Lester Bosworth, Bert Austin and Frank Colbert took in the sights at Weeping Water Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. L. Copple, of Alvo, was a caller in Wabash Wednesday afternoon.

Sherman Hardaway and family were in Eagle last Saturday night, where they were visiting friends and attending the band concert which was given there at that time.

H. P. Hinds is the possessor of a pair of fine little goats which are of the milk strain, but has not use for them. Who would like to have them? Drop in and see them if you are interested.

P. H. Clark is walking, supported by a crutch following his accidental injury caused from stepping on a spike. He had the foot taken care of by Dr. Lee at Murdock and is getting along nicely.

Lee Wright, of Omaha, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Austin, was a guest at their home for the past week, enjoying the visit with the grandparents very much. Lee returned to his home in Omaha on last Wednesday evening.

William Reuter has been excavating a basement under his home, placing a foundation under the house and raising the building to a higher level. He is also installing a heating plant and a lighting plant, thus doing much to modernize the home.

The Wabash elevator, under the management of John C. Browne, last week shipped some four cars of corn, notwithstanding the fact that the weather continues hot and dry and there is likelihood of no yield this year due to the drought straining the farmer in the face.

Leslie Bothwell, with a market basket, sauntered out into his garden last Wednesday morning and was able to fill the basket with good ripe tomatoes, for table use and canning. With weather conditions like they have been, Leslie and his mother must know how to grow good tomatoes.

Sustains Severe Injury

While August Reicke was milking one of his cows, an outlaw that had always had to have her foot tied at milking time, to make it safe for anyone trying to milk her, the tethered foot became free, and the cow proceeded to kick with all the force of the well known Missouri mule. The result was that Mr. Reicke's ankle was so badly fractured Dr. L. D. Lee, of Murdock, his physician concluded it best to have the patient removed to a hospital for treatment. The accident occurred a week ago Friday and Mr. Reicke was able to return home the latter portion of the following week.

Sustained Severe Stroke

Mrs. H. P. Hinds, who has not been in the best of health for some time past, sustained a severe stroke Friday of last week, and has since been in a very serious condition. Mrs. Ray Norris has been assisting in her care and with a trained nurse on the job as well, this good woman has been receiving the best of attention. Mrs. W. L. Copple, of Alvo, has also been here aiding in the care of the mother, and Jesse Hinds, a son, when he learned of her condition, hastened from his home in the west to be at her bedside and render all the aid he possibly could. Guy Hinds and wife, of Avoca, also came over and are aiding in her care. It is hoped she may rally from her severe illness and recover.

MRS. H. P. HINDS, PIONEER RESIDENT CALLED TO REST

Mrs. H. P. Hinds passed away Aug. 8, 1934. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon, Aug. 10th from the Evangelical church in Wabash, conducted by Rev. Weber. Interment in the Wabash cemetery. The male quartet of Wabash sang "We Are Going Down the Valley One by One," and "It is Well with My Soul." Miss Margaret Johnson of Weeping Water sang "My Task."

Susie Phillips, daughter of Nelson and Susan Phillips, was born in Alton, Ill., Oct. 2, 1858 and died Aug. 8, 1934 at Wabash, Nebr., aged 76 years, 10 months and 6 days.

On April 18th 1876 she was united in marriage to Horace P. Hinds at Decatur, Nebr., they having celebrated their golden wedding 6 years ago.

To them were born six children, Claud of Loodburn, Ore.; Jess of Burns, Wyo.; Mrs. Grace Copple, Alvo, Nebr.; Mrs. Viola Norris, Weeping Water, Nebr.; Guy of Avoca, and a daughter who died in infancy. Twelve grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren also survive her.

Mrs. Hinds with her husband moved to Harrisburg, Banner county, in 1886, where they endured the hardships of real pioneers in a new country. She was a typical pioneer mother, living as she did 25 miles from town in the days of horse drawn vehicles. She not only served as mother to her family but doctor, nurse, minister, teacher, playmate and all.

Her's was not an easy life but one of many tasks always met with courage.

In 1902 they moved to eastern Nebraska so that her children might have a better opportunity for an education and church life.

They lived two years at Schuyler, Nebr., and in 1904 moved to Wabash where she continued to live until her death. She has been a Christian and an active church member practically all of her life until failing health required her to give it up. She was a loving, devoted wife and mother, one whose greatest joy was in self-sacrificing service for her loved ones.

