

FIRST FLAG PLACEMENTS

From Friday's Daily
A group of half a dozen golfers were out this morning to play their first round in the combined flag, putting and blind-bogey tournament that begins today and lasts until Sunday evening.

The most interest was evidenced in the flag tournament, which is something new in local golf circles, and the flags are now up at varying distances from the cup, a mark for succeeding players to shoot at.

The closest flag is on No. 7 hole, a distance of only about two feet from the cup, being shot by Fritz Fricke. The lay of the ball after the third shot governs at this hole. Other placements in the flag contest include J. W. Holmes, 1, 2, 6 and 9; R. M. Misner, 3, 4 and 5, and Rev. Pahl, No. 8. The lay of the ball after the driver shot governs on No. 2 and No. 6 holes, both of which were won by Holmes in the initial play.

Gradually the flags will be moved up closer to the cups, as succeeding players make the rounds during the next two days. Each entrant is entitled to two official rounds, with no practice play in between or prior to the first round.

GIVE SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Mrs. William Hansell and Mrs. Edna Jones were hostesses on Thursday afternoon at the Hansell home on South 10th street, to a shower in honor of one of the late summer brides, Mrs. Clifton Hardison, formerly Miss Dorothy McCarthy.

The guest of honor received a large number of handsome and attractive gifts in honor of the event and which will be cherished as remembrances of the many friends.

At an appropriate hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those attending were: Miss Mildred Carlberg, Mrs. Carroll Sutton, Mrs. Fred Forbes, Mrs. Earl Hardison, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Chester Smith, Mrs. Edna Smith, Mrs. Harold Seay, Mrs. Bertha McCarthy, Mrs. Kenneth McCarthy, Mrs. Lester Gaylord, Mrs. Hamilton Mark.

STORES TO REMAIN OPEN

The stores of the city affiliated with the Plattsmouth Ad club will remain open to 9 o'clock on Thursday and Friday of next week during the Korn Carnival. The stores will also be open on Wednesday and Saturday as usual.

Ask Co-Operation of Residents of the County

Chas. Barnard and Art Wetenkamp Want Owners of Saddle Horses Bring Them for Festival.

The committee that has charge of arranging for the parade for Farmers Day on Thursday, September 20th as well as the rural school parade on Saturday, September 22nd, are requesting that all persons in this section who have saddle horses, donate them for use on this day and ride the horses in the two big parades.

The committee had a fine response last year in the farmers' parade and this year they hope to have even a larger number of the horses in the line of the parade both in the Thursday parade and also as a feature of rural school parade day.

Those who have horses that they can use in the parade, if they have not already been seen by the committee, should get in touch with Mr. Charles Barnard or Arthur Wetenkamp who are directing the arrangements of this big feature of the fall festival.

PLAN TO MERGE

President Robert H. Bestor of the Cass County Young Democrats was in Lincoln today at the office of the state secretary in connection with the conversion of the Plattsmouth Young Democrats and the Cass County Young Democrats into the official Democratic Youth organization of this community. The merging of the two organizations would make this Young Democratic Circle one of the strongest political organizations of its kind in the state. This unity has been heartily approved and desired by the state and national authorities in this district.

Primary Season Soon Gives Way to Real Battle

Tickets of the Tow Major Parties in the Diffrent States Are About Made Up.

Washington.—With the end of intra-party contests in the forty-eight states in sight, democratic and republican chieftains shaped final campaign plans for the November elections. Democratic leaders here said they were confident a "new deal" congress would be elected Nov. 6. Republican chiefs expressed belief they would capture between forty and fifty house seats now held by the democrats and retain the senate to choose candidates to oppose each other in November. New York state headed this list. Senatorial and gubernatorial candidates will be chosen at a convention later this month.

Other primaries will be held next week in Wisconsin and Massachusetts, while conventions have yet to name candidates in Rhode Island and New Mexico. Then the campaign seats they now control. The "new deal" will be the campaign issue.

Only a handful of states had yet to be in earnest.

Of the 435 house seats, 432 are to be filled in November. As a result of the Main election, two democrats and one republican already are elected to the ext house and one republican in the senate. Thirty-four senate seats are to be filled, sixteen of which now are controlled by republicans, seventeen by democrats and one by farmer-laborites. In the recent congress democrats held 315 seats, republicans 112 and farmer-laborites five. There are three vacancies.

Democratic leaders were cheered over the returns from primaries in Maryland, where Governor Ritchie and George L. Radcliffe, both democrats, secured enough votes to assure their nomination for governor and senator respectively at the party convention next week. They both polled more votes than the republican candidates.

On the other hand, republicans were encouraged over the big vote their candidates polled in Michigan's primaries Tuesday. They predicted that Senator Arthur Vandenberg, republican, would be re-elected over Frank A. Picard, democratic nominee, and that most of the offices seized by democrats in the 1932 landslide would revert to their columns in November.

