

Nehawka

Mrs. Victor Wehrlein and Miss Lois Troop were visiting in Nebraska City for a time last Friday.

Mrs. D. E. Summers has been enjoying a visit from a brother and sister, whom she had not seen for a long time.

Frank Boggs, of Union, was looking after some business matters in Nehawka for a short time on last Monday afternoon.

J. J. Pollard was a business visitor in Omaha last Monday, driving over to the big town in his car for some machinery repairs.

Mesdames Victor Wehrlein and Chloe Stoll were visiting in Lincoln last Wednesday, where they were the guests of relatives and friends as well as looking after some shopping.

A. R. Dowler, of Nebraska City, was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday afternoon and was looking after some business matters for the A. W. Propst Auto company of Nebraska City.

Leo Switzer and Henry Thiele were at Syracuse on last Wednesday, where they were attending the community sale which was held there and were interested in the purchase of some stock.

Walden Switzer, who has been at a hospital in Omaha undergoing an operation for appendicitis, was able to return home again last week and is making fair progress towards returning home.

Little Jack Yeiser, a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm, who underwent a mastoid operation recently is reported as getting along very nicely at this time and gives promise of soon being well again.

L. C. Todd, who has been visiting here for some time past, returned to his home in Los Angeles, and was accompanied by Mrs. Gertrude Wolph, who will visit there for a short time, she having many relatives there.

Raymond C. Pollard, who has been taking his vacation for the past two weeks and spending the time at home, returned to his desk at the offices of the Farmers Oil company, well refreshed and ready for another year of vigorous work.

Mrs. Melvin Stone, who has not been in the best of health for the past few weeks, was taken to the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City on last Saturday, where she is under treatment and observation to ascertain the exact cause of her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Enos Plunkett were over to Omaha last week, taking Mrs. John Opp with them, where she went to see the doctor for a clinic, and will have to return for a more extended examination. Mrs. Opp has been in very delicate health for some time.

Gilbert Edmunds and family are enjoying a two weeks' vacation in the north woods of Minnesota, driving there and expecting to get home before the opening of the schools. While they are gone Fred Hanson is looking after some repairs at the garage.

Verner Lundberg, who has been a patient at the Veterans' hospital in Lincoln for the past several weeks receiving treatment for ill health, including the removal of his teeth, was able to return home the latter part of last week and is feeling greatly improved in health.

Fred Will, who makes his home in Oklahoma, accompanied by the good wife, were visiting for a short time at the home of F. R. Cunningham last week. Mr. and Mrs. Will formerly resided between Nehawka and Murray, but have been away for the past 25 years, making their home in the south.

Marion Pitman, a carrier of the rural mails at Avoca, accompanied by his wife, were guests at the homes of Mrs. Laura Fleischman and Mrs. Robert H. Chapman, both ladies being sisters of Mr. Pitman, and were also visiting with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Pitman, who are making their home with Mrs. Fleischman.

Willard Lewis, of Coleridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lewis, formerly of the neighborhood between Nehawka and Murray, but now making their home in the northern portion of the state, was visiting with his sisters, Mesdames A. G. Cisney, C. H. Peck and Mont Shrader during the past two weeks. He returned to his home on last Monday.

Ruth Jefferson, who was formerly a teacher of music in the Nehawka schools, but who after having had a number of flattering offers, accepted a position in the schools of Geneva, gave a very enjoyable recital at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Summers, which was enjoyed by a large number of specially invited guests. Miss Jefferson's program consisted mainly of piano numbers.

John Tanner, a brother of Mrs. W. O. Troop, who is a rancher out near Yuma, Colorado, made a shipment of cattle to the South Omaha market and also visited with his sister and family for a short time before returning to his home in the west. Speaking of crop conditions where he lives, Mr. Tanner said this is the first time in 25 years that they have not had a good crop of corn.

Mrs. Emma Christwiser, who was so severely injured in an auto wreck some time since and has been at the hospital for some weeks, was able to return home last week and is getting along nicely, but will have to return to the institution for some further treatment. She is doing very nicely and hopes are entertained that she will be able to save the arm which was so badly injured.

Thomas E. Fulton and wife accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stoll, who have been since the closing of the schools at Wayside, where Mrs. Stoll is a teacher, on their trip home, and where all are enjoying a visit at the homes of Mr. Kenlon and Stolls, both the ladies being daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fulton. Mrs. Stoll will remain there to teach again this year, while Gilbert will return here to work and also bring Mr. and Mrs. Fulton home when they have concluded their visit.

Mrs. Hansen Seriously Ill
Mrs. George Hansen, who was able recently to come to Murray to the home of her sister, had to return to the hospital at Omaha and there underwent a major operation. She has since been in a very critical condition. Everything possible is being done for the patient in the hopes that she may rally and regain her health.

Visiting Here from South
Mrs. R. C. Pollard has been enjoying a visit from some of her folks—sisters and nieces and nephews—recently, they being Roger Whitmore and wife and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gray. Mrs. Gray being a sister of Mrs. Pollard and Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore being respectively nephew and niece. They were spending the week end at the Pollard home, having driven from their home to see their sister and aunt, and returning home Monday.

Will Meet at Homestead
The Sturm family reunion, which is an organized institution and has been meeting at a good many different places in recent years, has been set for the old Sturm homestead, where Henry Sturm and wife reside, the date being set for this coming Sunday, September 2nd.

Grinder for Sale
A large Gally Hammer Grinder in excellent condition for sale. Will grind corn fodder as well as other things.—R. B. Stone, Nehawka.

OVERNIGHT GUESTS HERE
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wilson and daughters, Dorothy and Iola, of Sac City, Iowa, spent Saturday night here at the home of Mrs. Wilson's cousin, Elmer Webb, and family, while en route to Arapahoe, Nebraska, for a few days visit with relatives. The Wilson family reside on a farm near Sac City and state that drought conditions there are not nearly as bad as here. They had roasting ears of fair quality coming into maturity last week and the canning factory there was opening its seasonal sweet corn pack. Their visit here was the first time the two cousins had met in more than twenty-five years.

Soon boats will be plying up and down the Missouri, hauling vast cargoes of freight.