Relatives attending from a distance were Jess Hinds, Burns, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. Burt Cornelius, Tekamah, Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Raver and sons, Craig, Nebr.; Mrs. Anna Walker and son, Jack, Mrs. Alma Peterson and son, Jerry, Mr. S. S. Farrens of Decatur.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our deepest appreciation of the many acts of kindness shown us at the time of the sickness and death of our dear wife and mother. We also wish to thank those taking part in the funeral services and for the beautiful flowers.—Mr. H. P. Hinds and Children.

ing test and a large number the Junior or Scout Lifesaving test. The following week a school was maintained at the Merritt sand pit swimming pool north of Plattsmouth, where upwards of 1,500 free admissions were provided by the owners of the pool and extensive training given to all of the various groups registered. A goodly number of Senior and Junior life savers, advanced and beginners swimmers were qualified as a result of that week's intensive instruction.

This last week a school was to have been conducted at South Bend, but on account of the pool there being operated on a commercial basis and inability to secure free admission concession for registered students, the proposed school was abandoned at least or the time being.

Mrs. Ray Norris, chairman of this branch of the work, had scheduled a meeting in the hopes of making other arrangements that would permit continuing the instruction, but on account of the serious illness of her mother, was called to Wabash, leaving responsibility of the meeting in the hands of Miss August Robb, the county chairman. Just what will be done, we are not advised at this time, but trust to the Red Cross, they will work out some plan of going on with his important work.

Railroads to Make Fight on Pension Law

Prepare to Ask Injunction Against the Operation of Law Within the Next Few Days.

Suit will be filed in the next few days in the District of Columbia supreme court by attorneys representing 150 lines of railroads in the United States. The action will be to seek injunction to prevent the enforcing of the recent law passed by congress relative to the pensioning of the railroad employees at certain ages or term of service.

The committee of general counsel of railroads headed by R. V. Fletcher, general counsel for the Association of Railway Executives, will file the action, asking the court to enjoin the board from attempting to collect assessments against the railroads and their employees and to declare the law unconstitutional on three points.

Say Constitution Violated. The committee includes Jacob Aronson of the New York Central railroad, S. R. Prince of the Southern railway, E. S. Jonett of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, E. E. McInnis of the Atchison, Toledo & Santa Fe and the B. F. Lyons of the Northern Pacific.

The statute, which provides for assessing employees of all railroads 2 per cent of their pay and railroads 4 per cent of pay rolls, will be attacked, it was said, on the ground that it violates the commerce clause of the constitution under which congress gets its power to regulate interstate commerce. It also will be called violative of the Fifth amendment of the constitution, which prohibits taking property without due process of law.

Deny Classification. The petition to be presented to the court will contend that many thousands of employees who would be affected by the law are not engaged in interstate commerce. Among these, it was said, are clerical forces of the railroads, attorneys, doctors, as well as the heads of railroad labor unions and employees of the retirement board itself.

The violation of the Fifth amendment, the action is expected to argue, would come through assessing railroads and their employees for the benefit of other carriers and workers.

AN OLD TIMER

In the east window of the Wescott store is displayed an article of clothing that is a real novelty to the present generation. This is a "billed" shirt of the eighties and the nineties, stiff bosomed and everything. The shirt was worn forty-five years ago by one of our prominent citizens when he was twelve years old and was a singer in the boy's choir of his church. The president of the Chamber of Commerce is offering a reward for identification of the owner of the shirt, who is on the main streets here every day attending to his work.

MANY ATTEND SERVICE

Those in charge of the tabernacle meeting on Chicago avenue report good interest in the opening service. Rev. Alfred Randall from Omaha brought the opening message while Rev. Bert Randall and his son Dale from Nebraska City brought a very inspiring message in song.

A running time of four hours and twenty-five minutes will be estimated between Kansas City and Lincoln instead of the present eight hours and which will be a great saving in time to the traveling public.

HONOR SCHOOL FRIENDS

Mrs. Jay Grow of Mansfield, Texas, who has been visiting with old friends in this county, was honored guest at the Lewiston community center Tuesday where a pleasant picnic party was staged.

Mrs. Grow has been a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Ray and who arranged the picnic party. Mrs. Grow in her childhood and youth made her home in Rock Bluffs and Lewiston communities and the picnic brought many of those who had attended school together in the years past.

The day was spent in visiting and renewing the associations of the past years when all of the party were young school associates. A fine picnic dinner also featured the occasion.

