The place is now deserted and is the hiding place for rattlesnakes, and with the darkness that prevails therein is really a most dangerous place to investigate.

Bitten by a Dog

A large dog, which has been considered as being peaceable, last week bit the hand of Mrs. C. E. McCarthy so severely that it was necessary for the doctor to take some thirteen stitches to close the wound inflicted by the canine. Her hand is now getting along very well, but the extreme hot weather makes this kind of a wound very dangerous. Close watch is being kept of the same in order to check any possible infection that may show up and prevent the contracting of blood poison or other complications.

Water Shortage Compels Action

Like other places in this area, there is not any too much water coming from the wells, and the Union waterworks is having difficulty in keeping a reserve supply on hand adequate to meet the demands of an emergency, such as a fire. However, with an economical use of the water by all, it is expected there will be enough to meet the ordinary demands of household use and for culinary purposes, but certainly none for irrigation and lawn sprinkling purposes in this time of threatened shortage.

At a meeting held some time ago, the village council decided every effort should be put forth to conserve the water supply and issued a request that all consumers use only such amounts as necessary. Still some persisted in the watering of lawns and flowers. So the council has passed a resolution to the effect that during the present emergency no water be wasted or consumed for other than household purposes.

Numerous people, including members of the town board, have hauled water in milk cans for watering their flowers and shrubs, but a few others simply would not desist from using the water to sprinkle their lawns and flower gardens and so the officials have been forced to take action and shut off the water of such indifferent users. Everything is going along in fine shape now, and a goodly surplus is being maintained in the supply tank for emergency.

BREX Win from American Legion, Score 9 to 6

Home Runs by Nord and Rhodes Feature Veterans' Game—BREX Have Big Inning.

The BREX kittenball team were the victors over the American Legion team at Athletic park Tuesday evening, taking full advantage of a big inning to accumulate five runs that gave them the contest.

Both teams opened in snappy work that held them scoreless, giving the customers a treat in some excellent work, but in the second round of the game four hits off March gave the Legion two runs while the BREX came back in their half of the inning to take three runs and the lead.

The third inning was the wrecking of the Legion hope when five carmen came over the plate as the result of three hits and several errors.

The Legion was held scoreless until the sixth inning when Cheronic was given a walk and scored when Nord hit for a circuit drive.

In the seventh the Legion scored when Herold was safe on a fielders choice and was resting at the initial sack when "Dusty" Rhodes rapped one of Long's offerings for a home run.

The last run of the BREX was in the sixth when White doubled and scored on the hit of Spidell.

The box score of the game was as follows:

CUPID AFTER TEACHERS

Scottsbluff, Neb.—The fact that cupid is making inroads on the teaching force of the city schools is causing no little annoyance to the board of education. Five teachers have been married since June 1 and several more have made plans to get married soon. Most of the vacancies have been filled and the board will meet within a few days to complete the list. A larger enrollment than last year is predicted when the public schools open on Sept. 4. Scottsbluff junior college will resume on Sept. 5 with several new courses added.

AN APPRECIATION

I wish to thank the voters of Cass county for their support at the past primary election. I am very grateful to my friends and appreciate their co-operation very much.