PLAN BINDWEED CAMPAIGN

A campaign to get Nebraska farmers to realize the importance of eradicating bindweed from their farms is planned in thirty-four counties, it was announced at the college of agriculture Thursday. Demonstration meetings are being scheduled on farms with Arthur Peterson of the agricultural extension service as the speaker. Agricultural agents outstate will arrange the sessions. The tentative schedule for the meetings by counties:

Dixon, Sept. 17; Cedar, Sept. 18; Knox, Sept. 19; Pierce, Sept. 20; Wayne, Sept. 21; Thurston, Sept. 22; Stanton, Sept. 24; Antelope, Sept. 25; Holt, Sept. 26; Greeley, Sept. 27; Boone, Sept. 28; Butler, Sept. 29; York, Oct. 1; Merrick, Oct. 2; Sherman, Oct. 3; Loup, Oct. 4; Custer, Oct. 5; Adams, Oct. 6; Nuckolls, Oct. 8; Thayer, Oct. 9; Fillmore, Oct. 10; Saline, Oct. 11; Jefferson, Oct. 12; Gage, Oct. 13; Saunders, Oct. 15; Sarpy, Oct. 18; Dodge, Oct. 19; Cass, Oct. 22; Otoe, Oct. 23; Nemaha, Oct. 24; Richardson, Oct. 25; Pawnee, Oct. 26.

RETURNING FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. William P. Kreager, of west of Myrnard, is expecting to return home today or Sunday from Nebraska City where she has been since Thursday at the St. Mary's hospital. Mrs. Kreager was injured in an auto accident on the "O" street road on Thursday and after temporary treatment at Avoca was taken on to Nebraska City for treatment. She received several severe cuts on the face, neck and arm in the shower of broken glass that followed the car collision. Mr. Kreager suffered an injury to his nose but has been able to look after his farm work as usual.

Cass County Young Democrats Make Statement

Give Their Position in Answer to Statement by Local Organization of Young Democrats.

Editor, Plattsmouth Evening Journal, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

In last night's Evening Journal an item was published headed "Local Club Receives National Recognition." This item purported to be the report of an opinion of national officers of the Young Democratic Clubs of America.

We can not believe that this item was written by a member of the Journal staff, but that it was the work of a high-pressure publicity agent of the so-called Plattsmouth Young Democrats, who in seeking to further his club's interests has attacked the Cass County Young Democrats. Although the name of our organization is not mentioned, no other interpretation can be put upon the use of the words "county club." Or "national authorities."

In fairness to our organization we feel that if such opinions have been expressed by any of our national officers, their names should have been mentioned, and not a mere implication, which insofar as the Cass county club knows, is absolutely untrue. We are in complete accord with our national officers, and if they believe that the Plattsmouth Young Democrats should replace us as the official county organization they have failed to inform us of the fact.

The Cass County Young Democrats are working for the good of the party as a whole, and are not seeking personal publicity, either by asking it, or having a bona-fide report of their activities printed. We do not go around bragging about our membership, admittedly smaller than that of the Plattsmouth Young Democrats, but nevertheless all of our members joined because they wanted to, and not because of high-pressure sales tactics. Furthermore, we have absolute proof that others joined the Plattsmouth Young Democrats because they were misled into believing it was the official organization.

It is not the official democratic youth organization in this county, and by its very by-word "Independence," can not even affiliate with the county organization. The spirit of the Young Democratic Clubs of America is co-operation, and we have no room for, neither want any organization which wishes to operate independently.

Although greatly inconvenienced many times because of the similarity of names of the two organizations, we have kept silent until now, making no public attempt to distinguish between our club and the Plattsmouth Young Democrats whom we feel are trading on the national reputation of the Young Democratic clubs, by calling themselves Young Democrats, meanwhile they do not conform with the constitution outlined for our clubs.

Therefore, we feel that inasmuch as the Journal has been an innocent instrument in the aforementioned attack, this answer is deserving of space in an attempt to clarify the situation. Yours very truly,

CASS COUNTY YOUNG DEMOCRATS, Chris H. Bulin, Acting Chairman; Paul Vandervoort, II Secretary.

RETURNS TO COLLEGE

Robert Rea, who is a sophomore at St. Benedict's college at Atchison, Kansas, returned Friday to the college to register and prepare for the opening of the school year. He was taken to Atchison by his father, Fred I. Rea, who was accompanied by John P. Sattler and Frank M. Bestor, they visiting at Humboldt on their way home.

BECK WILL QUIT CONGRESS

Philadelphia. — Representatives James M. Beck, republican, of this city, announced he would retire from congress at the end of his present term. He said he was retiring because congress has "largely ceased to be a deliberative body," and that being "one-four hundredth part of a rubber stamp" no longer appeals to him.

HAVE PLEASANT MEETING

Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met this week at the home of Mrs. Fred G. Morgan with a pleasing number of the membership in attendance. The D. A. R. magazine was reviewed by Miss Caroline Baird while Mrs. R. W. Clement gave a most interesting talk on the history of the constitution of the United States. The chapter is sponsoring a window of old fashioned pictures for the fall festival next week.

The hostess served dainty refreshments at an appropriate hour.

From Saturday's Daily Attorney Jack Devoe of Lincoln was here today to look after some business matters and while here enjoyed a visit with his brother, Superintendent L. S. Devoe and family.
