy was given and kindly hands lightened the burden of grief. Friends, you have the gratitude of the Relatives of Mrs. Johanna Morley.

LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. John Alwin and daughter, Miss Wilma Pickard, with Mrs. Maude Bunch and daughter, Hazel, departed Wednesday for California. They will spend some time at Los Angeles with the old time friends and enjoying the many points of interest in that section of the west before their return.

DIES AT MASONIC HOME

The death of Mrs. Mary C. Mat-tocks, one of the residents of the Nebraska Masonic Home, occurred there Thursday afternoon following a long period of poor health.

The deceased lady was born on May 30, 1859, in Saco, York county, Maine, but had spent the greater part of her lifetime in the west. For a great many years she resided at Beatrice where she was very active in the community life and identified with the work of Vesper chapter No. 9, from which she was admitted to the Home here on April 7, 1933.

The deceased is survived by one son, residing in California. The body is at the Horton funeral home here pending its removal to Beatrice where the funeral services will be held under the auspices of Vesper chapter of the Eastern Star.

Seal S. Davis was at Lincoln Wednesday where he spent some time visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary M. Davis, as well as looking after some business affairs.

Congressman Morehead Backs Banning in Race

Leaders of Party in All Sections Say Banning Is Best Qualified for Governor of Nebraska.

Congressman John H. Morehead, 12 years representative from the First Congressional District of Nebraska, two terms governor of Nebraska, has publicly announced his support of Senator W. R. Banning of Union for governor. Congressman Morehead says:

"Serving with you as I did in the 1911 State Senate and watching your official acts in the many sessions of the legislature since and knowing you personally as a good farmer and businessman I am confident that you will make us a good business governor. I shall vote for you."

Senator Banning is now recognized as the strongest contender for the Democratic nomination for governor. Reports from throughout the state indicate that the party leaders which William Ritchie has been making on behalf of Senator Banning has put Banning in the front, and with Congressman Morehead's endorsement Banning's nomination seems assured. Many other leaders throughout the state, including L. F. Langhorst, former state chairman, are actively working for Banning and state that he is the best qualified man on any ticket for the office he seeks.

Banning is a farmer, has served almost continuously in the state senate since 1909, is a member of the State Board of Agriculture, a former county commissioner, school board member and village trustee. Those who know him say he is the best posted man on state, county and municipal government in Nebraska.

REMINISCING

I fancy I saw you by the moon's flickering ray, And you were all groomed in a suit of beautiful gray.

The moon's soft rays kissed your bushing cheek, And glanced across the marble to one very meek.

Your eyes sparkled like rubies of the first magnitude, And pierced my heart most sensitive and crude.

The moon's light glints and sparkles as spray, And dances like sunbeams over your threads of silver gray.

Which covers a crown and shoulders petite, Round in form and of beauty elite.

Bright lights may fill the canopy within, But never will the effulgence of hues begin.

To show the dazzling streams of golden light, That enveloped your form that eventful night.

NORFOLK PACKERS WIN

From Thursday's Daily The Norfolk Packing Co. kitten-ball team of this city last evening won from the Weeping Water team by the score of 10 to 8 in a close and hotly contested battle.

The first innings showed a fine type of kittenball with the Packers leading the visitors 2 to 1 until in the sixth inning when the Packers started a batting rally that with several errors netted them six runs, they adding two more in the last of the eighth for the winning runs.

Weeping Water was held to one score that they secured in the second inning, until in the ninth when a combination of hits with the errors for good measure brought in seven runs for the visitors and seriously threatened the lead of the Packers.

The box score of the game was as follows:

Table with columns: AB, R, H, PO, A, E. Rows: Phillips, Callister, Carrison, Dixon, Reed, Bickford, Enbury, W. Bickford, Foreman, Chappell.

Norfolk Packers—

PASSES ANNIVERSARY

On August 2, 1881, there arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bestor, residents on the farm west of this city, a son. The parents decided to christen the young man, Frank.

The babe of fifty-three years ago was celebrating his fifty-third anniversary on Thursday and in the passing of the years has grown from the child of the farm days to be one of the leading merchants of the city as well as active in many of the civic affairs of the community.

Mr. Bestor has served the city as councilman from the third ward, his former home and several terms as a councilman from the first ward, being at this time the chairman of the finance committee of the city council.

Mr. Bestor is one of the members of the Bestor & Swatek Co., operating a hardware store and in which he is associated with W. A. Swatek as well as the stockholders of this live organization.

Hoenshell is representing the Omaha Cold Storage company. Speaking of the present very dry conditions, Mrs. Hoenshell was reminded of the summer of 1894, just forty years ago, but said that year was not as severe as this. She looks for pretty close times until another crop can be grown.

Very Busy These Days George R. Sayles, county clerk, is kept very busy at this time, with the ballots to be prepared and distributed and the extra work that comes at this time of year incident to figuring the mill levies for the different cities, villages, school districts and precincts over the county, in order to get the same ready to turn over to the county treasurer's office a few weeks hence, and finds it impossible to get away from the office to make a personal canvass for re-nomination to the position he now fills so efficiently. A few days ago, P. A. Sanborn was in Plattsmouth and Mr. Sayles gave him some of his cards to distribute among the voters in this section of the county. County Treasurer John E. Turner is another who is following the same course as Mr. Sayles, both believing that they can do more good curving the county in the office than by running about the county seeking votes.

Fishing at Pelican Lake John S. Gribble and wife and their son and Mr. and Mrs. Pearley Clymer departed Monday morning for Pelican Lake, North Dakota, where they expect to spend some ten days or two weeks fishing, bathing and having a general good time. While they are away, the store is being looked after by Everett Copes, who is well qualified to look after the business, having had much experience in this line of business.

Underwent Operation John Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stewart, who has been in poor health for some time, was taken with an acute attack of appendicitis on last Sunday and was hurried to the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln early Monday morning, where an operation was performed to give him relief, and since then the condition of the patient has been some better. The appendix had burst before they arrived at the hospital. With the best of care, which the hospital affords, it is expected that John will be able to return to his home in a short time.

in many towns where the banks have all passed out of the picture. Certainly the people are entitled to some sort of banking privileges and this plan seems to just about fill the bill in every respect.

Storing Hay for Winter E. L. McDonald, who has some very fine hay grounds west of the city, has been having some cut and baled and stored in the east building on the south side of Main street, where it will be cared for. Mr. McDonald has a large number of cattle which have good appetites and it will take a lot of hay and grain to fatten them for market.

Announcement I hereby announce the filing of my name for the position of county commissioner to represent the third district of Cass county, subject to the will of the republican voters of the district at the forthcoming primary election on August 14th.

I have resided in Cass county all my life, having been engaged in farming during the years and well know the needs of the community, both as to the physical needs of the roads and the financial conditions facing the people. Should I be elected, I will give the business of the county the same careful consideration that I would my own private business. Those who have the same personal interest in the welfare of the county and its funds are asked to co-operate in this work. Your support is solicited, and will be appreciated.

Among the ball players and many of my friends I am known as "Smiley." This I say in order that all may know who I am and can exercise their best judgment at the polls.