Those attending were Mrs. Georgia Creamer, Mrs. Belle Frans, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Campbell, John Fitch, of Nehawka, Miss Arleen Woods, Springfield, Missouri, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thompson and children, Glen and Rose Mary, Mrs. Rose and Vesta Clark, Union, Joseph Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Gobelman, Plattsmouth.

DUTIES OF OFFICE PRE-VENT VISITING AROUND

Sheriff Homer Sylvester, in conversation with the Journal man a few days ago, stated that much as he would like to get about and attend the picnics and band concerts over the county, meeting the voters and campaigning for his re-nomination, he is finding it almost impossible to do so, on account of official duties claiming his attention. Homer is not one who will shirk his duties, and his active campaigning has been largely limited to calling on his friends in this or that part of the county while there on business connected with his office, and trusting to their loyalty to boost for his nomination.

He does want the world to know, however, that he will appreciate each and every vote given him.

FUNERAL OF MISS HELL

Thursday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home was held the last services for Miss Anna Hell, whose passing on Monday brought a great deal of sorrow to the large circle of friends in this county.

The ladies choir of the church gave several of the old hymns during the service.

The burial was at Oak Hill cemetery in the family burial plot in that city of the silent.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel made a trip to Havelock and Lincoln last Wednesday.

John Gakemeier was a visitor in Manley last Tuesday, where he was looking after some business matters for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool were visiting in Omaha last Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. George Work and family, driving over and enjoying a very fine visit.

On Tuesday of last week in a game of baseball, which was played between the towns of Murdock and Elmwood, the Elmwood team was the victor by a score of 4 to 2.

M. G. Churchill and little grandson, Clarke, of Murray, were in Murdock last Wednesday evening, where they were visiting for a short time with Oscar McDonald.

Carl Keil, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murdock on Thursday of last week, looking after his chances for nomination to the office of register of deeds on the democratic ticket and meeting his many friends here.

Henry Schlueter and Mrs. Henry Schlapf were in Omaha last Wednesday, where they went to see August Reicke, who was at the hospital for a fractured ankle, which he suffered when kicked by a cow he was milking.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kupke was blessed last Wednesday by the arrival of a fine baby girl who came to reside with the parents. The relatives are all elated and Grandfather Charles Kupke is doing as well as could be expected.

A very pleasant time was had at the Callahan church one evening last week; when the young people gathered to extend to one of their party a pleasant evening, as he is to wed a charming young woman from our neighboring town of Elmwood in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were pleased to receive a visit last Wednesday, August 8th, from E. D. Friend and wife, parents of Mrs. Craig. The occasion was the birthday of Mr. Friend, who is 66 years old, and says he is feeling fine. He carries his age well, and all are hoping he may live to enjoy many more years of life on this earth.

Rev. and Mrs. George Clarke, of Beaver City, where Rev. Clarke is pastor of the Christian church, visited for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ward. Mrs. Clarke and Mr. Ward are brother and sister. After a pleasant stay here, they left for points in Kansas, where they will visit for a short time before returning to their work at Beaver City.

Bobbie McDonald and young Richardson and Hendricks, who started to go to the World's fair, but went west instead, and who, as we told you last week, were picking up potatoes in Oregon, later have been picking apples. They are not averse to accepting work wherever they can get it, and after the work is concluded will eventually go on to the Pacific coast as they want to see the big ocean and watch the golden sun drop into it at the close of day. Good luck to you, boys, on your sight-seeing trip.

Ladies Aid Society Meets

The Ladies Aid Society of the Murdock church met Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. Otto Miller. Following the regular business session, they enjoyed a social period and were entertained by the hostess, Mrs. Miller, in a very pleasant manner with a delightful luncheon.

Changed Street Lighting

The light wires for the street lighting system in Murdock were placed in conduit and buried in underground trenches during the past week, thus doing away with danger of contact with the wires and possible death of anyone from electrocution. A force of men from Omaha, together with a number of local laborers were kept busy for a week making the change. This also does away with a string of unsightly wires up and down Main street and elsewhere about the town.

Injured by Family Cow

When August Reicke went to milk the family cow, which has a rough-neck reputation, there was trouble. The animal, which had to have her foot tied at milking time, in some way got the hobbie off and kicked so viciously that the leg and ankle of August were broken. Dr. L. D. Lee gave temporary treatment and had the patient taken to Omaha to a hospital, where the leg was set and the injuries dressed. Mr. Reicke remained there for a few days before returning home.
